LOCAL INTELLIGENCE. The Fourth of July 1861.

Independence day has for a life time been the great national festival of the American people; ever since the meeting of that noble band of patriots sick at Camp Slifer on the 20th of May, was who assembled to declare the Independence of the colonies, this day has been held in joyous remembrance, and its approach never one remembrance of the colonies, this day has been held in joyout one remembrance, and its approach never one remembrance on the colonies of t fails to arouse the patriotism of every American heart. From that glorious -that ever memorable 4th of July 1776 until the present time, this day has been enjoyed in our land as the grand gala day of the year .-Never before has our country presented a scene on this anniversary, such as will be beheld on the coming 4th. On its annual approach it has ever found the hearts of the American people beating in unison, from the lakes to the gulf-from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It has ever found the Banner of the Free floating proudly at every point and strong arms and willing hearts to uphold and defend that flag. It has ever found the Constitution and the Laws honored and obeyed in all the land. How changed the scene! When the sun of the 4th of July 1861 shail rise, its rays will shed light upon a scene tht like of which it never beheld. Acountry rene and torn bleeding and mangled; that proud banner trailed in the dust and trampled upon by traitors; that Constitution and those laws dishonored and disregarded. In view of the condition of affairs the coming anniversary should be celebrated as it never has been before. In every city and county where treason does not oppose and forcibly prevent it, whether in the North or South, the eatier population who are resolved to stand by the Union and live and die under the stars and stripes, should be gathered togather for such a celebration as our fathers loved. If the loyal citizens of the United States unite in one grand celebration all over the land and thus manifest their devotion to the country, it will have an untold effect. While it will cheer up the hearts of those brave men who have volunteered in the detense of the Union, it will also send a thunder-stroke to the black, corrupt hearts of traitors, who are seeking to overthrow our government. Let us, then prepare to cele brate the 4th of July as it has never been celebrated before. The Rebels have resolved not to observe this anniversary hereafter, we suppose, for the sake of consistency. It becomes us, however, who are still loyal, liberty loving citizens of the United States, to honor this as the Nation's Day.

What say the people of Centre county Shall we have a grand Mass Celebration ? We have been convinced since the outhreak of the war that there is no lack of patriotism among the people of our county. Let us evince our patriotism by engaging in this matter zealously. Let there be no Sabbath-School celebrations, no Public School celebrations, no political celebrations; but let a village celebration, por a township celebraattempt was made, on Tuesday night last, between twelve and one o'clock, to perpetrate a robberry on the residence of Mr. John Bayard, on Spring street, near the Presbyterian church. His wife, who was alone at the time, succeeded in arousing the neighbors, upon the appearance of whom the villains beat a hasty retreat before they had accomplished their nefarious undertaking. Mr. Bayard having been engaged in the lightning rod business at one time, had in his possession a sett of superior ladders, and for the double purpose of presering them from thieves and the weather, had placed them under the rear of his dwelling, closing the opening between the floor and ground with boards which were firmly nailed. In order to secure the kilders it was necessary to remove these boards, and in doing so the noise occasioned thereby awoke Mrs. Bayard. Whether the object of the thieves was simply to obtain possession of these ladders for their intrinsic worth, or that they might facilita e the accomplishment of some more extensive felonious enterprise it is very difficult to determine. They were plainly seen by persons residing on the opposite side of the street, and are said to have had a small concealed light with them. Suspicion rests upon certain parties, but no arrests have been made. - Watchman.

Anonymous Notices.

During last week sev eral notices were posted in different places, in town notifying the colored people to leave immediately. These notices were signed 'many citizens' but were, of course, stuck up by some wag 'spilen for fun.' There are some colored people in this town who are honest and industrious, who earn their bread by the sweat of their brow; this portion of them should be protected by law and permitted to remain among us. There are a number of colored persons, however, who are too lazy to do anything but steal and lay around the corners. This class should be forced to emigrate, before the hot weather comes, for-whew! The above is the sentiment of a large number of our citizens, and while the industrious portion of this people have nothing to fear, these lazy, lounging, theiring rascals must reform or our citizens may take decided action in their case.

From Rebersburg.

From a letter written by a gentleman in Rebersburg, we get the folburial of Charles H. Winter:

The deceased was a son of Mr. Samuel Winter, was born June 26th 1844. He left home on the 22nd of April, joined the Curtin Guards at Camp Curtin, for three months service, and subsequently at Camp Slifer, only a few days prior to his death, he enlisted for the term of three years. He took Simon Spangler, both of Miles twp., and members of the same company, had his remains placed in a metallic coffin, and startwith them for Rebersburg, where they arrived or the morning of the 23rd at 7 o'clock. The funeral took place at four o'clock in the evening, and was attended by a military company under command of Gen. Buchanan, the Union Sabbath School, of which the deceased was formerly an officer, and a larger number of citizens than ever convened in the village before. The deceased was an exemplary member of the M. E. Church. Rev. DeMoyer efficiated as minister on the occasion, but a most remarkable incident occurred, interupting the ceremonies. The body had been placed in the grave, the mourning friends had listened to the dull, painful sound of the falling earth, and with sad hearts and tearful eyes turned from the grave and repaired to the sanctuary to hear the word of the Lord. The hymns bad been sung and a prayer offered. The man of God arose in his place, the stillness of death pervaded the house; he announced his text, and scarcely had the last words escaped his lips when the wild cry fire! fire!! broke in upon the stillness and solemnity of the the occasion .-Consternation and confusion filled the house. The congregation made a rush for the door and soon reached-the scene of the conflagration. The house of Mrs. Young was on fire and the flames spreading with astonishing rapidity soon caught the school house. These two building were consumed, and it was only by the exertion of the large number of people present that the surrounding buildings were saved from the same fate. The funeral sermon will be preached at another duty to record the death of this young man, He came to this office as an apprentice about two years and a half ago. During the entire time he remained with us he proved himself to be worthy and industrious, and always took pride in performing every duty required at his hand, and ever received instruction with thankfulness. When the call was made for volunteers he was one of the first to enroll his name. He went with the Fencibles, was with them during their stay at Camp Curtin, at Cockeysville and finally at Camp Scott. It was at this point that he took sick. He was taken to the hospital where he lay sick for about two weeks and us have one grand patriotic celebration -not expired on the morning of the 30th ult. His disease was inflamation of the brain. The entire population of the surrounding neighborhood appeared be present to do the last honors to the remains of their young friend. As we followed in the procession and listened to the solemn rolling of the muffled drum, we thought how many poor fellows would be followed in like manner to their last resting place, before the close of this war. Poor George was the first of the Fencibles to die in the service of his country. Who will be the next? God only knows!

CAMP CURTIN, HARRISBURG, PA.

Dear Sister:
I left home with no intention of entering the army, but I met Capt. Stover, in Bellefonte, on Court Week, and he wanted men for his company, and I enlisted.—
I concluded the name of Lucas should never be disgraced, that the Stars and Stripes must be sustained and the government maintainthey handed down to us, and dear Sister, so help me God I will never return home un-til the old Flag is vindicated and the South-ern rebels and nigger drivers, are compelled to lay down their arms and once more be-come loyal citizens. Our cause is a rightit will be in the defence of the poor man's rights, in the defence of human liberty. Pray for me and keep me in holy remem-brance. And rest assured, that I will nev er disgrace the name of Lucas, Fether fought with the gallant Perry on Lake Erie, he gained honor and a name for the family that your brother will never disgrace. I came to fight and I will fight. I want no settlement of this thing until negro slavery is wiped out forever and the nabobs of the South are taught that it is dangerous business to rebel against the old Stripes. I am well, in good spirits and "spilen for a fight." The Snowshoe boys are all well. Your Affectionate Brother. JESSE G. LUCAS.

Teachers will find in it much that they will like to read will find in it much that they will like to read to their classes—interesting matter prepared to their hands, and such as they cannot find elsewhere. For the same reasons, members of Bible-classes, and older scholars generally, will be greatly benefitted by the perusal of this paper.

The Sunday School Times has every week a report of the choisest matter, selected from the NOON PRAYER-MEETINGS, which are so instance in all classes of Christians.

telligence, the Sunday School Times containes all the most recent Sunday school news. It reports all important CONVENTIONS of Sunday-school teachers. It discusses the questions which most interest and perplex teachers and parents, respectively. interest and perplex teachers and parents, respectig the various methods of religious training for the young, the means of gaining the attention and the affections of children, and especially of securing their converson and bringing them to Christ. The subject of MISSION-SCHOOLS for cities, and of Sunday-school missionary work for the interior, is thoroughly canvassed. Indeed, there is hardly a topic of practical importance to any who are interested in the subject of religious education, which is not here brought under consideration from week to week.

Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ain, writes, "A dan gerous overian tumor on one of the females in my family which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsapatilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of you, Sarsaparilla as the last report before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains."

Dr. J. C. Ayes: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found in; effects truly wonderful in the care of Venereal and Mercurial Disease. One of my pajionts had Syphillik ulcers, in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Suraparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attached by secondary dyniptons in his nece, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disprise of the mount of the content of t

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones. GREEN'S DRUG AND VARIETY TORE. A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanne, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia. Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorons action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the necessities of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

This is recedy so universally known to surpass any This is a renedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of threat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangeroffs disorders of the threat and, lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.
