- cine is death. -Before you go away to visit your friends buy a new suit of clothing at the Philadelphia Branch.
- -If practice makes perfect, the Mountain City Band should rival any kindred
- organization in the State. -Mr. Henry Harris, the Howard street undertaker, has improved his residence by the addition of a new porch.
- -If you would be as happy as a king and as handsome as a sunflower, buy your clothing at the Philadelphia Branch.
- -The mail train, which formerly reached this place at 10.3 o'clock A. M., now arrives twelve minutes earlier-at 9.51 o'clock A. M.
- -The benevolent people of Howard contributed about two hundred dollars' worth of provisions and clothing to the Milton sufferers.
- -It is not everybody who can look handsome, but centlemen can come very near it by buying their clothing at the Philadelphia Branch.
- -The condition of the thermometer in May suggests the desirability of summer clothing, and the Philadelphia Branch store is the place to buy it.
- -The May moon is now waning. On Sunday it will reach its last quarter, when moonlight rambles will be no more until it is renewed again next month.
- -Hon. Henry Green, of Easton, is the Republican nominee for Supreme Judge, but Hon. Harry Green, of this place, is the people's nominee to sell fine cigars.
- -Buy your dry goods, groceries, queensware, &c., at Hoffer's, on Bishop street, where there are no misrepresentations. "Fair dealing" is the motto at Hoffer's.
- -Mr. Charles Lord Callaway, of Baltimore, has been in town for the past few days, making himself generally agreeable, as he is so well able to do. Mrs. Callaway will soon join him.
- -Picnics are now in season, but how much more thoroughly are such occasions enjoyed if the gentlemen who attend them have bought their light clothes at the Philadelphia Branch.
- -Gregg Post, G. A. R., will attend M. E. church, next Sunday morning, in a body. They will appear in full uniform. A sermon suitable to the occasion will be delivered by Rev. J. Donahue.
- -The feelings of rage and jealousy with which we were seized when glancing at the Clearfield papers, last week, knew no bounds. To think that a place like Clearfield should have a circus on Monday, the 31st of this month, when Bellefonte has no prospect of any during the season !
- -The State Medical Society met at Altoona last week and was attended by many of the medical fraternity of Centre county. appointed one of Dr. Thos. R. Haves was nia Society at the next gathering of the New York State Society.
- -Mr. W. W. Brown's Jewell City Republican mentions a visit which that former well-known citizen of this county, Mr. Jeremiah Furey, recently made to that place. While there he purchased an $1,800 farm; situated about two miles from Jewell City, on which, we suppose, he intends to locate.
- -Col. John L. Eckel, of Sugar Valley, is the possessor of some Continental money dated February 26, 1777-over one hundred years old. While we admire antiquity in coins, it is exactly the opposite quality we require in good groceries. Indeed, the fresher they are, the more desirable they become, and therefore all should patronize Sechler & Co.'s grocery store, which keeps nothing but fresh goods.
- One hundred thousand people witness ed the boat race between Hanlan and Courtney, and unite in expressing themselves as much disappointed at the result. Hanlan had it all his own way. A similar result is witnessed in this place every week in the race between the grocery stores for patronage. Sechler & Co. prove themselves the Hanlan in this race, and sell the - most and best groceries. -The Logan boys have ordered new shirts and trimmings in which they expect to appear on Decoration Day, and are collecting money with which to pay the "C. O. D." Although it is always a bad business precedent to spend money before you have it, nevertheless we hope the boys were successful in collecting the wherewithal to relieve them from their dilemma. They deserve hearty encouragement.

-Taste in the selection of clothing is a quality which all gentlemen do not possess but a tasteful selection can scarcely be avoided if it is made from the choice and complete stock at the Philadelphia Branch

-The lightning which accompanied the storm of Friday afternoon struck a barn belonging to Mr. James Tellers, of Milesburg, igniting the barn and killing a horse which was occupying it. The fire was extinguished without difficulty.

-Colonel W. H. Wilkinson has at last distinguished himself in a glass ball shooting contest. It took place on the Fair ground last Thursday evening, when Colonel distanced, his competitors in the following remarkable style:

-An attempt at a runaway took place on High street near the depot on Monday morning. Mr. Bilger, who lives on Gordon's farm, was driving a four-in-hand team of two mules and two horses, attached to a heavily loaded lumber wagon. But before they got well under way, one of the front wheels came in contact with the substantial post in front of the depot, effectually stopping their further progress.

-To-morrow evening a considerable number of our beaux and belles will go to State College to witness the representation of "Eugene Aram," by the College Dramatic Club. After the buggy hire has been paid the only additional expense will be twenty-five cents for a ticket, or, if you would be high toned, a reserved seat can be secured for fifty cents. Those who attend will witness a fine entertainment and have a jolly time.

-The corner stone of the new Evangelical church, near Howard, was laid on Sabbath of last week, as per announcement in the DEMOCRAT. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Dick, pastor the of the church, in the presence of a very large audience, many of whom were from a distance. Mr. Isaac Frain, of Marion township, presented to the officiating clergyman, the book, papers, list of names, &c., which were placed in the stone.

-The numerous cyclones and fires which have made the spring of 1880 quite remarkable are also the occasion of many false reports. For instance, last week a report prevailed that the City of Lock Haven had been destroyed by storm, but she still stands as of yore on the banks of the Susquehanna. A report, however, in which all can place entire confidence, is that S. A. Brew & Son have one of the best groceries in or out of Centre county. The best way to prove the truth of this rumor is to try it.

-Ambrose and Samuel, sons of Mr. Thos. Rhodes, of this place, were amusing themselves with an old loaded pistol on Friday morning last. While the dangerous instrument was in the hands of Ambrose, it went off, and as Sammy was standing in a direct line with the passing ball, it inflicted a severe flesh wound in the calf of his right leg. It is fortunate however that the ball did not pass a little higher up. Moral—do not allow children to handle firearms until they understand how to use them.

-Mr. Cyrus Deitz, of Howard township met with a serious misfortune by fire last week. His little children got hold of some matches, and going to the barn to play, managed to set them off among the straw, and burned the barn with all its contents. The horses were fortunately out at work, but a valuable colt, with spring wagon, harness and tools were all censumed. Mr. Deitz had no insurance, and as he is just starting to clear up a farm for himself, his loss falls upon him with great severity. There is much sympathy for him in the community, and we learn that steps are being taken by some of his neighbors to give him assistance.

-It falls to every one's lot to annually have what is known as a birthday. If we wished to be pedantic, we would say the anniversary of one's birth. But without entering into any learned disquisition upon the construction of the Queen's English, we pause to say that Mr. W. R. Teller, he genial and justly popular proprietor the delegates to represent the Pennsyl- the Brockerhoff House, suddenly remembered one day last week, that another cycle had been completed, and that he was-but. out of consideration for the gentleman's feelings we are constrained to suppress the concluding portion of the sentence. At any rate he was "blank" years old and he invited his friends to enjoy a royal lunch in the evening in commemoration of his good luck in not having been called upon to hand in his checks and square up with the board. We wish him many happy returns of the day. -Company "B," N. G., of this place, has been disbanded and a new company formed, to take the place thus vacated in the Fifth Regiment. "Bellefonte Fencibles" is the cognomen by which they are known, borrowing the appellation from a similar organization existing in this place during the war. The first thirty-five gentlemen who offered their lives, liberties and sacred honors upon their country's altar form a very formidable array and are

-Pine Grove Mills will have a fine orps of speakers at the decoration ceremonies in that place next Saturday. Hon. J. B. Linn, together with J. L. Spangler, D. F. Fortney and W. C. Heinle, Esq's, will all be there to voice the praises of the silent soldier dead.

-The people of Pleasant Gap will decorate, although we have not learned who will deliver the oration for them. They have several gentlemen among their own citizens abundantly capable of performing that duty acceptably.

-Rebersburg will observe Decoration day with appropriate ceremonies on Saturday, Major R. H. Forster delivering the

-John G. Love, Esq., will give the people of Milesburg a brilliant oration on Decoration Day.

OBITUARY NOTICES .- We hear of the death of Samuel Graham, formerly of Buffalo Run, this county, but subsequently of the State of Illinois. He was a member of what was, during their residence at Buffalo Run, a large family, but since removing to Illinois the father and two ons - James and Samuel - have died. Four other children still survive.

-We most sincerely regret to learn of the sad affliction with which our friend, ex-Sheriff J. J. Pie, of Osceola, was recently visited. It was the death of his son, Francis Joseph Pie, a bright, promising young man about 24 years of age. He had gone to Philadelphia to receive medical treatment, but all the skill of his physicians failed to bring relief, and on Monday night, May 17, he breathed his last. We imagine the grief into which our friend is plunged by this sad event to be almost nconsolable, and extend our earnest sympathy.

-The Morning News, of Tuesday, records two deaths which occurred on Saturday at or near Hublersburg. The first is that of Mrs. Hannah Swartze wife of Mr. George Swartz, the founder of that place. Her death was occasioned by dropsy of the chest. On Tuesday her remains were interred at Snydertown. The death of Mrs. James Farley, who resided at Linn & McCoy's ore banks, one and a half miles east of Hublersburg, occurred at the same time. Her remains were brought to this place on Tuesday afternoon and buried in the Catholic cemetery.

-The death of Mrs. Fleming Poorman, of Milesburg, took place on Tuesday, the 18th instant, after a long period of illness. Her maiden name was Miss Ammerman. and she was well known throughout the county as a capable and successful instructress of the young. By her husband and relatives, she was held in the highest esteem, and it will be long ere the poignant grief occasioned by her death is Her funeral took place last Thursday from the residence of Mr. John Poorman week. He was eighty years of age, the last ed when a young man to Boalsburg, this county, where he pursued his business of wagon making, subsequently going to Hublersburg. His weighty crown of years was made radiant by the respect and affection of all who knew him.

-The dark messenger, Death, entered the residence of Mr. Isaac Guggenheimer, of this place, on Wednesday night of last week, taking from that happy household its most aged member, Mrs. Gothelph, mother of Mrs. Guggenheimer. She was also mother of Mrs. Abram Sussman. The deceased was born in Bavaria, and came to this country about thirty-five years ago. In 1861 she came to Bellefonte. On Thursday afternoon her body was taken to her former home in Philadelphia, where the interment took place on Friday. All the relatives and friends from this place were in attendance. She was about sixtynine years of age.

-Mr. Frank Wetzel was among the graduates of the Reformed Theological 13th instant. On returning home he was county treasurer. He and his bride departed on Wedesday morning for Decota, Stephenson county, Illinois, where we

THE WEST SUSQUEHANNA CLASSIS OF THE REFORMED CHURCH .- This body convened in annual session on Thursday the 19th instant, at 7 P. M., at Rebersburg. After a serman by the retiring president, Rev. W. W. Clouser, of White Deer, the Classis organized by the election of Rev. J. F. DeLong, of Bellefonte, as President: Rev. W. A. Haas, of Selinsgrove, as Stated Clerk and, Treasurer, and Rev. S. H. Kholer, of New Berlin, as Corresponding Secretary

On Thursday morning, Classis took up such business as claimed its attention. The usual standing committees were appointed. The pastors read their parochial reports, and the elders answered the constitutional questions put to them concerning the condition of the charges 'which delegated them, all of which showed that within the bounds of West Susquehanna Classis, the church, in the main, enjoyed peace and prosperity during the past year. Rev. A. Romich resigned the Beaver was dissolved. The call extended to Rev. C. W. E. Siegel by the Aaronsburg charge was confirmed, and a committee consisting of Revs. D. M. Wolfe, W. M. Landis and S. M. Roeder appointed to install him next Sunday. The licentiate, Franklin Wetzel, was dismissed to the Northern Illinois Conference. The Milton sufferers generally, and the need of the Reformed congregation of that place in particular, were commended to the sympathy and liberal contributions of the churches

On Friday evening, a meeting in behalf of the Sunday-school cause was held. The church was filled to overflowing, and addresses were delivered by Rev. DeLong, on the chief object of Sunday-school in struction; by Rev. Gerhart, on Sundayschool worship, and by Rev. Whitmer, on the Sunday-school as a missionary agency On Saturday evening a similar meeting was held in behalf of Foreign Missions which was addressed by Revs. Roeder, Stohr and Whitmer. The delegates elected to represent this Classis on the floor of the Eastern Synod, to convene at Myerstown, Pa., in October next, are Revs. Whitmer, DeLong and Groh, and Elders Transue, Gearick and Corman.

Classis adjourned on Saturday evening, well-pleased with the interest shown by the community of Rebersburg in its proceedings, and especially with the kind, pleasant hospitality given to its members.

LOCK HAVEN'S MURDER SENSATION .-Scarcely had the jury in the Lycoming county Court, at Williamsport, decided that the two persons recently tried by it for the high crime of murder, were guilty of that heinous offence, than Lock Haven, a city which rivals the former in more ways than in the amount of lumber sold, also comes forward with every evi dence that a similar horrible crime ha been committed within her own fair bor ders-and that, too, obscured by all the mystery that men and women, money and fire can throw around it .-

A house situated on Bald Eagle stree was burned to the ground quite early on Saturday morning, and in its dying embers was found the body of its unfortunate occupant, Mrs. Mary E. Friedel, a woman of fifty-five years of age. Miss Josie Deland, who lives in the next house, was at her window at half past two o'clock in the morning, and heard a noise in Mrs. Friedel's house, but did not attach importance Springs charge, and the pastoral relation to it, as she thought Mrs. Friedel was only engaged in a pugilistic encounter with her daughter. This young female, and also Mrs. Friedel's daughter and son are positive there was money in the house, Henry Friedel, the son, placing the amount as high as $1,585, $288.50 of which was in gold.

Inquiries instituted by the Daily Journal and also the post-mortem examination indicate that Mrs. Friedel was murdered before the house was fired. George Wagner, a German, employed at Gossler & Co's planing mill, was arrested on suspicion. The only evidence connecting him with the crime appears to be that he frequently visited Mrs. Friedel, and was consequently aware that she kept money in the house.

At all events, the Clinton county courts eem destined to be the scene of an exciting murder trial.

"OUR BOB" MARRIED. - Mr. Robert Larimer, son of Pleasant Gap's good citizen, Mr. J. G. Larimer, and whom it is extremely convenient as well as apropos to dub "Our Bob," because he has been connected with the DEMOCRAT office during its entire existence, departed on the train last Wednesday afternoon for Clearfield. There was nothing strange about that, how ever, as he had frequently journeyed to that town before, and whenever he chose to depart for any length of time from the onored precincts of the printing office, an attraction, delightful in its essence and strong in its power, drew him irresistably in that direction. Often we guessed the sweet attraction which enticed him thither, and as often he declined to acknowledge it. But at last as the May sun grew strong and the days grew long, and the flowers put forth their glowing petals, "Bob" again renewed his preparations for a visit to the town in which his affections seemed to be most firmly fixed. Those inexplicable but unmistakable signs which suggest a momentous event in life were plainly evident in the actions of "Bob," and we sus-pected strongly, and, as events proved, truly, that the coming trip would be an important one to "Bob" and perhaps to another. He reached his destination, though the cars did travel slowly, and was married on Thursday night to Miss Rilla McPherson. at the residence of her mother, Mrs. John McPherson, in Clearfield. The wedding was appropriately solemnized by Rev. George Leidy, of the M. E. church of that place

The happy couple returned the following day to this place and were driven immediately to the groom's home at Pleasant Gap, where hospitality ever stands with open arms bidding all to enter. There an-other happy scene took place.

The bride is a sister of Ross McPherson, Esq., ex-Sheriff of Clearfield county, and spoken of in terms of the highest praise. The groom-well, he is so well known that he requires no introduction. Everybody joins in wishing them a married life of much happiness and prosperity.

AN EVENING IN SPIRIT LAND .- Prof. Cecil, the greatest and most successful Spiritualistic exposer in the world, will give one of his marvelous and mirth provoking entertainments in the Opera House, on Thursday (this) evening, May 27. The Boone, Ia., Republican, in speaking of him, says: "The entertainment given by Prof. Cecil, last evening, was a gratifying exposure of the spiritualistic baubles and the superstitious notions which have pervaded to a remarkable degree the unparalleled civilization of the nineteenth century. During the past summer the people, to the number of 10,000 at a time, have assembled in mass meetings throughout the country to attest their devotion to spiritualism, and have endured the fraudulent inflictions of so-called mediums with a composure and evident satisfaction which is startling to men of utallignees. composure and evident satisfaction which is startling to men of intelligence and reason. At the entertainment in question the audience were permitted to go behind the scenes. There were few prominent operations which take effect in the darkened seance chamber of the mediums which were not performed by Prof. Cecil, and the manner of accomplishment fully were not performed by Prof. Cecil, and the manner of accomplishment fully shown. Simple as the light of day, when you know how, was the unanimous verdict. Prof. Cecil is a national benefactor, in that he makes clear the frauds imposed upon the public to secure their money and patronage. Without attempting to be, he is a genuine scientist, in that he investigates, and shows to the satisfaction of himself and mankind, the true status of a prominent question imposed upon men."

TUNE-Old Hundred. Blest are the martyred dead who lie In holy graves for freedom won; Whose storied deeds shall never die

While coming years their circles run Blest be the ground where heroes sleep, And blest the flag that o'er them waves Its radiant stars their watch shall keep,

And brightly beam on hallowed graves. While freedom lives, their fame shall live

In Glory on her blazing scroll;
And love her sacrifice shall give,
While anthems round the altar roll. Year after year our hands shall bear Immortal flowers in vernal bloom Till God shall call us home to share

Immortal life beyond the tomb

THE HEROINE OF A RUNAWAY .- Our

norning contemporary of Monday graph. ically describes a runaway which occurred near Boiling Springs last Friday evening, in which Miss Lizze Shortlidge, daughter of our enterprising citizen, Mr. William Shortlidge, bore herself in a manner that showed great bravery and admirable self possession. Mr. William Rupert, of Zion and Miss Shortlidge were enjoying a car riage ride, William driving two of his fath er's spirited horses. When they neared Humes' grist mill, the horses becam frightened at a scarecrow in a neighboring field. William vaulted from the carriage to seize the animals, but they escaped from him, and rushed on, bearing Miss Lizzi with them. At the mill some men agai assayed to stop them, but only served t hasten the rapid flight of the frightened steeds. Meanwhile, Miss Lizzie, with deperate determination and bated breath clung to the sides of the vehicle. On the horses rushed, passing over bridges, graz ing wayside trees, dancing over stones scarcely touching the ground as they con tinued on their mad course. When Heav. erly & Sweeney's blacksmith shop wa reached, that happy fortune which con stantly presides over the actions of the brave and the fair, caused the dragging reins to become entangled in the spokes the wheels. This checked the cour animals, and turned the carriage haround. Miss Lizzie realized that now never was her opportunity to escape, a umped lightly to terra firma. fortunate in doing so for in anoth the carriage was overturned and drags some distance before the men wh lowing in the rear succeeded in them. The carriage was righted William arrived upon the scene much relieved to see the fortunat ation of the adventure. Mutual conglations were exchanged, and they enabled to resume their journey we hope, with no more scarecrows nor ad venture.
