Go to Powers & Son for the best boots and shoes. Hats and caps of superior quality at the Philadelphia Branch. Make a good investment by purchasing a few of Harry Green's cigars. A large stock of clothing now displayed at the Philadelphia Branch. Hancock Club meeting on Saturday evening will be addressed by Hon. D. G. Bush. One of Harry Green's cigars will give as much satisfaction as two of the ordinary kind. Everybody should buy a new suit, and the Philadelphia Branch is the place to procure it. The residence of Mr. J. C. Weaver, on Penn street, is receiving extensive improvements. Inclose your neck in one of those superb ties on exhibition at the Philadelphia Branch. E. N. Waite, Esq., of Chicago, is visiting at the residence of our popular townsman, Mr. John Ardell. Mr. William Laurie, of Phillipsburg, returned on Monday to spend a brief vacation at his home in this place. What's the matter with butter? For the past week 25 cents per pound has been demanded for this necessary article. R. M. Magee, Esq., is entertaining his nephew, Prof. Thomas M. Magee, Superintendent of Public Schools of Clinton county. It is said the Murdoch Literary Society will be reorganized. It has been dead now for four or five years, and we thought its memory had faded also. Democrats who have caps and capes belonging to the Hancock and English Club of Bellefonte are requested to return them immediately to the Club room. We would find less men idle and more at work, if it was not for the general debility and emaciation caused by affections of the kidneys which can now be prevented by wearing Day's Kidney Pad. Mr. William Emerick, of the east end of Nittany Valley, had his left hand injured so seriously on Friday morning, the 10th instant, that amputation was necessary. His hand was caught in a threshing machine from which he was removing straw. Irvin Speer, a little son of Mr. William Speer, of Pleasant Gap, was injured by an angry cow on Friday last. He, with his playmates, approached too near a young calf on the premises of a neighbor, when the angry mother rushed at them, her sharp horns inflicting an ugly wound in Irvin's forehead. One of the principal attractions in this place is Sechler's grocery store. People are called upon to make daily errands after groceries, and they find that Sechler understands the art of administering to the demands of well regulated families in this respect better than any other persons who pretend to do so. A son of Mr. James F. Palmer, of Potter's Bank, had the terrible misfortune to lose his right arm while engaged near one of the picking machines in Allison's woolen mills, on Monday of last week. He held his arm in a position to encounter the current of air produced by the swiftly revolving picker, when it was caught and torn off above the elbow. The lad was attended by Dr. Weaver, under whose skillful care he is doing as well as can be expected. The most attractive spot in this county next Saturday will be McEwen's Grove, near Unionville. The war veterans from near and far will assemble at that point to take part in this annual celebration of the grand scenes through which they passed in the great struggle for national existence. Let all who can attend, go with their baskets filled with provision, and by making the affair a great success, return thanks to the men who have won for us this long period of peace. Unwelcome as the information may be, our death record would be incomplete without referring to the decease of Mr. Samuel Wilson, of Potter township, who expired on Saturday last at the advanced age of 90 years. Mr. Wilson was widely known, and many years ago was prominently identified with the history of this county. So long ago as the trial of James Monks for murder, Mr. Wilson's name appears among those of the twelve jurors who convicted that notorious criminal. Several of his sons and daughters who survive him are respected residents of this county, among whom may be mentioned Mrs. Joseph Crozier, at whose residence, near Centre Hall, her father died, and Mrs. Hahn, who resides at Milesburg. A few days ago it was our pleasure to feast our eyes if not our stomachs by looking at a collection of potatoes which would rejoice the heart of any farmer. They were then in the possession of Capt. W. W. Potter, the kind and obliging station agent at this place, who called us in to see them. Eight of the largest were selected and tipped the scales at sixteen pounds—an average of two pounds a piece. One of them would be sufficient for a single meal in a family of ordinary appetites. These huge and lovely specimens of the excellent root are of the Irish Blood variety and were grown by Mr. John T. Fowler, on his Greenwood farm, in Bald Eagle Valley. They demonstrate what can be done by the farmers of that section if they try.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.—Mr. Spencer Ogden departs for Philadelphia to-morrow morning. Girls, prepare to say farewell. Rev. John Hewitt, rector of St. Johns P. E. church, this place, delivered an able sermon last Sunday evening on the sacredness of the Sabbath. The prevailing levity shown in the observance of this holy day renders it a timely topic. Mr. W. R. Teller and family passed the lovely hours of last Saturday on top of Nittany mountain, their cultivated appreciation of the beautiful in nature adding greatly to the ordinary pleasure of such an occasion. Miss Emma Lingle, of Phillipsburg, sister of Mr. Howard Lingle, one of the handsome partners in the firm of Wm. P. Duncan & Co., is visiting the family of Mr. Win. Montgomery and other friends in this place. Dr. J. D. Geissinger is off on a trip to his home in Huntingdon to witness the nuptials between his sister, Miss Mary J. Geissinger, and Mr. A. Heffner, of Hurleysburg, which take place this afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Benner Graham have returned, and are preparing to occupy the apartments over Reynolds' Bank as their future home. Mr. Bunnell and family, of this place, are sojourning for a short time among their friends in Meadville. Mrs. Wm. P. Wilson, of this place, is in attendance on the sessions of the Presbyterian Council in Philadelphia. At the recent sessions of the Convocation of Williamsport, held in Phillipsburg, Rev. John Hewitt, rector of St. Johns parish, this place, delivered an interesting sermon on "The Spiritual Creation," at the opening service. He was also elected the Secretary and Treasurer of the organization, vice the Rev. Dr. Breck, of Wellsboro. Miss May Hillbish, daughter of Dr. T. J. Hillbish, of Rebersburg, is attending a musical college at Warren, Ohio. Street Commissioner Shaughensy and his corps of assistants went to work on Water street last week. They never leave a street until it is in good condition. Miss Laura J. Fisher, of Snow Shoe Intersection, has been visiting Miss Mary Adams, of this place, during the past week. Major Brown, of Frederic City, Md., accompanied by his wife and son, made the residence of Mr. H. Sechler, on Linn street, their home while visiting in this place last week. They formerly resided in this county. When U. S. Grant, Jr., marries Miss Jennie Flood he will order his wedding suit of the Philadelphia Branch. The other day a Milesburg girl attempted to run away with the catcher of a base-ball club, when her father became a short stop. It would be well for all fathers to stop short just here and reflect whether or not their families are always pleased with the groceries they purchase, and hereafter to buy them at the store of S. A. Brew & Son, on Allegheny street. Mrs. Frank P. Blair, of Spring street, has been entertaining her sister, Miss Entwistle, of Phoenixville, during the past week. Miss Kate Schnell, formerly of this place, but now residing with her brother in Binghamton, N. Y., has been appointed to a responsible position in the office of the telephone exchange in that city. Miss S. is calculated to fill any position with grace and ability. In the absence of Miss Clara Lyon, Mrs. Frank P. Blair presided at the Episcopal church organ last Sunday, furnishing very acceptable music. On Monday, 13th inst., Mr. Michael Schenck, of Howard, celebrated the sixty-second anniversary of his birth by gathering his children and grandchildren about him, and spending the time in such appropriate festivities as the occasion should suggest. Fifty persons in all were present, including his brother Michael and family, and his eight children with their families. The occasion was rendered doubly delightful by the affectionate and familiar greetings of friend with friend, by appropriate gifts from the children to their honored sire, and by him to those gathered about him, and culminated by all gathering about the festive board, which was laden with a collation of those good things which a father's love for his children led him to provide, and which always taste so much better in the "old home" than in any other place on earth. After returning thanks to the Father of all for this happy re-union, the joyful company separated. We have before incidentally alluded to the fact that Mr. D. P. Peters, the proprietor of the Bush House, has established a restaurant in connection with his hotel, and on Tuesday we received a practical proof of its merits when a most tempting mid-day lunch of fried oysters and the accompanying side dishes found its way direct from that establishment to the table in our sanctum. This month is often called the saddest in the year, because now the leaves begin to fade and fall and are trampled like dead hopes beneath our feet; but, because it is the first that contains the magic "R," which gives the privilege of lifting the fat, luscious oyster from its liquid bed and sending it abroad to delight the universal palate, it also possesses some claims to be considered the brightest of months. Therefore, we are glad, and everybody should rejoice that Mr. Peters has been so thoughtful and enterprising as to open a restaurant to which the most fastidious lady or gentleman can resort for a treat of these delicate bivalves or a dozen other edibles equally tempting. He intends to conduct his establishment in first-class style, which past experience abundantly enables him to do. His efforts should meet with hearty encouragement.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.—HARMONIOUS ACTION OF THE DELEGATES.—The delegates to the Democratic County Convention assembled quietly in the Court House at Bellefonte at 2 o'clock p. m., on last Tuesday, and discharged carefully and conscientiously the important duties which called them together. The personnel of the convention was of unusual excellence, the delegates being representative men and earnest Democrats from the different sections. The prevailing sentiment was for harmony and an honorable adjustment of all differences, to the end that the entire strength of the party may be enlisted in behalf of our candidate, National, State and County. D. F. Fortney, Esq., of Bellefonte, was chosen chairman, and A. J. Graham, of Phillipsburg, F. P. Musser, of Millheim, and James A. McClain, of Boggus, were named as secretaries. Secretary McClain proceeded at once to call the roll of delegates and prompt answers as each name was reached developed the fact that the convention was unusually full, there being but one absentee and one substitution. Forster, the three delegates of Haines township were permitted to cast the four votes to which the township is entitled. Wm. Hamilton now offered the following resolution fixing the order of business, which was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That the following order of business be adopted and followed by this Convention: 1st. The naming of a candidate for Congress. 2d. The choosing of three persons as Conferees to meet others from the several counties composing this Congressional district. 3d. The naming of two candidates for members of Assembly. 4th. The naming of a candidate for District Attorney. 5th. The naming of a candidate for County Surveyor. 6th. The naming of two persons to represent this County in the Democratic State Convention as delegates thereto, and also a Senatorial delegate. 7th. The choosing of three persons as Conferees to meet others from the several counties composing the Senatorial district, to choose a Senatorial delegate. 8th. The selection of one person as Chairman of the County Committee for the year commencing 1st January next. 9th. The consideration of the proposed amendments to the Rules governing the Democratic party in Centre county. The first thing in order was the nomination of a candidate for Congress. L. G. Lingle, Esq., of Phillipsburg, moved the nomination of Hon. A. G. Curtin, of Bellefonte, by acclamation. This was carried amidst great applause. The following resolution was then offered by William Wolf, Esq., of Potter, and was adopted unanimously: Resolved, That Hon. Cyrus T. Alexander, J. Harrison Holt and John H. Morrison, Esq., be and they are hereby appointed conferees to meet others from the counties composing the Congressional district to name a candidate for Congress, instructed to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of the gentleman named by this convention. Next in order came nominations for Assembly. Hons. J. P. Gephart and W. A. Murray, the sitting members, and B. F. Hunter, of Benner, and Chester Munson, of Phillipsburg, were rapidly placed in nomination, and the convention proceeded to ballot. The chairman announced the result to be as follows: Gephart.....47 votes Murray.....48 " Hunter.....29 " Munson.....27 " Gephart and Murray were then declared the unanimous choice of the convention as candidates for the lower branch of the State Legislature.

Pending the ballot, S. A. McQuiston, of the West ward of Bellefonte, raised a question as to whether he was instructed by the vote at the primaries for Hon. J. P. Gephart. The whole number of votes cast in the West ward at the delegate election on Saturday, the 18th inst., reached 27. Of these B. F. Hunter had 17 for instructions, J. P. Gephart 12, and W. A. Murray 3. The chair ruled that the combined votes of Murray and Gephart were a majority of all cast, and that under rule 6 the delegate from the West ward was instructed to vote for Hunter and Gephart. From this decision Mr. McQuiston appealed, but the chair was unanimously sustained by the convention. Maj. R. H. Forster now moved the nomination of W. C. Heinle for district attorney, which was made by acclamation. Samuel Brugger, Unionville borough, Ellis Lytle, of Half Moon township, and H. B. Herring, of Gregg township, were placed in nomination for county surveyor. Samuel Brugger, receiving a majority of all the votes on the first ballot, was declared the nominee of the convention. A. T. Leathers, of Unionville, and M. L. Rishel, of Gregg township, were next selected as Representative delegates to the Democratic State Convention of 1881. L. G. Lingle, Esq., of Phillipsburg, received the endorsement of the convention for Senatorial delegate. Mr. William Hamilton offered the following resolution, which was adopted: Resolved, That F. P. Musser, of Millheim, H. A. McKee, of Bellefonte, and C. G. Herlinger, of Phillipsburg, be and they are hereby appointed conferees to meet others from the counties composing this Senatorial district to select a person to be a Senatorial delegate in the Democratic State Convention to be held in 1881, and that they be instructed to use all honorable means to secure the naming of the gentleman recommended by this convention. The next duty in order devolving upon the convention was the selection of a Chairman of the County Committee for the succeeding term. P. G. Meek and Adam Hoy, of Bellefonte, were placed in nomination and a ballot ordered. The result was announced by Chairman Fortney to be—Meek 41 votes, and Hoy 34 votes. Maj. R. H. Forster now took the floor and moved that the election of P. Gray Meek be made unanimous. This was done while the delegates and spectators indulged in lively manifestations of approval. The following rules amending those now in force were read and adopted: Resolved, That the following be adopted as an addition to the Rules of the party and that it be numbered Rule I, and that the numbers of the rules be changed to correspond. The Democratic County Convention of Centre county shall be composed of one delegate for every fifty Democratic voters polled at the Presidential or gubernatorial election next preceding the convention. The allotment of delegates to the several election districts in the county shall be made by the Standing Committee of the county at its first meeting in every alternate year succeeding the Presidential and gubernatorial elections and shall be in proportion to the Democratic votes cast in each district at such elections. Resolved, That the rule heretofore known as Rule 1st shall hereafter be Rule II and shall be amended to read as follows: The election for delegates to represent the different districts in the annual Democratic County Convention shall be held at the usual place of holding the general elections for each district, on the Saturday preceding the second Monday of August in each and every year, beginning at two o'clock p. m., on said day and continuing until six o'clock p. m. The delegates so elected shall meet in County Convention in the Court House, at Bellefonte, on the Tuesday following at two o'clock p. m. The above will now have to be submitted to a mass meeting of Democratic citizens, and if ratified by them will become a law unto the party. This ended the proceedings of one of the most harmonious and interesting conventions ever held in Centre county, and as Chairman Fortney declared the work done and the convention adjourned sine die, there was a feeling of satisfaction upon every hand at the successful deliberations of these intelligent representatives of old Centre. DEMOCRATIC ENTHUSIASM.—RAISING POLES, FLOATING BANNERS AND PRESENTING FLAGS AT PHILIPSBURG.—The Democracy of Phillipsburg, on Saturday evening last, had a large and enthusiastic Hancock and English meeting which was attended by several pleasing incidents. It was the occasion of raising a Democratic pole from which to float the banner of the Democratic candidates for President and Vice President. The audience was addressed by Israel Test, Esq., of Clearfield, in his usual happy and eloquent manner of presenting Democratic truths to public attention. Mr. Test was peculiarly impressed on this occasion as he was charged by the Democratic ladies with the very pleasing duty of presenting to the Hancock and English club, then present in full dress uniform, a large and handsome flag, 15 1/2 x 28 feet. This duty he performed in a very felicitous manner. The beautiful and appropriate gift was received on the part of the club by Dr. G. F. Hoop in a neat and happy speech, which was received with much applause. After the presentation ceremonies were over the club paraded, two hundred strong, bearing torches and banners. Democratic fires burn brightly at Phillipsburg. At the store of Sechler & Co. about everything can be bought that people want to eat. Meats fresh and juicy, or dried and carefully preserved; home and foreign fruits and berries of all descriptions, together with everything that can be embraced in a well kept grocery.

DEATH OF DR. JONATHAN MOYER.—We were inexpressibly pained to hear of the sudden death of Dr. Jonathan Moyer, of Logansville, Clinton county, which sad event occurred early on Wednesday morning of last week, at Lock Haven. Dr. Moyer was a native of Miles township, Centre county, where his brothers, the venerable Henry, living at a very advanced age, John and Reuben still reside. On reaching man's estate, and soon after completing his medical education, the Doctor settled in Sugar Valley, where he continued to live during all his life, actively engaged in the duties of his profession, except during a term that he filled the office of prothonotary of Clinton county. He ranked high as a physician, had great experience as a practitioner, and filled a useful and beneficent place in the community. In the early years of Doctor Moyer's professional life, Sugar Valley was sorely afflicted with an epidemic of typhoid fever, of a type so malignant that it baffled the skill of the best physicians. The disease was new to the section and for some time did not have a technical name, but was known and dreaded as the Sugar Valley fever. It would not yield to the heroic remedies of those days; death was in almost every household and the period of its duration was full of sorrow, affliction and even terror to the inhabitants of the valley. It appeared that its ravages could not be stayed, and it was at this time, as we once heard the late Dr. Robert Vanvalzah, of Spring Mills, (then a young physician practicing in Brush Valley with the yet well remembered Dr. Samuel Strohecker,) remark that Dr. Moyer, after much observation, thought and study, was in advance of them all in concluding that a new method of treating the disease must be adopted. He made the change, was soon rewarded with gratifying results, and his mode of treatment was afterwards substantially followed by his fellow practitioners. We thought at the time we heard this statement that it was high commendation for one physician to bestow upon another, and it has been vividly recalled to our mind by Dr. Moyer's death. On the day preceding his sudden end he went to Lock Haven for the purpose of attending to a business affair and also to be present at the Democratic meeting of that evening. It was our pleasure to meet him that afternoon and to receive from him an old time friendly greeting. He called during the afternoon to pay his respects to Gov. Curtin, for whom he entertained a sincere and ardent friendship. After the first words of greeting he engaged in a conversation with the Governor, and a strange episode of the interview, taken in connection with the sad circumstance that followed so speedily, was a short dissertation he introduced on the longevity of man. He stated as a fact, well established by scientific observation, that after reaching the years of manhood, the really dangerous period was between the ages of fifty and sixty; that after passing sixty years, unless called off by accident or some other unusual or violent cause, a man had a reasonable certainty of life for ten or fifteen years longer. He spoke of this in a seeming tone of self congratulation at having safely passed his sixtieth year, and at the fair prospect of the years that were still before him. But, alas, in a few fleeting hours, while sitting in the court house, listening to the glowing eloquence of his honored friend, he was seized with the fatal attack that ended his earthly career. When discovered paralysis had already ensued, and before the dawn of another day he was in the cold embrace of death. Sad and startling! Dr. Moyer was about 64 years of age. His funeral took place at Logansville on last Sabbath, and was largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends. We shall ever remember him as a genial, kind hearted and intelligent man. May he rest in peace. DEATH OF AN ESTIMABLE LADY.—Mrs. Ruth Harrison, an aged resident of Pleasant Gap, died at that place last Friday morning, and with her death terminated a life which was fair and beautiful in its every incident, leaving a pure and indelible impress upon the minds of her friends. Mrs. Harrison was the widow of Mr. Thomas Harrison, a former respected citizen, and the daughter of Mr. John Furey, whose death occurred many years ago. She was born in the first year of the present century at a place called Walnut Bottom, near Carlisle, Pa., but was brought by her father to this county at the early age of two years, and has since resided at Pleasant Gap. What prodigious changes have the revolving years made in that time! The then wilderness is now with verdure clad, the wild forests are converted into a flowery plain. At the time of her death, Mrs. H. was residing at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Shiffer. Though her sufferings were extreme and her decease was hourly expected, the sad event was delayed by the kind presence and care of her numerous friends and the skillful efforts of her physician. She was a lady of great personal worth, brilliant mind and lofty intellect. In literary attainments, in modesty of manner and in Christian culture she shed a radiance upon those with whom she lived and moved like a star of wondrous beauty. It is said of her that by long attention to the words of holy inspiration almost every line was written upon her mind and heart, and her utterances were like an open Bible, no reference to the printed pages being necessary for her to tell its precious truths. Fascinated by the musical measure of poetry, Milton was her ideal. His beautiful sentiments became her own, his words were upon her tongue. A lover of learning, she became proficient in several departments of human research. These acquisitions gave her power, which she exerted for the good of those around her and the advancement of the Christian faith, of the Presbyterian branch of which she was a consistent member. The eighty years of her earthly pilgrimage was a pleasant pathway; and death was but an open doorway into one of the most beautiful of the "many mansions." THE PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.—Thursday last was a grand day for a picnic. The weather was not cold enough to produce a chill, nor hot enough to induce perspiration. Consequently, the beautiful plateau on the top of Nittany Mountain was thronged with pleasure seekers to take part in the Patrons' picnic. Four bands were present and the air was tremulous with delightful music. During the day orators addressed the assembly upon subjects interesting to the agricultural community, and those who listened received profit as well as pleasure. As the sun sank low in the heavens and the shadows grew long before them, the picnickers wended their way down the mountain side without the occurrence of anything to mar the most enjoyable picnic ever given by the Patrons of Husbandry. Another aged inhabitant of this county passed away in the person of Mr. Daniel Kuhns, of Eagleville, who died on Sunday the 5th instant. He was 76 years of age and highly respected. His interment took place on the following Tuesday. Mr. James McKiver, a graduate of Hamilton College, is teaching at the Academy in the position occupied last year by Mr. Heebner. RAILROAD MEETING.—The following are the proceedings of a railroad meeting held at Hublersburg last Saturday: HUBLEBSBURG, Sept. 18, 1880. In response to previous notice, a large portion of the citizens of Walker township assembled to consider the propriety of building a railroad through Sugar and Nittany Valleys from Bellefonte, to connect with the Reading line. On motion, Mr. Ambrose McMullen was elected President; Hon. John Diven, Jacob Dunkle, J. H. Tolbert, Martin Brumgard, Henry Brown, Isaiah Struble, H. C. Snavely, Jacob Garberich, Solomon Peck, J. C. Zimmerman, J. P. Gephart, Geo. Swartz, and T. P. Rupert, Vice Presidents, and B. F. Shaffer, Secretary. Mr. James Wolfenden, of Lock Haven, addressed the meeting on the subject, and it was found to be the unanimous opinion of those present that such a road should be constructed as quickly as possible. It is desirable that free right of roadway be secured through Walker township and that capitalists be attracted to the construction of the road, and for this purpose the following committee was appointed: Ambrose McMullen, Hon. John Diven, J. H. Tolbert, Jacob Dunkle, Martin Brumgard, Henry Brown, Isaiah Struble, H. C. Snavely, Jacob Garberich, Solomon Peck, J. C. Zimmerman, J. P. Gephart, Geo. Swartz, B. F. Shaffer and T. P. Rupert. The committee will meet at Hublersburg next Thursday evening at 7 o'clock to transact further business. B. F. SHAFFER, Secretary. Fine clothing made to order at the old prices. No advance.
