Mr. Hayes and his Vetoes.

Written for THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT.

The constitution of the United States, as it is admitted by contemporaneous writers, is a compact between sovereign States, though the subject matter of that compact was a government, the powers of which were to operate upon the people of those sovereign States.

First—It is a confederacy, because in its foundation it proposes not one single feature of a nationality. The people of the separate States, as distinct political communities, ratified the constitution, each State for itself, and binding its own citizens and not those of any other State.

Second—It is a confederacy because of the power of the government depending not upon the people of the United States collectively but upon the State Legislatures, or on the separate States acting in their conventions.

Third—It is a confederacy because of the power of the government depending not upon the people of the United States collectively but upon the State Legislatures, or on the separate States acting in their conventions.

That Mr. Hayes is criminally abusing the veto power and using it for the purpose of consolidating the States into an empire, is self-evident. How did President Madison act when Congress chartered the United States bank?

On the third of March, 1817, he vetoed that act which "set apart a portion of the bonus of the national banks for internal improvements."

It may be observed that the rights of the States are two-fold. First, those enumerated in the constitution, and second, those out of the constitution, which cannot be exercised save by free, independent and sovereign States.

First, to protect the liberty and property of their citizens; 2d, jurisdiction over all the territory, lives and property of their citizens within the chartered limits; 3d, to repel invasion; 4th, to arm, train, officer and command their own militia; 5th, to punish treason, insurrection and rebellion against the State; 6th, to levy taxes on their own citizens and on their property; 7th, to regulate the rate of interest on money in their own States; 8th, to refuse sending members of Congress.

THE USURPATION of Mr. Hayes in sending his marshals and soldiers to control State elections and secure the election of his political partisans is a revolution of the State constitutions and election laws, and should be resented by every lover of free government.

property, bringing of suits, full protection in person and estate, &c., and not to those rights which form the very nature of society and government belonging exclusively to citizens of particular States. Such are the rights of elections and representation, for they cannot be imparted to any but citizens without an invasion of the principles of the social compact.

But the truth is Mr. Hayes is preparing the way to elect his successor. The chaste Conkling and the base-born gladiator of Maine having lashed him into obedience, are now prompting and urging him to his present tyrannical acts to destroy every vestige of the rights of States in the hope of continuing their party in power through centralization and consolidation.

These letters have already been extended much beyond what I originally proposed as their utmost limit. They have been hastily written, never revised and are altogether unpretending in their character.

PATRICK HENRY.

The following truthful and eloquent extract from a speech delivered a few days since at Cleveland by General Edwin is to be treasured in the heart of every American citizen.

My fellow-citizens, the war was not waged to change but to preserve and perpetuate the system of government devised by our forefathers. It quelled and ended for all time the pretended right of any State to secede from the Union, but it was a result of war most disastrous to the people if, in blind resentment against the supporters of that exploded fallacy, they suffer the party which concocted the war to itself destroy our system of government by abolishing the reserved rights and liberties of the people of the States.

No, fellow-citizens, republicans commence to rot where the wealth and power and patronage of the Government centres. The greater the power and patronage of the Government the quicker corruption sets in. It was to guard against this that our forefathers were jealous of every grant of power to the General Government, and carefully reserved to the State and the people all powers not indispensable to form and preserve the Union.

The police department, as required by a State law, completed on Saturday a census of voters of Baltimore. The result is a total of 71,501, of which 61,133 are white and 10,368 colored. This gives an increase of 4,976 of over the census of voters taken two years ago.

The Business Revival.

Hon Abram S. Hewitt, of New York, is not only a successful business man, but he has made his mark in the country as a remarkable clear thinker and as one of the most promising of our rising statesmen.

"The revival of the iron trade," said Mr. Hewitt "is the legitimate result of the revival of business generally. In February I said in Congress that as soon as we came down to a basis of solid values—that is, values measured by gold we should have prosperity. The trouble was not that there was no money. There was plenty of capital, but there was a lack of confidence.

"Gray forge pig iron, the standard pig iron, has advanced from $14 to $17 a ton, and there is a demand for all that can be made. But the price will not go up much higher, for the reason that, if the price goes up, then foreign iron will be placed on the market.

"The only question is whether the prosperity will continue. It is bound to continue, I think, but we shall have no era of high prices, simply a healthy, remunerative business, with moderate prices, that will enable consumers to go on with their enterprises. This is true prosperity. High prices check progress. We have got to that stage when everything will go on without an era of high prices. I said that many iron works were again beginning operations. This relates primarily to blast furnaces. But the furnaces that are again going into blast are those that can make iron cheaply.

A Deaf Mute Recovers His Speech.

A serious collision, by which five persons were killed, occurred on the Atlantic City Narrow-gauge railroad on Thursday afternoon last. Among those killed was Charles Scholl, a deaf mute, who, strange to say, recovered his speech and hearing just previous to his death. The interesting particulars are thus described by the Philadelphia Record:

One of the strangest incidents connected with the accident was the recovery of his speech and hearing by Mr. Scholl just about ten minutes before he died. After he was caught between the cars and his right leg crushed he immediately called in an incubated manner for help. Soon his tones could be distinctly understood, and he begged piteously to be released. Strong men rushed to his aid and with axes broke the timbers that held him in their vice-like grip. The young man was laid on the grass, and he said: "Oh! give me a drink of water."

"Give me some water! Oh, do! It will be the last I'll ever ask for." The poor fellow was given another drink. His potion was deep and long. Then his eyes closed, and he seemed to pass off into a quiet sleep, but it was that deep slumber which knows no waking.

A Congressman Not Allowed to Preach.

Rev. Mr. De La Matyr attended the Chestnut Street Methodist Church Sunday afternoon, and some of the prominent members desired to have the reverend gentleman preach. A council of trustees and officials was held, and while some of them were in favor of listening to the words of wisdom as they fell from the gentleman's lips a majority were opposed to his preaching, thinking it might exert a bad influence.

Disastrous Fire in Boston.

TREMONT TEMPLE DESTROYED AND THE PARKER HOUSE BARELY SAVED.

A fire broke out about eleven o'clock on last Thursday night, in the rear part of the roof of the Tremont Temple, situated on Tremont street and adjoining the rear portion of the Parker House. The flames got pretty good headway before the arrival of the fire department, and before the engineer got fairly at work the roof was destroyed and a portion of the walls on the side and rear had fallen in, almost completely destroying the building.

The fine organ near which the fire broke out is destroyed and the building is very thoroughly gutted. The blaze soon assumed the proportions of an extensive conflagration and the proximity to the Parker House, on School street, opposite the City Hall, occasioned general alarm to the guests of that hotel, nearly all of whom had retired.

The building seemed in imminent danger, and the guests made hasty preparations for a change of quarters. Many of them not being willing to stand the risk of the hotel catching on fire promptly left the house, while others quickly got their baggage into the hall and corridors, awaiting the moment when it would be necessary to seek safer accommodations.

A Shoemaker's Strike.

A wedding occurred last evening in this city which recalls strikingly some of the incidents in the "Arabian Nights." It was between two favorites of fortune whose sudden removal from poverty to opulence has few parallels in fiction and far fewer in real life. The bridegroom is Mr. August Rische, who was a year and a half ago, a poor man, obtaining a meagre living by working at his trade as a shoemaker.

He was one of the pioneers of Leadville, and had the good fortune to "strike it rich." He was the discoverer of the Little Pittsburg mine. He is now the partner of Governor Tabor and the owner of fourteen or fifteen mines, some of which are among the best silver mines in the country. Among them are the Saxon, Nevada, Hard Cash, Penfield, Red Rogers and Alaska. He is forty-five years old. The bride was Miss Minnie Lunghuhn, twenty-four years old. Till a few weeks ago she supported herself by sewing in the establishment of Glauz & Perolat, furriers. The engagement occurred a few weeks ago. Mr. Rische met Miss Lunghuhn at Glauz & Perolat's and proposed at once. The time of the wedding was not decided on, however, till Monday, when it was determined to have it the following evening. The wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Perolat, No. 14 Park avenue. The ceremony was solemnized at half past seven o'clock by the Rev. T. N. Morrison, Jr., of the Church of the Epiphany. Mr. and Mrs. Lunghuhn, the parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Perolat stood up with the bridal couple. The bride was attired in a pearl-colored silk and brocaded satin, cut a la princesse, with a long, square train, trimmed with orange blossoms. She wore diamond solitaire earrings and diamond pin and bracelets. After the ceremony a supper of the most sumptuous character was served. The bridal pair got to New York, Washington and Baltimore, and then return by way of this city to Denver, where they will reside. Mr. Rische has just paid $42,000 for a furnished house in Denver, to which he will take his bride. Mr. Rische's present to the bride consisted of a watch and chain and diamond jewelry to the value of $7,800 and $100,000 in Government bonds. Some of the finest presents were sent by Mr. Rische's Denver friends, and did not arrive in time for the wedding.

THE DEATH-RATE OF—Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being lessened every year, without any reasonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignificant origin. At this season of the year especially, a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it and often find too late, that a Fever of Lung trouble has already set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Beechey's German Syrup been taken, a cure would have resulted, and a large bill from a Doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Beechey's German Syrup has proven itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 950,000 bottles sold last year without a single failure known. Sold by F. POTTS GREEN, wholesale and retail.

AS THIS is the season when colds are most likely to be taken, a word of advice to our readers would be in season: First, then, keep your feet dry; wear flannel next your skin; do not sit or stand in draughts of air, and upon the first symptom of a cold or a cough call at Green's Drug Store, in Bush House Block, and procure a bottle of his "Compound Syrup of Tar, Honey and Broodroot," which will give you almost instant relief. It is a pleasant and effective preparation, containing the virtues of Tar combined with some of the best expectorants and anodynes, allaying all those distressing symptoms, which if not promptly arrested will too frequently result in that fatal disease, Consumption. Price, 50 cents a bottle, or six for $2.50. 21-cow
