Never come "down town" without stopping to buy a cigar of Harry Green.

The population of Bellefonte is 3030—how many of them buy Harry Green's cigars?

Improvements of an elaborate description continue to be made in and about the Bush House.

The Bellefonte Fencibles meet at their armory to-morrow evening to transact important business.

The Presbyterian church edifice still stands a menace and terror to all the people in that vicinity.

The Presbyterian congregation worshipped in Humes' Hall both morning and evening of last Sunday.

The twelfth annual meeting of the State Teachers' Association will be held at York, July 27, 28 and 29.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society met at Mrs. John Ardell's on Linn street last Friday evening.

Peaches, watermelons and green corn are in the market. The former are about the size of an ordinary plum.

We are just entering another season of beautiful moonlight evenings. The moon is exactly quarter full to-day.

One feature of the Day Kidney Pad is commendable, that nothing is claimed for it, except what it will absolutely effect.

The Chief and Assistant Burgesses have each been submitting their business places to a cleansing process—that of the former receiving an application of paint.

The Daily News informs its readers that Mr. R. B. Kinne, of Milesburg, has been appointed by Mr. Hayes as register of the land office at Yakima, Washington Territory.

There was a very small attendance at churches and Sunday-schools on Sunday last. Those who absented themselves found a convenient, perhaps welcome, excuse in the prevailing heat.

The annual election of directors for the Ironworkers' building at Valentines' Forge took place last week. Three selections were made from the employes and two from the proprietors.

Saturday evening last was a lively occasion for Snow Shoe. In addition to the Chinclala-moose House hop, the Roman Catholic church gave a festival, which was a pleasant affair and realized a large amount for the church.

Darkness reigned supreme upon the streets of this place last Monday night. The young moon retired behind the hills at an early hour, and as the sky was clouded and the gas not lighted, pedestrians had no aid save that of natural instinct to guide their feet over the rough pavement.

A delightful hop was held at the Chinclala-moose House, Snow Shoe, on Saturday evening last. The affair was conducted by Bellefonte parties, but was participated in by guests at the hotel and residents of Snow Shoe. The music was furnished by the string band of Snow Shoe, and was considered excellent.

Mr. Frank Gallagher, of Howard, was unfortunate enough to lose his fine young cow, on Tuesday morning of last week, by "bloat," which was caused by eating too freely of young clover. Mr. Gallagher is a laboring man, and the loss falls heavily upon him. He has the sympathy of his neighbors.

On Tuesday of last week two men named Aikey and Heiland were severely burned by the premature explosion of a blast at the ore banks of the Bellefonte Iron Company. The explosion occurred just after their return from dinner. The injuries of Heiland were the most serious, and he will be confined for several weeks. Aikey's injuries were slight.

Mr. Shaffer's hotel at Howard was the scene of a pleasant wedding on Wednesday of last week, the contracting parties being Miss Hannah Daughenbaugh and Mr. Philip Iddings. Elder N. J. Mitchell performed the ceremony. They are a handsome couple and appeared the personifications of happiness as they departed from the hotel.

Among the many curious citizens of New York City is a Dr. Tanner, who is fasting for a period of forty days—about eighteen days of that time now being completed. Such a ridiculous idea as this would never occur to a man who has lived long in Centre county. While there are grocery stores selling such delicious groceries as can be bought at Sechler & Co's it would kill any average man to fast for twelve hours. Try Sechler's groceries and prove the truth of what we say.

This is the best time to buy clothing cheap of Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter.

The death of Mr. Samuel Moyer, of Millheim, occurred on Friday of last week.

It was caused by consumption, of which he was a victim. Mr. Moyer was an experienced miller, and for a long time had operated the large brick mill owned by Mr. Daniel Musser. He was an excellent man and his death will be much regretted.

Prominent among the numerous festivals now being held throughout the county was one given by the Methodists at Curtin's works on Saturday night. Fifty-two dollars were received as the profits of the evening, which is an unusually good exhibit.

"It is an ill wind that blows no one good," and the warm weather seems to be principally beneficial for church festivals.

The quite young children of Pleasant Gap clubbed together last Saturday, went to the woods and enjoyed a picnic by themselves, without the presence of any older folks. We'll bet that so far as enjoyment was concerned, it was the most successful of the season, for Young America, with all the wild woods to roam over, unrestrained, is not inclined to allow time to hang idly on its hands.

During the present warm weather, when articles of diet do not keep fresh and sweet long, people have to purchase frequently and in small quantities. The heat also renders it doubly important to know where to find the freshest and best food. So far as groceries are concerned, that place is the store of Sechler & Co. People can always place reliance on the fact that their stock is the best the market will afford.

We are indebted to Prof. Henry Meyer, our excellent County Superintendent, for a copy of the programme of exercises adopted for the meeting of the State Teachers' Association which will be held at York, Pa., on the 27th, 28th and 29th of the present month. This meeting will undoubtedly be one of much pleasure and profit to the members of the association as well as to all others who feel an interest in the subject of education.

The annual picnic of the Coleville Sunday-school was held last Thursday in the grove near Mr. Wm. Humes' residence. It was well attended, many visitors from Bellefonte being present. Col. D. H. Hastings contributed to the pleasure of the occasion with one of his entertaining addresses. Of course, refreshments had been provided in abundance, and the day was a merry one to all who participated.

The ice cream festival in the basement of the M. E. church on Friday and Saturday evenings of last week was another successful affair. On Friday evening the ice cream and cake on hand was all sold, while on Saturday evening, although enough had been provided to meet all demands, the receipts were quite liberal. The cream not converted into ice cream was utilized by being churned into butter.

Eighty thousand dollars was the amount subscribed to the sufferers by the Milton fire, and now the vexed question is how to divide the money. Under the circumstances, we are not prepared to offer a solution to the problem, but if they lived a little nearer Bellefonte, we would advise that a hundred weight of groceries be bought at S. A. Brew & Son's store for every man, woman and child in the place. It would be the best thing for their health and happiness, as the people of Centre county owe much of their present prosperity to the existence of Brew's store.

The equipments of the Bellefonte Fencibles (Co. B, 6th Reg.) have been received and are stored in their armory in the Bush Arcade. The men composing the company are well pleased with their outfit, every thing being entirely new and in excellent order. The guns, knapsacks, cartridge boxes, belts, haversacks, &c., have never been used and are handsome and convenient. The men are rapidly becoming proficient in the difficult manual of arms and regulation tactics and will no doubt—for the short time of enlistment—make a suitable showing at the annual encampment at Braddock's Fields in September. The uniforms are contracted for and we will soon have a fully equipped military organization in our midst of which we can be justly proud.

The Executive Committee of the Pennsylvania State Dental Society have favored us with a programme of their coming annual meeting, which will be held in this place on July 27, one week from next Tuesday, and continue three days. There are many exercises on the programme of interest to the profession. We do not know the proportions of the Society, but opine from the programme that it is large, embracing many distinguished members. Then, these dentists, when they assemble for consultation, have a pleasant custom of bringing their wives and daughters along for a summer recreation. While the paternal members of the family are engaged in discussing "Hydrobromic Ether as an Anesthetic," or some other equally outlandish subject, the female portion may be seen upon the street, their fair faces and fine toilets adding to the beauty of the scene. We hope they will all come and bring an unusually large number of wives and daughters along, and that the meeting may be one of the most pleasant in the history of the Society. Dentists have heretofore been principally useful in extracting teeth—and that in the most excruciatingly painful matter possible—but if the coming meeting shall contribute in rendering that dreaded operation one which easier a grateful public will open its arms to them in enthusiastic welcome. The meetings of the society will be held in the Court House.

A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.—The first terrible sensation of last week was received on Thursday morning, and was the intelligence that Mr. David Dale, living near Lemont, had fallen into a vat of vitriol the previous afternoon and almost perished in the burning liquid. Further reports confirmed the sad news. On Wednesday afternoon he was at work in the wollen mills at Lemont, of which he and his brother are the proprietors, and while passing over a board, it broke under his weight, precipitating him into the vat of coloring matter beneath. As the contents of the vat were strongly impregnated with vitriol, the fluid burned into his flesh, and for some time his life was despaired of. His brother, who is a physician, is attending him, and he is now slowly recovering. His suffering, of course, was intense.

William Fellenbaum, son of Mr. John Fellenbaum, was the victim of a terrible accident last Friday afternoon, while at work in Wm. P. Duncan & Co's machine shops. He was standing on a ladder adjusting the belting on a pulley, when three fingers of his left hand were caught in the revolving belt and his body drawn several times around the shaft before the machinery could be stopped. His fingers were literally torn from the hand and the tendons lacerated to the wrist, which was broken. It was an unfortunate accident, as William was a bright, active, skillful workman for one so young—only eighteen years of age—and his hand will be rendered useless for a long time, and amputation may be necessary. He has our earnest sympathy.

The second event of Friday which can take its place in our "Chapter" was the run-a-way of Mr. Lawrence Brown's horses, which occurred about 4 o'clock P. M. We don't know exactly where they started from, but as they ran with the wagon clattering behind, a noise was made equal to the descent of an avalanche. Everybody in the neighborhood was aroused, and when the team passed the depot and ran over the road towards the car works, the full force of employes at the former place left their work and followed wildly after the retreating steeds, which soon resembled a speck of dust in the distance. Near the car works, another horse and wagon belonging to Duncan, Hale & Co. was collided with, and the horse ran over the hills, followed by an excited multitude. All the animals were soon caught, but Mr. Brown's wagon was found in a sadly demoralized condition, and was brought home in small pieces. This event involved altogether too much exertion for a hot day, and caused perspiration to flow freely from both men and steeds.

An accident occurred at Snow Shoe on Saturday which resulted in the death of Mr. Philip Crollman, an employe in the mines. He was engaged in excavating under a ledge of coal and rock, which loosened the props, and the entire mass, probably without an instant's warning, was dislodged and precipitated upon him. He was removed from his terrible situation and taken to his home, where he soon died from internal injuries, although no bones were broken. On Monday morning his body was taken for interment to his former place of residence in New York State. He leaves a wife and several children. This is the first accident, resulting fatally, that has occurred at the Snow Shoe mines in twenty-five years.

Mr. John McDonough, of Snow Shoe, was walking on the railroad near the Summit on Saturday last, and stepped off on a siding to avoid an approaching train, not perceiving that the switch was turned to direct the train upon the track where he was standing. Before he discovered his danger the wheels of the engine had passed over and crushed one of his feet. Mr. McDonough is, we believe, the same man that had one of his legs crushed some time ago by railroad ties falling upon it.

Saturday's Daily News says that "a three year old daughter of Mr. Henry Sampsel, of Benner township, was kicked in the head one day last week by a horse which she had approached in the pasture. She died from her injuries on Sunday, her skull being very badly fractured."

RATIFICATION MEETING AT MILLHEIM.—The sturdy Democracy of the lower end assembled at Millheim, on last Saturday evening, to ratify the nomination of Hancock and English. The meeting was well attended and was an earnest of the spirit that pervades the Democratic masses everywhere in the land. John Reifsnyder, Esq., called the meeting to order and Daniel A. Musser, Esq., was selected to preside. Able and stirring speeches were made by David F. Fortney and Wm. C. Heinle, Esq., which were well received and heartily applauded. The best of feeling prevailed and all the Democrats present gave assurances that Penn's Valley will this fall give a larger vote to Hancock and English than any Democratic candidates ever received in that part of the county. The meeting adjourned with hearty cheers for the soldier-statesman.

DISTRICT SUNDAY-SCHOOL INSTITUTE.—The Sunday-school people of Boggs, Curtin and Howard townships and Milesburg and Howard boroughs will hold a district institute at Curtin's works on Tuesday and Wednesday next, July 20 and 21. One session will be held on Tuesday evening and three on Wednesday, morning, afternoon and evening. It is said that some of the prominent Sunday-school workers of Clinton county will be present to take part in the exercises. Everybody is invited to be present. Clement Dale, Esq., the Secretary, is prepared to furnish all necessary information.

SUMMER PERSONALS.—It is said that the faces of the Hublersburg young ladies are wreathed in smiles for a week after receiving a visit from the Daily News "local."

Misses Annie and Hattie, daughters of Mr. Fearon Mann, started on Monday morning for Newton Hamilton, Huntingdon county, where they will make a prolonged visit.

Miss Jennie Dare started on Friday last for her visit at Cape May.

Mr. Richard Garman, who has for a long time past been sojourning at Coatesville, Pa., returned home on Saturday for a visit.

Mr. L. T. Eddy, of Linn & McCoy's iron works, has been taking an Eastern trip, from which he returned on Saturday last.

John C. Miller was in Huntingdon again last Sunday. His trips in that direction are growing suspiciously frequent.

Mr. Howard Lingle has been visiting in Bloomsburg, being drawn thither by that subtle and tender attraction which has influenced every man since the world was created.

Miss Richardson, of Pittsburg, is the guest of Miss Clara Lyon, of this place.

Judge John H. Orvis and family are greatly delighted with their new Linn street residence. The interior arrangements of the house are now about completed, and the next duty will be to beautify the surrounding grounds.

Miss Mary Tripple, of this place, is paying a visit to her uncle, Mr. Charles Wilson, of Altoona.

Rev. James Calder and family are now permanently located at Harrisburg.

Mr. George Thomas and lady are entertaining friends from Ohio.

A substantial new boardwalk is being laid along Water street from High street to Reynolds' mill. It is a welcome improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Newell, of Clearfield, visited in this place last week. Mr. Newell was formerly a Bellefonte boy, but since going to Clearfield he has been married, (we believe, to a Williamsport young lady), and is now quietly settled as a citizen of that place.

Mr. Robert Gilmore has been entertaining his sister, one of the bright young ladies of Milton.

Mr. Fred Reynolds successfully passed the Princeton College examination, and will enter that institution next fall.

Mr. Beck, the tonsorial artist, still continues his early morning concerts.

Mr. William Reynolds, Judge John H. Orvis and the family of Mr. George W. Jackson are among the visitors from this place at Bedford Springs.

Miss Nannie Harris, of this place, is visiting her many friends in Huntingdon.

Miss Allen, of Harrisburg, who has been the guest of Miss Foster, of this place, departs for home to-day. If a look of despondency is visible on the countenances of any of the Bellefonte beaux, its source can be traced to the above event.

Mr. Jacob H. Bauland, of Chicago, is visiting his brother, Mr. J. H. Bauland, of the "Bee Hive" stores, this place.

Miss Martha Lyon, of Philadelphia, is visiting at the residence of Mr. Isaac Guggenheimer, of this place.

J. W. Pennington, Esq., and daughter Maggie, of Philadelphia, arrived in Bellefonte on Monday evening. They are stopping at the Brockerhoff House. Welcome, and hope they will have a pleasant time.

E. N. Carpenter, Esq., the popular representative of the large tea and coffee house of Barkley, Hassan & Co., Baltimore, is in town for a few days.

THE CENSUS OF CENTRE COUNTY.—The enumerators of Centre county for 1880 have completed their work, and we present to the readers of the DEMOCRAT a table of the population of each borough and township in the county as returned by them, together with the population returned for the decades of 1870, 1860 and 1850. It will be observed that the aggregate of the figures for 1880 makes the present population of the county 37,929, which is an increase over 1870 of 3,511, or a little more than 10 per cent. In the main, we believe the work of taking this census was well performed, the books returned by the enumerators, with few exceptions, being very creditable specimens of their skill and intelligence.

Table with 4 columns: Boroughs and Townships, 1880, 1870, 1860, 1850. Rows include Bellefonte, Milesburg, Unionville, etc.

a Howard borough from Howard township.

b Milesburg from Penn township in 1870.

c Harrisburg from Bush township.

d Unionville from Union township.

e College from Harris and Benner townships.

TYRONE'S TERRIBLE SCORCHING.—At twenty minutes past 3 o'clock on Thursday morning of last week, a fire broke out in the livery stable attached to the City Hotel property at Tyrone, and raged for several hours, destroying in its course the best business portion of the town. The total loss was $125,000, and the insurance $105,000. The following represents the course taken by the fire and the individual losses:

The Vigilant fire company and the Empire hook and ladder company, of Altoona, and the Huntingdon steam fire company were summoned to the aid of the Tyrone firemen, and promptly responded, doing noble service in extinguishing the flames. Captain Jones will immediately begin the erection of a new building, and the Herald will be issued without interruption. We sympathize with Major Stroop, of the Democrat, in his loss, and hope that the time is not far distant when his valuable newspaper will appear as usual. The fire was a severe blow to Tyrone.

THE ALUMNI OF PENNSYLVANIA COLLEGE.—Among the gatherings in the future for Bellefonte, none present more attractive general features than the annual re-union of the Alumni and students of Pennsylvania College, which will meet in this place on Wednesday, July 28. The following programme shows what exercises may be expected on that occasion:

10 A. M. Business Session.

2 P. M. Social and Business Session.

3 P. M. Discussion of the subject: "Do the Literary and Oratorical Trainings of College bear a superior Relation to the Curriculum?" to be opened by Rev. J. M. Keimensnyder, class of '70; J. A. Beeber, Esq., class of '56, alternate.

10 P. M. Banquet.

HANCOCK AND ENGLISH CLUB AT HOWARD.—According to previous notice the Democrats of the borough and the township of Howard met on Wednesday evening, July 7, for the purpose of organizing a Hancock and English club. After an organization had been effected, on motion of Mr. Commerford, it was resolved that a meeting be called at Lucas' Hall, Friday evening, July 16, for the purpose of making a permanent organization and beginning the work of the campaign in their section of the county. The chair then appointed John A. Woodward, G. W. Commerford and H. A. Moore, a committee to secure a permanent place of meeting. On motion of Mr. B. Weber, the same committee was instructed to prepare rules for the government of the club and report at the next meeting. Mr. Woodward made a few remarks, setting forth the objects of the club. Mr. Commerford made the first address as a member of the prospective club, which was brief but to the point. On motion of Mr. Woodward, it was resolved that a copy of the proceedings of the meeting be sent to the Democratic Watchman and the CENTRE DEMOCRAT for publication. The Democrats of Howard are alive to the importance of the work before them and will do their full duty.

A festival will be held in the Shiloh church, in College township, on Friday and Saturday evenings, July 23 and 24. It will begin on Friday evening and continue on Saturday afternoon and evening. The Lemont and Pleasant Gap brass bands have been invited to participate. The proceeds are for the benefit of the church. The refreshments will be first-class, and everybody is invited.

CIRCUS DAY.—Yesterday, as all well know, was circus day—the most important holiday known to the American people, although not yet legalized. Coup's United Monster Show arrived about 5 o'clock A. M. We did not count them, but are informed that twenty-six cars were required to convey the show and its equipments to this place. We always go to press early and therefore can give no account of the exhibitions, but from those who caught premature glimpses at the horses, elephants, &c., are informed that it is superior to any exhibition ever before brought to this place. Mr. John Sourbeck displayed his usual enterprise and patriotism in a tempting display of gingerbread and lemonade. A tent on High street just this side the railroad was ornamented on top with the national colors, while from within refreshments were dispensed to the crowd. A large number of people from the surrounding country appeared early upon the streets and witnessed the street procession which took place about half-past 10 o'clock, and bore out the high expectations already formed of it. Doubtless the two exhibitions of the show were well patronized.

A TEMPERANCE DEMONSTRATION.—About fifty persons met in the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association last Friday night to take some action in the work of temperance, which has been indulging in a prolonged sleep, the only temperance organization at present existing in this vicinity being the Ladies' Temperance Prayer Meeting. Mr. James Somerville was made chairman of the meeting, and J. W. Gephart, A. S. Keller, A. O. Furst, and W. H. Blair, Esq's, Rev. James P. Hughes and Charles F. Cook participated in an animated discussion. The result was the appointment of a committee of seven to draft a course of future operations and report the next meeting to-morrow evening. The committee consists of D. S. Kellet, A. O. Furst and W. H. Blair, Esq's, Mr. Charles F. Cook, Mrs. John P. Harris, Mrs. Nannie Orison and Mrs. Egan Blanchard. Everybody is invited to attend the meeting to-morrow night.

THE ENCAMPMENT.—The following order, relative to the fall encampment and inspection of the National Guard, has been issued from division headquarters:

I. An encampment is hereby ordered for the troops of the division as follows:

First, Second and Third Brigades, from August 6th to August 13th, at Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, Pa. Fourth and Fifth Brigades, from September 7th to September 14th, at Thompson's Station, near Braddock's.

By command of Major-General John F. Hartman. G. H. NORTH, Asst. Adjutant General.
