For Cleansing. Whitening ard Preserving the teeth:—This article is prepared with the greatest care upon scietific principles, and warranted not to contain anything in the slightest degree deleterious to the teeth or gums. Some of our most eminent Dental Surgeons have given their sanction to, and cheerfully recommend it as a preparation of superior qualities for ciean sing, whitening and preserving the teeth. It cleans then readily, rendering them beautifully white and pearly, without the slightest injury to the onamical. It is heating to the gums where they are ul cerated and sore. It is also an excellent disinfactes for old decayed teeth, which are often exceedingly affensive. It gives a rich and creamy traste to the mouth, cleansing it thoroughly, and imparting a delightful fragance to the breath.—In short, it does all that could reas nably be expected of any article of this kind to do. J. C. Aven & Co. Gegis: I feel it may duty to ach having inherited a Scrofulous infection. I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Ulcers on my lands and arms: sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scaly and ears with one seqt, which was painful and leathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejoiced to read in the Gospe, Messenger that you had prepared an atterative (Sarsaponiila), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you and to must be good. I sent to Cincinnatiand got it, and used almost the most less your and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully.

Bg. J. C. Aver: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have cared with it, in, my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wenderful in the care of Vinered and Mercurod Disease. One of my patients had Syphilitic alters in his throad, which were consuming his patient and the tip of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, gured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the alteration had gaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so gensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered exercicating pain in her joints and bones. Set, to, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly romarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the necessities of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Tucipient Consumption, and for the Relict of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Discase.

This is a renedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the gridence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excelence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the suble and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs, as they know, too, the effects of fits remedy, we need had denoted that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.
