We have no Congressman to elect in Pennsylvania this fall; no members of the State Legislature, and no State offi-cers with the single exception of State Treasurer, but upon the choice of this officer important results depend. He is by law the custodian of all moneys in the public treasury and responsible for their safe-keeping. In recent years, their safe-keeping. In recent years, Republican Treasurers have had control of millions of dollars of balances, presumably lying idle in the Treasury vaults, but in reality loaned out all over the State. With the reviving business, which will largely increase the State revenues, it is almost certain there will be large balances under the control of the State Treasurer to be elected in November, and who will assume the November, and who will assume the duties of the office in June next, succeeding Colonel Noyes, the present Democratic Treasurer. The Democratic party holds that this system of unexpended treasury balances is all wrong; and they are a constant temptation and invitation to the liberality and corrup-tion of legislators, as well as a means of corrupt and unlawful gain by the State Treasurer, who is tempted to use them, as Republican Treasurers invariably have done in this State for the past twenty-five years, for purposes of spec-ulation. These unexpended balances, the Democratic party holds, should be applied to the reduction of the State debt, and if this cannot be advantageously done, then the taxes should be reduced so that the revenues collected will only be sufficient to defray the expenses of the Government, economically administered. We hold further, and our candidate for State Tresurer, Daniel O. Barr, Esq., is pledged to this course of administration, that the State funds, remaining unexpended in the public treasury, shall not be used for speculative purposes, but sacredly guarded to meet all just and lawful demands of public creditors. During the two years past, that the State Treasury has been under Democratic guardianship, there has been no scandal as to its management—no Treasury Ring dispensing favors in the interest of a political party or the section of a party—no misappropriation of the pub-lic funds. This condition of affairs we desire to perpetuate, and if the Democratic party is successful in the election of its candidate for State Treasurer, the assurance can be confidently given that

How is it with the Republican party and its candidate? With their success it is an admitted fact, demonstrable by the controlling influences of their Convention and the surroundings of their candidate, that the infamous and corrupt Treasury Ring which dominated the politics and legislation of Pennsyl-vania for years, will be rehabilitated in all its power at Harrisburg. This can-not be gainsaid. It is in the air. The election of Mr. Butler will mark a reelection of Mr. Butler will mark a revival of the old Treasury Ring, with all its demoralizing schemes of personal and political gain. The adoption of the new Constitution and the election of Colonel Noyes in 1877, drove the Ring from the Treasury, but as the Republican Legislature has steadfastly refused to pass the needed laws for carrying out the reforms of the new Constitution, let the Cameron publican-Ring candidate for Treasurer be elected this fall, and within a year the old combinations will be at their old work in the Treasury and throughout the State.

it will be done.

Treasury and throughout the State.
From 1861 to 1877, with the exception of two years, the Treasury of the State has been controlled by ringsters, some of whom secured their election some of whom secured their election by the Legislature by the most auda-cious bribery. This was the golden pe-riod of the Treasury Ring's power. It is reported of one Treasurer that he paid out in one day, from his room at Harrisburg, over sixty thousand dollars for the Legislative votes that secured for the Legislative votes that secured his nomination and election as Treasu-rer for one year. The salary attached to the office was but five thousand dollars a year, and under the law the Treasurer was not allowed to use a dollar of the State funds for speculative or personal purposes. But the Treasury Ring cared nothing for the law or official oaths. At times there were as high as three millions of dollars of unexpended balances in the Treasury. This was the banking capital of the Ring; the money it loaned out in prosperous times at six, eight and ten per cent, increase. terest. The fact that a candidate could pay out, for one year in the office, sixty thousand dollars bribe money, shows the money there was in the place for the ring. Treasurer Mackey lost, by the failure of political friends with whom he had deposited State funds, over one hundred and sixty thousand dollars in a single year, yet he prompt-ly made the defalcation good out of the profits of his other operations with the unexpended balances. The Treasury Ring conducted a banking business with the people's money, against which no legitimate bank in the State could suc-

legitimate bank in the State could successfully compete. Their capital was the two or three millions in the State Treasury, and operating through the Legislature—of course corruptly—they had no difficulty in securing laws maintaining the unexpended balance at the highest figures. They actually collected unnecessary taxes from the people that they might speculate with the money!

Nor was this all. While the Treasury ringsters amassed great wealth out of their speculative operations in State funds, they built up and consolidated a political power that controlled the Republican party for years, and through that party controlled the State; and the attempt is now being made, through the election of the ring candidate for Treasurer, to reinstate this power at the State Capital. The ways of the Treasury Ring in strengthening their political supremacy were peculiar, and were felt in every county in the State where a PERSONS who are troubled with weakness arising from a disordered state of the and Mackey, they being the leading directors, was maintained and perpetuated. Its hold on the politics of the State was firm and sweeping, but fear-

State was firm and sweeping, but fear-fully demoralizing. It controlled the Republican party in Convention and Legislature; nominated and defeated candidates; had a powerful Harrisbur lobby at its beck and nod, and the Republican press pensioned and corrupted. It was master of the State.

It is this Treasury Ring that the Republican managers and jobbers propose to reinstate in power at Harrisburg. There has been an interregnum of honesty and square dealing for a couple of years. But the Ring is hungry for its old power and its old gains. The plan of operations was laid down at the Republican State Convention, and the first step was the nomination, under the publican State Convention, and the first step was the nomination, under the auspices of Cameron, Quay, Kemble & Co., of Mr. Butler, of Chester county, for State Treasurer. Kemble, who promoted this nomination, was a leading spirit of the Treasury combination when Mr. Mackey was at its head, as well as during his own term as State Treasurer, when he amassed immense wealth on a trifling salary. Butler is the chosen one of the Ring. He is allied with the legislative corruptionists. He moved in the Republican caucus that Cameron's nomination for the that Cameron's nomination for the United States Senate should be made unanimous, thus ignoring and disregarding the honest sertiment of the Republicans of Chester county. He voted against the expulsion from the Legislature of the convicted briter and lobb ture of the convicted briber and lobby-ist Petroff. His especial friends and supporters in the Republican State Convention rejected with insults and con-tumely Wolfe's resolution demanding honest men in office and denouncing the corrupt methods adopted to pass Kemble's four millions steal last winter. Obviously, in selecting Mr. Butler as their candidate for State Treasurer, the Treasury Ring knew what it was about. It picked out a reliable man for the work proposed.

We turn from this dangerous and alarming record of the Republican candidate for State Treasurer, which clearly shows his connection with the worst elements of the Republican party, to the Democratic nominee, Mr. Barr, and we have every assurance that under his administration of the State Treasury the Constitution and laws will be rigid. the Constitution and laws will be rigidly construed and implicitly obeyed, in the management of the State funds. the management of the State funds. There will be no speculation or stock gambling with the people's money. There will be no Treasury Rings. The books of the office will be open to the public. The unexpended balance will not be the banking capital of a combination of reckless political and financial speculators. Mr. Barr is pledged by the resolutions of the Democratic Convention, and by his own record and decvention, and by his own record and dec-larations, to this course. And his eleclarations, to this course. And his elec-tion is the one guarantee possible to the people of Pennsylvania that the old Treasury Ring will not be revived in all its power and corruption. This is the most important home issue on which our people will vote in November.

The Maine Election.

Up to the last gubernatorial election, when the people failed to make a choice and the legislature elected Garcelon, Democrat, Governor, the State of Maine Democrat, Governor, the State of Maine was regarded as an unchangeable Republican State. Lincoln carried Maine by 28,000 over the other three candidates, and Hayes carried it by 17,000 over Tilden and Cooper. In 1877 the Republican majority was only 11,517, and in 1878 there was a regular revolution, and, as stated before, the Democrats secured a governor. This year, with all of Blaine's hard work, the Republicans carried the day by a very publicans carried the day by a very close shave, and the victory is dearly bought, and the least encouraging that has ever been shouted from that State. which has always been first in line, in Republican triumph.

SOUND REASONS

Why we can undersell any exclusive Clothing Store in Centre county.

Reasons which if carefully weighed will convince any one with average common sense:

First----We deal in all classes of general merchandise, including DRY GOODS, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Groceries, Queensware, Notions, Carpets, Hats and Caps, and everything generally kept in a well regulated Country Store.

Second --- We keep the largest and best assorted stock, in styles and qualities, of Men's, Youth's and Childrens' Clothing in Centre county.

Third---- From the two foregoing reasons any one can easily see our maintenance does not depend upon the large profits that must be made on a suit of clothing by any exclusive clothing store, and consequently we can afford to sell at a smaller profit than any of them. And since we can afford it we are willing to give our customers the benefit of the same.

SPRING TRADE

We have given very close and careful attention to the selection of goods for the Spring Trade, and feel justified in saying that our present Stock cannot be excelled either in regard to Variety, Quali-ty or Price, and we doubt if it is equaled in either of these respects by any house in Centre county.

There are too many leading ar-ticles in our stock to make special mention of them all, but call atten-tion directly to a few items that are now being sought after every day.

FISH. Mackerel are of good quality this season and are selling rather faster than usual at this season of the year. We have been selling nothing but full weights—50 lbs. of fish in each quarter barrel and 100 lbs, in each half barrel. They have better value for the money than better value for the money than short weights.

Lake Herring and White Fish are very fine this season and sell-ing freely.

MEATS. Our Sugar-Cured Hams, Dried Beef, Breakfast Bacon and Cheese are all worthy of special mention.

FRUIT. Oranges and Lemons are very fine and the price low enough to to bring them into every day use. But the price on these goods will be much higher in a short time.

MEAT MARKET.

Our Meat Market, next door to our Grocery room, is always well supplied with the choicest meats. We kill the best Beef, Mutton and Veal that can be found; dressed in first-class style and served to customers in the neatest, cleanest manner possible.

Groceries and Provisions. No house in the Grocery and Provision business in Bellefonte is prepared to supply all the wants of family so well as we can do at
