PERSONALS.—Mr. Demme Tomlinson, son of Rev. Tomlinson, of Aaronburg, this county, passed through this place on his return from the West, last Thursday.
Mr. John Hayes, of Millinburg, Union county, accompanied by his wife and little daughter, spent a portion of last week as the guests of our excellent citizen, Dr. Thomas R. Hayes.

CHIMES FROM THE WEDDING BELLS.—On Tuesday afternoon at half-past two o'clock a very happy event occurred at the residence of Mrs. Mary Moran, on Allegheny street, it being the wedding of Mr. W. E. Burchfield, the register of this county, and the fair mistress of the mansion.
The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Laurie, pastor of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The groom was a widower, and is one of the most popular gentlemen in the county.

A PROFITABLE DEMOCRATIC MEETING ON TUESDAY EVENING.—Previous to the meeting in the Democratic club room of this place, last Tuesday night, the Hancock Legion made a very beautiful street parade. The severe cold and the falling rain deterred the usual number from joining in the procession and prevented them from pursuing an extended route, but all competent judges who had the good fortune to witness the parade acknowledge it to have been one of the most elegant spectacles which has been seen during the present campaign.

—The DEMOCRAT of last week alluded to the vile slander published against Emanuel Noll in the Morning News. The News of last Thursday morning contains the following letters in refutation of the charge, and it is but justice to Mr. Noll that they should be read by every one:
MILESBURG, Pa., Oct. 12, 1880.
To the editor of the Morning News:
Your article of this morning, entitled "A Model Hancock Veteran," does me an injustice which I am loth to believe is intentional.

Respectfully Declines.
Bellefonte, October 15.

DEAR SIR—I see by the "Bellefonte Morning News" that my name appears therein as the nominee of the Greenback party of Centre county for the office of District Attorney.
