Try the five cent cigars at Green's. Splendid cigarettes at five cents a pack at Green's. The Spring election occurs on the 18th of February. Before going to the Inauguration buy some new clothes at the Philadelphia Branch. Practiced services have been held in the church at Valentines' forge with encouraging results. Sell your old clothes to the rag pedler and buy a new suit at the Philadelphia Branch with the proceeds. After spending hundreds of dollars without relief Day's Kidney Pad cured me, are the words of thousands. The Y. M. C. A., of Centre Hall, will hold a public meeting next Sunday evening in the Union church at Farmer's Mills. Col. Daniel Hezekiah Hastings, of Bellefonte, is the military-Biblical title the Lock Haven Daily Journal gives to our friend. Mr. J. N. Van Ormer is at present deeply engaged in testing the merits of a new invention of which he heard a few days since. The ladies have to form a "co-operative dress establishment," but the gentlemen have their fondest hopes realized in the Philadelphia Branch. It hardly seems possible, but it is a fact that Genuine Key West cigars, made from Havana tobacco, are being sold at five cents, at Green's Drug store. A musical convention will begin at Boalsburg on Monday, the 24th instant, and continue through the following week, with a grand concert on Friday evening. The nights of the past two weeks have been almost perfect in their beauty. But now Miss Luna is withdrawing her beams and nocturnal sleigh riders must travel in the dark. A meeting for the formation of a party to support the temperance ticket is announced to be held in the hall in the Bush Arcade building on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. We call attention to the advertisement of the Bush House in another column. This hotel is first-class in every particular and no one can make a mistake by hanging his hat up with Mr. Peters. A work by Susan B. Anthony has just been discovered. It is entitled "The Flirtations of a Fashionable Young Lady." It was written B. C. 29 and is dedicated to Augustus Caesar. For sale by all druggists. The family of Mr. John Shiffler, of Pleasant Gap, are greatly afflicted with scarlet fever. Three of his children are now prostrated by the disease. It is a misfortune not only to Mr. Shiffler's family, but also to the community, as Mr. S., who is a school teacher, has had to close his school in consequence. "O, woodman spare that tree," can be quite appropriately addressed to Mr. John Ardell, of this place, as he is making the forests of Blair, Cambria and Clearfield counties disappear this year to the extent of 4,000,000 feet of square and round timber, which the first spring freshet will float down the Susquehanna. The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Board of Agriculture will be held at Harrisburg, commencing Wednesday, January 26. Farmers throughout the county will find it to their interest to bear this matter in mind, and also remember to buy their groceries of Sechler & Co., the model grocers of this place. Consult the advertisement of a "Farm for Sale," on another page. The property is located in Howard township, on the north side of the Bald Eagle creek, and is described as beautiful for location and fertile in soil. It will make a pleasant home for its purchaser. The owner desires to sell, because he already possesses more land than can be cultivated to the best advantage. We understand that the grand concert recently given at Lemont was a brilliant success, both artistically and financially. Among the musicians were the best professional and amateur talent of State College and this place. As the elements were propitious and the sleighing unsurpassed, the audience was large and enthusiastic and the receipts about fifty dollars over and above expenses. Of every 100,000 people in this country, says a statistician, 19,000 get up cross in the morning. That proportion is about correct, but the people in Centre county who buy their groceries of S. A. Brew & Son are among the 81,000 who don't get up cross in the morning. They are always in a good humor, because the pure groceries they purchase give them perfect digestion and sound health. The editor of the Daily News is extremely anxious to have Bob Burdette, John B. Gough, Tilton, Talmage or some other celebrity lecture in Bellefonte. Why don't he give them a personal invitation to come? They will cheerfully respond for a couple of hundred dollars each, and the editor of an important Republican newspaper like the News should be glad of the opportunity to lose money in an enterprise so beneficial to the "dear people." Other people have tried it and don't care to repeat the experiment.

PERTINENT PERSONALS.—Misses Belle Rankin and Mollie Nesbitt, two of the fair lady instructors in our public schools, spent last week in Clinton county, the latter the guest of Miss Ella Harvey, of Flemington, and the former visiting Miss Emma Saltzman, of Lock Haven. Mr. C. L. Callaway, of Williamsport, spent Sunday last in town. Mr. Harry Marks who, for a long time, has been employed as clerk in the extensive mercantile establishments of Lyon & Co. and Isaac Guggenheimer, of this place, severed his connection with the latter firm on Saturday and departed for New York City, where he will engage in the same business. He is an efficient clerk and proved valuable to his employers while here. The Metropolitan city offers him a rich field for the display of his fine clerical abilities. Mr. S. D. Wetzel, of Lena, Illinois, has been paying his relatives in this vicinity a visit during the past two weeks. Superintendent Rhoads has been in Philadelphia attending the meeting of the stockholders of the B. & S. S. Railroad Company which took place on Monday. Mr. Edgar Green, of this place, is now in the employ of Hoover, Hughes & Co., at Philipsburg. And now another young gentleman extensively acquainted in Bellefonte has bade a final adieu to a life of single blessedness. It is Mr. Harry H. Kline, now residing in Tyrone. He was married on the 28th of last month to Miss Laura Eckernoth, daughter of the proprietor of the Eagle Hotel, of that place. We drink deeply to the health of the fair bride and brave groom. We believe that Mr. Al. Haupt's brief visit to town was the most momentous occurrence of last Thursday. He reports his recently established cigar business at Houtzdale in a flourishing condition. Our old friend, J. M. Kepler, Esq., of the Forest National, dropped into our sanctum yesterday and reported everything as lively along the Clarion. Jake is undismayed at Hancock's defeat and hopefully looks to the future for a vindication of Democratic principles. Mrs. Barber, the authoress of "Wrecked, but Not Lost," and other well known works, is enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. John Ardell, on Linn street. Mr. William McKeever, the popular and gentlemanly clerk of the Brockerhoff House, takes his departure from that hotel to-day, to the sincere regret of his hosts and friends. Mr. McKeever came here a comparative stranger, but his urbane deportment and genial ways soon won him the good opinion of all with whom he came in contact, and he will be followed, wherever he may cast his lot, with the good wishes of the traveling public as well as of his numerous friends in Bellefonte. We wish him success. Mr. Lawrence L. Brown is now conducting a branch grain depot at Pennsylvania Furnace, and is greatly pleased with the business prospects at that point. Our friends Daniel C. Keller and wife, of Centre Hall, have returned from a protracted visit among friends in Illinois. Mr. John A. Hunter, of Half Moon, called on Tuesday. He is an agreeable gentleman and fluent talker. The Normal Bible Class, which meets in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, made a happy choice last Monday night in selecting Rev. J. F. DeLong, of the Reformed church, to fill the position of teacher. A meeting of the Centre County Mutual Insurance Company was held on Saturday the 9th instant, at Centre Hall. The following efficient list of officers were placed in nomination and elected: President—Henry Keller. Vice President—Samuel L. Herring. Secretary—D. F. Luse. Treasurer—William Wolf. Board of Directors—H. C. Campbell, John W. Crumrine, Joseph Baker, Frederick Kurtz, H. G. Royer, J. H. Musser, J. B. Fisher, Henry Keller, Henry E. Duck, John Rishel, Samuel I. Herring, Samuel Gramley. At a regular meeting of Gregg Post, No. 95, G. A. R., held at their hall on December 4th, 1880, the following named comrades were elected officers of the Post for the ensuing year: C. George F. Harris; S. V. C., H. A. Williams; J. V. C., S. H. Williams; Adj't, H. H. Benner; Surg. Geo. A. Fairlamb; Chap. George F. Hunter; Qr. M., D. M. Glenn; O. of D., D. S. Keller; O. of G., Lewis Sunday; S. M., George G. Tate; Qr. M. S., John Whittaker; Ord. S., William Jones; I. S., Alf. Hassinger; O. S., Charles Garner; C. of A., Jas. A. Beaver, John B. Linn, Austin Curtin. The above officers were installed at the last regular meeting of the Post. There was a notable group gathered in the office of the Brockerhoff House one evening last week. There was more cordedness, pure and simple, represented in it to the square inch than can be found in any equal number of gentlemen any where within the geographical limits of Pennsylvania. There was Jake Hahn, of Philadelphia; Ned Carpenter, of Baltimore; Charlie Brelsford, of Philadelphia; Bruff, of Pittsburg, and Cam. Barnside, of Boiling Springs. No wonder Mr. Teller's face wore a look of apprehension as he mournfully gazed upon this quintette of practical jokers. He knew they would need watching all night or no sleep would visit the eyes of his guests. As a last resort he was compelled to administer a powerful opiate to each and this secured a peaceful night to the inmates of his hotel.

DUST TO DUST.—We learned with pain, last week, that our valued friend, Mr. Samuel K. Foust, of Millheim, is lamenting the death of his mother, Mrs. Margaret Foust, who died recently at the home of her son in St. Charles, Iowa. Mrs. Foust was the widow of the late John Foust, of Rebersburg, and was about eighty years of age. She was the mother of fourteen children. As a woman she was highly esteemed, and as a mother greatly beloved. In all the duties of life she performed her part well. We most reluctantly chronicle, this week, the death of Mr. George Royer, of Rebersburg, which sad event occurred on Wednesday last at his late home in Rebersburg, after quite a long illness. Mr. Royer leaves a wife and several children, who will deeply deplore his loss. He was highly esteemed by a large circle of relatives and friends. His age was about fifty-three years. A very large concourse of people followed him to his last resting place on Friday last. Mrs. Magdaline Delby died at Madisonburg on Wednesday of last week. She was the widow of the late John Delby, of Miles township, and was about sixty-five years of age. Thus, one by one, our venerable inhabitants pass away, but it will be long ere their precious memories are forgotten. Mrs. Felix Mullen, of this place, died quite suddenly last Friday afternoon at her home on Spring street. She ate a hearty dinner and afterwards complained of a pain at her heart and was removed to an upper apartment. Medical assistance was summoned, but she expired before it could arrive. Mrs. Mullen was the mother of Mrs. Margaret Brockerhoff. She also has several sons residing in this community and one in the West. Her husband died about two years ago. She was a lady of great personal worth and was about seventy-two years of age. Her funeral took place from the Catholic church on Tuesday. From our daily contemporary we learn of the sudden death, on Thursday of last week, of Mr. Jesse Fulton, who resided on Mr. Moses Thompson's farm in College township. He had gone out, as usual, to feed his stock. As he did not return, a search was made, and he was found lying cold in death. His health had been feeble for a long time, but the sad event was entirely unexpected. The funeral, on Saturday, called together a large concourse of relatives and friends. The death of John P. Packer, Sr., one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Lock Haven, occurred at his home in that place on Monday evening at 7 o'clock. His age was 71 years, 7 months and 18 days. The Lock Haven Daily Journal gives the following short history of his life: John P. Packer was born in Howard township, Centre county, June 4, 1809. He remained in Howard until 1839, when he went to Virginia, where he resided for about seven years. While in Virginia he extensively engaged in the building of railroads and canals, and was the contractor who built the first railroad entering the cities of Fredericksburg and Richmond. The dam in the James river, at Richmond, was also built by Mr. Packer. In 1847 he married Mrs. Sarah H. Robinson, of Richmond, daughter of James Llewellyn, of Lynchburg, and returned to Howard to engage in the mercantile and lumbering business. Subsequently he contracted on the North Branch Canal and the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad. In 1852 he built the lock of the Pennsylvania canal opposite this city, and later the dam at Loyalsock, on the West Branch of the Susquehanna. In 1863 he came to Clinton county, located at Flemington, and entered the general merchandise and grain business. In 1873 Mr. Packer, with his family removed to this city, where he has since resided. The Packer family is descended from English Quaker stock that settled in the State of Pennsylvania in 1656. Deceased was the last of three brothers, well and favorably known throughout the State. Judge H. B. Packer and Ex-Governor Wm. F. Packer, of Williamsport, and the deceased constituted the trio. Mrs. N. J. Mitchell, Mrs. N. L. Atwood and Mrs. Job Packer were his sisters. Of the entire family, Mrs. Atwood alone remains. Mr. Packer was an elder in the Disciple church for 40 years, and a most exemplary Christian gentleman. He was one of the pioneers of the denomination in this part of the State and shared the trials attendant upon the establishment of any new doctrine. Deceased leaves a family of five children and a stepson. The youngest is now a resident of Ogden, Utah. Mr. B. L. Batcheller, of Sutton, Mass., died at his home in that place on Sunday, the 2d instant. Many of our citizens will remember Mr. Batcheller and his pleasant wife, who lived in this place for several years, removing again to their New England home about four or five years ago. While here Mr. Batcheller conducted what was known as the "Boston boot and shoe store," occupying a store room in the Bush Arcade building. Mr. and Mrs. Batcheller were both very attractive, socially, although their residence here was not sufficiently remunerative, financially, to induce them to remain. Mr. B. was gentleman of considerable prominence in his native town as may be learned by the following remarks of the Worcester, Mass., Spy: Mr. B. Lincoln Batcheller, who died suddenly last Sunday, after a brief illness terminating in congestion of the brain, was a man of more than ordinary ability and influence, and always prominent in public affairs. He had filled various town offices, and in all displayed much executive ability. He was at the time of his death town clerk, to which office he was first elected in 1877, and re-elected each succeeding year. He was a representative in the Legislature of 1856-57, also on several occasions the agent of the town. But perhaps the work in which he took the most pride was that he did in securing the publication of the history of his native town. He was chairman of the committee of publication, and as such accomplished what no other one could have done. He will be greatly missed, not only in his family, but by his many friends, whom he was ever ready to make sacrifices in serving. HOWARD ITEMS.—The excellent sleighing makes matters lively about here, as elsewhere. Farmers are taking advantage of it to get in their supply of wood a year in advance, market their crops, and draw limestone for burning in pits in the spring. Mr. Jno. W. Cook's mill, near Hubbersburg, sends large quantities of timber here for shipment. Some of it is very large. There are rumors of prospective changes in the management of the Iron Works which will add to their efficiency, and materially live up the business of the place. Mr. Lauth's energy and business enterprise bear the good fruit of prosperity for the entire community. General regret is expressed at the expected departure of our excellent landlord, Mr. R. V. Shaffer. He has purchased a hotel at Mill Hill, and will remove there about April 1. Mr. Shaffer is a genial gentleman and good citizen; and one of the few men whom it is safe to entrust with a license to sell liquor, being always careful to conduct his business strictly within the law, in the spirit as well as the letter. His removal will be a loss to our community, but will be in a great measure atoned for by the fact that so good a man as Jno. W. Gardner, Esq., will be his successor, as "mine host" of the "Syracuse House." Protracted meetings are much in vogue here now. The one which was begun in the new Evangelical church, at the time of its dedication, closed a few days since, and I am informed proved successful in adding a number to the roll of the church. Just now nightly meetings are being held in both the Disciple and Methodist churches. The former are under the charge of Elder Blair, and in the latter the services are conducted by Rev. Mrs. Talmage, of Williamsport. The novelty of a "lady preacher" and the good sleighing combine to secure full houses, and I learn that great good is resulting from the Rev. lady's ministrations. It has been rumored here for some time that Mr. Woodward would sell one of his large farms just across the creek from our village, and I notice by his advertisement in your issue of last week that this is really the case. This is one of the most desirable localities in the county, and we hope that its purchase will secure to the township another good neighbor and citizen. The new steam factory of Messrs. Shutt & Poutson for the manufacture of spokes, handles, cant hooks, &c., is approaching completion, and will soon be in operation, adding another to the permanent industries of our village. [The criticism of our correspondent is omitted, and will be communicated privately.—Ed.] UNIONVILLE NEWS.—A PARTY OF YOUNG FOLKS VISIT THE TEMPERANCE TOWN.—On Saturday afternoon our town was visited by a turbulent little sea of human beings—boys and girls—from Bellefonte. The young urchins were out for a sleigh ride, and knowing the fact that Unionville was a temperance village and that a temperance hotel was the best place to cater to their appetites. They were a lively, good humored party and amused and enjoyed themselves hugely. They took in the town and surroundings, coasting down hill, visiting the candy stores and purchasing "sweets" for the little girls. At the supper table it was amusing to see and hear the little jokers. It reminded us older ones of our by-gone boyish days. Master little Fatty Furst was spokesman for them and did his part well. The other boys and girls had many jokes at "Fatty's" expense. Miss Mamie Merris represented the female portion, and took quite a motherly care of the smaller girls. They were all wrapped up well, packed away in the sleds and returned home with their little hearts filled with gratitude and thankfulness for the host and hostess of the Unionville hotel. We will add a more polite, mannerly, courteous company of little people never visited our village which speaks well for their good mammas and papas. The Furst, Rhoads, Valentine, Keller and Forster families were represented in the party. Come again and often. We will promise a good time to you all. Bring some of the older heads with you. Mr. A. O. Furst and wife accompanied the party to look after their welfare. ERRATA.—Our readers will discover an error in the "make up" of the agricultural page. If the table under the title "Youngest Meat Most Profitable," in the fifth column, is connected with the sixth article in the last column, beginning with "Here is a wonderful difference," &c., the two articles will read correctly. FATHER IS GETTING WELL.—My daughters say, "How much better father is since he used Hop Bitters." He is getting well after his long suffering from a disease declared incurable, and we are so glad that he used your Bitters.—A lady of Rochester, N. Y.—Utica Herald. Hear the sleigh bells ringing O'er the ice and snow; See the happy people— To Sechler's store they go. They buy the best of groceries And pay the lowest price; And with them bake a big plum cake And think it very nice.

GEORGE ELIOT'S ROMOLA.—A timely interest is given, by the death of the author, to the new edition of her masterpiece, "Romola," just issued by the American Book Exchange, New York. It shows her work at its best and strongest, and at the same time gives the reader the opportunity to acquire a lasting familiarity with the scenes and society of medieval Italy. It is one of the few really great historical novels of the world. It is issued in handy and beautiful form, extra cloth binding, simple but rare elegance and taste in design, and like the other issues of the "Literary Revolution" its cost is almost nominal, viz: 35 cents. It is one of a series intended to form a library of classic fiction, which will include one representative and characteristic work of each of the great authors who have won lasting fame in the realm of fiction. Life is too short and too full of work to permit the reading of all that is beautiful and valuable in these creations of the imagination, but even very busy people can find time to read one book by each of the score of authors who have won immortal fame and place in the affections of the people. Not to be acquainted with them is to be ignorant of much that is most important and most interesting in the history of nations and of men. Not to possess them is to be deprived of most fruitful and profitable sources of enjoyment. Among those issued or nearly ready are Scott's "Ivanhoe," Bulwer's "Pompeii," Irving's "Knickerbocker," Cooper's "Mohicans," "Tom Brown at Rugby," "Adventures of Don Quixote" and "Uarda, a Romance of Ancient Egypt." Full catalogue of standard publications will be sent on request, by the American Book Exchange, Tribune building, New York. GREGG POST FAIR.—We have received information, just in time to make mention of it this week, that Gregg Post, G. A. R., will hold a fair, beginning Monday, February 21, and continuing throughout that week. Tuesday, the 22d, will be the principal day. There will be a booth for the sale of fancy articles, and the Post room will be converted into an art gallery, in which will be displayed some of the rare old paintings and articles of antiquity and value, of which such a large collection may be found in this community. The best musical talent of this vicinity will be constantly present to entertain visitors. We will give more particulars in the future. An admission fee will be charged to the art gallery. The following from the Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin of last week gives some idea of the way Rev. R. C. Crittenden employs his time while in that vicinity: By postal card communication from Rev. Crittender it is learned that a meeting of the workmen and others was held yesterday afternoon in the boarding house near the stonebreaker on the Philadelphia and Erie railroad, about eight miles below the city. The room was well filled and all listened attentively to the sermon from the words, "Prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones, lift up the standard for the people."—Isaiah lxiii: 10. At the close of the service a Bible class was formed, which it is expected will meet regularly every Sunday for the study of the Scripture lessons in the International course. We know of no newspaper containing more features which recommend it to readers of all classes than the Philadelphia Record. None surpass it in the boldness with which it exposes frauds of all descriptions. Its news, which daily includes the world in compass, is printed in the most condensed form. Its editorial remarks are upon the prominent questions of the day, and express the most aggressive thought toned by a high standard of morality. It has improved in typographical appearance, and is now quite handsome and readable. A daily perusal of the Record will keep one well informed on all important topics. Its price is so low as to make one who knows anything about the labor and expense involved in printing a newspaper fairly stagger at the thought. We are now informed that it will soon occupy a new and elegant building, which will be an ornament to the city as the Record has always been to the newspaper profession. [Communicated.] MILESBOURG, Pa., Jan. 17, 1881. MESSRS. EDITORS.—I hereby, publicly, express my thanks to the people of Snow Shoe, Moshannon and vicinity for a splendid exhibition of their kindness—a donation—received unexpectedly on Saturday, January 15. It came in the shape of two large boxes, quietly brought to our door from the S. S. station, by Mr. David Furey, of Milesburg. When the boxes were opened, lo! there were found hams, lard, flour, corn-meal, buck-wheat, dried currents, raisins, dried apples and peaches, coffee (green and roasted), sugar, tea, corn-starch, canned fruits, jellies, chocolate, hominy, sausage, spices, apple and cherry butter, dry goods, material for a cashmere dress and four dollars in money. Space would fail us to name over the individual contributors, but we express our sincere thanks to each and to all collectively. "The liberal soul shall be made fat." Respectfully, W. O. WRIGHT. We were agreeably surprised, on Tuesday, with a visit from George W. Elder, Esq., one of the most distinguished attorneys of Lewistown. He is a native of Centre county. Step out of your old clothes into some of the elegant garments at the Philadelphia Branch. Pale humid winter loves the generous board, The meal more copious, and the warmer fare; And long with old wood and old wine to cheer His quaking heart. —AMSTROUD. "Pride goeth before destruction," but sensible men and boys go to the Philadelphia Branch.

Instead of getting a cheap thing, as the price would seem to indicate, they will receive a very handsome work of 112 pages, and perhaps 500 illustrations—not cheap, but elegant illustrations, on the very best of calendered paper, and as a set off to the whole, a beautiful Colored Plate that is worth twice the price of the book. When you come to Bellefonte call at Lyon & Co.'s and see the largest and finest stock of overcoats that can be found outside of Philadelphia. We have them at $2.75 and $3.75. We have brown beaver overcoats at $5.25 and $6.50. You can't beat them anywhere else at $7.50 and $8. We have the finest blue and black beaver overcoats. We have a reversible overcoat, two sides to wear out, or two coats in one. We have the best chinchilla overcoats at $6.00 you ever saw; they are worth $8 to $10. We can show you over 1,900 worth of overcoats. LYON & Co. We have the finest stock of suits in black diagonal, blue check and other dark good, heavy winter suits. We can show you the largest and best stock in the county and guarantee them 20 per cent. cheaper than any other house. LYON & Co. In dry goods, dress goods, shoes and ladies' millinery, we can show you the largest and best stock in the county. LYON & Co. Spring woollens now ready. Early orders solicited. Money saved. 19-1f MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors. Business Notices. Why are horses and cattle after taking Roberts' Horse Powders like a new laundried shirt? Because they look sleek and clean. At the present time when there are so many worthless liniments in the market, it would be well to inquire which is the best. This will be found in M. B. Roberts' Embrocation—it is a panacea for ailments that require rubbing either on man or beast. Price 35 cents per bottle. No more sick chickens. Save your poultry and cure them of disease, by using Roberts' Poultry Powder. It has never failed to cure Cholera, and all diseases to which fowls are subject. Price 25 cents per package. For sale by all druggists. Way do you cough when you can find speedy relief in Sines' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound? It is the most pleasant and efficacious remedy known for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Asthma, and all diseases tending to pulmonary consumption. Has been sold for over thirty years and is especially adapted to children, as it does not nauseate, and consequently it can be used in sufficient quantity as to effect a cure. Try one bottle and you will never be without it. Price 25c. and 50c. per bottle. Sold everywhere. Ask your druggist for it. The popularity of M. B. Roberts' Horse Powders is proving itself in the increased demand throughout this State, from the fact that the public are at last finding out that it is possible to obtain a package of Horse and Cattle Powder which is strictly pure and free from such adulterations as bran, cake meal, and other ingredients calculated to puff the animal instead of curing it of the disease it is suffering from. M. B. Roberts' Horse Powders contain no adulteration, and are much cheaper than any other, as but a table-spoonful is required for a dose. Ask any old horseman as to their merits. For sale everywhere. Price reduced to 25c. per package. MARRIAGES. FORSTER-BARRIER.—At the residence of the bride's mother, in Millburg, on the 6th of January, by Rev. I. Grier, D.
