rived in town last Monday evening. -The finest line of Hamburg, Nansook and Swiss embroidery, at Lyon & Co's. -Call at the Philadelphia Branch clothing house and look at those $3.50 suitings. -A new stoop has been placed at the front of Mrs. Sussman's residence on High street.

-Mr. Joseph Cedars is much pleased with the location of his new bakery on Bishop street.

-- The funeral of Mr. Joseph Schnell will take place this (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock.

-The material for suitings at the Philadelphia Branch clothing store will please all. Try them.

-Ex-Sheriff Munson, of Philipsburg, was observed on the streets of this place, last Tuesday.

-To-morrow, being Good Friday, is a legal holiday. Attend to your banking business to-day.

-York is appointed as the place of meeting for the next annual Conference of the M. E. church.

-It was Darius Green who had the flying machine, but it is Harry Green who has the good cigars.

-The recent interior renovation which Valentines stores have received has worked a marvelous improvement.

-Howard has an inhabitant who says he can solve the game of "fifteen" every time, and explain how he does it.

-The next most important event to occur is the special term of court, called for the second Monday in April.

-Valentines have a large stock of mackerel on hand. They are in want of butter, eggs, bacon, lard and potatoes.

-Rev. William Laurie has sufficiently recovered from his recent indisposition to be able to appear on the street.

-One dollar will buy as much at the Philadelphia Branch clothing store, as a dollar and a half at any other store.

-Mr. John Irvin has been putting some fancy lettering on John Sourbeck's fruit market.

-Valentines have just received a fine lot of silks, warranted not to cut or wear shiny. They are opening new goods every day.

-Give Lewin, of the Philadelphia Branch clothing store, a call. He will be happy to receive you and show you his goods.

-Mr. C. A. Lindsay, now of Pittsburg, has been spending the last week in this place. His many friends were pleased to see him.

-The largest and best assortment of fishing tackle can be found at Deschner's Sporting Emporium, High street, Bellefonte, Pa

-John Smith, the Watchman's candidate for President, was married on Tuesday

-A splendid button shoe at Lyon & Co's, for $1.25. -It is claimed that there is no young lady in this town whose eyes are sufficiently bright to shed as much light on a dark night as will one of Harry Green's cigars. Try them-the cigars.

-A surprise party, composed largely of this place, surprised as well as pleased the the morning and evening service. family of Mr. Adams, last Friday evening, by calling at their residence on High street and spending a few hours-socially.

-New Languedoc laces, at Lyon & Co's.

--- Robert D. McKinney, Postmaster of Philipsburg, died in that place on Saturday, the 13th instant, aged thirty-three years. He was a highly respected gentleman. Services commemorative of his memory were held in the M. E. church, that place, on Sunday morning last.

-Mrs. Jared Struble, of Pleasant Gap, has a fine stock of full-blooded Plymouth Rock chickens. Persons desiring to invest in this excellent breed of fowls will accomplish their object by cultivating the acquaintance of Mrs. Struble, who can supply the eggs.

-Big lot of children's suits at Lyon & Co's, from $2.00 up.

-Mr. William McLellan, brother of Mr. Jack McLellan, of this place, died recently while attending school in Georgetown, D. C. This seems to be a particularly severe affliction to his mother and other friends, especially occurring as it does so oon after his late lamented father's decease.

-Ex-Chief Burgess Hastings is the cently purchased. It is said to be a steed Ellis L. Orvis and Hal Orbison. of the bluest blood, and will carry the brave Colonel of the renowed Fifth Regiment through all the wars and rumors of wars in which he will ever engage.

-A big line of flowers for belts and eck wear, at Lyon & Co's. -Mr. John Linn, an employe of the Watchman office, has been suffering for me time with a serious attack of illness. He recovered sufficiently to engage in his usual avocations last week, but on returning home, Saturday evening, was seized with a hemorrhage, and is now, we regret to say, in a very weak condition.

-All the improvements taking place in the way of fresh paint, &c., are on High street. There are several residences in other parts of this delightful little town which would look the better for an application of paint, and there are at least a half-dozen skilled painters about who would be willing to undertake the operation of renewing their beauty.

-Just opened a big line of broche border ribbons, at Lyon & Co's.

-The Spring meeting of the Convocation of Williamsport will be held in the Episcopal Parish, at this place, on Tuesday, the 20th of April. At the same time the Bishop of this Diocese, the Right Rev. M.A. DeWolfe Howe, D. D., L.L. D., will visit the parish for the purpose of administering the ordinance of confirmation.

that to be out of fashion is as bad as to be out of the world. He has become possessed with that mania for fresh paint which has seized upon so many of the other-people of High street during the present spring. His residence on the corner of Spring street is now resplendent under the effects of recent vigorous applications from the Knights of the Brush and Paint Pot. -A good hat at Lyon & Co's, for 85

-It is the greatest of mistakes, drugging the system with medicines to cure Kidney trouble while the application of a Days Kidney Pad, to the small of the back, will cure when nothing else can.

-The two sermons delivered by Rev. George W. Miller in the M. E. church, this place, last Sunday, were admirable members of the Baptist denomination in efforts. The church was thronged at both

> -Mr. Wilson, the confectioner on the corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets, announces his intention of moving from his present location into one of the vacant rooms in the Brockerhoff' House block, about the first of April.

-The young ladies of Unionville took advantage of their leap year privileges on first of whom will be market clerk Shaugh-Wednesday night of last week, and gave a delightful party at the residence of Mr. Benjamin Riche. Mr. Harry Sayre, of this place, was among the invited guests.

-Austin Curtin will put the old Mill Hall furnace, in Clinton county, in blast as soon as it can be fixed up. It has been idle for twenty-five years, but as soon as steam can be put in it will start up as a coke furnace. Washington furnace, near the same place, will also be put in running order during the summer .- Altoona Tri-

-It is expected that the meeting of the Addisonian Club, on Saturday evening next, will be the most interesting yet held-The appointments for that evening embrace some very fine exercises, and if each person is not prepared the consequences will be calamitous. The crowning effusion of sense, sentiment and wit will be the happy possessor of a horse, which he re- Club journal, by its able editors, Messra.

> -The roads have been in a terrible condition during the past week, and people from the country have experienced great difficulty in coming to town. It is to be wondered at that so many persons do brave the deep mud and make their usual visits to this place, and can only be accounted for by the fact that, having patronized Sechler & Co.'s store once, they become thoroughly in love with the fine groceries he has for sale, and would rather encountre any difficulties than do without them

> -The third concert of the Milesburg Musical Association will take place in the Presbyterian church at Milesburg to-morrow evening. The two last concerts were very much enjoyed and, judging by the programme, the coming one will be superior to any. The public will regret that this is the last concert the Association intend to give for some time to come. It will repay all to attend, and the proceeds are for the benefit of the Presbyterian church.

-Messrs. John Sourbeck and Fred. Smith, both gentlemen of large experience. have arranged to give a grand social dance and ball in Bush's Hall, next Monday evening. Of course, Mr. John Sourbeck's name is sufficient guarantee that the affair will be conducted in that excellent manner uliar to the Assistant Burgess, while Mr. Fred. Smith's name gives assurance, that the music on the occasion will be -Mr. Jacob Valentine doubtless thinks first-class in every particular. All persons of good character are invited.

> -Township and borough auditors will eet this year on the second Monday of April, but after this year, under the provisions of the act of June 4th, 1879, they will meet on the second Monday of March. The accounts of school directors and school treasurers will be audited on the first Monday of June. The terms of all officers elected at the recent election; except school directors and Justices of the Peace, will commence on the first Monday of April, and end on the first Monday of March, 1881, giving them only eleven months in office .- Ex.

CURB-STONE MARKETS.-Spring has come and the little birds may be heard twittering in the tree tops. Soon the croak of the frog will be abroad in the land. Among the earliest harbingers of spring, however, is the curb-stone market, which is positively announced to commence next Saturday morning. Let the first market be "a rouser !" Let the farmers and hucksters from all parts of the county. bring in their chickens, geese and ducks their butter and eggs, their smearcase and apple butter, their horse radish and dried apples, and whatever of a palatable and seasonable nature they may have to vend. If the farmers' daughters and sons come along they may find a purchaser, too. Of course, the people of the town will be glad to again go to the market, among the ensy to collect the regular fee

DEATHS OF THREE AGED PEOPLE .-Three residents of this county, who had attained a very great age, have recently died, notices of which appear in our usual death record. The first was Mrs. Cronmiller, of Aaronsburg, who was about 81 years old. The second was Mr. Adam Moore, of Millheim, who had also spent 81 years in this life. During most of this long period he was a resident of Millheim, and was much respected by those who knew him. The last and most aged of all was Mrs. Mary Smith, of Gregg township. Her age was 95 years. Her husband, Daniel Smith, served in the war of 1812. She had eyer since received a pension as a recompense for his services during that event. The united ages of these three persons is 257 vears.

CHANGE .- Quite an important change is about to take place in the popular Brockerhoff House, Mr. Houseal retiring, and Mr. Teller, one of the present proprietors, assuming entire control. To Mr. Teller the hotel owes much of its present fame and patronage. His reputation as a polite and gentlemanly host has extended throughout the State. Traveling gentlemen make it a point to spend Sunday in Bellefonte to receive the benefit of the excellent entertainment afforded by this hotel. The hotel under Mr. Teller's charge should continue to receive a large share of the public patronage. Mr. Houseal, the retiring partner, is also a pleasant landlord, and will attract many guests if he shall again see fit to engage in the hotel business.

Sold.-On Tuesday afternoon a young fellow stood on the Diamond, near the First National Bank, engaged in selling little red packages, three of which he sold for $2. Sometimes he would wrap a $5 bill into a little package and shuffle it with the rest, as a bait to induce purchasers. Several gentleman bought, but we did not learn exactly how much the prize package man made, nor how much the crowd lost, but it is not to be supposed the former was there for the purpose of giving $5 bills way. It is always best to leave such individuals severely alone.

-All lovers of good beef should visit the meat market of Mr. William Lyon, on Bishop street, on Friday. Mr. Lyon, ever alive to the wants of his customers, will have a pair of beef cattle dressed on that day for his Easter sales that have probably never been excelled in Bellefonte. They are three year old Kentucky cattle, weighing between 1,600 and 1,700 each, and were fed by Mr. Robert Valentine. A roast or a juicy steak from one of these fine bovines should be enough to satisfy the palate of any epicure who ever lived.

-On Monday next, Mr. J. H. Sands will reopen his bakery, at the old stand, on Allegheny street, and invites the patronage of his old friends and customers. Mr. Sands will also be pleased to receive any number of new customers, and his high reputation as an obliging man and a fair dealer is a sufficient guarantee that all who patronize his establishment will re-

PASSION WEEK .- Last Sunday com nenced the solemn season known to the church as the Passion Week. It is observed by the Protestant Episcopal, Lutheran and Roman Catholic churches. Du ring this week the hours are veiled in sorrow. The sad and solemn themes at Gethsemane and Cavalry employ our thoughts. We pass in review the mournful parts in the history of our redemption - Christ suffering -- Christ crucified -Christ dead and buried-and in the stillness of his Sabbath rest, we linger around the grave in which the hands of loving friends have laid Him. The following appointments for this week have been made by the Rector of the Episcopal church Wednesday and Friday Litany service at 10:30 A. M., and evening service, with sermon or address, at 7.30; Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at 4 P. M.

Passion Week over. Easter morning brings us joyful tidings; heaven and earth are full of life and light; divine messengers sitting in triumph at the empty sepulcher proclaim, "The Lord is risen," and from the glad disciples comes the response and Easter greeting, "The Lord is risen, indeed." Easter is the grand and crowning festival of Christianity. Around it all others cluster. Without it they are nothing. Christmas, without an Easter, is a mere pageant, Good Friday a tragedy and Whit Sunday a fiction. Holy Communion will be celebrated in the Episcopal church on Easter morning The service in the evening of Easter Day will be chiefly choral. All except the lessons and the prayers will be sung, besides two or three anthems.

DEATH OF MR. JOSEPH SCHNELL .- On Monday afternoon, at ten minutes after four o'clock, the great reaper, Death, cut down all that was mortal of our late respected townsman, Joseph Schnell. Pneumonia was the cause of his death. Mr. Schnell was 67 years of age. His beloved wife died about six months since, and he husband thus early followed her to the grave.

Mr. Schnell emigrated to this country from Strasburg, France, at a very early age, and most of his life since then has been spent in Philadelphia and in Clearfield and Centre counties. In 1834 he was married to Catherine Brew, sister of Mr. Austin Brew, of this place. He has been a citizen of this borough since 1840, having removhere from Milesburg. A large family of ons and daughters-eleven in all-have grown up about him, eight of whom-five ons and three daughters-still survive him, and are well known to this community. Mr. Schnell was an industrious, honest, conscientious gentleman. During the past year he has occupied the office of Overseer of the Poor of this borough, his term expiring with the end of this month. He was a devout member of the Roman Catholic church. He will be mourned for by his family and a large circle of friends, and many years will the grass grow green over his grave ere his memory fades.

Mr. Schnell's funeral takes place this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

SHOOTING AT GLASS BALLS .- Several of the skilled marksmen of this place who of late have been devoting their attention to glass ball shooting, adjourned to the Fair ground last Saturday afternoon, where they indulged in three rounds, the first two of ten balls each and the third of five balls. The other gentlemen were somewhat jealous of Mr. Theodore Deschner's usual good fortune, and commenced a system of "bulldozing" upon him, which frightened him slightly and accounts for the absence in the third round of his usually excellent score. The result of the contest is as follows : Wilkinson, W Deschner, The Lyon, J. 8. W. H.

Entertainment of the Howard Literary Society

HOWARD, PA., March 22, 1880. EDS. CENTRE DEMOCRAT-Dear Sirs :-The entertainment given by the Howard Literary Society last Saturday evening, and of which you gave so kind notice in your last paper, proved to be even more uccessful than was anticipated. Without a single exception, every member to whom was assigned any part of the performance, performed his or her part, and did it well The comedy of "The People's Lawyer" was exceedingly well prepared, and the careful manner in which it was performed merited the repeated and hearty applause with which it was received. The house was packed and complimentary comments and opinions are universally heard from those who were present. I cannot give net financial results, but understand that the treasurer shows a handsome balance on the right side of his account. The fact is, our Literary Society is getting to be quite an institution, and we feel considerable local pride in it and its success. Some weeks since the Mount Eagle society, head. ed by our eloquent friend, Col. Joe Neff. came down here to discuss with our boys the weighty question of the right or wrong of Congress in granting public domains to private corporations, and went home with the verdict of the judges against them, and a somewhat elevated opinion of the ability of the Howardites as debaters. Feeling of the Howardites as debaters. Feeling that the minds of the judges might have teen somewhat beclouded by local preju-dice, Col. Neff and his party-good fel-lows, and good debaters they are, too-in-vited our boys up to try conclusions again with them, upon the same subject, but within their own baliwick. Our fellows "don't scare worth a cent," so, of course, they accepted the challenge, and on Thursday evening last, marched all the to the little Mountain city, and completely disgusted the talkers of that township by scoring a second decided victory. The Col. says get a fair show, somehow." C Friday evening next, the society will hold its ha session for the winter, having done a go on's work in disseminating rmation, and advancing its m the practice of public speaking. FELIX.

MESSES. EDITORS : - The Democratic Watchman of the 12th instant has an editorial in reference to the Curtin-Yocum contest which contains the following sentence, viz : "Congress appears to want to let the thing run on until next fall, the regular election time, when the people can decide the matter for themselves out of new material." Does the "new material" mean P. G. M.? And does this explain his continued hostility to Mr. Curtin 1 And was it this expectation that prompted his selfish malevolence to take him to Washington city to spit his spleen age Mr. C. ? But the political buzzard find out in due time that he is not the kind of "new material" to make a Congressm out of in this district. BIG SANDY.

-"When my ship comes in" has become an expression with some people which means, when by some turn of fortune I become rich. But, alas, many persons look over the blue sea of life and never see the white sails of their ship coming o'er the cean wave. In fact, fortune rarely visits people without some act of their own put forth to induce its presence. People must save to secure a fortune, and this can be best done by purchasing those important articles-groceries and meat-at Sechler & Co.'s store.

It was two months before her henship was resurrected, but she was still alive. Thus far Mr. Smith's hen is ahead, and deserves the pleasant memories in which her name has been held during the past sixty years.

-Agents are wanted everywhere every day, but no better cause ever enlisted the services of any one than is advertised in our columns asking for volunteers to aid in the sale of the book, that took over four years to prepare and which was all ready for the publisher when the stern comman er, grim Death, called General John Bell Hood from the field of his usefulness amid his happy family circle. He left ten little babes, twins chiefly, and General Beauregard has assumed the duty of giving to the world, without any additional note or comment, the work called, "Advance and Retreat, Personal Experiences in the their residences should notify us of the United States and Confederate States Armies." The book is beautifully gotten up and sold at a low price, $3,00. -The citizens of Altoona are already making preparations to properly celebrate Decoration day. They made an effort to secure the services of Gen. James A. Beaver as orator of the day, but the eloquent General was compelled to decline the honor, as he already has an engagement of two years' standing to serve in that capacity at Columbia, Lancaster county.

--- Rev. J. Donahue, the present pastor of M. E. church, this place, will deliver his first sermon in that capacity next Sunday morning. He comes from the Mulberry street church, Williamsport.

-The mercantile community of Clearfield was represented in this place on Tues day last by Mr. George Weaver, who holds a prominent position in the business circles of that place.

-Farmers, look to your interest and buy the Oliver Chilled plow. It is the best in the market. It speaks for itself. All re-pairs constantly kept on hand.

THE ARITHMETIC OF THE BIBLE. From our exchanges we see that a certain Sunday-school lad, named Henry, upon being asked how many boys there were in his class, replied : "If you multiply the number of Jacob's sons by the numb of times the Israelites compassed Jericho, and add to the product the number of measure of barley which Boaz gave Ruth : divide this by the number of Haman's sons ; subtract the number of each kind of clean beasts that went into the ark; multiply by the number of men that went to seel Elijah after he was taken to heaven ; subtract from this Joseph's age at the time he stood before Pharaoh ; add the number of stones in David's bag when he killed Goliath ; subtract the number of furlongs that Bethany was distant from Jerusalem divide by the number of anchors cast out at the time of Paul's shipwreck ; subtract the number of people saved in the ark, and the remainder will be the number of boys in the class." Centre county boys can calculate this problem, to discover if their own class is as large as the one of which Henry was a member.

-Rev. J. F. Delong, of the Reformed church, again occupied the Presbyterian pulpit on Sunday last.
