

Announcements.

LEGISLATURE. We are authorized to announce that CHESTER MUNSUN, Esq., of Philadelphia, will be a candidate for the Legislature, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention.

The Centre Democrat.

Thursday Morning, July 29, 1880.

Democratic Meeting. There will be a meeting of the Democrats of Milesburg and Boggs township on SATURDAY EVENING, July 31, at their Club rooms, in Milesburg, for the purpose of organizing a Club.

Local Department. The last quarter of the July moon occurred yesterday.

For a cheap and serviceable suit go to Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter.

Some men can dress neatly on a small outlay of money because they buy their clothes of Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter.

Jack Holmes is now manufacturing something quite new and novel for sale. He is carving the bust and face of all the Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates.

What a busy scene it was! Bags, boxes, baskets and bundles were carried in and bundles, baskets, boxes and bags carried out.

It really begins to look as if something is soon to be done to the Presbyterian church edifice.

Oliver Goldsmith was an extraordinary man, but the firm of Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter are equally remarkable for the fine quality and low price of their goods.

Francis Murphy, the temperance champion, has been talking to the people of Lock Haven this week.

Howard street is to have a new pavement all the way from Mr. John Mallory's residence to the Jane Brown property.

Mr. Armagost, a farmer living in the vicinity of Fillmore, owns a cow which became exceedingly ungovernable on Wednesday morning of last week.

Mr. Charlie Glenn has a ghostly sensation. A young gentleman and lady entered his photograph establishment on Saturday afternoon, and went through the usual ceremony of having their photographs taken.

Low Poulton, recently of the Bolton House in Harrisburg, has been secured by W. A. Sweeney, of the Opera House Billiard Parlors, as his assistant.

W. W. McEwen, of Philadelphia, is stopping for a few days at the Brockerhoff House. He is fresh from Bedford Springs where he has been sojourning for several weeks.

Last week we received an agreeable visit from Messrs. Samuel R. and Howell D. Thompson, the latter a citizen of Anderson and the former of Marion, Indiana.

We had the pleasure of looking in upon the Tuesday evening session of the Pennsylvania State Dental Association, now assembled in this place.

The Alumni and students of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, assembled in this place yesterday.

What! What! well I declare, Smith, you are out again! I thought the Doctor said you were dying with the Kidney trouble.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

The people of Milesburg will spend Saturday next in the woods. All the Sunday-schools join in a union picnic, which will be held in the grove above the depot.

For hats, caps, neckties and collars go to Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter.

Next Sunday, August 1, is the appointed time for the monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association.

For a first-class business suit go to the store of Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter.

Mr. David Dale, of Lemont, who met with such a terrible accident on Wednesday, the 7th inst., by falling into a vat of vitriol while at work in his woollen mills at Lemont, died from his injuries on Saturday evening last, after a period of intense suffering.

Some men can dress neatly on a small outlay of money because they buy their clothes of Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter.

Jack Holmes is now manufacturing something quite new and novel for sale. He is carving the bust and face of all the Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates.

What a busy scene it was! Bags, boxes, baskets and bundles were carried in and bundles, baskets, boxes and bags carried out.

It really begins to look as if something is soon to be done to the Presbyterian church edifice.

Oliver Goldsmith was an extraordinary man, but the firm of Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter are equally remarkable for the fine quality and low price of their goods.

Francis Murphy, the temperance champion, has been talking to the people of Lock Haven this week.

Howard street is to have a new pavement all the way from Mr. John Mallory's residence to the Jane Brown property.

Mr. Armagost, a farmer living in the vicinity of Fillmore, owns a cow which became exceedingly ungovernable on Wednesday morning of last week.

Mr. Charlie Glenn has a ghostly sensation. A young gentleman and lady entered his photograph establishment on Saturday afternoon, and went through the usual ceremony of having their photographs taken.

Low Poulton, recently of the Bolton House in Harrisburg, has been secured by W. A. Sweeney, of the Opera House Billiard Parlors, as his assistant.

W. W. McEwen, of Philadelphia, is stopping for a few days at the Brockerhoff House. He is fresh from Bedford Springs where he has been sojourning for several weeks.

Last week we received an agreeable visit from Messrs. Samuel R. and Howell D. Thompson, the latter a citizen of Anderson and the former of Marion, Indiana.

We had the pleasure of looking in upon the Tuesday evening session of the Pennsylvania State Dental Association, now assembled in this place.

The Alumni and students of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, assembled in this place yesterday.

What! What! well I declare, Smith, you are out again! I thought the Doctor said you were dying with the Kidney trouble.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

INDIVIDUALS ITEMIZED.—A majority of the distingue appearing strangers now visible upon the streets are either members of the Pennsylvania Dental Society or Alumni of Pennsylvania College. Welcome all.

Mr. Benjamin Schroyer was in town on Sunday. Mr. S. increases in good looks and maintains his usual altitude.

Miss Sallie Brown, daughter of Hon. Robert B. Brown, of Erie, is at present the guest of her cousin, Mr. Lawrence L. Brown, of this place.

Mr. Al. Haupt was in Tyrone last week attending the funeral of his sister's child.

Miss Belle Willower, sister of Mrs. Dr. Hibler, is in town again after a long absence.

Judge Samuel Linn, of Williamsport, was observed on the street for a few days last week. The visits of Judge Linn are always hailed with pleasure.

Dr. Nightingale, of Philadelphia, brother of Mr. Randolph Nightingale, of this place, was visiting in town last week, much to Randolph's delight.

Mrs. James A. Beaver and family, Mrs. Dr. Hale and family, Miss Jennie Gehret, Miss Mollie Nesbit and Miss Rachel Marshall all departed on Friday last for Ocean Grove.

Mr. J. M. Duncan departed on Monday for Penn's Valley, to be absent about ten weeks, during which time he will instruct a Normal class.

Misses Mamie Crittenden and Kate Jackson have each returned home—the former after a very prolonged absence at school.

Mr. Fred Reynolds is again in town after several weeks' absence.

Dr. L. R. Hensly, Howard's trusted physician, accompanied by two bright little daughters, paid our office a friendly visit on Friday.

We were gratified this week by a call from our old and valued friend, Adam Vonada, of Walker township.

Oliver Goldsmith was an extraordinary man, but the firm of Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter are equally remarkable for the fine quality and low price of their goods.

Francis Murphy, the temperance champion, has been talking to the people of Lock Haven this week.

Howard street is to have a new pavement all the way from Mr. John Mallory's residence to the Jane Brown property.

Mr. Armagost, a farmer living in the vicinity of Fillmore, owns a cow which became exceedingly ungovernable on Wednesday morning of last week.

Mr. Charlie Glenn has a ghostly sensation. A young gentleman and lady entered his photograph establishment on Saturday afternoon, and went through the usual ceremony of having their photographs taken.

Low Poulton, recently of the Bolton House in Harrisburg, has been secured by W. A. Sweeney, of the Opera House Billiard Parlors, as his assistant.

W. W. McEwen, of Philadelphia, is stopping for a few days at the Brockerhoff House. He is fresh from Bedford Springs where he has been sojourning for several weeks.

Last week we received an agreeable visit from Messrs. Samuel R. and Howell D. Thompson, the latter a citizen of Anderson and the former of Marion, Indiana.

We had the pleasure of looking in upon the Tuesday evening session of the Pennsylvania State Dental Association, now assembled in this place.

The Alumni and students of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, assembled in this place yesterday.

What! What! well I declare, Smith, you are out again! I thought the Doctor said you were dying with the Kidney trouble.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

TEMPERANCE UNION OF BELLEFONTE.—This recently organized society met in the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association last Friday evening.

Mr. Benjamin Schroyer was in town on Sunday. Mr. S. increases in good looks and maintains his usual altitude.

Miss Sallie Brown, daughter of Hon. Robert B. Brown, of Erie, is at present the guest of her cousin, Mr. Lawrence L. Brown, of this place.

Mr. Al. Haupt was in Tyrone last week attending the funeral of his sister's child.

Miss Belle Willower, sister of Mrs. Dr. Hibler, is in town again after a long absence.

Judge Samuel Linn, of Williamsport, was observed on the street for a few days last week. The visits of Judge Linn are always hailed with pleasure.

Dr. Nightingale, of Philadelphia, brother of Mr. Randolph Nightingale, of this place, was visiting in town last week, much to Randolph's delight.

Mrs. James A. Beaver and family, Mrs. Dr. Hale and family, Miss Jennie Gehret, Miss Mollie Nesbit and Miss Rachel Marshall all departed on Friday last for Ocean Grove.

Mr. J. M. Duncan departed on Monday for Penn's Valley, to be absent about ten weeks, during which time he will instruct a Normal class.

Misses Mamie Crittenden and Kate Jackson have each returned home—the former after a very prolonged absence at school.

Mr. Fred Reynolds is again in town after several weeks' absence.

Dr. L. R. Hensly, Howard's trusted physician, accompanied by two bright little daughters, paid our office a friendly visit on Friday.

We were gratified this week by a call from our old and valued friend, Adam Vonada, of Walker township.

Oliver Goldsmith was an extraordinary man, but the firm of Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter are equally remarkable for the fine quality and low price of their goods.

Francis Murphy, the temperance champion, has been talking to the people of Lock Haven this week.

Howard street is to have a new pavement all the way from Mr. John Mallory's residence to the Jane Brown property.

Mr. Armagost, a farmer living in the vicinity of Fillmore, owns a cow which became exceedingly ungovernable on Wednesday morning of last week.

Mr. Charlie Glenn has a ghostly sensation. A young gentleman and lady entered his photograph establishment on Saturday afternoon, and went through the usual ceremony of having their photographs taken.

Low Poulton, recently of the Bolton House in Harrisburg, has been secured by W. A. Sweeney, of the Opera House Billiard Parlors, as his assistant.

W. W. McEwen, of Philadelphia, is stopping for a few days at the Brockerhoff House. He is fresh from Bedford Springs where he has been sojourning for several weeks.

Last week we received an agreeable visit from Messrs. Samuel R. and Howell D. Thompson, the latter a citizen of Anderson and the former of Marion, Indiana.

We had the pleasure of looking in upon the Tuesday evening session of the Pennsylvania State Dental Association, now assembled in this place.

The Alumni and students of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, assembled in this place yesterday.

What! What! well I declare, Smith, you are out again! I thought the Doctor said you were dying with the Kidney trouble.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

DEATH OF MR. JAMES SHERIDAN.—Last week we announced the unfortunate accident which occurred to Mr. James Sheridan, who fell from a car load of lumber, striking his head and shoulders on a pile of cinders.

Mr. Benjamin Schroyer was in town on Sunday. Mr. S. increases in good looks and maintains his usual altitude.

Miss Sallie Brown, daughter of Hon. Robert B. Brown, of Erie, is at present the guest of her cousin, Mr. Lawrence L. Brown, of this place.

Mr. Al. Haupt was in Tyrone last week attending the funeral of his sister's child.

Miss Belle Willower, sister of Mrs. Dr. Hibler, is in town again after a long absence.

Judge Samuel Linn, of Williamsport, was observed on the street for a few days last week. The visits of Judge Linn are always hailed with pleasure.

Dr. Nightingale, of Philadelphia, brother of Mr. Randolph Nightingale, of this place, was visiting in town last week, much to Randolph's delight.

Mrs. James A. Beaver and family, Mrs. Dr. Hale and family, Miss Jennie Gehret, Miss Mollie Nesbit and Miss Rachel Marshall all departed on Friday last for Ocean Grove.

Mr. J. M. Duncan departed on Monday for Penn's Valley, to be absent about ten weeks, during which time he will instruct a Normal class.

Misses Mamie Crittenden and Kate Jackson have each returned home—the former after a very prolonged absence at school.

Mr. Fred Reynolds is again in town after several weeks' absence.

Dr. L. R. Hensly, Howard's trusted physician, accompanied by two bright little daughters, paid our office a friendly visit on Friday.

We were gratified this week by a call from our old and valued friend, Adam Vonada, of Walker township.

Oliver Goldsmith was an extraordinary man, but the firm of Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter are equally remarkable for the fine quality and low price of their goods.

Francis Murphy, the temperance champion, has been talking to the people of Lock Haven this week.

Howard street is to have a new pavement all the way from Mr. John Mallory's residence to the Jane Brown property.

Mr. Armagost, a farmer living in the vicinity of Fillmore, owns a cow which became exceedingly ungovernable on Wednesday morning of last week.

Mr. Charlie Glenn has a ghostly sensation. A young gentleman and lady entered his photograph establishment on Saturday afternoon, and went through the usual ceremony of having their photographs taken.

Low Poulton, recently of the Bolton House in Harrisburg, has been secured by W. A. Sweeney, of the Opera House Billiard Parlors, as his assistant.

W. W. McEwen, of Philadelphia, is stopping for a few days at the Brockerhoff House. He is fresh from Bedford Springs where he has been sojourning for several weeks.

Last week we received an agreeable visit from Messrs. Samuel R. and Howell D. Thompson, the latter a citizen of Anderson and the former of Marion, Indiana.

We had the pleasure of looking in upon the Tuesday evening session of the Pennsylvania State Dental Association, now assembled in this place.

The Alumni and students of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, assembled in this place yesterday.

What! What! well I declare, Smith, you are out again! I thought the Doctor said you were dying with the Kidney trouble.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

Deaths. POTTER.—At Linden Hall, Centre county, Pa., July 19, 1880, of cholera-infantum, Robert Fleming, infant child of Joshua A. and Mattie Potter, aged 4 months and 1 day.

Proposals for building Stone. Abtments for a bridge across Marsh Creek, on the public road leading from Howard to Eagleville, will be received by the County Commissioners until 12 o'clock M., AUGUST 10, 1880.

JURY LIST OF AUGUST COURT.—The following is a complete list of the Grand and Traverse jurors drawn for the August term of court, beginning on the fourth Monday (23d day) of August:

GRAND JURORS. Henry Potter, Harris; William Zampal, Walker; C. T. Fryberger, Phillipsburg; Henry Samsel, Bunker; Sam'l Henderson, Harris; James S. Bell, Bellefonte; G. G. Pottgrove, Phillipsburg; Robert J. Craig, Ferguson; J. N. Cameron, Phillipsburg; R. J. Bell, Harris; R. J. Bell, Harris; W. A. Jacobs, Harris; John A. Stover, Harris; David Keller, Harris; Robert Kendall, College; George Gray, Milesburg; Thomas Edwards, Harris; W. L. Beebe, Bellefonte; W. Stewart, Jr., Snow Shoe; John McCloskey, Curtis; Jesse Klinger, Bellefonte; Andrew Peter, Boggs.

TRAVELERS JURORS.—FIRST WEEK. A. T. Leather, Unionville; G. W. Leisberger, Spring; Wm. Harper, Bellefonte; J. W. Gardner, Howard; H. F. Bartley, Spring; John L. Muser, Ferguson; William Bair, Miles; Henry Myers, Jr., Harris; Daniel Muser, Harris; J. C. Mott, Harris; G. W. Campbell, Harris; Orlando C. Beck, Patton; John Neill, Harris; David Bowman, Harris; James E. Bell, Harris; Henry Small, Miles; Barnabas Shipley, Union; James Martin, Harris; A. Y. Wagner, Bunker; David A. Detrick, Walker; Andrew Calhoun, Union; Rob't Gilliland, Snow Shoe; C. H. Ross, Ferguson; W. F. Holt, Snow Shoe; William Close, Bunker; Cyrus Durt, Harris; David W. Miller, Ferguson; A. Thompson, Harris; James A. Kunkin, Harris; J. A. Irwin, Jr., Bellefonte; Chas. D. Jones, Milesburg; Michael Bieri, Miles; Joseph Beck, Phillipsburg; Eustace Harter, Harris; John A. Kunkin, Harris; Michael Feidler, Harris; Benj. Kerstetter, Penn; George Garberick, Spring; Daniel P. Shupe, Boggs; Alonzo Sims, 2d Moon; William McKim, College; Geo. Wistler, Howard; Charles Daniel, Ferguson; Dav. Dreifeltis, Ferguson; Israel Beck, Half Moon.

TRAVELERS JURORS.—SECOND WEEK. Barney Coyle, Rush; Thomas Erhart, Harris; Fred Leathers, Ferguson; W. W. Yerrick, Walker; Jonathan Krapp, Harris; Daniel Hosterman, Penn; A. T. Boggs, Milesburg; Ed. Woods, Spring; James P. Turner, Harris; John A. Kunkin, Harris; Jacob Keller, Ferguson; Geo. Frederick, Union; J. H. Frank, Penn; Michael Fletcher, Howard; George L. Potter, Bellefonte; A. S. Graham, Phillipsburg; G. W. Woodring, Harris; John Zimmernan, Walker; John Brachall, Bellefonte; David Dennis, Ferguson; George Noll, Boggs; James McCormick, Potter; W. J. Jackson, Rush; J. C. Wagner, Jr., Potter; Jacob F. Homan, Gregg; J. C. Wagner, Jr., Potter; L. L. Brown, Bellefonte; Frank Leathers, Harris; H. A. Krumpholtz, Gregg; John Wallers, Boggs; Wm. Gray, Half Moon; F. P. Gregg, Bellefonte; David Houser, Bunker; Henry Hollings, Unionville; Geo. Kehlshne, Ferguson.

THE LYCOMING FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.—The complete report of the committee delegated by the policy holders of this place to proceed to Muncy and investigate the affairs of the Lycoming Fire Insurance Company appears on the second page of this issue. An adjourned meeting to hear the report was held last Friday afternoon in the Court House, over which Hon. John Irwin, Jr., presided, and Clement Dale, Esq., acted as Secretary pro tem. The report was read by A. O. Furst, Esq., and further statements and suggestions made by Adam Hoy and D. S. Keller, Esq's. Messrs. E. C. Humes, Edmund Blanchard, John B. Linn, and others, participated in a further discussion, and Mr. John W. Lloyd, representing Lycoming county, told what course the policy holders in that section are pursuing. The result of the deliberations is indicated in the following resolution:

Resolved, That the present committee be continued with power, in connection with committees appointed by meetings of policy holders in other counties or places, to take such measures as in their judgment will best conserve the interests of the policy holders, in procuring an immediate liquidation and closing out of the affairs of the Lycoming Fire Insurance Company.

JOHN IRWIN, JR., President. CLEMENT DALE, Secretary pro tem.

Business Notices. Why are horses and cattle after taking Roberts' Horse Powders like a new laundered shirt? Because they look sleek and clean.

No more sick chickens. Save your poultry and cure them of disease, by using Roberts' Poultry Powder. It has never failed to cure Cholera, and all diseases to which fowls are subject. Price 25 cents per package. For sale by all druggists.

At the present time when there are so many worthless liniments in the market, it would be well to inquire which is the best. This will be found in M. B. Roberts' Embrocation—it is a preparation for ailments that require rubbing either on man or beast. Price 55 cents per bottle.

Why do you cough when you can find speedy relief in Sines' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound? It is the most pleasant and efficacious remedy known for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Asthma, and all diseases tending to pulmonary