Irvin Gregg was formed in the Diamond and proceeded to the Court room where a meeting was organized by calling Hon Andrew Gregg to the chair. Before taking the chair the President made some-patriotic remarks. He assured the soldiers that although his services were not accepted, when offered at Harrisburg, on account of his age, that his heart was with them. Ad Iresses were delivered by H. N. McAllis ter and Rev. Thomas Sherlock. A prayer was offered by Rev. James Linp. The meet ing then adjourned and the company went to the Pernavivania House and the Conrad House for dinner. After dinner the company marched to the residence of Mr. William Harris where H N. McAllister, on part of the ladies of Bellefonte and Milesburg pre. sented each member of the company with a flannel shirt and a havelock. Capt. Gregg returned the thanks of the company. They then marched to the outskirts of town where wagons were waiting to convey them to Lew-On last Thursday this company paid our town a visit.
