Star of Bethlehem

Saw you never in the twilight,
When the sun has left the skies,
Up in heavin the clear stars shining
Thro' the gloom like silver eyes?
So of old, the wise men watching,
Saw a little stranger star,
And they knew the king was given,
And they followed it from far.

Heard you never of the story
How they crossed the desert wild,
Journeyed on by plain and mountain
Till they found the holy Child—
How they opened all their treasure,
Kneeling to that Infant King,
Gave the gold and fragrant incense,
Gave the myrrh in offering?

Know ye not that lowly infant
Was the bright and morning star,
He who came to light the Gentiles
And the darkened isless afar?
And we too may seek His cradle,
There our heart's best treasure bring.
Love and faith and true devotion,
For our Saviour, God, and King.

Last of the Fusion Government in Maine.

Augusta, Me., Jan'y 28.—The fusion Legislature, after a prolonged secret session this afternoon, adjourned to meet on the first Wednesday in August next. Many of the members will go home, not to return here before that day. Others will go back to the people my their discounter of the control of the contro to return here before that day. Others will go back to the people of their districts, to abide by their decision as to joining or remaining out of the State House Legislature, and others will take their seats among their Republican brethren. The counted in members will, some of them, go home, while others will contest the seats of their rivals in the Capitol. The fusionist Governor Smith will return to his home in Oldtown to morrow, and Mr. Talbot, Speaker of the fusion House, will also leave er of the fusion House, will also leave for his domicil to-morrow. In the Republican Senate the committee on the judiciary was instructed to inquire as to amending the constitution of the State by abolishing the council, providing for the election of an auditor, and constituting the heads of departments the advisers of the Governor. Some fusionists claim that it is their Some fusionists claim that it is their honest purpose and intention to meet on the day named, and that they will enter upon heavy campaign work for the next election, endeavor to have two returns of congressional votes, one to be sent to them and another to the Legislature as recognised by the courts, and that they will make up a case to Congress concerning the electoral vote. The Republicans, and quite a number of fusionists, say that such an adjournment was the easiest possible way of ment was the easiest possible way of letting down the counted-in members, who have given their associates a good deal of trouble; that the fusion Legis-lature will never again meet, as will be shown to-morrow by its members taking seats in the regular Legislature. The Legislature will declare vacant all seats that are now filled, and new elections will be ordered. Maj. Smith will leave for home on the early morning train to attend to his lumbering business. He recommends the quiet submission of all good citizens to the will of the court.

Fusion Secretary of State Sawyer has romised to return the valuation books to the office of the Secretary of State, and it is thought that he will not claim to be Secretary any longer. The opinion prevails that Treasurer White will freely surrender the keys and property of the office as soon as his successor is qualified.

We have given very close and We have given very close and careful attention to the selection of goods for the Spring Trade, and feel justified in saying that our present Stock cannot be excelled either in regard to Variety, Quali-ty or Price, and we doubt if it is equaled in either of these respects by any house in Centre county.

There are too many leading articles in our stock to make special mention of them all, but call attention directly to a few items that are now being sought after every day. FISH.

Mackerel are of good quality this season and are selling rather faster than usual at this season of the year. We have been selling nothing but full weights-50 lbs. of fish in each quarter barrel and 100 lbs. in each half barrel. They have better value for the money than short weights.

Lake Herring and White Fish are very fine this season and selling freely.

MEATS. Our Sugar-Cured Hams, Dried

Beef, Breakfast Bacon and Cheese are all worthy of special mention.
