REMOVAL.—We desire our friends to notice that the office of the CENTRE DEMOCRAT has been removed from the Bush House Block to the building on the North West corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets. Office on the second floor; entrance on Allegheny street. We have pleasant quarters and will be pleased to have friends and patrons call to see us.

NOTICE.—I call the attention of the public to the fact that I again have my office in the parlors of the old Conrad House, just opposite the Brockerhoff House, where I shall be glad to meet with all persons having legal business to be attended to. D. F. FORTNEY.

Local Department.

—The last day of March.
—The new moon appeared on Tuesday.
—Harry Green's cigars should become an indispensable article to every smoker.
—The grass looks green and beautiful on some of the lawns about town where the snow has disappeared.

—T. H. and B. stand for Tar, Honey and Bloodroot (Green's, of course), the best cough remedy in the market.
—Don't dispense with underclothing yet, but buy some that is exactly suitable to the season at the Philadelphia Branch.
—Trout fishing season begins to-morrow. When you go fishing take a half-dozen of Harry Green's cigars in your pocket.

—Rumor says that a thousand tons of coal per day will be run over the Bellefonte & Snow Shoe branch of the Pennsylvania railroad during this summer.
—Last Sunday night a monster whale was carried through Altoona on its way to Philadelphia to be placed on exhibition. It weighs 80,000 pounds and has a mouth fourteen feet long with a breadth of six feet.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Temperance Union of Bellefonte will be held this evening in the Young Men's Christian Association room. There should be a large attendance of the friends of temperance.

—The Normal Class, which has been meeting in the Y. M. C. A. room during the winter, held its concluding session last Monday night. These gatherings have proved so instructive that arrangements were made to renew them next winter, which we hope they will be successful in doing.

—The National Guard of Pennsylvania has a fresh feather in its cap since returning from Washington. The six thousand citizen soldiers who took part in the grand parade attracted universal attention. If all the members are as fine looking as those of Company B, this place, no wonder they are admired. There's Doc Geissinger and Charley Schroeder, for instance.

—Well informed persons think that the recent assassination of the Czar forebodes evil to Russia. It would be almost impossible for an event to occur so detrimental to the interests of Bellefonte as the Czar's death is to the Russian realm, unless the great grocery store of Sechler & Co. should cease to sell the splendid groceries for which it has so long been famous. Such a calamity would be awful.

—A fire broke out in the basement of the State College building on Tuesday night of last week, but was extinguished before it had gained much headway. It was in close proximity to the oil tank, and if it had reached that conservator of inflammable liquid the glorious institution known as State College would have gone to meet its sister asylum at Danville. We are glad that huge building did not become a prey to the flames and hope it will resist every other attack as successfully.

—The curbstone markets will begin next Saturday morning, April 2. The weather has now become warm enough to enable the farmers to spend an hour in the open air without danger of freezing to death, and if they have anything they desire to sell they are invited to bring it to market next Saturday morning, where they will doubtless meet many persons who are anxious to buy.

A LADIES' PARADISE.—The earthly heaven for ladies is a dry goods and notion store filled with a fresh stock of beautiful goods. That place can now be found at the Bee Hive stores. Mr. J. H. Bauland, who has as much taste in selecting suitable and desirable fabrics for ladies as Worth shows in manufacturing them into costumes, has just returned from a successful trip to the city, bringing with him a stock surpassing anything of the kind ever before brought to Bellefonte. Ladies, if you want to dress better than ever before, buy your spring dress goods at the Bee Hive.

MUSICAL ANNOUNCEMENT.—The date of the concert to be given by the Bellefonte Orchestra in connection with Miss Onnack's music class has been fixed for Tuesday evening, April 26, occurring on the first week of court. The time has been repeatedly postponed, but the date now selected, apart from the superior attractions of the concert, will aid much in making it a success.

—In addition to the numerous candidates already mentioned for the office of County Superintendent of the public schools, we are authorized to add the name of John Mason Duncan, of Bellefonte. Mr. Duncan is an accomplished scholar and has had large experience as a teacher. He certainly possesses all the qualifications necessary for the position, and under his supervision and care the schools of the county would undoubtedly be in excellent hands.

—We forgot to say last week, in behalf of our friend, Mr. B. F. Hunter, of Berren township, that the rumor current a few weeks ago that he would be a candidate for Sheriff this fall was entirely without authority from him. Mr. Hunter will not under any circumstances permit the use of his name in that connection. He is not and will not be a candidate for office this fall and so desires his many friends throughout the county to understand.

—One day last week—we forget the date—Snow Shoe was visited by a distinguished party of gentlemen, including Hon. Allison White and Mr. Berwind, of the firm of Berwind, White & Co., Philadelphia; Edmund Blanchard, Esq., and Mr. Charles McCafferty, of this place; Judge Charles A. Mayer, of Lock Haven, and Associate Judge Franck, of Rebersburg. The object of the visit was to inspect the mining property, at that place, of which Berwind, White & Co. are the lessees.

—It is proposed to organize a Life Insurance Company at Rebersburg with the following officers and directors, all of whom are good men: President, Henry Meyer; Vice President, A. M. Hafer; Secretary, C. L. Gramley; Treasurer, A. N. Corman; General Agent, T. M. Gramley; Medical Director, Dr. Bright; Directors, Lucien Roush, J. C. Morris, J. H. Rolfsnyder, Jerome Speigleyer.

—The incoming trains, during the past week, have been filled with lumbermen returning from a rafting excursion down the river, which is now quite high under the influence of the annual spring flood. But there is always a flood of persons entering the grocery store of Sechler & Co., of this place, and they always return well satisfied with the fine groceries purchased.

—Valentines' are selling carpets at less than city prices. They have just received a large assortment of samples of the latest styles and patterns, and as they do not have to carry an old stock of carpets they can sell cheaper than any one else. Ingrain carpets from 30 cents upward and Brussels from 85 cents upward. Call and examine them.

—A smoke house on the premises of John F. Potter, Esq., of this place, caught fire and went up in a blaze at noon on Thursday. Both fire companies were promptly on the spot, but found their services unnecessary. The meat which it contained was not much damaged.

—Listening to the "voices of nature" one may note that green corn is a little husky. Be that as it may, you can keep your voice from getting husky by the timely use of Green's Syrup of Tar, Honey and Bloodroot.

—The evening service in the Episcopal church will begin at 7:30 o'clock next Sunday, instead of 7 as heretofore. At the morning service the Holy Communion will be administered.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, next Sunday afternoon, will be conducted by Rev. S. E. Furst, of the Lutheran church.

—Valentines' additional rooms have added very much to their convenience. It gives plenty of opportunity to examine their goods.

—Meetings of an interesting nature have been held continuously in the African M. E. church, of this place, since that building was repaired.

—Mothers, we are now ready for you. Boys, our spring and summer school, play and dress suits are now all in. The largest assortment ever exhibited. Extra patches to each suit. Silk handkerchiefs in each coat, of the celebrated St. Adler & Co's make, of Rochester, whose reputation in this line stands first in the United States. To be had only at the popular establishment of S. & A. LOEB.

—Spring woolsens now ready. Early orders solicited. Money saved. 19-4f MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors.

POPULAR PERSONALS.—Mr. Edmund Blanchard is beautifying the exterior of his residence with fresh paint.

—Col. W. W. Brown has been failing very rapidly during the past week. Yesterday morning he was in a very feeble condition. He is staying at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Joshua Mitchell, of Milesburg.

—Mr. William Burns, of Houtzdale, appeared in town last Friday night to remain about a week. He is much pleased with Houtzdale as a place of residence and with coal mining as an occupation.

—Hon. Henry Dopp, of Mt. Eagle, gave us a friendly call on Friday of last week. He is an old resident of the county and at one time was an Associate Judge of the county courts, which honorable office he filled with great credit to himself and acceptability to the public.

—We acknowledge a pleasant call last week from Hon. John Diven, who wears the ermine of Associate Judge so gracefully at each session of the county court.

—Francis Speer intends to start a select school in Granger Hall, near Pleasant Gap, in about two weeks—at least, as soon as the scarlet fever disappears to some extent. He is well qualified and will make an excellent teacher.

—Mr. Hiram Hofer, of Philipsburg, tarried in town for a short time last week. He looks as natural as life.

—Miss Bella Rankin, of Boalsburg, visited her cousin of the same name in this place last week.

—Mr. W. S. Morrison, of Port Matilda, expects to begin a select school at that place on the 25th of April.

—Mr. C. C. Zeigler, the poet of Rebersburg, has gone to Philadelphia to launch on the sea of journalism. Over what particular portion of this tempestuous sea his bark will float we are not informed, but his fine talents will enable him to sail equally well in English or German waters, or in the realms of philosophy, poetry or fiction. We wish him success.

—Gen. James A. Beaver, who has been absent so much of late looking after the interests of the State College before the legislature, was back in his old position last Sunday as Superintendent of the Presbyterian Sunday-school. Everybody was glad, for it hardly seems like the same Sabbath-school in the General's absence.

—We believe that Senator C. T. Alexander bestowed his presence on Bellefonte last Saturday, omitting, however, to call on the DEMOCRAT in its new quarters. For shame, Senator; don't neglect your duty again.

—Miss Effie Straub, of Curtin street, gave a taffy party on Tuesday evening. A large number of guests assembled to assist in compounding and eating this delicious confectionery. The taffy was voted unusually sweet and toothsome.

—Judge Charles A. Mayer was in this place last Saturday, holding an argument court.

—Miss Louisa Painter, a prominent member of the Friends' Society, was in Bellefonte last Sunday and Monday. On Monday evening she held a religious meeting in the Ironworker's building at Valentine's forge.

—Gen. James A. Beaver, of Bellefonte, was engaged in January last to deliver the Decoration day oration, in this city next May. Ely Post is certainly fortunate in having secured the services of so able a gentleman for the occasion. —Witherspoon Union Leader.

—Mr. Isaac Mitchell and Mr. James Lane, with their families, are now occupying the elegant stone residence on the Thomas estate, located in the suburbs of this borough. This will make them a very comfortable abode, and is just far enough out of town to render a walk or ride to their places of business a delightful recreation to the gentlemen, and will be equally pleasant and healthful to the ladies when they have occasion to visit town on a shopping or social errand.

HOTEL CHANGES IN BELLEFONTE.—This week will bring about changes in the management of the Bush House and also of the Brockerhoff House. Mr. W. R. Teller, who for the past three years has so admirably conducted the Brockerhoff, will take charge of the Bush House, having purchased the unexpired lease of Mr. Peters, in whose care the hotel has been for the past ten months. Mr. Teller will go into his new enterprise with a well established reputation as a hotel keeper, and will no doubt command a large share of the public patronage. He is a gentleman who has made hosts of friends since he has been in our midst, and every one will wish him abundant success.

The Brockerhoff House will be under the management of Mr. Wm. McKeever, a gentleman of large experience in the business. He promises to keep the house in excellent style. Mr. McKeever is an active, enterprising man, and we believe that any promise he makes in regard to the future of the Brockerhoff will be fully realized. Extensive purchases have been made with the intention of putting the house in the best of order, and the new management will take charge of affairs on the 1st of April.

TO THE SCHOOL DIRECTORS OF CENTRE COUNTY.—We, the undersigned, citizens of College, Berren, Patton, Half Moon, Worth, &c., townships, take pleasure in recommending Prof. G. W. Rumberger, of Unionville, for the office of county superintendent. Prof. R. is one of the oldest and most successful teachers in the county. He has the well merited reputation of being a live, earnest and zealous worker in the cause of education as a teacher, and we are confident that, if elected, he will make a live, zealous and efficient county superintendent. He has made teaching a profession for twenty-five years, and now we believe him worthy of promotion. By electing him you will certainly be putting "the right man in the right place." As we have never had that officer chosen from this end of the county, we most earnestly hope his claims will be favorably considered.

NEWS FROM PLEASANT GAP.—Since my last communication to your excellent paper this place has been the scene of much sorrow. The hand of the destroyer seems to be upon us. Scarlet fever is raging and it appears to have become epidemic. Up to this writing there have been four deaths—a little daughter of Mr. Strunk, a little daughter of Mr. E. D. Noll, and a son and daughter of Mr. George Koon. Two more of Koon's children are not expected to live. Four members of Mr. John Harrison's family are ill (one in a very dangerous condition), two of Mr. John From's and one of Robert Barnes'. The latter are now convalescent. The unfortunate families who are afflicted are almost entirely cut off from communication, but in every case of actual need the good people of the Gap have shown a sincere desire to aid. All are in constant dread, for no one knows who the next victim will be. Our once happy village is shrouded in gloom.

—A want long felt has recently been supplied. Pleasant Gap now has a resident physician in the person of Dr. Lee, who is a graduate of the Baltimore Medical Institute and a young gentleman of fine personal appearance. Since locating here he has treated several cases with much success.

—I have not gone West, neither do I expect to go, although several correspondents of the Watchman who have been indulging in low abuse and slander of some of our citizens would rejoice if such was the case. Beware, boys; some of these days I will give you a little ventilation that will not be so enjoyable to you as some of the slanders you are now publishing.

—Candidates are waking up. I think it is early. We were always taught that thunder was necessary to awaken snakes and toads in the Spring, and concluded that the same rule held good with candidates, but are now cognizant of our mistake. Next fall somebody will be ahead.

SHIN BONE.
OCCURRENCES OF INTEREST AT HOWARD AND VICINITY.—On Tuesday of last week Mr. David Tanyer, of Howard, lost a valuable horse by death. In coming down a steep hill on a wagon load of wood, the "rough lock" of the vehicle broke, precipitating Mr. Tanyer to the ground. The wagon ran against the horse, breaking one of the animal's legs in two places, and it was afterwards shot. The wagon also passed over both of Mr. Tanyer's legs, but he fortunately escaped uninjured.

—Rev. N. J. Mitchell, of Howard, was summoned away on Monday morning to attend the funeral of the wife of his youngest son, Edward. The lady expired at her home in Wilmington, Del., on Saturday. Our sympathy follows Mr. Mitchell in his sad errand.

—The residence of Mr. John M. Kline, of Howard township, was totally destroyed by fire on Monday afternoon. The conflagration is supposed to have been caused by a defective flue. The loss was rendered more disastrous by the destruction of valuable papers which Mr. Kline was unable to save.

—The unwelcome intelligence reaches us of the death, on Monday night, of Mrs. Catharine Mann, widow of the late Robert Mann, of Curtin township. She expired at the residence of her son James, at Mann's School House. She was one of the most aged and respected persons in that vicinity, being about 85 years of age. Her death is sadly deplored.

PLEASANT GAP NEWS.—We have had another cold snap. On last Sabbath the ground was frozen hard and many thought our spring winter had surely come; indeed, it seemed like old "Winter lingering in the lap of Spring." It is thought by many that our fruit crops have been entirely destroyed by the severe weather. Be that as it may, we can predict one thing at the Gap; and that is we are going to have in Spring township a bountiful crop of candidates for the different county offices to be filled at the coming fall election. Some of the most prominent political stalks, even at this early period of the season, contain already two well developed heads, and how many more may grow before the harvest is past no one can tell.

Pleasant Gap is at present without a justice of the peace, the vacancy being caused by the death of Henry Eckenroth, Esq., (noticed in the DEMOCRAT last week), who was one of our most valued and esteemed citizens. To know him was to love and respect him. He was also our principal merchant at the time of his death, and it is said that the store will be carried on by Mrs. Lottie Eckenroth, wife of the deceased, under the management of our young and gentlemanly friend, William Miller, late of Millheim.

On last Sabbath our friend, Mr. George Koon, was again called to follow to the grave another of his dear children—a little boy, four years old,—taken from the family circle by that fell destroyer, scarlet fever. A much loved and only sister of this little one was buried just one week before, and at the present writing two remaining children are very low with the same dreadful disease. Hark, the church bell tolls! Yes, and its mournful tones carries upon the breeze the sorrowful word that even now one of these, a boy eleven years old, has already gone to meet his sister and brother. Surely in these grievous bereavements this sorely stricken family should receive sincere sympathy from every one.

The family of Mr. E. D. Noll is also in sorrow and mourning for the death of an adopted little daughter—Kate Dale Noll—who died on Wednesday morning of last week, at the age of four years, from scarlet fever. She was buried the same evening at five o'clock. The death of this little girl has been a severe affliction to the family of Mr. Noll, to all of whom she was greatly endeared.

Of politics we have little at present that is exciting or in any way sensational. We do, however, occasionally have a little fun with our good humored and genial candidates. But this reminds us that as Democrats we should keep up all our political organizations, and be ready at any time to enter upon our fall campaign. We should this fall elect a Democratic State Treasurer. It looks as though we might succeed at last in breaking up the Republican ring rule of Pennsylvania. With Philadelphia and Pittsburg, in both of which Democratic mayors were elected last February, practically in the hands of our party, we should be able to carry the State. The people have become restive under ring rule and will no longer submit to the domination of the ruling faction that controls the Republican party. Should we succeed in electing a Democratic State Treasurer a Democratic Governor will follow next year. We have plenty of strong, capable men to run, who would do honor to the party and the State in any position to which they can be called. For State Treasurer I have noticed several good men mentioned, among them, Ex-Sheriff John Guffy, of Westmoreland county. He is a man of fine ability and great business experience and would honor the place. For Governor next year we might take that brilliant lawyer, and sound Democrat, Samuel H. Reynolds, Esq., of Lancaster. It may seem premature to discuss these matters, but the party should be alive to their importance, and not permit a fair chance for success to pass out of their hands.

TEMPERANCE TOPICS.—A communication received too late for publication last week informs us that a large meeting of the Eagleville and Beech Creek Temperance Unions was held at the Disciples' church, near Eagleville, on Saturday evening, the 19th instant. After several interesting addresses, made by Elder Blair and others, on the great change of the morals of Eagleville for the better since no liquor has been sold in that place, a committee was appointed to report resolutions, expressing the thanks of the citizens of the community, and to the courts of Centre county for refusing to grant licenses for the sale of liquors in our town at the recent session. The committee reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, By the Court of Quarter Sessions of the county of Centre refusing to grant licenses to any persons to sell liquor in Eagleville, drunkenness and rioting in our streets has greatly decreased, and the public morals and general state of society much improved; therefore be it

Resolved, That the thanks of the association be publicly tendered to the Honorable Judges of said court for the manner in which they regarded the remonstrance of our citizens against the granting of licenses for the sale of liquors in this community.

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions, with the proceedings of the meeting, be furnished for publication to the Bellefonte papers, and copies of the same be mailed to the address of each of the judges of said court.

GEO. FURST, President.
JOHN H. CRONMILLER, Secretary.

—Throw aside your winter cap and buy a new hat at the Philadelphia Branch.

Where is the Spring?

They said the spring was coming—
They now say it is here;
But the weather we are having
Is of all kinds most queer.
One day the sun is shining—
The next the wind will blow;
Then rain may fall in gentle showers
And terminate in snow.

In the State of Iowa,
By telegraph we're told,
The snow is drifted mountain high—
The wind blows bitter cold.

Now that the stormy March is gone
Old Boreas should cease,
And April bring soft-falling showers
With elements at peace.

For they say the winds of March
Followed by April showers
Are Dame Nature's chosen agents
To bring forth May flowers.

NOTES FROM SPRING MILLS AND VICINITY.—Since my last communication death has again invaded our neighborhood.

—About two years ago Mr. John Neese, of Spring Mills, became afflicted with rheumatism. Since then he has not been able to do much labor, being compelled to work his farm by means of hired help. About two weeks ago the disease centered around his heart. Knowing that all things earthly must soon pass away for him, he placed himself in his Master's hands and awaited his coming. On Thursday night his spirit winged its flight into eternity. On Saturday his body was buried in the cemetery of the George's Valley Lutheran church. Rev. Pfischer, the pastor in charge preached a very affecting sermon on the "Good Man." The church was crowded. Mr. Neese died in the hope of a blessed immortality among the saints. A few days before his death he said to his pastor, "Bro. Pfischer, that prayer meeting, which the brethren held at my house, did me so much good." At another time he said, "The Lord has been with me, and he will be with me again." His age was 59 years.

—The Presbyterians of Spring Mills and Centre Hall were favored with preaching last Sunday by that eminent divine Rev. White, of Milroy. These charges are vacant and are occasionally supplied by Presbytery.

—I. J. Grenoble, one of the most enterprising citizens of our village, has broken ground for his grand summer resort hotel, which will be erected on an eminence just west of his store buildings.

—Mr. Kennedy has raised his house—the first enterprise of that kind this season.

—Mr. J. D. Long has opened a store between Spring Mills and Penn Hall. He contemplates erecting a new store room.

—Messrs. Whitmore & Co. have opened the finest store in the Valley. A citizen of Lewisburg, who spends a part of each day in this place, remarked to your correspondent the other day, that they sell cheaper than the retail stores of Philadelphia. They will have to come down very low, however, if they wish to compete with Messrs. Grenoble and Duncan.

MIXED IN HIS GEOGRAPHY.—A few weeks ago an article appeared in the Watchman criticizing the Ladies' Foreign-Missionary Society for the disposition made of the funds of that organization. At the time we thought the author of the article had confounded the geography of the word "Mexico," and later developments confirm that supposition. Mrs. R. T. Stonerod, of Birmingham, in a card to the Huntingdon Monitor, says that the contribution from the Society is not for New Mexico, but for Old Mexico. "New Mexico is able to take care of herself, and so is our Society. If any one will read the printed reports of the Society it will be seen that New Mexico is contributing to the fund for the extension of the 'good work'."

DEATHS.—A correspondent of the Daily News records two recent deaths, one of which occurred at Port Matilda and the other at Martha Furnace. On Saturday last Mr. A. W. Reese, of the former place, lost a bright little girl aged five years. She died of scarlet fever. On the evening of the same day Ella, a ten-year old daughter of Mr. John D. Wagner, of Martha Furnace, bade adieu to earth and was carried on angels' wings to heaven.

—A little daughter of Mr. John Bland, at Valentine's forge, was buried last Monday in the Friends' burial ground.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cruse, of this place, are mourning the death of an infant child. The little one died on Sunday last. "Of such is the kingdom of heaven."
