

Terrible Struggle With a Name.

From the New York World.

There is a good deal in a name, and especially in a name as long as Hick-enlooper. Hick-enlooper is the name of the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor in Ohio, who was nominated to prevent another man with a weird name—Mr. Seasongood—from carrying off the honors. Hick-enlooper is not very widely known in Ohio or the West generally, and the news of his selection was rather a surprise and a trial to the editors of the country newspapers, who had to guess and gag at his name like chickens endeavoring to compass the deglutition of an oversized earth-worm. One paper in Minnesota declares boldly that "Foster and Lopenhicker will sweep the State by 60,000;" another in Illinois cries, "We personally favored Taft and Foster, but the old Western Reserve will come out solid for Foster and Picklechoker;" a third—and this in Ohio—says in all the majesty of great black letters, "Foster and Hoppenkicker—beat them who can;" a fourth, in Iowa, protests that "Foster and Poopenhickie will awake such enthusiasm as the Buckeye State has rarely resounded with;" the head lines of a fifth, in Wisconsin, are "Two glorious men—Foster and Pickenchooper—the nominees;" a sixth, and again in Ohio, declares that "the Democracy can find no ticket to successfully oppose Foster and Pickylooper;" a seventh, also in Ohio, hoists along with an eagle and an American flag, "Our stalwart standard-bearers—Foster and Choopenkicker;" an eighth, still in Ohio, announces "a mass meeting to ratify the nomination of Governor Foster and General Pooklehicken," and yet another in Pennsylvania, where it fairly rains jaw-breaking names, enthusiastically yells at the top of its type, "Tiger for Foster! 'Rah for Chicklepicken!" It is perhaps not a very important matter, still it would avoid confusion if the Republican editors and orators would meet in convention and agree to shout for the second man on their ticket under one name, whether it be Hick-enlooper, Lopenhicker, Picklechoker, Hoppenkicker, Poopenhickie, Pickenchooper, Pockylooper, Choopenkicker, Pooklehicken or Chicklepicken. General Hick-enlooper by any other name will be beaten just as easily, and it will be better for the family to have him dropped under an alias.

John Burroughs on the Strawberry.

We may celebrate it with festivals and music. It has that indescribable quality of all first-class things—that shy, uncloying, provoking, barbed sweetness. It is eager and sanguine as youth. It is born of the copious dews, the fragrant nights, the tender skies, the plentiful rains of the early season. The singing of birds is in it, and the health and frolic of lusty nature. It is the product of liquid May, touched by the June sun. It has the tartness, the briskness, the unruliness of spring, and the aroma and intensity of summer. Oh, the strawberry days! how vividly they come back to one! The smell of clover in the fields, of blooming rye on the hills, of the wild grape beside the woods, and the sweet honeysuckle and sprig about the house, the first hot, moist days. The daisies and buttercups, the songs of birds, their reckless jollity and lovmaking over, the full tender foliage of the tree, the bees, swarming, and the resonant musical chords. The time of the sweetest and most succulent grass, when the cows come home with aching udders. Indeed, the strawberry belongs to the juiciest time of the year.

A PACKAGE in a basket was left on the doorstep of a cautious Newport woman, who having no desire to adopt a foundling, took the basket to the police station, and there found that it contained a twenty-pound turkey.

AN IRISH woman called at her grocer's the other day and asked for a quart of vinegar. It was measured out, and she put it in a gallon jug. She then asked for another quart to be put in the same vessel. "And why don't you ask for a half gallon, and have done with it?" impatiently asked the grocer. "Och! bliss yer little sowl, isn't it for two that I want it."

SOUND REASONS

Why we can undersell any exclusive Clothing Store in Centre county.

Reasons which if carefully weighed will convince any one with average common sense:

First—We deal in all classes of general merchandise, including DRY GOODS, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Groceries, Queensware, Notions, Carpets, Hats and Caps, and everything generally kept in a well regulated Country Store.

Second—We keep the largest and best assorted stock, in styles and qualities, of Men's, Youth's and Children's Clothing in Centre county.

Third—From the two foregoing reasons any one can easily see our maintenance does not depend upon the large profits that must be made on a suit of clothing by any exclusive clothing store, and consequently we can afford to sell at a smaller profit than any of them. And since we can afford it we are willing to give our customers the benefit of the same.

Groceries and Provisions.

NEW GOODS —FOR THE— SPRING TRADE
We have given very close and careful attention to the selection of goods for the Spring Trade, and feel justified in saying that our present Stock cannot be excelled either in regard to Variety, Quality or Price, and we doubt if it is equalled in either of these respects by any house in Centre county. There are too many leading articles in our stock to make special mention of them all, but call attention directly to a few items that are now being sought after every day.

FISH.
Mackerel are of good quality this season and are selling rather faster than usual at this season of the year. We have been selling nothing but full weights—50 lbs. of fish in each quarter barrel and 100 lbs. in each half barrel. They have better value for the money than short weights.
Lake Herring and White Fish are very fine this season and selling freely.

MEATS.
Our Sugar-Cured Hams, Dried Beef, Breakfast Bacon and Cheese are all worthy of special mention.
FRUIT.
Oranges and Lemons are very fine and the price low enough to bring them into every day use. But the price on these goods will be much higher in a short time.
MEAT MARKET.
Our Meat Market, next door to our Grocery room, is always well supplied with the choicest meats. We kill the best Beef, Mutton and Veal that can be found; dressed in first-class style and served to customers in the neatest, cleanest manner possible.

Groceries and Provisions.
No house in the Grocery and Provision business in Bellefonte is prepared to supply all the wants of the family so well as we can do at present.
