

Thomas Brown was elected one of the Commissioners of Wayne county in 1875. He was then well to do, and occupied a family residence just outside of Honesdale, Pa. He was the leading member of the Board of Commissioners, and controlled it. His son, S. H. Brown, was appointed clerk of the Board. Honesdale became the county seat of Wayne in 1843. The frame Court House then erected had never been improved or enlarged, although the population and business of the county had more than doubled. The subject of building a new Court House had been agitated for some years. In 1876 the preliminary proceedings required by law having been taken, the Court ordered the County Commissioners to build a new Court House. With a population of 40,000 in the county and no county debt, it was thought that a $160,000 Court House would not be too expensive. Arrangements were made to erect a building of that class. From the beginning the people of the county were strongly opposed to the work. The feeling was worked upon by ambitious politicians, and it became so strong that ordinary party lines were forgotten, and the only parties in the county were the Court House and the anti-Court House parties. Of the former, Commissioner Thomas Brown was a conspicuous leader. William Hartwell, a wealthy and influential farmer, of an interior township, became a power in the anti-Court House party. The opponents of the Court House hampered the work by injunctions and legal proceedings of various kinds. Thomas Brown used liberally of his means to carry through the plans which were devised to defeat the efforts of the anti-Court House people. He was an old contractor and builder, and had set his heart on perpetuating his name in the county through work on the new Court House.

THE DEATH-RATE OF—Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being lessened every year, without any reasonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignificant origin. At this season of the year especially, a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it and often find too late, that a Fever or Lung trouble has already set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boschee's German Syrup been taken, a cure would have resulted, and a large bill from a Doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Boschee's German Syrup has proven itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 250,000 bottles sold last year without a single failure known. Sold by F. POTTS GREEN, wholesale and retail. 20-cw-1y

AS THIS is the season when colds are most likely to be taken, a word of advice to our readers would be in season: First, then, keep your feet dry; wear flannel next your skin; do not sit or stand in draughts of air, and upon the first symptoms of a cold or a cough call at Green's Drug Store, in Bush House Block, and procure a bottle of his "Compound Syrup of Tar, Honey and Bloodroot," which will give you almost instant relief. It is a pleasant and effective preparation, containing the virtues of Tar combined with some of the best expectorants and anodynes, allaying all those distressing symptoms which if not promptly arrested will too frequently result in that fatal disease, Consumption. Price, 50 cents a bottle, or six for $2.50. 21-cw

SHERIFF'S SALES.
By virtue of a writ of Levari Facias and Venditioni Exponas, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Centre county, and to me directed, there will be exposed at public sale at the Court House, in Bellefonte, on Saturday, June 21, A. D. 1879, at one o'clock P. M., the following described real estate of the defendant, to wit:

No. 1.—All that certain lot or piece of land situate in Curtin township, Centre county, Pa., bounded and described as follows: On the south by lands of Wm. Lucas, on the east by lands of C. Curtin and Mrs. Lucas, on the south and west by lands of C. Curtin—containing 50 acres more or less; thereon erected a two-story log house, stable and other out-buildings. Seized, taken in execution and to be sold as the property of Herman Price.
No. 2.—All those two certain lots of ground situate in the Borough of Bellefonte, Centre county, Penna., bounded and described as follows, to wit: One thereof bounded on the south by line of Cherry alley, on the east by lot of Joseph Schnell, on the north by other lot of Elizabeth Bassett, and on the west by Ridge street—containing 1/2 acre; being the same lot of ground which D. G. Bush and wife, by their deed dated the 11th day of March, A. D. 1875, conveyed to Elizabeth Bassett.
ALSO,
Another lot thereof is bounded on the west by Ridge street, on the north by lot of Hoffer and Kline, on the east by lot of Joseph Schnell, and on the south by lot thereof described. The house and lot being conveyed by Lydia Boney to said Elizabeth Bassett on same day as above. Thereon erected a two-story house and other out-buildings. Seized, taken in execution and to be sold as the property of Elizabeth Bassett and George Bassett.
TERMS, CASH. No deeds will be acknowledged till the purchase money is paid in full.

S. & A. LOEB, General Merchants, Allegheny Street, Bellefonte, Pa.

SOUND REASONS

Why we can undersell any exclusive Clothing Store in Centre county.

Reasons which if carefully weighed will convince any one with average common sense:

First—We deal in all classes of general merchandise, including DRY GOODS, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Groceries, Queensware, Notions, Carpets, Hats and Caps, and everything generally kept in a well regulated Country Store.

Second—We keep the largest and best assorted stock, in styles and qualities, of Men's, Youth's and Childrens' Clothing in Centre county.

Third—From the two foregoing reasons any one can easily see our maintenance does not depend upon the large profits that must be made on a suit of clothing by any exclusive clothing store, and consequently we can afford to sell at a smaller profit than any of them. And since we can afford it we are willing to give our customers the benefit of the same.

Groceries and Provisions.

NEW GOODS —FOR THE—SPRING TRADE

We have given very close and careful attention to the selection of goods for the Spring Trade, and feel justified in saying that our present Stock cannot be excelled either in regard to Variety, Quality or Price, and we doubt if it is equaled in either of these respects by any house in Centre county.
There are too many leading articles in our stock to make special mention of them all, but call attention directly to a few items that are now being sought after every day.
FISH.
Mackerel are of good quality this season and are selling rather faster than usual at this season of the year. We have been selling nothing but full weights—50 lbs. of fish in each quarter bar. el. and 100 lbs. in each half barrel. They have better value for the money than short weights.
Lake Herring and White Fish are very fine this season and selling freely.

MEATS.
Our Sugar-Cured Hams, Dried Beef, Breakfast Bacon and Cheese are all worthy of special mention.

FRUIT.
Oranges and Lemons are very fine and the price low enough to bring them into every day use. But the price on these goods will be much higher in a short time.

MEAT MARKET.
Our Meat Market, next door to our Grocery room is always well supplied with the choicest meats. We kill the best Beef, Mutton and Veal that can be found; dressed in first-class style and served to customers in the neatest, cleanest manner possible.

Groceries and Provisions.
No house in the Grocery and Provision business in Bellefonte is prepared to supply all the wants of the family so well as we can do at present.
