LOCAL INTELLIGENCE. The Captured Volunteers.

Since the time of the capture of a portion of our Centre co. volunteers, by a lot of Rebel Cavalry, rumors have been affoat to the effect that they were brutally treated. The following letter to the Harrisburg Telegraph, rather contra-

CAMP PIERPORT, Martinsburg, Va., July 11, 1861. EDITOR HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH .- Sir-I see in your paper of yesterday a statement in regard to the men captured on the 2d isst., in which it is said they are "brutally and outrageously treated." I hope you will endeavor to correct that impression, as one calculated to give great and unnecessary pain to the friends of the soldiers. I have the best authority (the declaration of a respecta-ble Union man of this place, who fed the prisoners while passing through the place.) for the declaration that they were as well treated as was possible in the midst of a has-ty retreat. There were nine of the men from Centre county, from Potter's Mills and vi-cinity—one from the Loop. Six were from Mifflin county, and the rest from Schuylkill. The man killed was named Canaharn, of Minersville. Lieutenant Smith, U. S. army, was in command of the company, which was in advance of the regiment, probably half a mila Captain Hess was only saved from canture by having gone to the right to halt having become suspic ous of the characof the cavalry. The cavalry wore U. S.

tured, I have taken great pains to find out all the facts in regard to this unfortunate ocmenced failing off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was almost nutriely bereft or its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head short'y after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more insimate acquaintances were not recognize me at all.

I stone made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but, receiving no assurance from them illitary companies, not in the immediate service. The most of the arms from this county have been sent off. We are told that some of the military in the lower part of the county refused to give up their arms. If such be the case, the arms should be taken by force, and the men dealt with as their actions deceive. No loyal man would be guilty of such an act.

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 21st, 1858.
PROF. WOOD:—Thee wilt please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to abtain stuff for caps. I have not been able to abtain stuff for caps neither have I been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hourges almost the last cent I had on earth for a true delice bottle of the Harry Restoration & About uniforms, and, as stated by prisoners since captured, were two bundred strong. The company were deployed in pairs, at considerable distance from each other, and the left was last seen entering the woods, being 12 men under Lieut. Hutchison. These and all the centre were taken except a few. There were forty-bree taken and one killed. They killed one of the enemy, and Capt. Hess captured his horse.

As I am a brother of the Lieutenant captured his horse.
