Cowley Goes to Jail

A YEAR'S IMPRISONMENT AND A FINE FOR HIS CRUELTY TO CHILDREN.

NEW YORK, February 20 .- Rev Edward Cowley, late manager of the Shepherds Fold, who was convicted in the General Sessions Court on Wednesday last of cruelly treating and starving children under his care in that institu-tion, was arraigned again this morning for sentence. Recorder Smyth passed for sentence. Recorder Smyth passed fitting remarks in justness of the senence and its being warranted by the vidence, and gave the extreme penalty of the law—one year in State prison and $250 fine, to stand committed to jail at the expiration of his sentence until the fine is paid, one day for each dollar. The prisoner was then taken to the Tombs. Ho took his sentence very quietly, keeping his eyes on the ground all the while. There are twenty-four other indictments against him, but it is believed that none of them will ever be brought to trial, and that this was taken into consideration by the Recorder when he meted out the punishment to the prisoner.

Application was made to Judge Lawrence in the Supreme Court this after-noon by counsel for Rev. Mr. Cowley for a stay of proceedings in his case. The Court refused to grant the stay on the ground that no writ of error had been applied for or allowed.

Edward Herrick.

From the Harrisburg Patriot,

From the Harrisburg Patriot.

We have heard the name of Edward Herrick, Esq., of Bradford county, mentioned recently with much favor in connection with the Democratic candidacy for auditor general. Mr. Herrick has been chief clerk of the auditor general's office for nearly two years and has won the esteem and friendship of all who have had transactions with him in that capacity. He is a man of high character and excellent business qualifications. This brief commendation of fications. This brief commendation of Mr. Herrick is written without his knowledge or consent and we doubt whether he has any desire to be regard-ed as a candidate in the sense of an active competition for the nomination.

the Wilkesbarre Union-Leader.

A finer and truer gentleman, a more devoted and conscientious official, than Edward Herrick never rendered service Edward Herrick never rendered service for the State at Harrisburg. If these qualities constitute title to the favor of parties then Edward Herrick should have fair sailing in the Democratic Con-vention, if he should conclude to ask the nomination for Auditor General at its hands. We could support him with our whole heart knowing that if electour whole heart, knowing that, if electand care religiously for the best interests of the whole people.

Making Citizens of Indians.

Washington, February 20 .- The Sen ate committee on Territories to-day decided to recommend for passage a bill which proposes to create a U. S. District Court for a new Judicial district, to be composed of what is known as the Indian Territory, and, in general terms, provides for extending all laws of the United States over the whole Territory. It is provided that every Indian may become a citizen by making a declaration that he has severed his tribal relations, and thereupon he is to become entitled to select a homestead for himself and family. The tribal lands in excommittee on Territories to-day de self and family. The tribal lands in ex cess of the number of acres absorbed by these selections are to be sold for the benefit of the Indians. All the foregoing provisions, except the one for the establishment of a court, are made dependent upon the consent of the Indian councils being obtained therefor, as provided in existing treaties.

How Grant Took It.

From the Cincinnati Commercial.

A private letter from Cuba says that he first intelligence of the action of the Pennsylvania convention in endorssay; but he merely remarked: "That's the Grant for a third term reached the Grant party on the morning after the convention in a cablegram which came to Gen. Sheridan. It was handed to the General while at breakfast. He read it, and remarked that he had some important news from "the States."

"What is it?" inquired several voices. And Sheridan then read the telegram aloud. The announcement was greeted with silence by all the party, who were anxious to hear what Gen. Grant would say; but he merely remarked: "That's Bellefonte, Pa.

quite a surprise!" and the members of his party say that the subject has not since been alluded to in his presence. During the few days following the re-ceipt of the news of ex-Secretary Borie's death Gen. Grant was very much de-pressed in spirits, as he loved Mr. Borie like a brother. He has written a long autograph letter to the widow. THERE is one phase of the exodus business of which little note has been made, and yet it would seem worthy of made, and yet it would seem worthy of the most serious consideration. It is the heartless cruelty practiced on the simple, confiding negroes by the gang of hypocrites who have been engaged in getting them out of North Carolina and into Indiana, for the double political purpose of reducing the power of the South and "redeeming" a Democratic State. It has been shown beyond the faintest shadow of a doubt, shown by the unvarying testimony of unimpeach able witnesses of both parties and both races, that the blacks in North Carolina are not only kindly but generously treated by the dominant race. No sane man who has heard or read the evidence given before the Exodus committee has any hesitancy in believing that the man who has heard or read the evidence given before the Exodus committee has any hesitancy in believing that the condition of the colored population of that State is exceptionally fortunate, and far better than that of the negroes in the North. In all respects the negroes of North Carolina are quite as well off as the poor whites. They have equal rights before the law, equal facilities for earning money, equal educational advantages, and there is not even a hint or suggestion in the evidence of any oppression or any discrimination against them by reason of their color or previous condition. In short, all the wild and foolish stories of ill usage have been exploded, and the fact stands out in boldest relief that the people and the government of North Carolina have done their whole duty, in a broad and liberal spirit, towards the enfranchised people. From comfortable homes and pleasant surroundings, from a genial climate and wave of life to which they people. From comfortable homes and pleasant surroundings, from a genial climate and ways of life to which they are attached, the negroes have been lured away by false promises. The same class of men who robbed them of their class of men who robbed them of their little sayings by the Freedmens' bank rascalities, the same class who have preyed upon their credulity ever since they were emancipated, have filled their simple minds and imposed on their their simple minds and imposed on their trustful natures with cunningly devised fables. They have gone to Indiana as to the land of promise, expecting to find there immediate comfort and a short road to affluence. But instead of realizing these bright dreams scores of them have gone into paupers' graves from the effects of exposure, and other scores are now in the almshouses and asylums. In a single locality twenty-five of these wretched immigrants died from the effects of change of climate in from the effects of change of climate in eight weeks, and were buried as paupers in the Potter's field. They went from a locality where they had never known want to find speedy death in the poorhouse. It is an infamous thing to thus wife with the lives of even the humblest. house. It is an infamous thing to thus trifle with the lives of even the humblest human beings. But this is in keeping with the history of Radicalism as relates to the negro. That party has used the blacks for selfish ends only, and has invariably shown the same heartless disregard for their interests that appears in this exodus management.—Washing-tem Post
