SPONDENCE, containing important news, solicit-any part of the county. No communications unless accompanied by the real name of the Local Department.

-Lock Haven is agitating itself over pedestrianism. --The new sign before S. & A. Loeb' store is neat and attractive. -Saturday last was a busy day and taxed the endurance of our merchants. -Instead of the snow, the beautiful snow now splashing through the mud we go. -James H. Murdoch, the celebrated elocutionist, was in Altoona last Friday. -Brilliant flashes of lightning, the first of the season, were visible Tuesday night. -Monte Ward, Bellefonte's base-ballist will play for the Providence club this sea-

-Editor Kurtz, of Centre Hall, was in town on Monday. He favored us with a call. -Rev. S. A. Taggart, State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was in Altoona on Mon day.

-Rev. Yocum was ill again on Sunday and unable to hold his customary evening service.

-The revival at the Milesburg M. E church has closed with about one hundred conversions.

-Revivalistic meetings, which have me with much success, are being conducted at Marsh Creek.

-No extra price asked for reserved seats at the entertainment of Robert J. Knight on Monday the 24th.

-His Honor, Judge Mayer is presiding over court this week with his usual dignity, impartiality and ability.

-Memorial services over the remains of Bayard Taylor will be performed in New York at 2 P. M. to-day.

-Last Saturday was Dick Harris' birthday, which he celebrated by entertaining his friends at the Bush House.

-- On and after this date, overcoats will be sold at cost at Newman's Eagle Clothing Hall. Remember this. 2-tf

-Robert J. Knight's entertainment. which takes place on the 24th, will be the most delightful yet given this season. -Mrs. John Swarms, a lady living at Pleasant Gap, we are informed, expired quite suddenly one night of last week. -Clement Dale, Esq., is the skillful physician who performs on the organ for the benefit of the Lutheran church.

-The ladies' Thursday afternoon temperance prayer meeting will be held to-day and until further notice in the Logan Hose

-Last Sunday Rev. W. A. Biggert, pastor of the Baptist church of this place, conducted the afternoon services at State College.

-The Lenten services in the Episcopal church are attracting attention and are well attended. This is particularly cheering to the Rector.

-A serious accident happened to a valuable part of the machinery at the Valentine iron works on Saturday afternoon.

-The "Reading and Orchestral Association," of Philipsburg, realized $57.35 by their entertainment on Saturday, March 1.

-A $12,000 fire occurred at Altoona on Saturday morning, occasioned by the burning of Anderson & Metzgar's steam flouring mill.

-Clearfield has a lodge of twenty-five Good Templars. Bellefonte has a number of Templars, but we doubt as to whether they can be called "Good."

-A new law firm has been formed in Clearfield by Frank Fielding, W. D. Bigler and S. V. Wilson, Esqs. The firm card may be found in another column.

-The Snow Shoe train ran off the track when below the mill Saturday afternoon, causing a delay not only of that train, but lso of the 4:30 o'cl -A reward of $25 has been offered by the Chief Burgess for the detention and conviction of the person or persons who are engaged in the dog-poisoning business.

-Mr. Wilkinson's establishment, on Allegheny street, is a very inviting place to enter. Neat signs have been placed in position on each side of the entrance.

-Lycoming county thinks it will be easier for her to send her penitentiary canlidates to Philadelphia than to Huntingdon, and would like to be transferred from the Middle to the Eastern District

-There is a law and also a borough ordinance which prohibits cigar stores from being kept open on Sunday. Some of the proprietors of these stores, judging by their actions, are ignorant of this fact.

-Rev. Laurie last Sunday morning informed his congregation how to observe the Sabbath, and hereafter there will be more boot-polishing and tonsorial operations performed on Saturday night and not to many on Sunday morning.

-Mr. Foster Tate, an old and respected resident of this county, died on Sunday evening at 11 o'clock. He lived for many years on a farm belonging to Mr. William Humes, near this place. His funeral occurred yesterday noon.

-We wish to call special attention to the opening of J. H. Bauland, which will occur next week. He is a first-class business man and will have the most elegant tock of dry goods and millinery ever brought to this town. Call at his store of Allegheny street, and examine his goods.

-A good advertisement in a newspaper pays no fare on railroads, costs nothing for hotel bills, gives away no boxes of cigars to customers' wives, drinks no whiskey under the head of traveling expenses, but goes at once and all the time about its business, free of expenses.

-Our merchant friend, J. Newman, Jr. has just received a fresh invoice of beautiful fabrics for the manufacture of boys' and men's suits. These he is able to make up as cheaply as other stores make inferior articles of clothing. Call and leave your order for a new suit before the choicest pieces are gone.

-Religious meetings, says the Philipsburg Journal, are disturbed by the illbehavior of some of the young folks of that place. Organize a free reading room or some resort where the friendless waifs of the place can learn good manners. It is the best way possible to inculcate respect for religious affairs.

-Mrs. Nannie Orbison, of this place, has been in attendance upon the sessions of the auxiliary association of the Presbyterian Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. which met at Huntingdon recently, and entertained the meeting with some remarks upon the subject drawn from her rich experience in missionary fields.

-Rev. N. H. Miller, who has been ministering to the Presbyterian churches of Osceola and Philipsburg, has resigned his former charge. The church at Philipsburg will soon dedicate a new edifice to the service of God, and the reverend gentleman will remain with that congregation until after the dedication ceremonie

-The pedal extremity of a vicious mule ame in contact with the face of Eugene Miller, of Centre Hall, a short time ago, while he was at the mountain saw mill. It was one of those concussions which, although it may have been a manifestation of the playful nature of his muleship, was not very pleasant to the aforesaid Eugene.

-One of the most absent-minded men ve have heard of attended one of the Lock Haven churches last Sunday. The day being balmy, he carried his overcoat, as he supposed, on his arm, but the laughing of the people in church directed his attention to the fact that he had taken his every-day pantaloons, and that the suspenders at tached to them were dangling about his legs.

-A recent number of the Harrisburg

-"The largest audience of the seaso gathered at the Presbyterian church on Monday evening, to hear the entertainment given by Alfred J. Knight, which was the most enjoyable and meritorious of any ever given in Ilion. Mr. Knight is a fine elocutionist, and possesses great dramatic power, and is on the road to very high uccess in his chosen profession." We clip the above from the Ilion (N. Y.) Citizen, of January 25, 1878, and would call the attention of our readers to the fact that Mr. Knight gives one of his elegant and refined entertainments in Humes' Hall Monday evening, March 24, at a reasonable price of admission. You can secure your seats at Blair's a week in advance without extra charge.

-The Raftsman's Journal tells of an event which was unusually sad resulting in the death of two persons, the second of which occurred on Sunday week. Miss Blanche Bloom, daughter of Mrs. Leah Bloom, who resides between Clearfield and Curwensville, was taken to the Asylum of the Insane at Danville, Pa. On Sunday a dispatch announcing her death was received by the mother, who, on hearing the distressing news, immediately fell over in a swoon and expired the following night. Mrs. Bloom was sixty years of age and a sister-in-law of Eli Bloom, Esq., Prothonotary of Clearfield county.

-The members of the new choir which has been formed in the M. E. Church are as follows: Dr. R. L. Dartt is commanderin-chief (Mrs. Dartt will have that position about the time his new house is built) Chief Burgess Hastings and Her Majesty Mrs. Burgess, (the youthful Burgess will practice the scales at home in their abence); Miss Sallie McGinley; Miss Lizzie Campbell (the popular school teacher) ; Mrs. Brachbill (who should take Mr. B. with her); and Mr. Durbin Gray (whose music can only be equalled by his good looks).

-The warm, dry weather will soon put the roads in good condition, when those who have the pedestrian fever may try it by taking an economical journey to the West. It is only necessary to be a good walker, be able to swim a few broad rivers, and be acquainted with the tramps' alphabet to get a good square meal, and behold you are equipped. It will only take a couple of months to perform the journey, and if the great West should not meet your expectations you can retnrn the same sum-

-Muncy is to receive an accession to its pulation and Willliamsport will lose one of its most reliable business men when Willam A. Krouse, Esq., removes to the former place, as he announces his intention of doing soon. He has had many business engagements with our citizens as general agent for the Lycoming Insurance company, and wherever he goes wins friends. He is held in high esteem by the company he represents and removes to Muncy for the purpose of being near business headquarters.

-We are informed that a few dogs have received doses of poison of late and have uccumbed to its effects. It has created no visible diminution, however, in the number of curs that render the hours of night melodious by barking at the moon. Perhaps it would be much better to shoot the dogs than to use poison, as by that means really objectionable canines could be popped off, and those for which some use in the world has been discovered may be preserved.

-Samuel H. Collon & Co., a Philadelphia firm, were first awarded the contract for building the reservoir and laying waterpipe for the Middle Penitentiary at Huntingdon. The bid of the firm was $5,165. but not being able to furnish security for the accomplishment of the work, the Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin says it was afterward re-let to the next highest bidder. W. W. Morrison, of Lock Haven, for -Monday was a pleasant day and brought a number of pleasant people to visit us. Thomas J. Mingle, of Aarons burg, and A. E. Wolf, of Miles township, were among the number.

-Mr. Benjamin Schrock, residing on Bishop street, we regret to learn, received a severe stroke of paralysis on Sunday afternoon last. One side of his body is affected. He was a little better yesterday morning.

-Philip Barnhart, Esq., of Boggs township, who is well known throughout the county and one of the most genial and humorous individuals in it, gave us a call Monday afternoon. We hope he will find it his convenience to come in this direction frequently.

-We were glad to meet P. W. Mc-Dowell, Esq., of Howard, on last Tuesday -his first visit to Bellefonte, we believe, since his late serious illness. Though still showing the effects of sickness, we are pleased to state that Mr. McD. is in a fair way to recover his usual health.

-If we remember correctly, last fall there was a crossing on Allegheny street just before the entrance to Hicks & Co.'s hardware store. But now, alas! like the city of Pompeii, it has vanished 'neath the rubbish of winter. Wont some one just dig down to see if the crossing is still there

Judge Franck was early at Court last Monday morning, and after the adjournment in the afternoon took occasion to spend a few moments pleasantly in our sanctum. He is an excellent Associate Judge and one of the many intelligent men who claim Miles township as their home.

-The Millheim Journal conveys to us the news that six new houses are to be erected in that place. We are glad to hear that there is one place in the county that is doing itself credit. Mr. Abraham King is among these enterprising builders. He is sugaged in hauling lumber for a substantial frame house on North street.

-Clarence A. Johnson, the handsom young hotelist and also of Brazilian fame. who is well known in Bellefonte, will next month take charge of the National Hotel, Shamokin, Pa. His experience in the Crawford House, Williamsport, and the St. Elmo, of Philadelphia, qualifies him to make the National a success.

-Lewisburg has a Roller Skating Association and a skating rink, which is expected to be self-sustaining. Now if she will form associations for the promotion of base ball, cards, dancing, billiards, and such recreations, it will not be long ere she will have more charitable (?) and beneficent (?) institutions than any town in the state

-Mr. James Fannon, who had the misfortune to have his house completely destroyed by fire a short time ago, was without insurance. He is now staying at the ouse of his friend Mr. Clark. It is his intention to build again, and not only to rebuild but to keep up an insurance hereafter, no matter how stringent the times may be. -Senator Alexander has introduced a supplement to the game law which provides that the time for hunting deer shall be from September 15th to the 1st of Janary following, preventing the chasing of deer with dogs and allowing the trailing of a wounded deer with a dog chained or tied to the person of the hunter. The change, if adopted, will prove acceptable o sportsmen.

-The youthful part of the population of Centre Hall and Pleasant Gap combined at the house of Mr. Eckenroth, of the latter place, to make Monday evening, March 3, one of the happiest occasions imaginable The entire evening was spent in frolic and fun. Of course, the Pleasant Gap band, which is always around on such occasions. serenaded the gay party, and by its acceptable music won their unanimous thanks Williamsport, the Philadelphia Record and City Clerk Bunnell repaired to Bloomsburg to confer with Judge Elwell about having the city treasury so far unlocked as to enable the Treasurer to pay the employes of the city government, who are now in need of their money. About $3,000 is now due and tied up by the injunction. Mr. Bunnel showed that it would take about $21,000 to meet the necessary expenses of the city until something is realized on the new duplicate, which will not be before September. Mr. Bentley, of counsel for Baird & Shenk, who hold city bonds, claimed that from four to six thousand dollars would be sufficient. After hearing arguments the Court ordered that the Treasurer shall pay the costs already accrued on this bond case, which amount to $314, out of money now in his hands. The Treasurer is furthermore enjoined from paying the interest now on the first $200,-000 of bonds, which are not in dispute, and which is now due and amounting to over five hundred dollars. The Court will make an order in a few days in reference to the request submitted by the officers The money now in the city treasury amounts to about sixteen thousand dollars.

-The telephone which is in operation between the Bellefonte & Snow Shoe railroad office, in this place, and Snow Shoe, works very successfully and on Monday and Tuesday was visited by many people interested in the recent developments of cience. Words spoken in low tones can be distinctly heard by persons at the other end of the line. Some very laughable occurrences sometimes happen. For instance, Tuesday evening, while a gay party wer interviewing the machine, a dog outside the railroad office here uttered a few loud barks. A lady remarked that his dogship must be at Snow Shoe. This caused those in the room to laugh. The persons at Snow Shoe heard the laugh and inquired the cause. It is evident that when these machines are near it will be necessary for ladies to be very cautious and not talk so much as they are accustomed to. Mr. Bond Valentine and Mr. Butts, who were at Snow Shoe Tuesday night, sent appropriate messages to their friends at home The message of Mr. V., however, was rather alarming, as he said he had eaten three quarts of oysters and had the headache.

-Mr. Robert Foster, of State College, while attending to his horse last Sunday morning, accidentally stumbled and fell striking his head on the edge of a door. He received a deep and bloody gash above his right eye. He immediately ran for aid, and meeting a student, Mr. Frank Woolley, who has had some experience in such matters, the wound was closed and washed. Owing to skillful hands and quick work little blood was lost. It was a serious accident, and the great wonder is that the eye was not destroyed.

-Another party of emigrants departed from Centre county on Tuesday afternoon for homes in the West. The number wa not quite so large as usual. They were J J. McClellan, of Buffalo Run, to Nebraska ; Levi Myers, of Buffalo Run, to Nebraska ; C. F. Bitner, Potter, to Freeport, Ill.; A. W. Love, Tusseyville, to Kansas City; William Meiss, Tusseyville, Kansas City; Jesse Dunlap and son, Farmers' Mills, to Salina, Kansas

-Rev. H. Lynn, pastor of the Pine Grove M. E. church, intends to leave his present place of residence and remove to Shelby county, Iowa. Mr. Linn has gained many friends wherever he has been and his departure will be deeply felt by all who may know him, and his loss to the Pine Grove church will be one not easily made good. He leaves with the best wishes of his friends and hopes that he may have a happy home in the distant land.

REV. W. T. WYLIE .- This reverend gentleman has made another change, and says that on Tuesday City Solicitor Wat- is now about locating himself as pastor son, Treasurer Longsdorf, Controller Ott over a flourishing Presbyterian congregation at Butler, Pa. We hear his salary will be $3,000 per annum, which will prove very acceptable. Many persons of the Butler congregation had heard him preach at this place and other points and gave him this unanimous call without any trial sermons in their own church. We know from experience that when he puts forth his best efforts he is a brilliant and effective preacher. The Valley Spirit, published at Chambersburg, the location of Wilson College, discourseth thus complimentary about him : "Rev. W. T. Wylie, who recently resigned the Presidency of Wilson College and accepted a call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church in Butler, Pa., is about to remove from our midst. We regret to lose him from this community. We have seen a good deal of him since he came here, and the favorable impression he made on us at first has steadily deepened as we have become better and better acquainted with him. We wish him abundant success and unalloyed happiness in his new field of labor, and we feel sure the Butler church must prosper under his efficient ministry. His retirement from Wilson College is a great loss to it." May the above good wishes be realized is also our desire.

BAPTIST SERVICES .--- Last Sunday evenng a very large audience gathered at the Baptist church and were well repaid by an eloquent and effective sermon delivered by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Biggert. At first the audience thought they would be disappointed in hearing a sermon from Rev. Biggert that evening, as he entered the church late. The large and efficient choir sang several hymns, which occupied the time until the entrance of the paster. Before announcing his text, Rev. Biggert apologized by saying that he had preached that afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at State College, and had found it a physical impossibility to reach home any sooner. hereunto were ye called," 1 Peter, 2:21, was the text which the gentleman took for his discourse, and it was a masterly description of what the true life of a Christian should and must be. It was a sermon calculated to do much good, as all could see how short each one comes of the true requirement. Rev. Biggert announced that he would preach the following Sunday evening, and as he is soon to leave his present charge he will doubtless have large audiences

-There are people in and about Centre Hall who are accustomed to steal forth under the cover of midnight darkness and take and appropriate to their own use whatever of value comes to hand. The Reporter, aroused to a sense of self-protection, thinks the practice should be stopped and hopes the law will find them out and visit its just condemnation

-The sale of the farm and live stock of John Harris, which took place on Tuesday afternoon, was well attended and the valuable articles offered for sale found ready purchasers. Two of the valuable Hamble tonian colts offered were sold. One was bought by Mr. Dick Thomas for $200, and yearling colt was purchased by Theodore Gordon for $60.

-The Republican calls James Guyer, of Clinton county, who is entered for a fivehours' walk against Prof. Phillippi, of this place, a "pedagogue." Prof. Phillippi is generally a success at whatever he undertakes, and will have an easy victory over any "pedagogue." The prize is $50.

-The best grocery and provision store in the town and the one that is always provided with the most complete stock of fresh groceries is that of S. A. Brew & Son They keep everything in its season. Just now they make fresh fish of the choicest kind a specialty.

There was not a sufficiently large number of people drawn together las Thursday night to warrant a meeting of the National Christian Temperance Union.

-The Y. M. C. A., of Milesburg, met Monday evening to discuss the propriety of establishing a reading room. Whether the result was "pro" or "con" we did not learn.

-We regret to learn that Miss Birdie, daughter of Hon. C. T. Alexander, is lying seriously ill at Wilson College, near Cham bersburg. Her father and mother are in attendance and we hope she will soon be better.

-Coburn Station is soon to have a new Evangelical church. D. S. Kerstetter, Jacob Dutweiler and Emanuel Kerstetter have been elected trustees to carry forward the project and will begin operations imme diat

-Mr. J. C. Condo, of Millheim, ha removed to Penn Hall, where he will carry on his trade of blacksmithing from the former business stand of Major Fisher. He is described as an excellent mechanic and meriting hearty support.

-Mr. George Breon intends retiring from the proprietorship of the Spring Mills hotel the first of next month, and will try what Dame Nature will yield for him from his valuable farm. The usual hospitalities of the hotel, however, will be continued in an equally agreeable manner by mine host, Mr. William Long, of Woodward.

Patriot spoke in highly complimentary terms of two sermons preached in the Pine street Presbyterian church, of that city, by the Rev. James D. Wilson, of New York. Mr. Wilson is a son of the venerable Peter Wilson, of Spring Mills, in this county. Since his entry into the ministry, seventeen years ago, he has preached in the city of New York, and has built up one the finest congregations in that city.

-The Philipsburg Journal says that "the laws of this state require the auditors of every borough and township to meet annually on the second Monday in April, to audit and settle the accounts of the supervisors, overseers of the poor and all other township and borough officers, except that of school directors, which comes off annually on the first Monday of June. These accounts are required by law to be published in at least two newspapers, under a severe penalty for neglect."

-William Clevenstine, one mile west of Hublersburg, will have a big sale at his residence on Wednesday the 26th of this month. Most anything a farmer or anyone attending the sale could wish to purchase may be found among the list he offers as follows : Three work horses, one colt, three milk cows, one 4-horse wagon, one hay fork, plows, harrows, cultivators, shovel plows, hay ladders, doubletrees, singletrees, forks, rakes, chains, two set tug harness, one set single harness, one set fly-nets, saddle and bridles, and other articles too numerous to mention. The sale will commence at 1 P. M.; Joseph Neff,

-A bill has been introduced into the Legislature by Representative Murray, of this county, which provides for the repeal of the law by which corporations are au thorized to drag men from one county to another in the trial of suits for unpaid installments upon stock. Many people seem to desire Mr. Murray's bill to pass, as the law which authorized the above proceedings is considered to be unjust and wrong.

-Mr. H. F. Bartley, of this place, in some way got a piece of wood imbedded between the lid and eyeball of one of his eyes, which caused intense pain. On Wednesday Dr. R. L. Dartt extracted this decidedly unpleasant companion in a skillful When extracted it was found to manner. be an inch and three-eighths long and an eighth of an inch thick. Mr. Bartley's eye at present is sightless.

-Next Monday is the day which the Irish hold dear to the memory of their patron saint. We have seen it stated several times lately that it is a holiday ; but, though 'he number of holidays have been multiplying of late, St. Patrick's day is ot among the number, although it would be a graceful and appropriate compliment to this numerous body of our fellow-citizens if it were made so.

-Last Wednesday evening a party of young ladies and gentlemen from State Collego, Boalsburg and Pine Grove assem-bled at the residence of Mr. William Fos-ter, of State College. A pleasant evening nsued, and we can truly say that all enjoyed themselves exceedingly.

-Two young doctors in embryo have recently returned to their homes after an attendance upon a course of lectures and already feel much elated at the unusual amount of sickness prevailing as it promises them a good practice. Already they would like to try their skill on a case of measles or some such light affliction. They are Mr. John Hibbler and Mr. Thomas Kirk, each of whom promises to be successful in his profession

-Mr. Thomas Foster, one of the sons of the late Capt. Robert M. Foster, of 148th fame, called upon us on Tuesday and became a subscriber to the DEMOCRAT. Mr. Foster represents the old and well-known Frishmuth tobacco house, of Philadelphia He is an affable gentleman whom it is always a pleasure to meet. He is also a first class business man and commands the respect and confidence of all persons with whom he has trade relation

-Weather prognosticators-"Mansell's Almanac of Planetary Meteorology" promnent among them-say that the weather for March, 1879, is likely to be cold and stormy, with a temperature below the mean of the season over a great part of the earth's surface. The title of the work above referred to sounds wonderfully wise and when we consider the fact that its prognostications regarding January and ebruary proved correct and that this will likely be ditto, we are inclined to think that this is one of the instances in which "where ignorance is bliss 'tis folly to be wise," for if people know nothing of it they will not borrow trouble.

-Company B., of Fifth regiment, National Guard, meets every Friday night in the Armory in McClain's block for drill. Captain Van Valin will be present every alternate Friday night. At a meeting last Friday night an effort was made to repeal the resolution forbidding profanity while on duty, but fortunately was unsuccessful. The company is gaining in pro ficiency every day.

-Monday last brought Mr. William Kerlin, now one of the most prominent citizens of Spring Mills, to town. We were one of the favored ones upon whom he called while here. He expresses himself delighted with the way affairs are moving at his home, as business is improving and several new buildings being erected.

-"Don't go near the bar-room, brother, but do go to J. Newman, Jr's., clothing store on Allegheny street, and purchase a new suit of clothes," was the sensible advice that a young lady gave her brother the other day, and he, like a good boy, obeyed her.

-A Professor Gardner delivered a le ture on temperance to an immense meeti on Sunday evening last in the Presbyterian church of Altoona. The Tribune in s ing of it says, "Men who have heard Gough, Murphy and other celebrities pro ace Professor Gardner their superior.

-There are not many people in Bellefonte who obey the law to "stop, look and listen" before crossing the railroad track. This is said to be the requirement of the law, and it is common sense
