Local Department.

—Mrs. Nannie Dare spent Sunday last at Snow Shoe.

—Rev. John Hewitt delivered a discourse at the State College last Sunday afternoon.

—A new sidewalk is being laid on Allegheny street near its intersection with Linn.

—A new water wheel is being put in by T. R. Reynolds & Co., at the Phoenix Mills.

—Sweet potatoes were offered for sale on our streets on Thursday last for one dollar per bushel.

—The people near Mt. Eagle think they have discovered traces of a panther on the Muncy mountains.

—We acknowledge the receipt of tickets to the coming fair to be held at Jersey Shore, Lycoming county.

—Isn't it about time for our exchanges to inform their readers that the days and nights will soon be equal?

—Miss Hayes, one of Philadelphia's most attractive young ladies, is visiting her cousin, Miss Ella Hayes, of this place.

—The Presbyterian congregation had the pleasure on Sunday of again listening to their regular minister, Rev. William Laurie.

—Mrs. John Tonner and Miss Tonner have been visiting for the past week at the residence of Mrs. Henry Harris on Howard street.

—Miss Margaret Shaffer, daughter of our friend ex-Sheriff Shaffer, of Nittany Hall, is attending the Female Seminary at Lutherville, Maryland.

—Mr. Henry Harris was the victim last Saturday morning of a severe sprain of the left leg. Just how the unfortunate accident occurred we did not learn.

—Mrs. Julia Valentine, of Baltimore, was in town last Sunday. She is a prominent member of the Society of Friends and an earnest Christian worker.

—A picnic was held last Thursday in the woods near the Fair ground, joined in by about all of our colored population. It was much enjoyed by them.

—Among the artificial articles which seem to be invented for the purpose of giving peculiar pleasure to man are those excellent cigars sold by Harry Green.

—The markets are very large these beautiful mornings, and the face of Thomas Shaughnessy, market clerk, glows with satisfaction as the dimes pour into his hand.

—Company B, Fifth Regiment, National Guard, departed on Tuesday last for Braddock's Field, in Fayette county, to take part in the fall inspection of the Fifth Regiment.

—For at least one month past this office has been so crowded with orders for job work that every available minute that could be spared from the paper has been occupied in filling them.

—Mr. George Wells, an aged gentleman who has lived for a long time in this place, died last Sunday morning. He was almost totally blind and quite feeble for a long time previous to his death.

—The meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association last Sunday afternoon was fully up to the standard in interest. Rev. S. E. Furst, of the Lutheran church, conducted it in his usual able manner.

—Mr. J. Newman, Jr., of the famous Eagle Clothing Store, went to the city yesterday to lay in his fall stock of clothing. He will certainly bring back with him the most desirable goods and the latest styles.

—Do not forget the picnic which will be given in Valentines' grove, to-morrow, by the Logan Fire Company. It will be the most jolly affair of the season, and all who delight in fun and frolic should attend. Those who go should not neglect to take along the necessary viands for a good dinner.

—We can never expect to have all we desire in this life, for like Alexander, we will ever be wishing for more worlds to conquer. A very important part of our desires, however, is to have good clothes, and this can be readily satisfied by a call on Newman, Jr., at his Allegheny street clothing bazaar.

—The contents of our agricultural columns this week, as ever, are very superior. We do not hesitate to say that its equal is not to be found outside the exclusively agricultural journals, and perhaps four columns equal to it in condensation of the very best published anywhere is not to be found.

—The shapely and graceful evergreen arches, bearing appropriate mottoes, and the beautiful decorations of many of the houses were greatly admired features of the picnic at Pleasant Gap. They bespoke refinement and a cultivated taste on the part of those by whom they were designed and arranged.

—The Turner-Waple murder trial, which is now occupying the attention of the Clinton county court, is attracting much interest. Such eminent counsel as U. S. Senator Wallace, of Clearfield, and ex-Senator R. S. Peale, of Lock Haven, are engaged on it. It will be remembered that the case was tried a year or more ago in Clearfield and that the change of venue has since been made to its present place of trial, where we hope it will be finally settled.

—Lieutenant Leyden is now on his way to Wyoming Territory to join his regiment. We predict that he will make an excellent officer.

—Harry Green may be green in name, but he is not green when he comes to sell cigars, as every one testifies that they never smoked more excellent cigars than those sold by him.

—A party of sixteen from Snow Shoe composed of Mr. Ed. Nolan, Mr. Holt and other ladies and gentlemen whose names we did not learn, visited the famous Penn cave last Thursday, returning to Snow Shoe on the evening train.

—Saturday, the 20th instant, will be a gala day for the people of George's Valley and vicinity. The Union Sunday-school of that place will hold one of its pleasant picnics, and an interesting exercise will be the taking down of the old bell which has for so long called them together and the substitution of a new one in its stead.

—With to-day the interesting sessions of the Sunday-school Convention of the Juniata District Evangelical Association, which commenced in Millheim on Tuesday last, were brought to a close. An interesting feature of the convention was a children's meeting last evening. We hope that the exercises throughout were all that our friends had anticipated.

—“Where are all those men going?” Exclaimed a lady the other day, As she saw the crowd flowing Along Allegheny street way. “Oh, I know,” she soon said lightly, “And I should have known before; They are going to buy new clothes At Newman's Eagle Clothing Store.”

—The citizens of Potter township are now called upon to mourn the death of Mr. Samuel Royer, who died of apoplexy one week ago last Friday. He was universally known as an upright and estimable man. His funeral took place from the Loop church on the following Sunday, and was largely attended. A notice of his death may be found in the usual place in our columns.

—“Compliments of Brockerhoff House, Bellefonte, Pa.,” is the legend that appears in letters of gold upon handsome lead pencils, which the proprietors of this popular hotel are presenting to their numerous friends and patrons. This is a novel as well as substantial mode of advertising, and we hope this experiment will prove so satisfactory that the next departure will be in the way of solid silverware or well set diamonds.

—The obliging Secretary of the Agricultural Society, Wilbur F. Reeder, Esq., has sent us complimentary admission tickets to the fair which takes place on the 1st, 2d and 3d of next month. We hope that the farmers of our county and all persons who have any articles of merit to exhibit will make extra efforts this year to render the fair successful by sending them for display. The officers of the society are doing all they can to make the collection large and excellent and the fair throughout worthy the patronage of the people of Centre county.

—On Saturday morning of last week as Mrs. Isabella Barber, widow of Mr. James Barber, deceased, of Potter's Mills, was walking in the orchard near her residence, she stooped to pick up an apple, and fell over on the ground. To those who came to her assistance she could only say that she was suffering with a severe pain in the head when she became unconscious and remained so until her death on Sunday morning. As may be seen by our death notices, the deceased lady was over seventy-seven years of age.

—Two Hebrew festivals are close at hand during which all the places of business kept by the Hebrews in this place will be closed. The first, known as New Year's Day, commences on next Wednesday, September 17, at six o'clock, continuing until the following Thursday evening at the same hour. The next festival is known as the Day of Atonement. It will begin on Saturday, the 27th instant, at six p. m. and last through the following twenty-four hours. Persons intending to purchase at any of these stores should make arrangements to do so at some other time than during the continuance of these festivals.

—On the 20th day of August, 1879, Amos E. Garbrick, of this place, received an injury to the second finger of his right hand by the falling of a cutting-box knife thereon. Said injury caused Amos some trouble for eight days, but he having an accident policy in the Knickerbocker Casualty Insurance Company, of New York, for $5.00 weekly indemnity received $5.71 for the eight days' disability, said policy having cost him $4.50 for one year. The Knickerbocker Casualty Insurance Company is represented by W. B. Rankin, of this place, from whom can be procured accident policies from one day to one year at moderate rates.

—There are several kinds of perfume known to civilized communities which are exceedingly agreeable and are much in demand, but we believe that the aroma which is peculiar to a pig-sty is not generally considered to be among the number. At some point not far from the Diamond one of these styas must be situated, and every evening the gentle fragrance from it is wafted upon the twilight air, making the still evening hour twice pleasant to those who are sitting on their porches and who may be possessed of sensitive nasal organs. If there are people who delight in this perfume it would be well if their pig-stys could be so arranged that they alone would get the benefit of the aroma that it need not be wasted on their less appreciative neighbors.

—A wonderful escape from serious injury if not death was made last week by two daughters of Mr. John B. Leathers and one of Mr. John Hoy, while driving through the Narrows from Curtin's Works to Nittany Mountain. A large pine tree that stood on top of the hill, from whose roots the earth had been removed, elicited the admiration of one of the young ladies as the party approached, and she expressed a desire to stop and enjoy its pleasant shade. But they found difficulty in stopping the horse and had gone a short distance beyond the tree when down it came with a tremendous crash behind them. Of course, the young ladies, when they realized their deliverance, were very thankful the horse had not obeyed their command. It is said that no wind was blowing when the tree fell, and it was owing to an insufficiency of earth around the roots that caused the fall. As there are other trees in that vicinity in the same condition it would perhaps be well for the supervisors of the road to give them their attention.

—We received calls last week from a number of Miles township friends—among them Mr. Simon M. Spangler, who attended the picnic of the Veteran Club at Pleasant Gap on Saturday. We also recall Mr. John Hosterman, Mr. Jasper Wolf, and the venerable Jared Fuller. We were exceedingly glad to learn that Mr. Fuller has at last been granted a pension by the government. His case was a very deserving one, surrounded as it was by circumstances that made a strong appeal to sympathy. Two fine boys—William and Isaiah—the stay and support of himself and a blind wife, were taken from him during the war. These brothers were members of Company A, of the 148th Pennsylvania Regiment, and both yielded up their lives upon the field of battle. By a singular fatality both were killed in the same fight, viz: at the battle of Poe river, near Spottsylvania Court House, on the 10th of May, 1874. The old gentleman received about $1,500 of arrearages, and in the future will receive $8 per month.

—The Patrons of Husbandry of Centre county will hold their sixth annual picnic on the top of Nittany mountain, northwest of Centre Hall along the pike to Bellefonte, on Thursday September 25. Extensive preparations are being made to render the occasion pleasant and entertaining to all. An observatory has been erected on the grounds from which the principal places in Penns and Brush valleys can be seen. A field glass has also been provided for the accommodation of those who will mount the observatory. Speeches will be made by prominent patrons. Cornet band and vocal music will be given during the day. Provision has been made for the feeding of horses, and a restaurant will furnish refreshment to the inner man. Every accommodation has been made that any one can desire, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

—The Baltimorean, of a late date, prints a bright, gossipy letter from its Bellefonte correspondent, who is supposed to have been a young lady from the South who spent the summer with us. The letter is very readable, treating as it does of Bellefonte, its people and their manners, its buildings, public and private, and then branches off in a racy, descriptive style to tell about visits paid to various points of interest in the surrounding country, chief among which was an early morning ascension to McCoy's lookout, which was made in company with a party from the Brockerhoff House. The description of this famous view is very fine, and the letter as a whole is well calculated to give the people of the “Sunny South” a very good idea of the eternal hills among which we live. If space permitted we would give the letter entire.

—At the picnic of the Veteran Club, it was our pleasure to accept an invitation to dinner from Abram V. Miller, and such a feast of good things as he set before his many guests! Why, it was enough to tempt the appetite of the most rigid and abstemious ascetic that ever lived. We noticed Gen. Blair, Mr. David Gilliland and other friends at the same table, and we think Mr. Miller had no reason to complain that full justice was not done to his bounty. Other tables that we saw in the immediate neighborhood were just as generously supplied with the substantial and the luxuries of life, and were partaken of with the same relish and pleasure. The veterans will not soon forget the kindness of their generous entertainers of Pleasant Gap. The ladies are especially deserving of the most sincere thanks.

—A communication from Mr. D. M. Lieb appears on the fifth page of this issue. While we have not given the subject any further consideration than have our contemporaries, we think the explanation given by Mr. Lieb in regard to the motive of the Board in securing the services of Mr. Duncan for instructor in “Language and History” will be found sufficiently clear and satisfactory and that the action of the Board will be considered by all as eminently proper.

—The printers' picnic at Cresson on Saturday was largely attended and exceedingly enjoyable. The delegation of forty or more which proceeded from this place all express themselves as highly satisfied.

—We learn that Rev. W. A. Biggart, of the Baptist church, has received and accepted a call from a church in the West and will not return to this place.

VETERAN CLUB REUNION.—The Sixth Annual Reunion and Basket Picnic of the Veteran Club of Centre county was held in Gettle's Grove, Pleasant Gap, on Saturday, September 6, 1879, and was more largely attended than any preceding one, it being estimated that at least twenty-five hundred persons were upon the ground. The weather was all that could be desired. The exercises though comparatively brief were interesting and the good order and cordial feeling which prevailed would have reflected credit upon a religious instead of a merely social gathering. The picnic of the Veteran Club may now be regarded as one of the social institutions of Centre county.

The line was turned at the intersection of the Lewistown Turnpike with the Hubbersburg road about 10 a. m., when the procession moved at once along the turnpike toward the grove. A number of evergreen arches decorated with flags and appropriate inscriptions of welcome spanned the route at proper intervals. Delegations were in attendance from almost every part of the county. Those from Centre Hall, Lemont, and Pine Grove Mills were accompanied by their respective brass bands, and the Bellefonte delegation was headed by the Zion cornet band. The Pleasant Gap band was also out in force and contributed much to the pleasure of the occasion and the comfort of their musical brethren.

Arriving at the speakers' stand about three-quarters of an hour were devoted to general greetings and to music by the bands and a drum corps from Curtin's Works with “Time” Rumbarger of the 148th as flier. At 11.15 a. m., President Beaver called the meeting to order and prayer was offered by Rev. J. A. Wood, Jr., pastor of the M. E. church. The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. Jacob Yutzky, of the Lutheran church, and was responded to on behalf of the Club by the President. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved, and were followed by the “roll call,” an event which showed how fast the survivors of the late war are passing away, more than half a score of the members of the Club having already gone to join their comrades who fell during the war. At the conclusion of “roll call” the following committees were announced with instructions to report at the re-assembling of the Club in the afternoon, viz:

On place of next meeting—Dr. Theo. S. Christ, of College; D. W. Kline, of Huston; Lt. Geo. M. Boal, of Potter; Geo. B. Jack, of Harris; Jno. R. Tate, of Spring; Capt. Christian Dale, of Jenner; Major R. C. Chessman, of Bellefonte; Marshall Cox, of Boggs; Geo. G. Tate, of Milesburg; Curtis De Haas, of Howard; Benjamin Holter, of Howard borough.

On nomination of officers for ensuing year—Col. James T. Stewart, of Harris; Capt. Wm. J. Thomson, of Potter; George W. Miles, of Huston; W. C. Huey, of College; D. W. Miller, of Ferguson; Wm. A. Ishler, of Jenner; Matthew Riddle, of Spring; Capt. H. H. Benner, of Bellefonte; W. B. Smith, of Howard; Jacob Shultz, of Boggs; Dr. George F. Harris, of Bellefonte; Christian Swartz, of Walker; Dr. James A. Thompson, of Snow Shoe; Lieut. S. M. Spangler, Miles; Capt. S. H. Bennison, Marion; and John A. Doley, of Curtin.

At 12.30 a recess of two hours was announced. Although the meeting had been announced as a basket picnic the good people of Pleasant Gap and vicinity seemed to have made preparations to have entertained the entire assemblage. Nearly every resident of the neighborhood had provided a large and bountiful spread table, and the chief source of anxiety on the part of the hosts seemed to be to find a sufficient number of guests to share their hospitality. A number of the tables were handsomely decorated with beautiful epergnes of fruits and flowers and were spread with dinners that would have reflected credit upon a first-class hotel. We hope the kind hostesses were in a measure repaid for their labor by seeing how heartily their guests enjoyed themselves.

At 2.30 p. m., the meeting was again called to order. The report of the Treasurer, Capt. Austin Curtin, who was detained by the illness of his brother (since deceased) was read by the Secretary. The following is a synopsis:

Balance at last meeting	$ 90 11
Receipts at last meeting and since	2 46 50
Expenditures during year	2 21 25
Balance on hand September 5, 1879	$ 115 36

The report of the committee on place of next meeting, fixing Unionville therefor, was read and adopted.

The committee on nomination of officers for the ensuing year submitted its report, which was unanimously agreed to. It is as follows, viz:

President—Gen. James A. Beaver, of Bellefonte.
Vice President—Lieut. George M. Boal, of Potter township.
Secretary—D. S. Keller, of Bellefonte.
Treasurer—Capt. Austin Curtin, of Boggs township.

As additional members of the Executive Committee—Major R. C. Chessman, of Bellefonte; W. B. Smith, of Howard; George G. Tate, of Milesburg; Capt. C. T. Fryberger, of Phillipsburg; Capt. W. C. Vanvalin, of Unionville; William A. Ishler, of Jenner township; William H. Shoults, of Boggs township; John B. Newcomer, of Burnside township; Dr. Theo. S. Christ, of College township; John A. Doley, of Curtin township; David W. Miller, of Ferguson township; David Burrell, of Gregg township; Capt. O. W. Vanvalin, of Haines township; Simon Sellers, of Half Moon; Dr. John F. Woods, of Harris township; John B. Holter, of Howard township; D. W. Kline, of Huston township; John D. Thompson, of Liberty township; Capt. S. H. Bennison, of Marion township; Thomas E. Royer, of Miles township; Fabian Matts, of Patton township; Samuel D. Musser, of Penn township; Lieut. W. P. Shoop, of Potter township; Dr. James A. Thompson, of Snow Shoe; Lieut. Abram V. Miller, of Spring township; Frederick Sensor, of Union township; Christian Swartz, of Walker township; and S. S. Miles, of Worth township.

Gov. A. G. Curtin was then introduced, and though quite feeble in health, delivered some interesting remarks, congratulating the nation upon its deliverance from the evils of war and upon the era of prosperity upon which the people of the United States were entering. He was followed by Col. James Gilliland, formerly military agent at Washington, for the State of Pennsylvania, whose kindness to Pennsylvania's soldiers and their anxious friends will long be gratefully remembered by its recipients. In concluding his remarks, the Colonel assured the boys that whatever he had been able to do for them had been gladly done, and that he had done no more only because “red tape” had prevented him.

President Beaver then introduced Mr. F. H. Allen, formerly of the 4th Wisconsin Infantry, but now chief of a section in the Invalid Division of the Pension Office, as a representative of what the community is accustomed to regard as “red tape,” something which though at times an inconvenience individually, is nevertheless a necessity to us in our collective capacity. Judge Allen responded briefly in some appropriate remarks, his story about the letter from the bank cashier who insisted that while the BLACK TAPER abounded in Sumatra and other tropical regions, the RED TAPER was principally confined to the District of Columbia, creating much merriment. He also spoke very warmly of the hospitable treatment received by the regiment of which he was a member, when marching to the front, at the hands of the citizens of Williamsport and Harrisburg, and assured the audience that in Wisconsin as well as in Pennsylvania Gov. Curtin was best known as “the soldiers' friend.”

The attention of members of the club and their citizen friends, was called to the propriety and importance of securing complete lists of all deceased soldiers of the late war whose graves are not marked by headstones. It was urged upon them that some one should undertake to secure a list for each township and forward the same to the secretary of the club, who will then forward a consolidated list to the Quartermaster-General by whom the headstones will be provided. Suitable blanks will be furnished to any person willing to undertake the task of making a list of unmarked soldiers' graves in any township upon application to the secretary.

Thanks were returned by the President to the citizens of Pleasant Gap and vicinity for their generous hospitality, to the local committees for the zealous and efficient manner in which they had performed their duties, to the musical organizations for their assistance, and to Mrs. Gettle, the owner of the grove, for her kindness in affording the club its use.

A vote of thanks was also tendered to Mr. Gottlieb Haag, proprietor of the Pleasant Gap Hotel, for his courtesy in closing his bar and declining to open it before 4 p. m., thereby contributing much to the good order and harmony which was so generally commented upon.

A little before 4 o'clock, all business having been transacted, the club adjourned to meet at Unionville, on Saturday, September 12, 1880.

D. S. KELLER, Secretary.

JUNIATA VALLEY PRINTERS.—The picnic of the Juniata Valley Printers' Association, which came off at Cresson on Saturday, was an entire success. The Association embraces in its “jurisdiction” the counties, Bedford, Blair, Cambria, Centre, Clearfield, Huntingdon, Indiana, Juniata, Mifflin and Perry. The following were elected officers of the Association for the ensuing year: President, John M. Bowman, Everett Press; first vice-president, H. C. Darn, Altoona Tribune; second vice-president, George B. Goodlander, Clearfield Republican; secretary, W. K. Buckingham, Altoona Call; treasurer, Frank Willoughby, Huntingdon News; executive committee, James F. Mickel, Bedford Gazette; James H. Irwin, Altoona Radical; H. A. M'Pike, Cambria Freeman; R. H. Forster, Bellefonte CENTRE DEMOCRAT; J. W. Scott, Osceola Reveille; Al. Thyhurst, Huntingdon Globe; J. B. Sansom, Indiana Democrat; John W. Speddy, Port Royal Times; George Shorn, Newport Ledger; E. Conrad, M'Veytown Journal.

Prof. A. L. Guss, formerly of the Huntingdon Globe, delivered an historical address on the subject of journalism in the Juniata valley which was ordered to be printed with the addition of a biographical sketch of “each and every editor connected with the press within the limits of the association.”

THE VETERAN CLUB.—The annual meeting and picnic of the veterans of Centre county this year was one of the most enjoyable that has yet been held. The meeting at Howard two years ago was immense, and at Pine Grove Mills last year, who that was present will ever forget what a delightful occasion it was? Pleasant Gap, on last Saturday, was not behind either. Too much credit cannot be bestowed upon the good people of Pleasant Gap for the interest they manifested in the affair and for their generous and untiring efforts to make it so grand a success.

—Mr. Robert McCalmont, of Walker township, lost a valuable horse some time since. The animal suddenly dropped down dead while at work in the field.

COURT PROCEEDINGS LAST WEEK.—The last week of court was occupied with civil cases and the Minutes of Court show that the following cases were disposed of:

William Lyon & Co. vs Jacob Van Pool et al. Tried by Jury. Verdict for plaintiffs.

M. D. Silkletter vs Rebecca Gououch. Tried by Jury. Verdict for defendant.

John H. Thomas use of vs Joseph Shirk. Plaintiff suffered non suit.

Isaac Mitchell, assignee of Isaac Thomas, vs Lot Stratton. Plaintiff suffered non suit.

Court adjourned until September 17, 1879.

RETURN THE BOOKS.—It is desired to again open the reading room of the Young Men's Christian Association for the fall season, and for this reason it is deemed necessary to collect together all the books belonging to the library. A few valuable works have been taken from the library and have been held in the hand of the readers for a long time, and persons having such volumes are requested to return them immediately. Among the works deemed particularly valuable because they belong to series of the same kind are the following: “The History of Russia,” by Abbott, one of a series of three valuable works; and “Mercy Philbrook's Choice” and “The Great Match,” belonging to No Name series. Persons having these volumes or any others belonging to the library will confer a great favor by returning them at an early day.

A SATISFACTORY ADJUSTMENT.—The extensive mill property of E. M. Sturdevant & Co., in Rush township, the burning of which we noted last week, was insured in the following companies: Royal Insurance company, Adriatic Insurance company, Trans-Atlantic Insurance Company, Manufacturers and Builders Insurance Company and Lycoming Insurance Company. During the past week these various risks have been satisfactorily adjusted by Mr. Butler, of the Royal Fire Insurance Company, and by Mr. Bartlett, of the Lycoming Fire Insurance Company. We are happy to state that these settlements gave entire satisfaction to insurers and insured, and the money has been promptly paid over, which we believe is about $4,100. This promptness in settling business affairs shows that all the gentlemen concerned are among our most honorable and fair-minded men, and will gain for them even an increase in business in the future.

—Good groceries are something that people need every day. There are several places in Bellefonte devoted to the special purpose of supplying this want, and prominent among them is the firm of S. A. Brew & Son, who are ever ready to supply the best the market affords.

—A Greenback meeting was held in the Court House last Tuesday evening, at which Mr. William McClellan was made Chairman, Messrs. Webb and Dolan, Vice Presidents, and Mr. James Schofield, Secretary. Mr. Watson, of Williamsport, was the orator. He is a fluent, pleasing speaker, and upon some live political issues would undoubtedly make an effective speech. His audience did not number over fifty or sixty.

MARRIAGES.

WOMER-SMITH.—At the M. E. parsonage, Pleasant Gap, by Rev. J. A. Wood, Jr., Mr. Michael Womer, of Bolton Springs, Pa., and Miss Mary A. Smith, of Bellefonte, Pa.
