All should attend who have anything at stake, as the report will be of interest to all.

MANY CITIZENS.

A Card.

It having come to my knowledge that the authorship of a communication in the Bellefonte Republican of the 14th inst., from Millheim in this county, in which an untrue account is given of the Democratic ratification meeting at that place, on Saturday evening the 10th inst., is attributed to me, I take this public manner of branding such statement as false. Whoever is responsible for the circulation of this silly canard does me a gross injustice and is indebted to his imagination for his alleged facts.

J. N. VAN ORMER.

Democratic Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Democrats of Milesburg and Boggs township on SATURDAY EVENING, July 31, at their Club rooms, in Milesburg, for the purpose of organizing a Club. All persons who favor the election of Hancock and English are invited to be present.

JAS. A. McCLAIN,
FRANK E. BIBLE,
Chairmen of Boggs and Milesburg.

Local Department.

—James Milliken, Esq., is at Long Branch.

—The market fees for the past two weeks reached $7.30.

—A sure road is always the best. Wearing a Day's Kidney Pad is the sure road to health.

—July is the month of storms and also the month to buy clothing of Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter.

—Almost all the superb soldiers, sailors and statesmen smoke segars, and buy them of Harry Green.

—Gentlemen visiting in town should select a new suit of clothes from the stock kept by Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter.

—Twenty-nine wagons, butler at 20 cents per lb., and plenty of blue whortleberries at market on Saturday morning.

—Smoking segars by the sea shore is the favorite occupation now, and it is doubly blissful if the segars come from Harry Green's.

—The most elegant suits worn by the gentlemen at the summer resorts are those procured of Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter in this place.

—We learn that a valuable horse belonging to Mr. Kline, of Benner township, was struck by lightning on Monday and instantly killed.

—Remember the meeting of the Alumni and students of Pennsylvania College, in Humes' Hall, next Wednesday. It will be a rich treat.

—An infant child of Mr. David Bartley, living on Water street, was buried in the Howard street cemetery, this place, last Friday afternoon.

—Barbara Smith, an aged and well known colored woman of this borough, died on Tuesday evening last. She was about eighty-four years old.

—The fence around the gas house has received a fresh coat of whitewash. It would be well, perhaps, to treat some of the gas bills in the same way.

—The temperance people desire to establish a cold water fountain on the streets of this place, and last Monday evening, petitioned council for that privilege.

—The Pennsylvania Dental Association will meet in this place on Tuesday next and remain three days. The sessions of the Association are open to the public.

—Mr. John Bartruff, the carriage builder, we regret to say, is suffering the affliction of an injured great toe. A cart wheel fell on it "and that was the cause of it."

—The next event of great interest to our readers will be the State Agricultural Fair, to be held in the Permanent Exhibition Building, Philadelphia, beginning September 6 and ending on the 18th. The books of entry are now open and exhibits will be received until August 31.

—The "boys," in great numbers and in huge expectations of a "high old time," departed for their camping-out expedition last Friday. It is to be hoped that Montgomery will not mistake so valuable a person as Hagerman for a bear, as he did last year, and well-nigh terminate his precious existence.

—On Tuesday evening, Mr. James Sheridan, an employe of the Phoenix Planing Mill, was unloading a car load of lumber. The timber was quite heavy and he used a cant-hook to aid in his work. The hook suddenly slipped, causing Mr. Sheridan to lose his balance and fall from the car to the ground, a distance of eight feet. His head and shoulders struck upon a pile of cinders, and he received numerous cuts and bruises. It is thought he also received internal injuries.

—Notwithstanding the kind of men's or boys' clothing you want to buy, the best can always be purchased of Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter.

—The time when trout may legally be caught is fast drawing to a close, and all who love to indulge the sport must improve the remaining days of July. The time for purchasing cheap and fresh groceries of Sechler & Co. will continue all year, and the patrons of the store wish it would last forever.

—Mr. Edward C. Humes has, during the past year, raised some of the most beautiful white wheat on his farm near town. It has ever been our good fortune to see. The grains are large and splendidly developed. He has already delivered over four hundred and fifty bushels of it to buyers this season.

—Mrs. Col. Theodore Gregg, of Milesburg, breathed her last at her home in that borough on Wednesday morning of last week. Her death was occasioned by consumption, accompanied by severe attacks of inflammatory rheumatism. Col. Gregg died but a few months ago, and his widow, although not yet 30 years of age, thus early followed her beloved husband beyond the grave.

—Mr. Thomas Ryan, of Howard borough, was found dead in bed on Friday morning, the 9th instant. His wife first made the discovery when she went to call him to breakfast. It was another case of heart disease, a malady which seems to be increasingly frequent of late among the aged. He was 65 years of age. On Sunday, July 11, he was brought to this place and buried in the Howard street cemetery.

—Although the weather predictions made by Vennon, the Canadian, have not always received a literal fulfillment, yet for the past year they have been a fair index to its general character. The only man in our recollection who has shown greater discernment is the one who said that Sechler & Co's store would continue to grow more popular with the people. A large portion of the groceries now used in this county come from that store.

—The annual report of Prof. H. Meyer, County Superintendent of Public Schools, will be found on the fourth page of this issue. It is a brief, concise, well-written document, containing much valuable information and many pertinent suggestions. It is as able for the deficiencies in the public school system which it points out as for the progress it shows has been made. All persons interested in education should peruse it carefully.

—Now the hardest work on the farm is over and farmers can take a breathing spell. There is something very pleasant and suggestive about the "harvest homes," as the Patrons of Husbandry designate their picnics. On Saturday, the 31st instant, the Patrons of Husbandry of Clinton county will hold a "harvest home" celebration on Clinton Dale camp grounds. The Sabbath-schools of Nittany valley will be present, and a very pleasant time is anticipated.

—Mr. John Spear Thompson, a prominent citizen of Port Matilda, died of consumption at that place, on Tuesday, the 6th instant. He had been a sufferer for the past two years, and had born his illness with a resignation quite supernatural. He was a consistent and devout member of the Presbyterian church, and a man of great excellence of character. Rev. James P. Hughes, of this place, and Rev. Dr. Hamill, of Lemont, officiated at his funeral on Sunday, the 8th instant. He was forty-five years old.

—Mr. Amos Mullen, Captain of Co. B, 5th Regiment, (Bellefonte Fencibles), last Friday evening appointed the following list of non-commissioned officers: J. D. Geisinger, 1st sergeant; Cameron Burnside, 2d sergeant; W. R. Teller, 3d sergeant; William Fry, 4th sergeant; W. Gais, 5th sergeant; Lewis Sunday, 1st corporal; T. McMullen, 2d corporal; W. F. Reeder, 3d corporal; W. L. Malin, 4th corporal; D. F. Fortney, 5th corporal; Ed. L. Gray, 6th corporal; J. L. Spangler, 7th corporal; Chas. E. Schroeder, 8th corporal; H. Crissman, clerk.

—On Friday evening, the 2d instant, a Post of the G. A. R. was organized in Clearfield. E. W. Hale, District Post Commander, assisted by Comrades Wm. H. Kinkade, A. H. Smith and other members of the John W. Gray Post, of Philadelphia, were present, assisting in the ceremonies. The new Post was named "Larimer Post, No. 179," in honor of Major J. Harvey Larimer, who was Major of the 33d Regiment, Penn'a Volunteers, better known as the 5th Reserve, and was killed in an engagement near Bristol Station. He was a cousin of Mr. J. G. Larimer, of Pleasant Gap, and the bravest Larimer that ever drew breath. The Post was appropriately named.

—The great book of General J. B. Hood of his personal experiences in the United States and Confederate States Armies, entitled "Advance and Retreat," is being pushed for sale, as much on its merits as a valuable contribution to the history of the war, as by the ladies of the Southern and Western States, who use their personal exertions to induce their gentlemen friends to subscribe three or four dollars for its purchase, and thus add their share to "The Hood Orphan Memorial Fund," which has published the book through General G. T. Beauregard, whose Post Office box at New Orleans is crowded with letters from all parts of the country with inquiries as to the duties and privileges of agents. God speed them in their good work to help the orphan and fatherless.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.—Clom. Dale, Esq., is, quite appropriately, intensely interested in the success of the meeting of the Alumni and students of Pennsylvania College, to assemble in Humes' Hall, this place, next Wednesday.

—Mr. William Lyon, of the Bishop street meat-market, is entertaining one of his sisters from Danville.

—Miss Ada Ale, of Clearfield, and Miss Merryman, of this county, have been visiting their cousin, Mrs. Moran, this week. They will leave to-day.

—President Ardell and Messrs. Harper, Hunter, Mullen and McQuiston were the members present at the meeting of council last Monday evening.

—Mr. David Lieb departed for Pittsburg yesterday morning, to remain away for some time.

—Dr. Valentine, President of Pennsylvania College, and other distinguished members of the Faculty, will be present at the meeting of the Alumni and students in this place next Wednesday. The oration in the evening will be exceedingly fine, and all are cordially invited to be present. Humes' Hall should be thronged at each session.

—Miss Rhone, daughter of Dr. J. W. Rhone, of this place, who has been absent from town for several weeks, returned home yesterday.

—Miss Mary Bradley, the sweet singer in the Episcopal church choir, this place, is visiting friends in Renovo.

—"Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter" is decidedly a high-sounding name, and corresponds with the quality of the clothes they offer for sale.

—A party of young folks assembled at the residence of Mr. Stewart Lyon, on Curtin street, last Monday evening, and spent several hours quite pleasantly.

—Miss Lida Thomas returned last week from her prolonged visit in California.

—Rev. Mr. Hewitt, father of Rev. John Hewitt, was sufficiently recovered from his recent illness to depart last week for his home in Ridgeway.

—Mr. Frank Montgomery and Masters John and Harry Boalick are sojourning for a few days at the sea side.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Reber, after an extended wedding tour, including Philadelphia, New York, Coney Island, Boston and Niagara Falls, returned home on Saturday night and are now comfortably ensconced at the pleasant boarding house of the bride's mother, on Allegheny street.

—The elegant mansion of Mrs. Judge Hale, on Allegheny street, has been thrown open for the summer months, and is now occupied by a few members of the Hale family.

—Mr. Charles F. Cook and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rankin departed on Saturday morning to visit friends residing near Clearfield. We hope that the health-giving air floating through the pine woods of the Clearfield county forests will do them all much physical benefit.

—The family of Gen. J. S. Brisbin have returned from the Chinacala-moose House, Snow Shoe, and are now staying at the Bush House.

—Mr. Edward Spear is now a telegraph operator at Wilmington, Delaware.

—Mr. Frank Ammerman, of Shamokin, who has been visiting for a few weeks with his uncle, Mr. Ammerman, residing on Bishop street, this place, departed again for home on Friday last.

—Miss Lyda McGinley, of this place, is at Dunntown, visiting her sister, Mrs. Bickford. She will remain away for some time.

—Miss Emma Kurtz, of Milton, is at present the guest of Miss Forster, on Linn street.

—Miss Ella Cowdrick has been visiting friends in Lock Haven.

—Mr. Harvey McClure is erecting another dwelling house on his Logan street property.

—The climate of Georgia was not favorable to the health of Mr. Spencer C. Ogden, who went from here last spring to take a position in the service of the Georgia Lumber Company, and he has returned to Trenton, N. J.

—Rev. S. W. Beach, formerly of this place, and now pastor of one of the principal Presbyterian churches in the City of Baltimore, is visiting in this place. We believe he intends to preach for the Presbyterian congregation in Humes' Hall, this place, next Sunday morning and evening. The time is probably not far distant when he will carry one of Bellefonte's cultivated maidens away with him to preside over the female department of the Baltimore parsonage.

—Mr. Chas. H. McClure has connected himself with the large importing notion house of Young, Smith, Field & Co., of Philadelphia, and will represent their interests in this section of the State. The house is one of the largest in this country, and Charley is a popular and experienced salesman, and will no doubt sell any amount of goods.

—The numerous friends of W. R. Teller, Esq., of the Brockerhoff House, will be pleased to learn that he is rapidly recovering from the severe illness which has confined him to his room for some time.

—We were pleased to notice Capt. John A. Hunter, of Half Moon, on our streets yesterday, his first visit to Bellefonte for some months. The Captain is just recovering from a severe attack of rheumatism and looks rather the worse for his suffering. He is now, however, much better, and we trust his complete restoration to good health may be speedy and lasting. He is too good a citizen to be spared for many years to come.

DEATH OF ANOTHER VENERABLE CITIZEN OF THIS COUNTY.—On Saturday, July 3, the sable cloud of death closed over the earthly life of Mr. Henry Witmer, an aged citizen of Centre Hall. As the period of his residence in this county extended over fifty years his death merits more than a passing notice. He was a son of Mr. Peter Witmer, a farmer of Lebanon county, where on the 22d of July, 1798, he first saw the light of day. The youngest of ten children, he lived to mourn the death of all his brothers and sisters, following the last to the grave about two years ago. Young Henry began his battle with this busy life in the town of Lebanon, where he learned the saddler trade. In 1828, Henry—then a man of thirty years—came to Aaronsburg, this county, where he opened a hotel and saddler shop. A few years after this we find him living on the farm, near Aaronsburg, now owned by Mr. John H. Musser, but he remained there only a short time, when he again resumed his occupation as landlord and saddler at his old stand, adding thereto a general country produce store. Soon he discontinued the saddler business, and in the year 1846 disposed of his hotel and store, removing to new buildings erected by him the previous year on the site where now the thriving village of Centre Hall is located. There he again became the proprietor of a hotel and store, and laid the foundation of Centre Hall. After continuing in the store for six years and in the hotel nine years, he disposed of both, and retired from all participation in business affairs.

Although a man of considerable activity and energy, he experienced frequent attacks of illness. In September, 1876, he received a stroke of paralysis, from the effects of which, in connection with cancer in his face, he has been confined to the house for a considerable portion of the intervening time. On the 15th of last June a second stroke of paralysis greatly added to his infirmities, and on the 3d of July death ended his sufferings.

That he was esteemed not only in secular but also in religious affairs, it is only necessary to add that for fourteen years he was an elder in the Reformed church. He was 81 years, 11 months and 11 days old.

THE DEMOCRACY OF HOWARD.—Mr. George H. Wistar, the competent corresponding secretary of the Hancock and English Club, of Howard, sends us the following satisfactory account of the meeting in that place last Friday evening:

Howard, July 20, 1880.

MESSES. EDITORS:—In accordance with previous announcement, a very large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy of Howard and vicinity assembled on the evening of the 16th instant for the purpose of enrolling members for a Hancock and English campaign organization. It was held in the hall of Lucas Brothers, stirring and patriotic addresses were made by D. F. Fortney and C. T. Alexander, Esq's, reviewing in brief the position of both parties and the candidates. About seventy-five members were enrolled. Rules for the control of the organization were presented by the committee appointed, and the following gentlemen were elected officers of the Club:

President:—Samuel F. Kline, of Howard borough.

Vice Presidents:—Isaac Frazin and Jos. Hoy, of Marion township; John Leathers and William Lyon, of Howard township; and John McCloskey, of Curtin township.

Corresponding Sec'y:—George H. Wistar, of Howard borough.

Recording Sec'y:—Mitchel I. Gardner, of Howard borough.

Treasurer:—Marius Musser, of Howard borough.

Executive Committee:—E. Weber, John R. Baker and H. Brickley.

G. H. WISTAR,
Corresponding Secretary.

ENGLISH IN DURANCE VILE.—This noted desperado, forger and murderer, who favored Bellefonte with his presence last spring, has at last been captured, and is now confined in the Elk county jail. The Elk county Gazette, after explaining how English was traced to Sheboygan, Mich., by Detective Thomas of the Pinkerton agency, concludes as follows:

Detective Thomas, disguised as a laboring man, traced the fugitive to one of Andrew Kaul's lumbering camps, in the northern part of Michigan, and worked with him a week, at the end of which time he enticed him into a saloon to take a "social glass," when, at an unguarded moment he covered him with his revolver and demanded his surrender. English, realizing that he was confronted by a man as cool and courageous as himself, yielded gracefully.

ALL OUTSTANDING SCHOOL WARRANTS TO BE PAID.—The following communication from Hon. J. P. Wickersham, Superintendent of Public Instruction, will be of interest to school boards and instructors: DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, HARRISBURG, July 12, 1880. To the Boards of School Directors:

The State Treasurer, Hon. Samuel Butler, authorizes me to give notice that all outstanding warrants issued to school districts for the appropriation of 1879, numbered up to 1,600, will be paid as presented during the current month; and that the balance of those warrants, numbered from 1,600 upwards, remaining unpaid at the end of July, will be paid during August.

I congratulate school directors and all interested in public schools, that the long delay in the payment of the money due from the State is thus happily ended.

J. P. WICKERSHAM,
Supt. Public Instruction.

LOST!—A red Russia leather pocket book, containing money and papers, on the road between Bellefonte and the top of Nittany mountain. A liberal reward will be paid for its return to this office. 80-1f.

—We advise all persons to order fall and winter clothing early. Our heavy weights will be on sale May 1st.

19-1f. MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors.

THE GRAND CRASH CAUSED BY A COAL CAR.—A tremendous wreck of freight cars took place about half past one o'clock on Saturday morning, on the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad, just below the Milesburg depot. A coal car, by some means, removed from its position on a side track to the main line. It is said there were no brakes on the car and it was kept in position by a stone against the wheels. The stone being removed, it moved down the inclination to a position horizontal to the main track. A special train of about forty coal cars crashed into this at the time above mentioned with a tremendous shock, throwing the entire train from the track. The engine jumped fifteen feet and some of the cars were thrown at least twenty-five feet from the track, while the debris was scattered along the track for a quarter of a mile. The engine was only lightly injured, but twenty-three of the cars were demolished, while a few of them were ground into kindling wood. Fortunately, none of the employes were seriously hurt. The engineer jumped from the track, while the fireman, Mr. Sam. Dawson, of this place, stuck to his post like grim death. Two brakemen received slight injuries.

Many persons gathered at the wreck on Saturday, viewing its wonderful proportions. A wrecking train had the track sufficiently cleared by 4 o'clock p. m. to admit the passage of scheduled trains. The loss of property was large, but there was a fortunate escape from loss of life.

IN MEMORIAM.—At a meeting of the session of the Moshannon and Snow Shoe Presbyterian church it was resolved to prepare a minute expressive of the sad bereavement and great loss occasioned by the death of Mr. John S. Sommerville, of Snow Shoe, who departed this life on the 23d of June, 1880. Accordingly, the following minute was prepared:

Resolved, That in the death of Mr. Sommerville our church has lost her best friend and chief earthly support; yet in submission to God, we would say, "Thy will be done."

Resolved, That we offer this tribute to the memory of a man who was for almost twelve years an elder in the church—a man of great usefulness and liberality in every thing that was for the good of the church and the community.

Resolved, That in his death the cause of temperance and the observance of the Sabbath have lost a staunch friend and advocate.

Resolved, That the poor and suffering have lost a true and beneficent friend.

Resolved, That we hereby express our deep sympathy for the widow and relatives; that these resolutions be entered on the minutes of the church, and that they be published in the county papers.

W. O. WRIGHT, Moderator.
WILLIAM ASKEY, J. H. HOLT and F. D. WEAVER, Elders.

PLEASANT GAP.—According to previous announcement, the Republicans met at Haag's Hall, on Saturday evening, for the purpose of organizing a Garfield and Arthur Club. The friends of the party at the Gap left nothing undone to create an impression on the community; they had the hall nicely decorated with portraits of Garfield and Arthur, and when the hour for the meeting arrived all sat in waiting for the crowd to gather. It would have been a very small crowd but for the timely arrival of two wagon loads of people from Valentines' works and Mann's axe factory. This procession was led by four shining and talented lights of the party from Bellefonte, viz: Rankin, Love, Furst and Gray. The Pleasant Gap band played some of its choicest music, but the boys all thought they were playing for a lost cause. Chairman Rankin called the house to order, and the following officers were then elected: President, Cameron Burnside; Vice Presidents, William Bell and William Love; Secretaries, Matthew Riddle and S. F. Heverly; Treasurer, A. V. Miller. Being now duly organized, speeches were next in order. That illustrious stalwart, John G. Love, Esq., first took the stand, stammered, coughed, cleared his throat, and then pitched into the Democrats generally. He said Hancock was a good man and a good soldier, then he blew his nose on the bloody shirt and sat down quite exhausted by his powerful effort. During the time occupied by the first speech, the secretaries prepared a paper for the boys to sign which was something in the nature of a pledge that would bind them to stick to the ticket. Mr. Bell, one of the Vice Presidents, then elapsed his way to the far end of the room in search of a proper subject to head the list and finally hit upon a worthy citizen and brother of pure African blood who was led to the front where he immediately signed his name to the pledge. After this the white brethren were given a chance to sign and some forty or fifty names were placed upon the roll.

The house was again called to order and Mr. Gray was introduced as the next speaker. He made a desperate effort to say something that would calm the excited feelings of the boys after they passed through the ordeal of signing the pledge, but all to no avail—the great majority of them slipping out of the room in search of something more soothing than Gray could give them. Gray was followed by Mr. Furst, who spoke in rather a mild manner, only abusing the South and the southern people. He also said Gen. Hancock was a good soldier and if elected would make a good President, but thought it better for all Republicans to support the Ohio mule driver, who was very poor—even now after many years of public service being worth only about twenty thousand dollars. The meeting then adjourned to meet in two weeks. DE GOLYER.

HANCOCK AND ENGLISH CLUB AT PHILADELPHIA.—On last Saturday evening the Democrats of Philadelphia organized a Hancock and English Club, and with the public spirit and enterprise so characteristic of the members of the party in that locality were prepared at the same time to display in front of their club room a magnificent double banner, 15 by 20 feet in size, containing on both sides well executed portraits of the candidates for President and Vice President. This banner was painted in New York and is described as a tasty and really fine piece of art. The club already numbers 186 members, of whom 48 are veteran soldiers who served in the late war. The following is the list of officers: President, J. N. Cassanova; Vice Presidents, Chester Munson, D. W. Holt, J. F. Steiner and J. C. Dunkle; Secretaries, John A. Lindsey and L. G. Lingle. That this Club will do valuable and efficient service in the campaign this fall there can be no doubt. The make up of the organization is an ample guarantee of that.

PENNSYLVANIA RESERVE CORPS.—The meeting of the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps, last Thursday, at Harrisburg, drew together about 350 members. Ex-Governor Curtin, of this place, presided. There were many distinguished ex-soldiers in attendance and the occasion was one of great interest. Ex-Governor Curtin delivered an address and also responded to the toast, "Pennsylvania, founded in deeds of peace, was amongst the foremost in furnishing men to preserve the nation in time of war." Bellefonte was selected as the place of meeting next year, the date to be fixed by the board of officers.
