Go to Powers & Son for the best boots and shoes.

Headquarters for gentlemen's clothing at the Philadelphia Branch.

Strangers in town attending the fair can buy good cigars of Harry Green.

Gentlemen's clothing of all descriptions at the Philadelphia Branch.

A new crane and machinery for unloading freight at the depot has been received and was placed in position on Monday.

The great strainers of the human system, the kidneys, are subject to a variety of diseases that Day's Kidney Pad will certainly cure.

Jupiter is near the earth now than he will be again for twelve years. He came to look at the fine clothing displayed at the Philadelphia Branch.

The people of Spain are intensely provoked because the little stranger who arrived the other day is "only a girl" and can't buy her clothes at the Philadelphia Branch.

The Temperance Union of Bellefonte will meet to-night in regular monthly session in the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association. All persons are invited to be present.

The regular Wednesday evening prayer meetings of the Episcopal church, which were discontinued during the summer season, were commenced again last evening and will be continued regularly hereafter.

PERSONAL MEMORANDA.—Mr. John Lyon has been visiting at his home in this place during the present week.

Col. W. A. S. Taylor, of Norfolk, Va., arrived in this place last week to join his family, who have been staying at the Brockerhoff House during the summer. They will remain but a few days longer and will then return to spend the cold season in their southern home. Col. Taylor and his family create a pleasant impression upon all with whom they meet.

Mr. E. L. Orvis has been out of town on surveying tours during the past few months. His present occupation seems to agree with him, as, physically, he is growing wonderfully attractive and handsome.

Wilbur F. Reeder, Esq., the polite Secretary of the Centre county Agricultural Society, is entitled to our profoundest gratitude for his handsome action in reference to "complimentary" admissions to the annual fair now in progress on the Society's grounds.

Dr. Thomas R. Hayes and lady have returned home from their western tour, arriving on Monday. Their ramble has led them to traverse one of the most beautiful and thriving portions of our territory east of the Mississippi.

Miss Lizzie Campbell, daughter of Mr. John Campbell, of this place, is in Show Shoe, where she will teach during this winter. It is acknowledged by all who know anything about the requirements of an instructress for children that Miss Campbell was one of the most competent teachers employed in the public schools of this place last winter, though for some inexplicable reason her services were not retained. We congratulate the people of Show Shoe that Bellefonte's loss is their everlasting gain.

Mr. James Montgomery, of Mann's Axo Works, departed on Saturday morning last for McVeytown, to remain for a few days.

Mr. George S. Franck, son of Judge Franck, of Rebersburg, is attending medical lectures in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Jennie Clevenstone, of Nittany Hall, has devoted a portion of her time during the past season to the cultivation of cabbage, and now has some truly extraordinary specimens to show as a reward of her exertions in that direction. One monster is thirty-seven inches in circumference, and two others are each thirty-six inches. One cut for use the other day weighed seventeen pounds. Mrs. Clevenstone is proud of her achievement, and would be pleased to hear from any other lady in the county who can equal or excel it.

Miss Blanche Crawford, of Milesburg, is sojourning among her numerous friends in Pittsburg and Allegheny.

Miss Thompson, who has recently been visiting the family of Rev. Woodcock, of Milesburg, has returned to her home in Milton.

Miss Adele Clare, daughter of Rev. Dr. Clare, of Phillipsburg, has been spending the past few days among her numerous friends in this place.

Miss Maudie, who is employed in the New York City institution, is visiting at the home of her parents on Bishop street in this place.

Mr. Clint. Lindsey, of Houtzdale, was in town on Sunday. There are strong attractions for him in Bellefonte and, doubtless, his visit will be frequently repeated.

Mr. John Mason Duncan departed on Monday for Montoursville, to begin his duties as Principal of the Public Schools of that place.

Miss Bella Rankin, of Boalsburg, is one of the fair young ladies at present visiting in town and attending the county fair.

Mr. A. J. Cruse is entitled to the thanks of the Hancock Veterans for his kind remembrance of them on last Saturday evening. The cigars he passed around as the procession halted in front of the Bush House, were unanimously voted first rate.

DEATH'S DOINGS.—Our honored townsman, George H. Weaver, Esq., is mourning the death of his brother, Mr. Joseph H. Weaver, whose decease occurred at his home in Greenup, Cumberland county, Illinois, on Thursday, the 23d ultimo. The deceased was 83 years of age, and resided in this county until 1860, when he moved to the West. A wife and two children survive him. He was an honorable and respected gentleman, and we deeply sympathize with his many friends in their bereavement.

We learn with regret of the death on Sunday evening of last week of Mr. W. S. Lucas, of Curtin township. He was forty-one years of age and greatly respected. A wife and four children survive him.

Mrs. Sarah Jones, an aged and highly respectable resident of Milesburg, died at her home in that place on Tuesday morning of last week. She was the mother of Mr. Jabez Jones and the widow of David Jones, Esq., deceased. Her age was 92 years.

We were pained to hear of the death, on Wednesday of last week, of Mrs. Joshua Foulk, of this place. She leaves a husband and several small children. Her funeral took place on Friday afternoon.

A little four-year-old son of Mr. Robert Welch, living at Dix's station, near Fowler, was seriously scalded on Thursday afternoon last by the upsetting of a camp-kettle filled with boiling soap fat. It injures very so severe that it died a few days after the accident.

THE TRIUMPH OF THE HANCOCK LEGION.—A public parade of the Hancock Legion was called for last Saturday night, and the young men, accompanied by their veteran friends, responded in such overwhelming numbers as even to surprise the members of the Hancock Legion themselves. If it continues to increase during the remainder of the campaign at the rate manifested by their appearance on Saturday evening, it will certainly include all the young men of this section. Ten representatives of the Legion, led the immense procession; and then appeared the Pleasant Gap band, rendering inspiring music. The veteran club, including several quite aged gentlemen, were present, 35 strong. They marched in an admirable manner. The Hancock Legion proper included 225 of the enterprising and industrious young men of this place and vicinity. Thus, nearly 300 in number, they marched onward appearing like an army. The hundreds of spectators along the streets rent the air with loud huzzas at every appearance of the glorious host, while the Republicans looked on with amazement and consternation. The Legion marched with splendid precision and soldierly elegance. Several military evolutions, which add so much to the appearance of the Legion, were executed in a splendid manner. They halted at the residences of a few prominent Democrats along the route, to pay them an especial mark of attention. Major Wm. F. Reynolds, of Linn street, thanked them and offered a few words of congratulation. The Brown Brothers, on the corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets, and D. G. Bush, Esq., of Spring street, were also the recipients of honors from the Legion. Ex-Gov. Curtin appeared when they halted before his residence and made quite an extended and brilliant speech. This appearance of the Legion was eminently a success throughout, and needs no other proof to demonstrate their superiority over every other political organization in this section of the State.

The Democrats of Smoketown, in Brush Valley, had a very pleasant political demonstration on Friday of last week. Among the exercises was the raising of a noble hickory pole 108 feet in length. Messrs. Gideon Kreamer, Willis Weber and R. D. Bierly may be mentioned as among those prominently engaged in rendering the affair a success. The Rebersburg band was also present and discoursed excellent music.

A large and enthusiastic gathering of the Democracy of Eagleville took place last Friday evening. Previous to the meeting an elegant flag was suspended across the street, and as its beautiful folds waved in the wind it augured the election of the candidate who had fought for it on so many battle-fields, and in whose interest the meeting was held. D. F. Fortney, Esq., was the orator of the occasion, and completed his remarks by the following observations during this campaign:

The Democratic party, who in 1878 had obeyed the mandates of the State Central Committee and left his district to do battle for the Democratic candidate for Governor. In his absence extraordinary combinations were made and in the result he and the party had suffered a grievous wrong. This time he proposed to stay in his district. He had received invitations to go to Ohio and Indiana, and calls from the State Central Committee, but he had made up his mind to labor for the success of the Democratic ticket—the whole ticket—and as he felt sure of the election of the gallant Hancock so he felt in reference to himself—that the Democratic party would stand by him, and he would do his part towards giving them an active, energetic and zealous support. He had no fears of the result, and rested confident in the belief that the party would right the wrong of 1878 and sustain it.

His remarks were frequently interrupted with applause, and at the close loud calls were made for Mr. Reed. He responded and said that he had gone into the conference, as was evident, not to nominate the honorable gentleman who had been their choice to-day, but now that the selection had been made, and unanimously concurred in, it received his cordial support. He recognized the eminent fitness of the nominee, and pledged his hearty support of him in the canvass.

At the conclusion of his remarks, which were loudly applauded, Mr. Hall was called for. He said he had come there in good faith as a candidate, and was gratified at the support he had received from his county; but that the nomination had fallen to another, and he thought it a selection eminently fit to be made, and it would receive his most hearty support. The men who were his conferees were representative men in Elk county, and their action would be concurred in by the people of Elk, and when the vote was cast on the 2d of November, our distinguished nominee would be found running along with our noble standard bearer, Winfield S. Hancock. For himself he would do all in his power to bring to Governor Curtin the support he should receive, and which he was sure the Democracy of Elk would give. Frequent applause interrupted Mr. Hall's remarks, at the close of which the Conference adjourned sine die.

The handsomest gentlemen's clothing in town is at the Philadelphia Branch store.

CONGRESSIONAL CONFERENCE.—The Congressional Conference of the 20th district met at the Irvin House, Lock Haven, on Tuesday, Sept 28th, at 2 P. M. The following conferees were present:

Centre—J. H. Morrison, J. H. Holt, C. T. Alexander.
Clearfield—Dr. J. W. Potter, James L. Levy, John K. White.
Clinton—H. L. Dieffenbach, W. H. Brown, T. C. Hipple.
Elk—Andrew Kaul, Charles Luhr, G. D. Messenger.
Mifflin—C. P. Dull, S. B. Weber, J. S. Rakerd.

Union—Joseph Green, Samuel Blair, G. W. Walls, (Mr. Walls being absent Mr. Blair cast his vote for him.)

The Conference organized by the selection of Judge Luhr, of Elk, for President, T. C. Hipple, of Clinton, and John K. White, of Clearfield, Secretaries.

On the call of counties Mr. Morrison, of Centre, nominated Hon. A. G. Curtin for Congress; Mr. Messenger, of Elk, nominated James K. P. Hall, Esq., of the same county; and Mr. Rakerd, of Mifflin, nominated Andrew Reed, Esq., of the same county. The following letter from Hon. A. H. Dill was presented and read:

LEWISBURG, Pa., Sept 18, 1880.
Dr. Samuel Blair, Joseph Green and G. W. Walls: Gentlemen: As the delegates to the Congressional Conference from this district I wish to notify you of my desire that my name shall not be presented as a candidate for the nomination for Congress.

I appreciate highly the honor done me by the county in suggesting my name, but as several gentlemen are competing for the honor of the nomination I do not feel at liberty, occupying the position I do, to engage in the contest. By making this decision of mine known at the meeting of the conference you will much oblige me.
Very truly yours, A. H. DILL.

The convention then took several ballots with recesses now and then, till about 10 o'clock in the evening, the vote standing 9 for Curtin, (Centre, Clinton and Clearfield), 6 for Reed, (Mifflin and Union), and 3 for Hall, (Elk), when they adjourned till the next morning.

They met next morning at 8:30 A. M., and on the 9th ballot Hon. A. G. Curtin received 11 votes (necessary to a choice), 10 from Elk having voted for him). He was thereupon declared the nominee, and on motion the nomination was made unanimous.

Messrs. Potter, Rakerd and Dieffenbach were appointed a committee to inform the nominee of the action of the conference, and to invite him and the other candidates to visit the conference. The committee performed that duty, and Governor Curtin was presented. He expressed his thanks for the honor conferred upon him, and acknowledged his pleasure at being placed in a position to be vindicated from the wrong done him and his party in 1878. He said he had left the Radical party in 1872 and joined the Democrats; that he had been with them since that time, and was heartily in the same company this year under the lead of the able and gallant Hancock; that there were but two great parties in this country, the Democratic and the Radical, and that he had joined the former because he believed in its principles.

Mr. Joseph Long, a farmer residing at the western end of Nittany Valley, met with a serious misfortune on Tuesday evening, September 21, in the loss of his stable, containing 700 bushels of wheat and other crops, together with five horses and a hog. The entire loss is estimated about $3,500.

To our everlasting sorrow we learn that the match between U. S. Grant, Jr., and Miss Jennie Flood has been broken off. What a disappointment! We expected that they would settle quietly down to enjoy their married life in Bellefonte, purchase their groceries at S. A. Brew & Son's grocery store, and live happily ever after.

The autumnal foliage upon the trees which border our streets is assuming its most brilliant hues of russet, gold and crimson. And two sweet, ethereal girls on Howard street, on Monday, in their eagerness to obtain the most beautiful leaves, "boosted" each other up the tree, and we hope were rewarded with grand success.

We are indebted to our excellent friend, J. G. Larimer, Esq., of Pleasant Gap, for two very fine heads of cabbage, weighing respectively nineteen and twenty pounds. Gibson is an expert at gardening, and when his fine vegetables are ready for use he always remembers the printers. Thanks.

We have the finest stock of suits in black diagonal, blue check and other dark good, heavy winter suits. We can show you the largest and best stock in the county and guarantee them 20 per cent. cheaper than any other house.

—It is said that many Chicago lads refuse to learn trades. We are glad that so many people in this vicinity are learning a very useful trade, viz: to trade at the grocery store of Sechler & Co., where the best groceries can always be bought.

A great improvement has been made in the street exposure of Dr. Hibler's residence, the large double doors in front having been converted into a wide window in which rare plants and flowers are now tastefully displayed.

Those who purchase goods at Sechler & Co's grocery store are much like lovers, visiting their sweethearts. First they go weekly, then daily, and soon go several times each day. All the groceries bought there give satisfaction.

Fine clothing made to order at the old prices. No advance.

MONTGOMERY & CO.

Last Monday morning this place was the scene of a matrimonial event which attracted universal interest. The nuptial ceremony between Mr. Michael Morrison and Miss Ellen Leaft, both of this borough, was solemnized by Rev. Father McArdle, the agreeable and able priest of St. John's Roman Catholic church, of this place, both bride and groom being devoted adherents of that faith. The groom is an old citizen of Bellefonte, over sixty years of age and of reputed wealth. The bride is attractive and youthful—certainly not over twenty-five. The groom, however, does not show his age, but bears his weight of years with manly vigor, and we hope that many happy years are in store for him and his youthful bride.

Four barrels of magnificent oysters, the very finest we have seen this season, were visible in front of the Bush House office on Tuesday. The enterprising proprietor of the Bush House intends that they shall tickle the palates of all lovers of the bivalve and to that end will serve them at his restaurant and supply private families with the very choicest of them. Mr. Peters has supplied a want long and seriously felt in Bellefonte, by giving us a first-class restaurant. His bill of fare includes everything the market affords and every attention is paid those who avail themselves of his elegant accommodations.

At the early hour of going to press we have not time to give our readers an account of the Centre County Agricultural Fair for 1880. But we know that the officers have been busily engaged during the past few days in receiving entries and putting them in order, and there is every reason to apprehend that the exhibit at present on the grounds is a creditable one. If the beautiful weather which prevails at this writing continues through to-day, and to-morrow there will, doubtless, be a very large number of people present.

On Saturday one of those splendid specimens of modern agriculture called "California cucumbers" was presented to us by Mr. David Tanyer, of Howard township. It measures 3 feet 4 inches in length and is ten or twelve inches in circumference. It was raised by Mr. Tanyer, who has given it the name of the "Hancock gourd," and Jonah might safely sit in the shadow of it without fear that it would wilt under the warmest rays of the sun.

Miss Annie, the young daughter of our County Register, Mr. W. E. Burchfield, met with a severe accident on Saturday evening, September 25, by a fall from a carriage. In attempting to alight from the vehicle, she fell, striking her head on a stone, rendering her insensible. She was carried to the house and the services of Dr. Dobbins summoned. During the past week she has been rapidly recovering.

Mr. Joseph Long, a farmer residing at the western end of Nittany Valley, met with a serious misfortune on Tuesday evening, September 21, in the loss of his stable, containing 700 bushels of wheat and other crops, together with five horses and a hog. The entire loss is estimated about $3,500.

LOCAL LEGISLATION.—Messrs. Crider, Harper, Hunter, Meek, Mullen, McClure and McQuiston met in the Council chamber last Monday night to legislate upon the affairs of the borough.

Communications were received from several citizens who consider their water taxes too high and were referred to the Water Committee.

The duplicate held by Wm. Jones for the collection of the poor tax of 1878 was reported by the Finance Committee to be paid in full.

The attention of the Street Committee was directed to the grade of the pavement on the north side of Logan street, between Spring and Allegheny streets, and they were empowered to act in reference to it.

CORNER-STONE LAYING.—The corner stone for the new Reformed church on the corner of Linn and Spring streets will be laid on next Sunday, Oct. 10th, at 10 o'clock A. M. After the laying of the corner-stone the congregation will repair to the Lutheran church on High street for worship, when Rev. Dr. Gerhart, President of the Theological Seminary at Lancaster, Pa., will preach a sermon appropriate to the occasion. The Christian public is cordially invited to be present.

A pleasant time awaits all who shall attend the Terpsichorean ball this evening. Great preparations have been made to render it successful. The beautiful necklace and ring to be presented to the best lady and gentleman waltzers will make the merry dance even more enjoyable and exhilarating than usual.
