-"The Bee Hive" exclusive dry-goods store has, since its recent opening, won a patronage equalled by no other business place in this town. It is altogether impossible for any other store to sell so low, as J. H. Bauland has facilities for purchasing at much more reasonable figures than any other of our merchants.

-The theives who lately troubled the people of Centre Hall have evidently deemed it wise to change their scene of opera tions and are now imposing upon the good Sunday week, as Mrs. Christopher Moyer was at church, the rascals entered her dwelling and finding a suit of clothes that seemed to suit their tastes, appropriated it, and then vanished. They thought it would be cruel, however, to leave without visiting some one else, and so paid their respects to the residence of Mr. Wm. Meese, and took a suit of clothes, an overcoat and a shirt. Dame Fortune thought this was more than Mr. Meese could lose all at once, so as he had a child at home who was not very well, she quietly told him to hurry hence, which he did. On approaching the house he saw two men near the window of his dwelling, who, on the Jewish Calendar fixes that. seeing him, ran quickly away, leaving the overcoat and shirt behind them.

-Prof. George Shadman's school in Ferguson township closed on Friday, March 28, with appropriate exercises of reading and recitations. The pupils all did themselves great credit and the excitement ran high when the school journal entitled the Sleepy Hollow Vindicator was read. The Washington Cornet Band contributed its assistance to the general jubilee, and the entire performance was one long to be remembered.

-Prof. L. O. Foose, some years ag principal of the Aaronsburg academy, in this county, has recently been elected superintendent of the public schools of the city of Harrisburg. Mr. Foose has had large experience as a teacher and will no doubt make an efficient and successful superintendent.

GOOD FRIDAY-ITS HISTORY .- To-morrow will be Good Friday, the day on which 300 millions of the 350 millions of Christians in the world commemorate the folks in the vicinity of Millheim. On crucifixion of Jesus Christ. It is called "good," perhaps, because He who gave Himself up to death on this day, did so for the good of all mankind.

It is not therefore a day of man's institution, but was consecrated by the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. The anniversary of His sufferings could never have passed by as a common day in those times when the memory of them was yet so recent, and when a daily fellowship in them was so continually before the eyes of Christians in the martyrdoms of His faithful servants. There may be just doubts about the true date of Christ's birth: but there can be no doubt about the time of His crucifixion ;

Tertullian, who was converted to Christianity before the end of the second century, in speaking of the observance of the day, called it the Paschal Day. Later it was called the Day of our Lord's Passion, but its present beautiful appellation is the one by which it has now been known for many centuries.

With the Passion of her Lord in view, it has always been the object of the church to make the devotions of Good Friday such as should help Christians to realize the magnitude of the sacrifice that He offered-of the sins by which it was made necessary, and of the mercy which moved him to offer it. Says Tertullian : "On the Paschal Day the strict observance of the fast is general, and as it were public," not restricted to those who professed to lead a life of closer devotion than others; works of charity were permitted, even to the extent of the rich ploughing the land of the poor, but no other labor was engaged in n this holy day.

In this State, where there is a population of about three and a half millions, not more than one-fourth part of the people are professedly Christian, yet so great is the influence of Christianity that a law has been passed by the legislature making Good Friday a legal holiday. The liturgies of the Luthern, Reformed, Episcopal and Roman churches all contain special forms of religious worship for Good Friday, and we presume that there will be public worship in the churches of each of the denominations named, both in town compete with. Newman says he can't be and in the country, to-morrow. Of course

THE UNIVERSITY SINGERS THIS EVEN-ING .- A treat is in store for all those who will attend the concert to be given in Humes' Hall this evening. There is every reason why people should be present. No better cause can be conceived than that to which the proceeds of the concert will be devoted, and the music itself will be exceptionally fine. This band of colored singers are endeavoring, with their talents, to save an institution which has done and is still doing great good, and which bears an interesting history. Shortly after the close of the war an Orphans' Home was established at New Orleans into which were gathered the children of deceased soldiers. A French gentleman donated ten thousand dollars towards this object and wenty thousand was raised by private subscription. Bishop Simpson, of the M. E. church, save that this institution has been instrumental in doing more for Protestant Chrisbeen an apt pupil, and, although young, is tianity in Louisiana than any other agenconsidered abundantly competent to fill cy. By an explosion in the boiler of the Sugar House and other causes, a debt of ten thousand dollars has accumulated and man's cheaper than any other place in the now hangs over the institution, and must be met in some way. It must be apparent ountry. Mr. Jackson, Newman's hand to all, then, that it will be an act of genuning. The tickets are for sale at Blair's the State. Now is the time to call at jewelry store at 35 and 50 cents, and seats can be reserved during to-day without any extra charge.

GREAT REDUCTION .- A reduction in everything just now seems to be the order of the day, but we doubt if any quickly and select from his handsome stock. which has just taken place at the clothing Store on Allegheny street, near Bishop. tf. store of Montgomery & Co. They are now prepared to make up serviceable suits for the low price of $12.50, which we doubt equal. All goods purchased at this estab-

OFF FOR THE WEST .- On Tuesday afternoon last a large party started to the West, among whom were the following: to St. Joe, Missouri ; Mrs. Allison and family, Clintonville, to Ellsworth, Kas.; of Jacksonville, to Wahoo, Nebraska; J. H. Shank, of Howard, to Kansas City. Kas. ; Solomon Zerby and family, of Oak sons whose names we did not learn.

A SILLY BOAST .- It was a Huntingdon paper we think that last week put forth the absurd claim of receiving more goods at that station than is received at any other evidently overlooked the fact that J. H. Bauland has started his "Bee Hive" drygoods store at this place and is every day receiving as many goods as all the stores and other business places and new Penitentiary at Huntingdon combined.

-The Pennsylvania Legislature has passed a law fining any person $10 for having in his or her possession a dog of the Spitz species. In default of payment, three months' imprisonment is the penalty. | 1-1y

A RELIGIOUS MEETING AND CARPET RAGS .- The usual exercises were held at the Young Men's Christian Association last Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Our young friend Mr. Lindsey conducted the opening exercises, and was followed by Gen. James A. Beaver, Isaac Mitchell Esq., Mr. Waggoner, J. W. Gephart and Chas. F. Cook. The Association has secured the room formerly occupied by Justice Rankin, which they will convert into a reading room and library and move the carpet at present covering the floor of the large room into it. To cover the audience room about one hundred and thirty yards of carpet are needed and the plan has been discussed of soliciting contributions of carpet rags and having a serviceable rag carpet manufactured. A committee of five, however, was appointed who will confer with the lady friends of the Association and seek the excellent advice which, because of their superior wisdom in such matters, they will be able to

A PEACEFUL CONSCIENCE .- Any man who owes his tailor cannot have a conscience at rest, but the necessity of owing for the clothes which we wear is now done away with as J. Newman, Jr., sells his elegant stock of clothes so remarkably cheap that the poorest among us can have a complete outfit for a very small amount of cash. He purchased a new lot last week.

-J. W. Harris, postmaster of Lock Haven, has received a letter from the Treasury Department designating him a "Unitd States Depositary of Public Moneys,' in that city, and authorizing him to receive and hold public moneys arising from the sale of the "United States refunding certificates," issued in accordance with the act of February 26, 1879. These certificates are of the denomination of ten dollars each, are nearly of the form and size of a United States note, bear interest at 4 per cent. and are convertible, with accrued interest, into four per cent. government bonds, in sums of fifty dollars or multiples thereof. Mr. Harris has forwarded his bond to the Treasury Department, and will in a few days have a supply of the certificates and be prepared to issue them to persons who desire to invest in them.

The danger of exposure is imminent, and we think the advice of the Clearfield Republican is judicious and well timed. The author of the sensible paragraph in the Bellefonte Republican should not at least wear a swallow tailed coat.

-The fame of the Centre Hall detectives should at least reach as far and is certainly as well deserved as any the Metropolis can produce, as they have lately ferretted out a thief who abstracted funds from the missionary box in the M. E. Sunday-school room of that place.

-The immense flouring mill of John C. Motz, of Woodward, is attracting great attention, as it is, to use the words of the Millheim Journal, "stocked with a splendid lot of new machinery, and is making as good flour, and perhaps a little better, than any mill in the county."

-Now pick up the shovel and the hoe and lay down the fiddle and the bow, and plant early onions in the-snow.
