GENERAL NEWS.

The farmers along the Juniata will devote the larger portion of their land to tobacco culture next year.

Frank Trout, a fireman on the Reading road, was killed near East Mahanoy Junction on Friday.

Sixty trains a day stop at Bristol, in addition to four steamboats plying between the town and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Lincoln, widow of Abraham Lincoln, arrived in New York from Europe last week and is quite ill at the Clarendon hotel.

E. R. Brown, Superintendent of the Lehigh Valley Railroad shops at Packerton, died at Mauch Chunk on Monday of paralysis of the brain.

The large barn owned by Mr. Daniels at Bristol, and occupied by Grundy & Champion, worsted manufacturers of that place, was burned down on Sunday, it is supposed by an incendiary loss, $15,000; no insurance.

The rain on Friday and Saturday enabled the Delaware and Hudson canal to resume navigation on Sunday, and several hundred boats, with 90,000 tons of coal, were waiting at Port Jervis for water. If the water lasts 6,000 tons will reach tidewater daily until the ice closes navigation.

William Greene drowned himself in the Susquehanna river Sunday afternoon by jumping from the Water street bridge, at Pittston, a distance of about forty feet. The body has not yet been recovered. Temporary insanity was the cause of the act.

Leon Belmont, a young woman who has been representing herself as a man in Minneapolis, Minn., by wearing the bifurcated garment, and who said she was a nephew of Mr. August Belmont, of New York, has had her sex discovered, and is in custody. She became intimate with the family of Mrs. Waite, of Lead City, and had wooed their daughter Gracie.

Two passenger trains, on the Pan Handle Road, collided on Friday at Burgetstown, Ohio. James Cunningham, Charles Cunningham and Michael Langan who were riding in front of the baggage car were killed. Thomas Anderson, fireman, John Gourly and Geo. Thompson were slightly injured. None of the passengers were hurt.

Jesse B. Anthony, wholesale coffee and spice dealer at 363 River street—principal in the firm of J. R. Pettis & Co., manufacturers of Masonic regalia—made a general assignment on Friday last. His liabilities are over $100,000. Anthony's failure is the result of Crispy & Co.'s suspension in New York, he having endorsed for them. He is Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Masons of New York State.

The dead body of Henry Bleyer, a prominent citizen of Wilmington, Del., was Sunday morning found floating in Brandywine Creek, inside the city limits. He had been missing for two weeks past, and foul play is suspected. Bleyer had been a member of the City Council and of the Board of Health.

The Harrisburg Car Shops have orders to build 1,000 horse cars.

Dom Pedro, Emperor of Brazil, has some original and very effective ways of doing things. Wishing to test a railroad brake of which he had heard a great deal, he had the appliance adjusted to his locomotive and cars, and the engineer instructed how to use it. Then he embarked aboard his train and started upon an excursion. At a dangerous point in the road the engineer, whose train was running at thirty-two miles an hour, saw what was apparently an immense rock that had fallen upon the track a few hundred yards ahead. He put the brakes down with a vigor which may be conceived, and succeeded in arresting the train before it came in collision with the obstacle. This, however, when more closely examined, proved to be a pasteboard rock of Dom Pedro's own contrivance. He wanted a practical test of the new brake, and this was his way of securing it.
