The sensible man smokes Harry Green's cigars. -W. A. Lyon pays cash for green hides. See his card. -That famous base ballist, Mr. Monte Ward, is in town. -Mr. James Williams, of Lemont, was visible in town last Friday. -Mr. John M. Duncan, of Montoursville, was visible in town on Tuesday. -The market fees for the two weeks ending with last Saturday were only $4.45. -Don't hesitate, if your kidney's trouble you, for Day's Kidney Pad will surely cure. -Mr. Fount Crider officiated as President pro tem of Council last Monday night. -The Philadelphia Branch clothing store is the proper place to purchase clothing. -The ladies of the Reformed church cleared $35 by the oyster dinner and supper given last Friday. -For the best men's and boys' clothing at the lowest price go to the Philadelphia Branch. -Thursday, November 25, has been appointed by Rutherford B. Hayes as a day for thanksgiving and prayer. -A new fence is being built between the residences of Mr. Van Tries and Mrs. Livingstone, on Spring street. -All the clothing a gentleman needs can be purchased at the Philadelphia Branch. -The State College cadets bore on their banner, last Friday, the inscription, "The student the future artisan and farmer." -Men and boys, save your money by buying clothing at the Philadelphia Branch. -The Temperance Union of Bellefonte will hold its usual monthly meeting this evening at 7 1/2 o'clock in the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association. The public are invited to attend. -The usual monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. James Harris will conduct the exercises. Everybody is cordially invited to be present. -The youth who permits his sweetheart to rule him is a miss guided young man; but if, after marriage, she induces him to purchase groceries of Sechler & Co., she will be guiding him properly. The ladies should all try it. -The elegant double-reflector oil lamp now hanging in Wilson, McFarlane & Co's hardware store is intended for a church at Houseville. The effect is so brilliant that they expect to place two of a similar pattern permanently in their store. -When a Boston man invites you to dinner and writes "N. B." to a postscript it means "No Beans." In this place it means that all the groceries used in the viands were bought at Sechler & Co's grocery, and "no better" can be procured at any other store. -The lady who baked a beautiful cake and left it out doors over night to be "frosting" does not reside in Bellefonte. Ladies of our own town know that they can get the sugar, eggs and all other groceries they need in plain or fancy cooking direct from the store of S. A. Brew & Son. -A gentleman was handling a shot gun while in the hardware store of Wilson, McFarlane & Co., one day last week, when it was accidentally discharged, sending several shot into the woodwork and through the glass at the right of the entrance. Fortunately, no one was in the way to stop the course of the shot. -A woman, writing to a friend, says: "I put a piece of bridle-cake under my pillow last night." Wonder if it didn't blinder? Bits of further information may be buckled on by exchanges who give free reins to their fancy. -Boston Globe. There are traces of deep design in this. You better halter saddle be your fate. -Philadelphia Record. Such remarks are calculated to spur us on, but we fear to stirrup the woman's ire. -Those who delight to look at beautiful jewelry and silverware should call at the store of Mr. C. F. Richards, on High street. His stock is larger and more complete than ever before. There is a costly gold ring valued at $150. It is impossible to enumerate one-quarter of the beautiful things in his establishment, but all who call will be sure to find something to suit their taste. Mr. Richards is a skillful jeweler, and combines rare taste and a knowledge of the needs of the public with his other acquirements. -Mr. E. Klepper, formerly of Coleville, and now of Philipsburg, was wedded last Thursday evening to Miss Ada Haupt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Haupt, of this place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Ridge, of Eagleville, at the residence of the bride's parents on Thomas street. The groom is a worthy young man and an excellent carpenter. The bride is a very estimable young lady. They received many beautiful presents. On Monday last they departed for Philipsburg, followed by the congratulations of many friends. We wish them much happiness.

The next time you buy a cigar try Harry Green's. -The reason the Philadelphia Branch sells so much clothing is because it is so excellent and cheap. -Last Monday night Council decided to repair the Lamb street race bridge immediately, but postponed the rebuilding of the High street bridge indefinitely. -Mr. J. G. Vantilburgh and family, formerly of Boiling Springs, but who emigrated to Kansas last March, returned on Saturday, entirely disgusted with their experience in that enterprising western State. -At the recent meeting of the Synod of Harrisburg of the Presbyterian Church, at Carlisle, Pa., Rev. H. S. Butler, of Clearfield, was chosen Moderator, and Clearfield was selected as the place of meeting in October, 1881. -The Philadelphia Branch always keeps an immense stock of clothing on hand. -Sheriff Spangler advertises, in this issue, the usual list of properties for sale. He will dispose of them in front of the Court House on Saturday, November 20, at one o'clock. Those desiring to invest in a few acres of land or a house and lot should give it their careful attention. -Why blow't thou not, thou wintry wind. Now every leaf is brown and sore. And idly droops, to thee resigned. The fading chaplet of the year? Yet wears the pure aerial sky Her summer veil, half drawn on high, Of silvery haze, and dark and still The shadows sleep on every slanting hill. -KENT. -The quarterly meeting services of Penns Valley circuit were held in the M. E. church of Centre Hall on last Sunday, Rev. B. B. Else, of Milesburg officiating morning and evening in the absence of the Presiding Elder. The business session of the quarterly conference was deferred until next Saturday, November 6, 1880, at 2:30 P. M., in consequence of the rain on Saturday last. -In dry goods, dress goods, shoes and ladies' millinery, we can show you the largest and best stock in the county. LYON & CO. -On Wednesday a painful accident occurred to Eddie, youngest son of Rev. J. P. Hughes, of this place. He was playing with two or three companions at the stove, when one of their number thrust a burning stick through a button-hole of Eddie's coat. The flames communicated to his other garments and severely scorched his head and face. His cries quickly brought his parents to the rescue, who smothered the flames with blankets. Eddie's injuries are said to be quite severe. -When you come to Bellefonte call at Lyon & Co.'s and see the largest and finest stock of overcoats that can be found outside of Philadelphia. We have them at $2.75 and $3.75. We have brown beaver overcoats at $5.25 and $6.50. You can't beat them anywhere else at $7.50 and $8. We have the finest blue and black beaver overcoats. We have a reversible overcoat, two sides to wear out, or two coats in one. We have the best chinchilla overcoats at $6.00 you ever saw; they are worth $8 to $10. We can show you over $1,900 worth of overcoats. LYON & CO. -We publish in this issue that important and valuable document, "The Award of Premiums for the Centre County Fair of 1880." It is valuable for reference to all our readers. In it are mentioned the names of those residents of our county who excel in everything. The merchant who sells clothing, the matrons and the young ladies who bake the best pastry, those who preserve fruit in the most skillful manner, those who give their attention to art and the creation of fancy work, and the farmer who raises the best stock and is most successful in husbandry, are all mentioned in it. Therefore, to the maiden in quest of a husband or the young man in search of a wife, to those who wish to sell or those who desire to buy it is alike invaluable. Y. M. C. A. SERVICES.—Sunday, November 14, is the first day of the week of prayer, for the Young Men's Christian Associations throughout the world. The subjects for the meetings on Sunday are for each succeeding day of the week are as follows: Nov. 14, Sunday morning—"Workers together with Him—their spirit." 2 Cor. 6: 1-10. Sunday afternoon—"Bringing one's friends to Jesus." Luke 9: 17-26. Sunday evening—"The Worst Foe and the Best Friend of Young Men." Luke 22: 31-32; 1 Peter 5: 8; Luke, 19: 10. Nov. 15, Monday—"In What Does Life Consist?" Luke 12: 15-28. Eccl. 2: 17, 18; Romans 8: 6. Nov. 16, Tuesday—"Investigation a Path to Faith." John 1: 46; 4: 28-30, 40-42; 5: 89. Nov. 17, Wednesday—"Jesus Testing the Impulsive, the Procrastinating and the Undecided." Luke 9: 57-62. Nov. 18, Thursday—"A Young Man Who Obeyed the Voice of Christ." Luke 7: 11-16; Eph. 5: 14. Nov. 19, Friday—"Crisis in Daniel's Life." Dan. 1: 8-20. Nov. 20, Saturday—"An Unconditional Surrender." Acts 9: 1-9; Phil. 3: 7-9. -Fine clothing made to order at the old prices. No advance. MONTGOMERY & CO. 19-1f. -Between the Post office and the Bush House, a letter. The finder will confer a favor by leaving it at this office.

THE BATTLE OF THE BALLOTS.—It is said to be a great safeguard to our political institutions for the populace to assemble once in four years and express their opinion with paper ballots as to who shall be their chief magistrate for four years to come. Perhaps that is so. At least we shall not attempt to refute it at present, but shall merely express our joy that this important event is not of more frequent occurrence. We have just survived one of those important occasions. Its culmination was reached on Tuesday, though for a long period previous extensive preparations were made for its advent. Despite the prognostications of that oracular individual who always endeavors to bring a rain or snow on election day, the sun rose upon a cloudless firmament, it moved on to the zenith without hiding its face and retired behind the western hills with nothing but the blue ether intervening between Mother earth and it. But before the King of Day was visible, and while yet the frost lay white upon a hundred roofs, man arose to wake the echoes of the morn. Men met and shook hands, smiled persuasively, produced from their pockets bits of folded paper, and hid themselves to their respective voting places. Human nature seemed to undergo a transformation. Suddenly man loved his fellow man most cordially. Those who never spoke before paused to greet each other o'er and o'er. This loving link was unusually strong between Republicans and the dusky sons of Africa. They met and tenderly embraced, and not one, we are told, was allowed to escape the loving toils. Well, these important bits of paper—these potent bullets of civilized warfare—were placed in the polls from early morn till dewy eve; and if in all parts of the country men took advantage of this grand prerogative to the extent that characterized the inhabitants of this section, it was the most wonderful battle of the ballots the world has ever seen. The contending forces on either side were larger, the impulse which drew them forth was stronger than ever before. Yet never, if we are to believe the reports, was a battle fought more peacefully. The bullets fell silently, each shot had its effect, yet not a drop of blood was shed. It was the crowning triumph of Democratic principles; it was the greatest wonder of the Nineteenth century; it was worthy the Millennium. The result is given in another portion of this week's DEMOCRAT. Man is a fit subject for study when he advances to participate in this privilege which is accorded to him but once in four years. He feels then, as at no other time, that he is the equal of all the earth. He casts his ballot with a haughty consciousness of his power. In doing so the humblest can participate with the highest in the exalted duty of controlling the events of the earth. Let the result be what it may we should highly prize election day. THE MASS MEETING LAST FRIDAY.—Now that the occasion which calls for grand gatherings of the adherents of the two great political organizations is at an end, the interest which circles around such assemblies also terminates with it, therefore it is unnecessary for us to give last Friday's demonstration an extended notice. We are justified, however, in premising that, owing to a variety of circumstances, it was by no means a representation of the Centre county Democracy. There were but few delegations in attendance, but those who were present deserve great credit. The delegations from Madisonburg, Pleasant Gap, Boggs township, College cadets and the Hancock Legion and Veterans club, of this place, with the Veteran Club and Young Men's Democratic Club of Lock Haven, made a very beautiful torchlight parade at night. Pyrotechnics were exploded along the line of march, and the scene was surpassingly grand. But the most brilliant feature of the occasion was the grand illumination of the private residences and business places of our Democratic citizens. The jail and the Watchman office, perhaps, attracted the greatest attention. Their prominent locations enhanced the artistic beauty of the elaborate illuminations. Others almost equally superb were the residences of ex-Governor Curtin and Mrs. Brockerhoff and Mrs. Lane. On upper high street, flags, Chinese lanterns and candles dazzled the beholder on either side of the street. These displays were made by W. A. Morrison, H. Y. Sitzer, and John F. Potter, Esq., ex-Sheriff Woodring, Mr. Sternberg, Mr. Page, C. M. Bower, Esq., Mr. Daniel Garman and Reynolds' Bank. On the lower end of High street the illuminations made by Adam Hoy, Esq., Isaac Guggenheimer, Mr. Smith, P. G. Meek, John Anderson and the Bush House added to the beauty of the scene. Mr. John Harper's residence, on Thomas street, was also resplendent. Brilliant rays of light streamed from the residences of Col. Wm. H. Blair, D. G. Bush, Augustus Hoover, and others on Spring street. On Allegheny street, Mr. W. E. Burchfield's residence was bright in its glory of Chinese lanterns, as were also those of Wilbur F. Reeder, Esq., Mr. George Jackson, Mr. W. F. Reber, Augustus Hoover's Model book store, the Brockerhoff House, the Singer Sewing Machine depot, W. A. Sweeney's billiard parlors, and numerous others. On Bishop street the Brown brothers, Mr. Cedar's bakery, and Mr. Hoffer's store were refulgent with light. The brilliantly and tastefully illuminated residences of J. D. Shugert, Major Forster and Major Wm. Reynolds, on Linn street, completed what was indeed a brilliant spectacle. BRIEF PERSONALS.—Major William Reynolds is entertaining his sister-in-law, Mrs. Samuel Reynolds, and another lady relative, both from Lancaster, Pa. -A. J. Cook, of this place, was registered at the Irvin House, Lock Haven, on Saturday. -Mr. Finley Shugert arrived in town on Monday afternoon, prompted by a desire to see his friends and to perform the grand prerogative of American citizenship. -The Mountain City Band was out on Monday evening serenading Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McKee. -Mr. Frank Keller, of Washington, D. C., has been tarrying in town for several days. Mr. K. is a Senator or Congressman or something of the kind down there. -Mr. Thos. Nolan, of Washington, D. C., has been in town for a week or more. He is connected with the Government Printing Office. -Mr. Demme Tomlinson, son of Rev. Tomlinson, of Aaronsburg, passed through this place on Monday en route to Canton, Ohio. -Mrs. Phebe Earle Gibbons, says the Daily News, is visiting Bellefonte. Mrs. Gibbons was at Paris during the exposition of 1878, and as she speaks the French language she endeavored to become acquainted with the people. Her articles called "French Farmers" and "The Citizen of Paris" appeared in Harper's Magazine. -Messrs. Crider, Hunter, Mullen, McClure and Tate were the only members present at the meeting of Council last Monday night. -Mr. John Linn, formerly an employe of the Watchman office, is now teaching the school at Coleville. We wish him success in his new vocation. -Mr. H. O. Hoffer, of Tyrone, has been favoring Bellefonte with his presence this week. EPIZOOTIC, AND TWO REMEDIES FOR IT. -Supt. S. S. Blair gives the following cure for epizootic to the Tyrone Herald: "To those who have horses attacked with epizootic, quinsy or sore throat, permit me to say that in my experience with 111 horses and mules in 1872, when the disease spread over the country with great rapidity, I used nothing but extract of ammonia and sweet oil in the following proportions: One part extract of ammonia and two parts of sweet oil, rubbed in on the outside of the throat and glands of the throat and neck every two or three hours until blistered freely, feeding them on bran mash until they recovered. This treatment was entirely successful. As the disease is very prostrating, do not work the animals if possible to avoid it. Keep your stables clean and well ventilated, and whitewash them frequently. Exposure of the animals and hard work may bring on lung fever." An old veterinary surgeon of the army sends the New York Times the following "simple and safe cure" for this disease: "Take one pound of gum assafetida, mix it with one gallon of boiling water, stir the mixture constantly until the assafetida is dissolved, let the mixture cool, strain and give one half pint every three hours. This will relieve the horse within twelve hours and give him a good appetite." The army cure for the "epizootic" was a teaspoonful of chloride of potash in a pail full of water three times a day. It is estimated that the tobacco crops of Pennsylvania cover about 140,000 acres, of which Lancaster and York counties produce nearly one-half. Probably the oldest Democrat who voted at the late election was John Burdett, of Oonoco county, S. C. He is 105 years old and cast his first vote just eighty years ago. The ex-Empress Eugenie has lately sold her villa at Biarritz, on the bay of Biscay. The name of the purchaser is not given, but the price paid is said to be $500,000. Mrs. Filmore, the widow of the late ex-president, is dangerously ill with paralysis at her home in Buffalo. She was attacked a week ago, and one side was rendered powerless, and speech nearly destroyed. She is scarcely expected to recover. Miss Jane Shunk, granddaughter of Judge Black, and Lieut. Evans, of the regular army, will be married in Pittsburgh, on November 11, and will start at once for their future home in Arizona. The wedding will take place in St. John's church, and there will be six bridesmaids. The youngest boy in the United States if he lives to the age of ninety years, will never have a chance to vote for a better man for President than General Hancock. No man who thus voted, yesterday, will ever have cause to regret having done so. We can only hope that those who voted against him may be spared unavailing regrets. -Washington Post. MARRIAGES. KESINGER—TUCKER.—October 21st, 1880, at the Lutheran church, Pa., by Rev. W. H. Diven, Mr. Wm. E. Kesinger and Miss Mary E. Tucker, both of Hubersburg, Centre county, Pa. BRUNGARD—MADDER.—On the 17th instant, by Rev. W. M. Landis, Mr. Alfred Brungard, of Miles township, and Miss Madia Mader, of Millsburg, Union county. TOMLINSON—ULRICH.—On the 21st of October, at Aaronsburg, Mr. Demme Tomlinson, of Aaronsburg, and Miss Emma J. Ulrich, of Millsburg. DEATHS. AMMERMAN.—In Philipsburg, on Tuesday, October 29, after a lingering illness, Miss Elizabeth, daughter of Andrew Ammerman, aged about 21 years. He leaves a helpless wife and one son. WEIL.—In this place, on Saturday, October 30, Mrs. Well, mother of Mrs. Simon Lyon, aged about 73 years. BOTDORF.—On the 24th of October, in Penn town ship, Miss Lydia Botdorf, aged 5 years and 7 months. BOWEN.—On the 11th of October, 1880, at his father's, near Eagleville, Mr. Robert Bowen, of Mount Eagle, this county, aged 84 years, 11 months and 29 days. He leaves a helpless wife and one son. LER.—On Monday, October 25, Robert E., son of John F., and Laura Ler, of near Centre Hill, aged 5 years, 2 months and 11 days.

THE SPRAGUE CONTEST FOR CANONCHET. PROVIDENCE, R. I., October 29.—A few days ago Mr. Chaffee, trustee of the Sprague estate, appointed a Mr. Thompson—the attorney of Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague—custodian of Canonchet, the splendid residence near Narragansett Pier, formerly occupied by her and ex-Governor William Sprague. Mrs. S. made a demand through Mr. Thompson for certain property in the house, which she claims as her own, but which her husband declares he paid for. Mrs. Sprague is said to have come on from Washington to take this property, and to have been stopping at the Narragansett Hotel in this city, this being her first visit to the State since she so abruptly left Canonchet last fall after the trouble between her husband and "the German music teacher"—or Senator Conkling—Governor Sprague has resolutely refused to give up the property, and has virtually defied any one to enter Canonchet. A day or two ago two of Mr. Chaffee's agents started for Narragansett Pier, and Governor Chase being informed, prepared to "hold the fort." He placed two mounted men on duty at the gates, while he with Dr. Green, of Providence, an intimate friend, were prepared to defend the house. The men, however, did not appear at Canonchet, and return to this city. Meantime Governor Sprague appointed Dr. Green custodian of Canonchet, claiming that Canonchet belongs to the Aquidneck estate, which is solvent, the stock of which his mother and aunt largely own. He claims that he is in possession of Canonchet by their authority. Governor Sprague attended the meeting of the insolvent First National Bank in this city yesterday and attempted to vote on the stock held by the Aquidneck Company, proxies having been given him by his mother and aunt. He favored making assessments on the stock and going on with the business of the bank, but Mr. Chaffee disputed his right, and he and others proposing to wind up the bank. It is reported that he and Mr. Sprague came to blows, and it is certain that action was deferred for one week. Value of a Vote. SOME IMPORTANT HISTORICAL FACTS. In 1824 a change of 100 votes in Maryland, 100 in Missouri and 700 in Ohio would have elected Andrew Jackson, instead of sending the decision to the House of Representatives, where Adams was made president. In 1844 Henry Clay was defeated by small majorities. A change of 2,600 in New York would have elected him, or with 700 more votes in Louisiana and a change of 1,600 in Pennsylvania he would have had a majority of the electoral college. In Indiana 210 more votes would have given him the electoral vote of that State. In 1848 nineteen electoral votes would have elected Cass instead of Taylor. Taylor got these electoral votes by 443 majority in Delaware, 5,847 majority in Louisiana, and 2,742 majority in Georgia. Or to place it in a different way, he was elected president by only 3,000 majority in Pennsylvania, by which he got the twenty-six electoral votes of the State. A change of a few more than 1,500 votes would have defeated him, and this in a total vote of 368,952 would not have been difficult with such campaign managers as the politicians of to-day. In 1856 James Buchanan became president by a majority of only 2,480; of this 1,043 was in Pennsylvania, and 1,435 in Louisiana, the electoral votes of these two States being given to him by those figures. His plurality over the next highest candidates, however, was greater. Of the closeness of the last presidential election it is not necessary to speak, as all our readers are familiar with the fact that by the employment of the most gigantic fraud of the century Hayes was accorded a majority in the electoral college of just one vote. Philadelphia Markets. PHILADELPHIA, November 2, 1880. In breadstuffs, the only activity was in wheat. Flour.—The flour market is dull and prices favor buyers. "Old Betz," an Indian squaw of the Sioux or Dakota nation, died at Mendota last Wednesday. Old Betz is said to have been 119 years old. She was first married to an officer of the army, by whom she had three children, and afterward to an Indian of the Chipewee tribe, who was a cousin of First Hole-in-the-Day. She was well known to the early settlers of Minnesota. It was not the statesmanship of the plough, blessed by a fruitful season, that gave us our growing wealth. Not the skill of the Treasury Department, but that of mechanics and manufacturers, makes the springs of our prosperity; not the talk in Congress, but the toil of labor in all its fields. -Horatio Seymour at Utica, September 15, 1880.

-We have the finest stock of suits in black diagonal, blue check and other dark good, heavy winter suits. We can show you the largest and best stock in the county and guarantee them 20 per cent. cheaper than any other house. LYON & CO. A CARD.—Having made arrangements with a Philadelphia party, I can pay more in cash for Green Hides, than any other man in Bellefonte can pay for them in store goods. W. A. LYON. Business Notices. -Why are horses and cattle after taking Roberts' Horse Powders like a new laundry-dried shirt? Because they look sleek and clean. -No more sick chickens. Save your poultry and cure them of disease, by using Roberts' Poultry Powder. It has never failed to cure Cholera, and all diseases to which fowls are subject. Price 25 cents per package. For sale by all druggists. -At the present time when there are so many worthless liniments in the market, it would be well to inquire which is the best. This will be found in M. B. Roberts' Embrocation—it is a panacea for ailments that require rubbing either on man or beast. Price 35 cents per bottle. -Why do you cough when you can find speedy relief in Sines' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horsehound? It is the most pleasant and efficacious remedy known for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Asthma, and all diseases tending to pulmonary consumption. Has been sold for over thirty years and is especially adapted to children, as it does not nauseate, and consequently it can be used in sufficient quantity as to effect a cure. Try one bottle and you will never be without it. Price 25c. and 50c. per bottle. Sold everywhere. Ask your druggist for it. -The popularity of M. B. Roberts' Horse Powders is proving itself in the increased demand throughout this State, from the fact that the public are at last finding out that it is possible to obtain a package of Horse and Cattle Embrocation which is strictly pure and free from such adulterations as bran, cake meal, and other ingredients calculated to puff the animal instead of curing it of the disease it is suffering from. M. B. Roberts' Horse Powders contain no adulteration, and are much cheaper than any other, as but a tablespoonful is required for a dose. Ask any old horseman as to their merits. For sale everywhere. Price reduced to 25c. per package. "Rock Candy and Rye Whiskey." For Colds, Throat and Lung diseases. Prepared ready for use. Wonderful in its healing powers. It gives relief by arresting the hacking cough, nourishes, builds up and strengthens the system. For troublesome coughs or hoarseness affecting the voice it will give almost instant relief. The great secret of its success, viz: "The many surprising cures when every other known remedy has failed to give relief." It truly recommends itself after a single trial, no matter how bad the Cough or Lung affection may be. It is not a medicine, but the finest crystallization of White Rock Candy combined with "Pure Copper Distilled Old Rye Whiskey," made in the old fashioned way, and acknowledged by the best judges to be the purest and finest of all Whiskies. "Rock Candy and Rye Whiskey," is now universally used and recommended by the most eminent Physicians, as a tonic for invalids and persons advanced in life. Rock Candy being saccharine matter makes new blood, and the Pure Old Rye Whiskey invigorates and infuses life, and combined as we prepare it, strengthens the digestive organs, increases the appetite, and an improvement in the system invariably follows. It is sold with our guarantee for its Purity, Fine Flavor, and excellence. Price, one dollar for a large bottle. Orders by mail receive prompt and careful attention, with full directions.
