-The moon waxes full to-morrow

-A few cents will buy an excellent cigar of Harry Green.

-The cheapest clothing in town is at the Philadelphia Branch.

-The clothing sold at the Philadelphia Branch is neat and substantial.

-Mr. Newton Gordon was in Clearfield last week, returning on Monday.

-Large sales and small profits at the Philadelphia Branch clothing store.

-Men's and boys' clothing, suitable for any occasion, at the Philadelphia Branch. -Men's and boys' clothing is now selling very rapidly at the Philadelphia Branch

-During this week the Court House has been crowded every evening to hear Francis Murphy. Hundreds have signed the pledge.

-The necessary quorum for a meeting of the borough council was not present last Monday evening, and consequently there was no meeting.

Mr. Samuel Van Tries is removing the charred and blackened remains of the old house on Water street which was ruined by the flames some time ago.

-Have you signed the Murphy temperance pledge? If not, do so immediately. It is not signing away your liberty, but showing your intention to be free from a most dangerous vice. -A grand dress ball with be given by the "Social Four" on Friday evening, August 27. The Mountain City Band and Prof. Smith's orchestra will render the music for the occasion. -Men have been at work during the past week in digging away a portion of the hill opposite the Presbyterian Sabbathschool building, thus widening the street and improving the grade. -Next week promises to be exceedingly lively-court commences on Monday to continue all week, and two great political meetings occur on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, respectively. -A harvest home picnic will be held at Spring Mills on Thursday next, one week from to-day. A large delegation from

Union county will arrive on a special train, and a pleasant occasion is anticipated. -A "lawn party" was given on the pleasant grounds surrounding the residence of Mr. William Humes, near Coleville, last Monday evening, which was attended by a large delegation from Bellefonte.

officers of the Millheim Cornet Band, on Monday evening, August 9, resulted in the following choice: President, John F. Harter; Secretary, Philip H. Musser Treasurer, R. A. Bumiller.

-We have been requested by Sheriff Spangler to say that the publication of the Sheriff's Sales in the Bellefonte Republican. of last week, was not authorized by him and that he is in no way responsible for their appearance in that newspaper.

-Mr. W. R. Teller, of the Brockerhoff House, made a flying visit home last week, but he has again returned to Norfoik, Va. His health was much improved during his absence, and he hopes that under the genial southern suns it will be railroad. still further recuperated.

-There is a prospect that the cemetery at Millheim will soon be enlarged and improved. The people of that town are accustomed to good living and comfortable quarters while in the flesh, and they want a respectable abode and cheerful surroundings for their bodies when they lie "moulding in the dark and dreary tomb."

-The Bush House, under the exception ally able management of Mr. D. P. Peters. has justly taken rank as one of the best hotels in Central Pennsylvania. The table teems with the choicest products of the Brown is holding the domestic fort all market and the sleeping apartments are models of elegant neatness. The Bush House is now a hotel of which Bellefonte may well be proud.

-Gen. James A. Beaver, President, and to her home in Altoona. Col. D. S. Keller, Secretary, announce the seventh annual picnic of the Veteran Club of Centre county, to take place in Mc-Ewen's grove, near Unionville, on Saturwas held at Pleasant Gap. These picnics of the Veteran Club are always pleasant.

PERSONAL MELANGE.-Edwin Murray Murphy, a young son of Mr. Francis Murphy, met his distinguished father livered quite a brilliant speech during the course of the evening's exercises.

-Mr. Wilbur Malin and family are at home again after a two weeks' absence in Chester county.

-Miss Clark, of Iowa City, Iowa, is visiting Miss Nellie Boal, of this place. For the benefit of the gentlemen we would remind them that although western lands are plentiful and cheap, western young ladies are rare and at a premium in the matrimonial market. They are both considered judicious investments.

-Mrs. James Hastings and family, of the residence of Col. D. H. Hastings, of freshments will be excellent. this place.

last week to visit friends in Salona, Clinton county.

-Mr. Linn Harris was at home last week from Houtzdale, where he has for some time been employed.

-Rev. Mr. Clark, of Shamokin, who came with the excursion from Lock Haven last week to attend the Murphy meetings, preached in Humes' Hall to the Presbyterian congregation, last Sunday morning. All who heard Mr. Clark were delighted with the discourse. The gentleman's gestures are graceful and elegant and his manner quite impressive.

-Rev. Mr. Lafferty, a former rector of the Protestant Episcopal church, this place, but now a chaplain in the regular army located in Texas, was in town last Sunday, and preached to his old congregation both morning and evening. Of course, it was very pleasant to the many friends of the reverend gentleman to listen again to the words of exhortation that fell from his

Last year the picnic | lar local editor, Mr. Edward L. Gray, has been suffering from a slight illness, from which we hope he may soon recover.

FESTIVAL ITEMS .- Ice cream festivals will be held throughout the county during the remaining warm days of this summer. in this place on Monday last, and de- The following are a few of the announce ments

-The ladies of the Reformed church this place, will give a festival on Friday and Saturday evenings, the 27th and 28th instants. The choicest ice cream and cake will be served. The proceeds will be devoted to the furnishing fund of the new church soon to be erected on the site of the edifice recently destroyed.

-The Reformed church at Houserville will festivalize on Saturday evening, August 28. Every effort will be made to render the occasion pleasant, and it is to be hoped that the patronage of all will be re-Pittsburg, spent a few days of last week at ceived to render it profitable. -Miss Effie Straub, of this place, started ing, August 28, 1mmanuel's Reformed Sunday-school of Jacksonville, will enter tain their friends with ice cream and other tempting edibles. All who attend will be sure of a pleasant time. The ladies will endeavor to make the refreshments so delicious that they will be eaten with as much relish as Tanner's first meal. Go, one and all.

> GORDON & LANDIS .- This firm have ecently removed into the handsome new building just completed for them next to McCafferty's block on Railroad avenue It is painted on the outside a light drab and brilliantly lettered in red, blue and black. The finely-finished machinery within is handsome enough to ornament a parlor and makes the interior bright and cheerful. The business office, to the north of the ware room, is also a pleasant apartment. In brief, the building without and within is as neat as the young fellow who goes for the first time to call on his girl-They are well prepared to exhibit, and sell at the most moderate terms, all kinds of agricultural implements, and to do all kinds of work in the machinery line, in a neat and workmanlike manner. Then, when we consider that both the proprietors are machinists of unequalled skill, we can unhesitatingly recommend all to call on Gordon & Landis.

-There is a wonderful amount of art and skill in shoemaking. The shoe maker, does as much to aid the understanding as a full course in a popular college. Since the time of common sandals to the modern period of fifty-button ladies' boots he has been an indispensable portion of civilization. But never since the fairy god-mother created the little glass slippers for Cincreated the little glass slippers for Cinderella has such consummate art been displayed in fashioning boots and shoes for the sons and daughters of men as is now shown by Mr. T. Noll, whose place of business is in the little frame building south of Deschner's gun shop on High street. He converts the rudest and most unshapely leather into beautiful-fitting, serviceable coverings for the feet. Ladies, men and children should give him a call.

-The time is drawing near when the Bellefonte Fencibles (National Guard) must depart for their annual encampment at Braddock's. Captain Mullen has issued the following order which will be of interest to the members of the company

General Order— No. 1. The officers and men of this com No. 1. The officers and men of this company are hereby ordered to report at their armory on Thursday evening, August 19, at 8 o'clock P. M., sharp, for the purpose of making final arrangements for the annual encampment at "Camp Alexander Hayes."
No. 2. It is expected that the uniforms, arms and equipments of the company will be distributed at this meeting.

-Mr. Samuel Van Tries, of this place, was the victim of misfortune on Wednesday of last week, in the destruction by -Miss Lizzie Shortlidge, daughter of fire of the barn located on his Penns Val- by Mr. Kerlin, and the Centre Hall Band burned with all its contents, including was valued at about $1,200; insured for $800. There was also an insurance on the contents, belonging jointly to Mr. Van Tries and to the tenant, Mr. George Swab.

> expense entailed in providing for their daughters, especially because double the quantity of goods is now required to make dress that was formerly considered necssary. But they forget that the item of groceries is less than it used to be, and if they will patronize S. A. Brew & Son's store their daughters will always be smilng, healthy and handsome, and not need so many dresses.

> -As is well known, Dr. Tanner began his feast on peach and watermelon. Had his fast ended at a time when these fruits could not have been obtained, he would doubtless have sent to Sechler's grocery for the food upon which to make his first meal, as that store is recognized throughout the length and breadth of the land as the place to buy the choicest, freshest and most digestible groceries.

-So many of our friends have returned from the sea shore since our last issue that we can but mention them collectively. Among them are: Mrs. W. P. Wilson and Miss Blanche Hayes, Mrs. Gen. Beaver and Miss Mollie Nesbitt, Mr. Isaac Mitchell and family, Miss Cobel and Miss Thomas. They all report a delightful time. A few Bellefonters are still sojourning there, but the cool weather will soon drive them home.

-Julia Derry, a respectable colored woman of this borough, died last Friday afternoon. She was buried on Sunday.

GRAND DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING AND POLE RAISING AT BOALSBURG-EX-GOV. A. G. CURTIN AND SENATOR ALEX-ANDER ADDRESS THE PEOPLE.-The Hancock and English men of Harris township had a grand time at Boalsburg on Tuesday afternoon and evening. In the afternoon they raised two fine poles and flung to the breeze a large and handsome flag and streamer bearing the names of the Democratic National candidates. The crowd in the afternoon was large and enthusiastic. and when the flag was run up it was greeted with great cheering. The poles were erected in the Diamond, and the flag of a restored Union will greet the eyes of all who travel in the direction of Harris township's thriving village. In the even. ing the gathering throng was marched to the Academy building where one of the largest meetings ever held in this part of the county was organized. Many were unable to gain admission to the building, standing room being at a premium. Hon. W. A. Murray was called to the chair with a suitable number of vice presidents and secretaries. Immediately after the organization was perfected ex-Gov. A. G. Curtin was introduced. This was the signal for the wildest cheering and it was with difficulty that the Governor was enabled to proceed. His speech created the greatest enthusiasm and he was constantly interrupted by applause. This was the first appearance of the Governor upon the stump and the warmth and cordiality of his reception was highly gratifying. He will be heard from again. Senator C. T. Alexander followed in one of his happy, eloquent arguments, at the conclusion of which the great meeting adjourned with cheers for the speakers and thrice three for Hancock and English. It will be a long time before the warm hearted Democrats of that section forget the grand rally of Tuesday. It was a red letter day in the annals of Boalsburg, and the result of the outpouring of the masses will be seen in the increased Democratic najority in November

HANCOCK VETERAN BATTALION, -On Monday evening a Hancock veteran club was organized in this place under most favorable auspices. Major R. H. Forster ccupied the chair and C. L. Buffington, of Milesburg, acted as secretary of the meeting. Comrades C. Smith, M. D. Mc-Laughlin, Joseph Fox, E. Noll and W. H. Blair were appointed a committee on organization. Their report was, on moion, adopted, and is as follows:

That the organization be called the Centre County Hancock Veteran Battal-on. The officers shall consist of one

The following committee of five was also appointed to consider the subject of uniforms and report at next meeting Comrades Sechler, Harper, Lucas, For and Dolan On motion, Major Forster was elected

The club adjourned to meet on Saturday wening in the club room.

C. L. Buffington, Secretary.

-Gregg township was agitated on last Thursday evening by two political meetings-Republican and Democratic. The Republican forces were commanded by Gen. James A. Beaver, and in addition to the eloquence of the General, had the inspiring strains of the Pleasant Gap Cornet Band to give animation to the occasion. The Democratic hosts, in that sturdy stronghold of the party, were under the eadership of Mr. William Kerlin, the President of the Hancock and English Club, of the township. The meeting was addressed in a sound and forcible manner furnished the music. We have heard several accounts of both meetings which conflict considerably with each other, but after summing up the net result, without resorting to the "counting out" method, as practiced in the late Alabama election which so much vexes the soul of our friend Gen. Beaver, we are reluctantly compelled to say that we think the plain, hard work-ing miller is ahead of the astute lawyer politician by several well earned points.

-The Hancock and English Club of Bellefonte held its usual weekly meeting on last Saturday evening. The attendance was very large, the club room being packed with enthusiastic Democrats. Shortly after 8 o'clock ex-Gov. A. G. Curtin entered the hall and was vociferously cheered. Adam Hoy, Esq., introduced the Governor in a few well chosen words, and as the tall, imposing form of the great War Governor was seen close by the president's chair the entire audience rose to their feet and cheered again and again. The Governor was in excellent spirits and delivered one of his old-time, eloquent and inspiriting speeches. He was frequently interrupted by applause, and his closing words, in which he pledged his best efforts to the cause of Hancock and Democracy, were the signal for renewed cheering which lasted several minutes. The Club then adjourned to meet again next Saturday evening.

-The Democracy of College township met at Lemont on Monday evening last and organized a Hancock and English Club with the following officers: President, James Patterson; Vice Presidents, Jonathan Kreamer and William Foster; Secretaries, Samuel Wilson and Jacob Bottorf; Treasurer, F. P. Taylor. The meeting was then addressed in an able and ecceptable manner by C. M. Bower and Geo. R. Barrett, Esq's. Everything promises well for the Democratic candidates in College.

STATE FAIR AT PHILADELPHIA .- On Monday, September 6th, the Twenty-seventh Annual Exhibition of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society will open at the Main Building, Centennial Grounds, Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, and continue eighteen days, closing on Saturday, September 25th. The last week of which period, viz: from September 20th to 25th, will be devoted to the International Show of Sheep, Wool and Wool Products, for which purpose the liberal sum of $8,300 in eash has been appropriated. During this week, however, all other exhibits, with the exception of Horses, Cattle, Swine, and Poultry, will remain on display.

From present indications this exhibition of the Society will be the largest, grandest, and most varied that has ever been held by any State Society, and will be second in numbers and merit only to the ever-memorable International Exhibition, held at the same place during the Centennial year. The premium list, which can be obtained from the officers of the Society, at their office, North-west corner Tenth and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, is the most complete and thorough that has ever been presented by any similar organization, and offers for competition in the Live Stock Class alone the handsome sum of $24,315. In the Dairy, Fruit, Vegetable. and Floral Departments, the further sum of $6,000 is added, besides a large number of elegant and valuable gold, silver, and bronze medals, whose intrinsic value will aggregate the entire sum of more than $40,000 in actual cash.

The display will include a large number of Imported Thoroughbred, Fine Bred, and Draught Horses; herds of Short Horn. Devon, Holstein, Jersey, and Guernsey Cattle; the choicest breeds of Sheep, Swine, &c., together with a Mechanical Vegetable, and Manufacturing collection seldom, if ever, brought together in any ommunity. Excellent and commodious stabling has been prepared within the building for Horses and Horned Cattle, and a suitable space assigned on the grounds adjacent for the accommodation of Swine. The Machinery, Dairy, Fruit, Floral, and Domestic Departments are all provided under cover, and will undoubtedly prove attractive and instructive features of the Fair. A space has also been assigned for the exercise and display of all the entries in the Live Stock Classes, but no racing will be permitted. Green food will be supplied all the Milch Cows on exhibition, and hay and straw furnished all entries gratis.

Excursion tickets will be furnished by all the railroads centring at Philadelphia, and all articles intended for exhibition carried on liberal terms.

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Rockey, Logan Grange, No. 109 (Centre county, Pa.), has lost a faithful, zealous member, the church a consistent Christian adherent, and the family a dutiful son and affectionate brother.

Resolved, That whilst we bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father, we tender our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

Resolved, That this preamble and resolutions become a part of the record of the Grange, and be published in the Furmer's Friend and county papers, and a copy sent to the bereaved family.

EDWIN DALE, KATE M. DALE, J. H. Roush,

-We advise all persons to order fall and winter clothing early. Our heavy weights will be on sale May 1st. 19-tf. MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors.

-The best is always the cheapest, and the best clothing is kept at the Philadelphia Branch.

-We have information, sub rosa, of a marriage proposal in Bellefonte which was a decided innovation upon all the recognized rules which have been popularly supposed to govern this delicate and solemn ceremonial. We have been wont to think of this matter with all the amorous accessories of mellowed light, perfumed flowers and witching solitude; but our hero, so goes the story, proposed to his lady in the cold, calculating light of day and in the hearing of all the inmates of one of our large hotels. If this thing keeps on there is no telling where it will stop. We are not informed what answer the fair damsel returned to this novel offer of a big heart and larger hand. We hope it was favorable. Such daring deserves reward

-The Bellefonte Republican is doing itself no credit by the petty, personal war it is waging on Mr. James Schofield. It appears that this gentleman's exhibition of political independence has brought down upon him the ire of our contemporary. It is a pitiable business for a newspaper to engage in firing paper bullets at a man pecause he sees fit to disagree with the sapient editor and his large and growing staff of gratuitous assistants. Mr. Schofield will no doubt survive it all and will send in a right royal Celtic ballot fo Hancock with which to knock into smith ereens the puritanical woode ballot of the Republican editor. wooden nutmeg

-The Hancock and English Club of Bellefonte have erected a magnificent transparency in front of their Club room in Bush's Arcade. The banner is twelve by fifteen feet and is adorned by handsome oil paintings of the Democratic National candidates. It was brilliantly illuminated on Saturday evening during the meeting of the Club and attracted universal attention and admiration.

-Bush House, newly furnished, painted papered and cleaned, offers great induce-ments to all visiting Bellefonte, both in price and quality. D. P. PETERS

Mrs. Fry was a daughter of the late Hugh Larimet and a cousin of J. G. Larimer and Mrs. Speer, of Plea

Mrs. Fry had been in ill health for a year or mor and it was the fond hope of restoring her health that induced her husband, last spring, to quit the farm and move to town. Physicians had advised rest and quiet. While it is true that she was in delicat calth for so long a period, her death was none the less startling to her friends, or sudden and unexpected by her husband and children. The rest—the hope of the physician—came not, but rest from labor and care —rest eternal—came only too soon.

It was the good fortune of the writer to be the friend of the deceased for a full score of years. No more genial, kindly dispositioned or sprightly little woman ever lived. A pleasant smile, a kind, cheerful word, and friendly, home-like greeting she had by every one with whom she came in contact. did these beautiful graces predominate in her nature that it can truthfully be said she had not an enemy in

Mrs. Fry was the mother of seven children-th oldest aged about fifteen and the youngest about on year. In the bringing up and training of her family the same good graces adorned and dignified the moth or that were displayed in the friend. Quiet, mild, ye firm was the government of her household, and we did it bear fruit in the conduct, manner and dispos tion of her children. No where did the noble qualitie of the woman appear so richly yet unostentationaly in her love and devotion to her husband and children. Nothing that could add to their comfort, joy of help mass was left undone or deemed too much for her to She was for mikny rears a member of the Pine Gro Presbyterian church, an earnest and devort Christia. The love and presence of the Divine Master seemed he here continuously. The funeral services we conducted by the Rev.
