Local Department.

—Farewell, October.
—Hats, caps, collars and neckties at the Philadelphia Branch.
—Hair brushes from 15 cents to $3.00, at Green's drug store.
—W. A. Lyon pays cash for green hides. See his card.
—We learn that Mr. Joshua Foulk, of this place, lost a child by death on Tuesday morning.
—For colds and coughs use Green's "Compound Syrup of Tar, Honey and Bloodroot."
—Lewin, of the Philadelphia Branch, invites you to inspect his large stock of fall clothing.
—All Hallow-e'en comes on Sunday, and the small boy will probably celebrate on Saturday eve.
—The Bellefonte and Snow Shoe Railroad Company have recently put a new engine on the track. It is No. 6.
—Last year the first snow of the season fell in Bellefonte on Friday, October 24—this year on Monday, October 25.
—The foliage on the hillsides continues to present a beautiful appearance in its varying hues of orange and crimson.
—Isn't it about time to issue a Thanksgiving Proclamation? We want to return thanks for the election of Hancock.
—Young ladies do not accept the attention of your gentlemen friends unless they buy their clothing at the Philadelphia Branch.
—The curbstone markets are constantly growing smaller. They will probably disappear entirely in the course of two or three weeks.
—Mr. Daniel Musser, of Boalsburg, whose death we recorded last week, was sixty-six years of age. His decease was caused by erysipelas.
—Mr. Charles McCafferty, the contractor, was so unfortunate on Monday as to have one of his hands severely injured by a stone falling upon it.
—Mr. Harry Hicks is boarding at the Bush House in the absence of his wife from town. His Linn street residence is closed for the present.
—The Hancock Legion will give a grand ball in Bush's Hall to-morrow evening. It will be the most enjoyable affair of that character held during this season.
—The place to get your dinner and supper to-morrow is in the vacant room belonging to Mr. Edward Brown, on the corner of Bishop and Allegheny streets.
—The world contains 1,200,000,000 inhabitants. If they would all trade at the grocery store of S. A. Brew & Son that establishment would have a patronage such as its merit deserves.
—Democratic meetings will be held in all parts of the county during the time that intervenes between this and the election. All citizens who love their country should attend when it is possible to do so.
—Monday evening's train from Snow Shoe brought three large deer, the heaviest weighing 172 pounds, minus the head and antlers. This is the largest that has been shot thus far during the season.
—Rev. Mr. Burroughs, of Chemung county, N. Y., will preach in the Baptist church, this place next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. He is an able minister and there should be a large congregation to hear him.
—What has become of the Garfield Guards? Is the small handful which went from this place to Milesburg last Saturday evening all that remains of them? It is about time for the Stalwarts to originate a new issue to restore their enthusiasm.

—The ladies of the Reformed church will give a grand oyster dinner and supper to-morrow (Friday) in the vacant room belonging to Mr. Edward Brown on the corner of Bishop and Allegheny streets. Oysters and other good things will be provided in great quantity and superior quality. All good Democrats (and there are no other kind) who are present at the mass meeting to-morrow, should go with their families to patronize this worthy enterprise. We are glad the ladies thought of giving their dinner and supper at this time, and we bespeak for them immense success.

—Mr. Levi Dixon, of Roland, and his wife's mother, Mrs. Johnson, are both suffering the effects of an accident of which they were recently the victims. Mr. Dixon and Mrs. Johnson, in company with a granddaughter of the latter, were riding down the hill near Zion, when the hold-back strap broke, causing the horse to run. All the occupants were thrown out. Mrs. Johnson, who is eighty-five years of age, was picked up in an insensible condition. Mr. Dixon received a severe scalp wound and other injuries. The girl alone escaped, although the wagon passed over her body.

—The eleventh annual convention of the Clinton county Sabbath-school Association will assemble in the Beech Creek M. E. church to-day and to-morrow. Among those who will be present to take part in the very interesting programme of exercises which has been prepared we notice such gentlemen as Revs. W. A. Houck and P. A. Heiman, of Lock Haven; Rev. A. C. Clarke, of Shamokin; Rev. N. L. Sterner, of Renovo; Rev. Jesse B. Young, of Altoona, and Geo. J. Eldred, of Mackeyville. Of course, all representatives of Sabbath-schools are invited to be present.

—No services were held in the Presbyterian church, of this place, last Sunday, in consequence of the absence of the pastor, Rev. William Laurie, who departed to Philadelphia last week, to see his young nephews safely embarked on a vessel bound for Scotland. They sail under the care of a clergyman of that country, who is just returning home from his visit to the Pan- Presbyterian Council in Philadelphia. The first services will, however, be held in the church next Sunday.

—At a meeting of the I. O. of O. F., on Tuesday evening of last week, the following officers were installed for the ensuing six months: N. G., John I. Rankin; V. G., J. C. Braebill; S. H. B. Pontius; A. S., Henry Beck; T. H. H. Benner; R. S., H. C. Weaver; L. S., Isaac Miller; W., W. B. Rankin; C., R. A. Laird; R. S. S., H. C. Schroyer; L. S. S., Isaac Haupt; O. G., B. Galbraith; I. G., W. H. Miller; R. S., S. H. Griffith; L. S., W. E. Miller.

—The residence of Mr. Jerry Way, of Half Moon, was entered last Thursday by unknown parties and $17 taken from the bureau drawers. A noise was heard upstairs during the day by occupants of the house, but no attention was paid to it until an errand thither revealed that the bureau drawers had been ransacked with the above result.

—The Mountain City Band was out last Thursday evening to serenade a party of young folks from Lock Haven who were at the Brockerhoff House. Two of their number—Mr. William Klise and Miss Allie Bechtol—were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. S. E. Furst, of this place. They departed for home on the evening train.

—Epizootic, one of the most unwelcome diseases to which horse flesh is heir, seems to be gradually gaining ground, though not in a form so malignant as its appearance a few years ago. We hear of several horses that are afflicted with it, though none as yet have died. Serious trouble is not apprehended from it this winter.

—The third quarterly meeting of the Penns Valley Circuit of the M. E. church will be held in the church at Centre Hall next Saturday and Sunday. The business conference will take place on Saturday at 2:30 p. m. Rev. P. B. Else, of Milesburg, will officiate in the absence of the Presiding Elder.

—A wicked Yankee has invented a new telegraph. It is to place a line of women fifty steps apart, and commit the news to the first as a profound secret. Of course, his first message will be that Sechler & Co's grocery is the best in Bellefonte.

—A new church edifice recently erected at Logansville, Sugar Valley, will be dedicated on Sunday, the 21st prox. Bishop T. Bowman, of the M. E. church, will officiate, and the public are cordially invited to attend.

—To get along well it is necessary to dig it deep, and also to purchase the coffee, tea, sugar and all other kinds of groceries we may want at the store of Sechler & Co.

—While you are "enthusing" at the big mass meeting to-morrow step into the Philadelphia Branch and buy some winter clothing.

—King Alfonso spends his evenings in reading newspapers and his mornings in smoking Harry Green's cigars.

—"Sirius" is the most thoughtful star in the heavens, and he thinks that Harry Green's cigars are the best.

—Candidates should purchase a new suit at the Philadelphia Branch in honor of their election.

PERSONAL AND PERTINENT.—Mr. Geo. Brew started on Monday for a visit at Cincinnati and other western cities. He will be gone several weeks. The fair ladies have much to do with his attraction thither, and it is hardly to be expected that he will return "heart whole and fancy free."

—Mr. Lawrence L. Brown returned from Huntingdon last Monday after a visit of several days.

—Miss Sarah Benner and her niece, Miss Mary Morris, have returned from their visit to Philadelphia, after an absence of about a month.

—A wedding between two of Bellefonte's popular young folks takes place this afternoon.

—Mr. William Speer, of Pleasant Gap, was in Curwensville last week, returning on Saturday.

—Mr. Al. Mallory, of Altoona, was in town last Sunday.

—The ladies of the Reformed church are superior caterers. Their restaurant will be found to-morrow on the corner of Bishop and Allegheny streets.

—Rev. J. Benson Akers, of Penn Hall, has recently been on a visit to his mother in Fulton county.

—Mr. William P. Duncan, of Phillipsburg, has again been chosen secretary of the Pennsylvania Miller's Association for the ensuing year. The next meeting will be held in Harrisburg.

—George B. Roberts, President of the Pennsylvania railroad, and other high officials connected with the great corporation, arrived in town by a special train on Wednesday of last week and on Thursday made a trip over the Bellefonte and Snow Shoe railroad, with the view of purchasing it. The trip was exceedingly pleasant, and the gentlemen expressed themselves as highly pleased with the road. We hope soon to be able to lay the result of the visit before our readers.

—Miss Mary Lyon, daughter of ex-Burgess S. S. Lyon, is in Philadelphia, completing her musical education.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burchfield returned from their wedding tour on Monday evening. The Mountain City Band was on hand at about eleven o'clock to tender the proper serenade to their former leader.

—Mr. Philip Cooper and Mr. John Abrams, of Philadelphia, with their families, removed to this place last week, purposing to reside here in the future. They now occupy Mrs. Ward's property, on Penn street. They are relatives of Daniel McGinley, Esq., and well acquainted in this community.

"DUST TO DUST."—We regret to record the decease of David Gilliland, Esq., of Potter township, which sad event occurred on Thursday last, October 21. He was an old and valued citizen of the county—a man of more than ordinary intelligence—kind and pleasant in disposition, and always highly respected in the community in which the most of his days were spent. He was for many years a consistent and exemplary member of the Presbyterian church and was prepared for the summons of the solemn messenger. His death was caused by Bright's disease of the kidneys, from which he had suffered for nine months. He was interred in the Presbyterian burial ground at Centre Hill on last Saturday—a large gathering of relatives, friends and neighbors paying the last tribute of respect to his memory. His age was 71 years, 7 months and 21 days.

A COMET COMING!—Prof. Swift, Astronomer of the Warren Observatory, at N. Y., discovered a large comet on the evening of October 10th. The new celestial visitor is in the Constellation of Pegasus, right ascension, 21 hours and 30 minutes, declination north 17 degrees and 30 minutes. Its rate of motion is quite slow, being in a northwestern direction, and it is supposed to be approaching the sun. It has a very strong condensation on one side of the centre, in addition to a star-like nucleus, which indicates that it is throwing off an extended tail. From the fact of its extraordinary size, and also that it is coming almost directly toward the earth, gives good reason to suppose that this will be one of the most brilliant and remarkable comets of the present century. Wait and watch for it.

THE WEEK OF PRAYER.—The Evangelical Alliance takes time by the forelock in issuing its usual programme for the week of prayer, January 2-9, 1881. It is suggested that on Sunday, January 2, sermons be preached from the text, "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, to-day and forever"; January 3, the general topic is praise and thanksgiving for all blessings; January 4, humiliation and confession for personal and national sins; January 5, prayer for the Church of Christ, that it may be fruitful and united; January 6, prayer for the young and their instructors, for parents, colleges, Sunday-schools; January 7, prayers for all nations and rulers, for universal liberty, for the cessation of wars; January 8, prayer for Christian missions and all engaged in promoting them.

—The Democratic procession will be under the Chief Marshalship of Major William F. Reynolds. The Major has had considerable experience in the handling of processions on occasions of this kind, and we have no doubt he will acquit himself with great credit to-morrow.

—The next "new" moon is on election day. Hurrah! Fair Luna's beams will kiss the cheeks of a triumphant democracy.

UNDER THE MISTLETOE.—The Brockerhoff House is fast becoming the Mecca of those foolish people who want to commit matrimony. Gretna Green, of storied fame, received into its hospitable arms all the love-lorn swains and damsels who were unable to make things right with the old people. But the Brockerhoff House is no Gretna Green. It is not the asylum of fugitives, but the royal castle of properly announced guests. When Mr. Wm. Klise, of Lock Haven, thought that ecstatic bliss could only be secured to him by placing the chains that are forged by love and welded by the preacher upon Miss Allie Bechtol, he promptly informed Mr. Teller that he, with his retinue, would thunder at the doors of his hotel on last Friday evening. He came, he saw Rev. S. E. Furst, the pastor of the Lutheran church, and at 7 o'clock Mr. Klise and Miss Bechtol faced the reverend gentleman while he read the impressive and beautiful marriage service of his church. In less time than it consumes to tell our readers Mr. Klise found that he was indissolubly linked to Miss Bechtol. Miss Klise, Miss Lent and Miss Fisher acted in the capacity of bridesmaids and shed all the necessary tears as they saw their friends wafted into that beautiful country which is to young ladies as the promised land. The bride was becomingly dressed in white satin and tulle, with the customary wreath of orange blossoms. The groom was slight in stature and was dressed in the ordinary garb of the American gentleman. Mrs. W. R. Teller and her accomplished daughter, Miss Fox, with Howard Lingle and Mr. Teller, composed the audience. K. T. Batchelor, Jas. Grier and M. C. Lingle took interest enough in the affair to act as groomsmen. It was quite a wedding, and was, no doubt, exceedingly satisfactory to the principal participants.

—The array of speakers for the great Democratic mass meeting on next Friday should secure the attendance of every Democrat in Centre county and should command the presence of every independent voter. Senator Whyte, of Maryland, is one of the nation's great men, and he is esteemed by all as a pure and unassailable man. His forensic abilities are of the highest order and he justly ranks among the foremost orators in the country. Lewis C. Cassidy, of Philadelphia, needs no mention to Pennsylvanians. He is known as among the great men of the land and every Democrat in Centre county will be proud to do him honor. Hon. Wm. A. Wallace, our own Senator, is too well known to his constituency in Centre county to need words of laudation. Hon. Samuel H. Reynolds, of Lancaster, brother of our distinguished townsman, W. F. Reynolds, is a great lawyer and most eloquent speaker. His reputation is not local, but extends all over the state and country. General A. L. Pearson is widely known as the fearless friend of Hancock, who renounced Republicanism after the nomination of Garfield, and is now doing yeoman service for his old comrade-in-arms. Colonel Dundas is a wealthy manufacturer who employs hundreds of operatives, and he will give such attention to the question of tariff as will make our Republican friends regret that they ever made it an issue. Joseph W. Parker, of Lewistown, who is known to our citizens as an eloquent orator, with others, completes the list of speakers. Democrats of Centre county, once more into the breach. Show our foes on next Friday what you can do when you are on your mettle. It is the boast of the Republicans that they can always get the best of the Democrats in their large mass meetings. Democrats, give the lie to this boast on next Friday by coming to Bellefonte in such numbers as to strike terror to the souls of the followers of the man who believes labor should be bought like bacon.

—Last Friday afternoon, the Hancock Legion, of this place, went on a special train to Williamsport to take part in the torch-light procession in that city and pass in review before Gen. George B. McClellan, who was present by special request. It proved to be one of the largest gatherings of the Legion witnessed since its organization. They formed in line on High street, fully two hundred strong, and as they marched up High street and counter-marched to the train, led by the Pleasant Gap Band, the spectacle was grand and inspiring, and drew forth lavish commendation from the many citizens who had assembled to witness their departure. In addition to the Legion there was a small delegation from Unionville, about fifty citizens from this place, and at Milesburg they were joined by a fair representation of the Milesburg and Boggs township Legion, the number being largely augmented by passengers who entered at all the intermediate stations between this place and Lock Haven. They arrived safely at their destination about seven o'clock. The procession at Williamsport was an immense affair, as the Lumber City well understands how to get up a brilliant blaze—the number in line being variously estimated from six thousand to ten thousand—and the Legion occupied its usual prominent position in this grand throng, and elicited the customary meed of praise. The Legion and all who participated in the excursion report a splendid time. They returned home about 3:30 o'clock Saturday morning.

—A number of Bellefonte Democrats attended the mass meeting at Millheim yesterday.

Why Should They Do So?

MESSRS. EDITORS: At the Republican meeting at Sandy Ridge, last week, the Republican speaker took particular occasion to berate and abuse Hon. A. G. Curtin. This was the duty of one Colonel (?) D. H. Hastings, who, after discussing politics in general for a few moments, turned his whole attention to Gov. Curtin, and then and there alleged that Curtin was false to his religion, false to his country (meaning, no doubt, the Republican party), false to his father and mother, and false to everything that was good and honest. What has Curtin done to this would-be Colonel that he should so vilify a name that will shine in the annals of the State and the nation when all the Hastings will be rotten and forgotten.

In 1872, in a letter published in the Watchman of Nov. 8, this same Hastings, in speaking of Gov. Curtin said: "Although I suppose it doesn't make any difference to you or anybody else, I have always regarded ex-Gov. Curtin as one of the greatest and best men of the Nation."

There are three thousand people in the county who will recollect the magnificent tribute this same D. H. Hastings paid to Gov. Curtin for his patriotism, his devotion to the Union during the war, his wisdom and foresight in establishing schools for the Soldiers' Orphans, at the Veteran Picnic, held at Unionville, on the 25th of September, 1880. Now, Colonel, why these different opinions about the most distinguished and honored citizen of our Commonwealth? Was it politics or bad whiskey? SANDY RIDGE.

—In dry goods, dress goods, shoes and ladies' millinery, we can show you the largest and best stock in the county. LYON & Co.
