

Notice to Collectors. Notice is hereby given to the collectors of State and County tax in Centre County, to collect the amount due upon their respective tax returns, and pay it over immediately...

Subscription of the Relief Fund. The following card has been issued by the Board of Relief of this county, and the importance of an immediate compliance with its demands is apparent:

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS' OFFICE, Bellefonte, June 12, 1861. It is imprudently necessary that the second installment of the Soldiers' Relief Fund of Centre county be immediately paid over to the County Commissioners...

Letting Politics Alone. In the Democratic Watchman of May 23d we find an article headed "The Democracy and the Crisis" which gives an account of a Democratic meeting held in Beech Creek township...

The Cause of the War. We call the attention of our readers to the following extract from a letter written by J. C. Calhoun, as early as 1812, to Commodore Stewart, better known as "Old Inside" now in his eighty-fourth year.

Massachusetts & South Carolina. We occasionally hear the assertion that Massachusetts and South Carolina are the two extremes of which it would be a blessing if the people of this country could rid themselves.

WAR NEWS.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—There is a new source of information, by which the Government is obtaining knowledge of traitors in the north. At the closing of the Southern mail service, all letters directed to Southern States were ordered to be sent to the dead letter office.

IMPORTANT FROM THE SEAT OF WAR! ADVANCE OF TROOPS. A FATAL MISTAKE. FIRING UPON FRIENDS. REPULSE OF UNITED STATES TROOPS.

BALTIMORE, June.—This has been an exciting and sorrowful day at point Comfort. Gen. Butler having learned that the rebels were forming an entrenched camp with batteries at a Great Bethel, and he deemed it necessary to displace them.

Letting Politics Alone. In the Democratic Watchman of May 23d we find an article headed "The Democracy and the Crisis" which gives an account of a Democratic meeting held in Beech Creek township...

The Cause of the War. We call the attention of our readers to the following extract from a letter written by J. C. Calhoun, as early as 1812, to Commodore Stewart, better known as "Old Inside" now in his eighty-fourth year.

Massachusetts & South Carolina. We occasionally hear the assertion that Massachusetts and South Carolina are the two extremes of which it would be a blessing if the people of this country could rid themselves.

WAR NEWS. WASHINGTON, June 9.—There is a new source of information, by which the Government is obtaining knowledge of traitors in the north. At the closing of the Southern mail service, all letters directed to Southern States were ordered to be sent to the dead letter office.

IMPORTANT FROM THE SEAT OF WAR! ADVANCE OF TROOPS. A FATAL MISTAKE. FIRING UPON FRIENDS. REPULSE OF UNITED STATES TROOPS.

BALTIMORE, June.—This has been an exciting and sorrowful day at point Comfort. Gen. Butler having learned that the rebels were forming an entrenched camp with batteries at a Great Bethel, and he deemed it necessary to displace them.

Letting Politics Alone. In the Democratic Watchman of May 23d we find an article headed "The Democracy and the Crisis" which gives an account of a Democratic meeting held in Beech Creek township...

The Cause of the War. We call the attention of our readers to the following extract from a letter written by J. C. Calhoun, as early as 1812, to Commodore Stewart, better known as "Old Inside" now in his eighty-fourth year.

Massachusetts & South Carolina. We occasionally hear the assertion that Massachusetts and South Carolina are the two extremes of which it would be a blessing if the people of this country could rid themselves.

WAR NEWS. WASHINGTON, June 9.—There is a new source of information, by which the Government is obtaining knowledge of traitors in the north. At the closing of the Southern mail service, all letters directed to Southern States were ordered to be sent to the dead letter office.

IMPORTANT FROM THE SEAT OF WAR! ADVANCE OF TROOPS. A FATAL MISTAKE. FIRING UPON FRIENDS. REPULSE OF UNITED STATES TROOPS.

BALTIMORE, June.—This has been an exciting and sorrowful day at point Comfort. Gen. Butler having learned that the rebels were forming an entrenched camp with batteries at a Great Bethel, and he deemed it necessary to displace them.

Letting Politics Alone. In the Democratic Watchman of May 23d we find an article headed "The Democracy and the Crisis" which gives an account of a Democratic meeting held in Beech Creek township...

The Cause of the War. We call the attention of our readers to the following extract from a letter written by J. C. Calhoun, as early as 1812, to Commodore Stewart, better known as "Old Inside" now in his eighty-fourth year.

Massachusetts & South Carolina. We occasionally hear the assertion that Massachusetts and South Carolina are the two extremes of which it would be a blessing if the people of this country could rid themselves.

WAR NEWS. WASHINGTON, June 9.—There is a new source of information, by which the Government is obtaining knowledge of traitors in the north. At the closing of the Southern mail service, all letters directed to Southern States were ordered to be sent to the dead letter office.

IMPORTANT FROM THE SEAT OF WAR! ADVANCE OF TROOPS. A FATAL MISTAKE. FIRING UPON FRIENDS. REPULSE OF UNITED STATES TROOPS.

BALTIMORE, June.—This has been an exciting and sorrowful day at point Comfort. Gen. Butler having learned that the rebels were forming an entrenched camp with batteries at a Great Bethel, and he deemed it necessary to displace them.

Letting Politics Alone. In the Democratic Watchman of May 23d we find an article headed "The Democracy and the Crisis" which gives an account of a Democratic meeting held in Beech Creek township...

The Cause of the War. We call the attention of our readers to the following extract from a letter written by J. C. Calhoun, as early as 1812, to Commodore Stewart, better known as "Old Inside" now in his eighty-fourth year.

Massachusetts & South Carolina. We occasionally hear the assertion that Massachusetts and South Carolina are the two extremes of which it would be a blessing if the people of this country could rid themselves.

WAR NEWS. WASHINGTON, June 9.—There is a new source of information, by which the Government is obtaining knowledge of traitors in the north. At the closing of the Southern mail service, all letters directed to Southern States were ordered to be sent to the dead letter office.

IMPORTANT FROM THE SEAT OF WAR! ADVANCE OF TROOPS. A FATAL MISTAKE. FIRING UPON FRIENDS. REPULSE OF UNITED STATES TROOPS.

BALTIMORE, June.—This has been an exciting and sorrowful day at point Comfort. Gen. Butler having learned that the rebels were forming an entrenched camp with batteries at a Great Bethel, and he deemed it necessary to displace them.

Letting Politics Alone. In the Democratic Watchman of May 23d we find an article headed "The Democracy and the Crisis" which gives an account of a Democratic meeting held in Beech Creek township...

The Cause of the War. We call the attention of our readers to the following extract from a letter written by J. C. Calhoun, as early as 1812, to Commodore Stewart, better known as "Old Inside" now in his eighty-fourth year.

Massachusetts & South Carolina. We occasionally hear the assertion that Massachusetts and South Carolina are the two extremes of which it would be a blessing if the people of this country could rid themselves.

WAR NEWS. WASHINGTON, June 9.—There is a new source of information, by which the Government is obtaining knowledge of traitors in the north. At the closing of the Southern mail service, all letters directed to Southern States were ordered to be sent to the dead letter office.

IMPORTANT FROM THE SEAT OF WAR! ADVANCE OF TROOPS. A FATAL MISTAKE. FIRING UPON FRIENDS. REPULSE OF UNITED STATES TROOPS.

BALTIMORE, June.—This has been an exciting and sorrowful day at point Comfort. Gen. Butler having learned that the rebels were forming an entrenched camp with batteries at a Great Bethel, and he deemed it necessary to displace them.

Letting Politics Alone. In the Democratic Watchman of May 23d we find an article headed "The Democracy and the Crisis" which gives an account of a Democratic meeting held in Beech Creek township...

The Cause of the War. We call the attention of our readers to the following extract from a letter written by J. C. Calhoun, as early as 1812, to Commodore Stewart, better known as "Old Inside" now in his eighty-fourth year.

Massachusetts & South Carolina. We occasionally hear the assertion that Massachusetts and South Carolina are the two extremes of which it would be a blessing if the people of this country could rid themselves.

WAR NEWS. WASHINGTON, June 9.—There is a new source of information, by which the Government is obtaining knowledge of traitors in the north. At the closing of the Southern mail service, all letters directed to Southern States were ordered to be sent to the dead letter office.

IMPORTANT FROM THE SEAT OF WAR! ADVANCE OF TROOPS. A FATAL MISTAKE. FIRING UPON FRIENDS. REPULSE OF UNITED STATES TROOPS.

BALTIMORE, June.—This has been an exciting and sorrowful day at point Comfort. Gen. Butler having learned that the rebels were forming an entrenched camp with batteries at a Great Bethel, and he deemed it necessary to displace them.