REMOVAL.—We desire our friends to notice that the office of the CENTRE DEMOCRAT has been removed from the Bush House Block to the building on the North West corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets.

NOTICE.—I call the attention of the public to the fact that I again have my office in the parlors of the old Conrad House, just opposite the Brockerhoff House, where I shall be glad to meet with all persons having legal business to be attended to.

Local Department.

The moon was quarter full yesterday morning.

The Philadelphia Branch is a one price clothing store.

The mercury marked six degrees above zero on Tuesday morning.

Stop talking about the weather, and buy your cigars of Harry Green.

Good Friday occurs on the 15th of April, one week from to-morrow.

That sure harbingers of spring—the hand organ man—was around yesterday.

If you want twenty cents' worth out of every five cent cigar, buy them of Harry Green.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Y. M. C. A. will be held to-morrow night.

Bavarian and Bohemian beers surpass any malt liquors ever offered to the public.

These sparkling drinks can be had on draft at Brown Bros., Butts House.

The Young Men's Christian Association of Centre Hall will hold its second anniversary in the Lutheran church, of that place, on Saturday evening next.

Mr. Edward Hunneman, a painter by trade, died at the residence of Mr. John McCloskey, in Curtin township, on Sunday, the 27th instant. He was about 35 years of age.

A large number of tenement houses are now in process of erection in the vicinity of the car works, and will be completed by the first of July.

It is expected that the car works will begin operations next month.

The new hotel to be erected at Cresson will accommodate one thousand guests without crowding.

Hoover, Hughes & Co., of Phillipsburg, are the contractors for the woodwork. It will not be completed this season.

Coup's great railroad circus is again on its travels with extraordinary attractions, showing the wonderful enterprise of the distinguished manager.

It exhibits in Harrisburg on the 11th instant, and will no doubt reach Bellefonte in its course.

Constans Commandery, Knights Templar, of this place, are making arrangements for a public installation of the officers recently elected for the ensuing year, to take place on Tuesday evening, April 19.

A few invitations will be issued to the friends of the Sir Knights.

A new dictionary has just been issued containing 10,000 words which were omitted by Worcester, Webster and Walker.

How the English language is multiplying itself! But if we should use all the words known to the English tongue they would fail to adequately describe the merits of Sechler & Co's grocery store.

No breakfast, dinner or supper can be perfect unless the ingredients used in their preparation are bought at that establishment.

The advertisements of several of the prominent business establishments of Bellefonte have been inserted in the DEMOCRAT during the past two weeks.

Among them are the mammoth dry goods and grocery firm of Valentines, the clothing and dry goods establishment of Lyon & Co., the popular "Bee Hive" stores of Bauland & Newman, representing the dry goods, notion and merchant tailoring business, and those of A. Loeb.

When our readers make their spring purchases they can patronize these stores with perfect confidence in their reliability.

A WORD ABOUT LIFE INSURANCE.—If anything were wanting to demonstrate the deceptive character of the system of co-operative life insurance, now running like an uncontrollable mania through certain portions of Pennsylvania, it is to be found in the report of Insurance Commissioner Forster, of our State. By the report of Mr. Forster for the year 1879 it appears that the entire cash income of 22 companies in Pennsylvania amounted to $281,565.64. Of this sum only about $141,576, or about one-half, was used in the payment of death claims. The other half was absorbed in the expense account of the companies. Mr. Forster remarks with great aptness that if these companies expect to win public approbation "as economical substitutes for regular life insurance they must produce a better record than this." It is estimated that fully five hundred of these co-operative companies have been organized in the United States within the past five years. They flourished temporarily, but have disappeared, leaving no record of their existence beyond the dis-appointments and losses of their victims. Now, why should these fraudulent concerns be permitted longer to impose upon the public? They are purely speculative and should not be tolerated. It is a pleasure to turn from this picture to that of the working of a legitimate company like the "Brooklyn Life," represented here by our friend, Mr. R. M. Magee. This company, by its late report, shows assets to the amount of $1,646,293, with a surplus fund, as regards policy holders, of $268,000. The company is honest in its business relation with all policy holders and has special features which should commend it to the approbation of all persons who desire a life insurance. We say to any of our readers who may think of life insurance, to consult any of the agents of legitimate companies to be found in our town, and to beware of all these new fangled schemes now in vogue under the name of co-operative insurance.

BELLEFONTE ACADEMY.—The Young Ladies' School under the care of Mrs. W. W. Robinson, opened its Spring Term on Monday, April 4th. Young ladies are here offered unusual advantages for acquiring a good education in the ornamental as well as the useful branches of education. The school is composed of young ladies of character and refinement, who know in some measure the value of education, and are disposed to make themselves scholars. It is under most excellent management, and is in a healthy and flourishing condition. The other schools in the Academy commenced the spring term on the same date as above.

Mrs. E. M. Roberts, who has charge of the Primary, will give special attention to the manners and morals of the children, as well as to their thoroughness and accuracy in the regular studies.

In the Young Gentlemen's School, every opportunity is offered boys and young men who desire to prepare themselves for business or college. No extra charge is made for the Classics or Book-keeping. Special attention will be given those who have taught, or who are preparing to teach in our common schools. Good boarding, and at reduced prices, can be had for young ladies and young gentlemen who desire to attend the Academy.

Most of the alleys of the town are at present in an absolutely filthy condition. They are made the depositories of accumulated garden rubbish, stable excrements, refuse of tables and kitchens and the waste of the winter's fuel. We believe there is a borough ordinance prohibiting persons from depositing any manner of dirt or filth on the streets or alleys, and a compliance with the directions of the ordinance in the very spirit, ought to be the aim and desire of every citizen, without calling in the aid of the law to enforce it.

Of course it is the duty of the Street Commissioner to see that the streets and alleys are cleaned, but it certainly can do no harm for private citizens to take an interest in the matter and assist, by all reasonable means, the accomplishment of the object in view. After the average husband has been engaged all day in trout fishing and his good wife has been equally busy in house cleaning, what exquisite pleasure is felt when they again meet at the supper table to partake of the elegant compounds made of groceries from S. A. Brew & Son's store. With the savory viands such as are only created from these groceries to eat and plenty of adventures to discuss, they can partake of that nourishment and enjoy that rest known only to those who lead peaceful, temperate lives and purchase groceries of S. A. Brew & Son.

A very homely girl who resides a short distance from this place obtained a handsome man for a husband. This failed to make her happy because her acquaintances expressed surprise that such an attractive man should marry such a plain woman. But happiness was at last restored when her husband began to purchase his groceries of Sechler & Co., and now they are living in perfect bliss, and always buy their groceries at that store.

Are you troubled with hoarseness or pain in the breast? Have you a feeling of dryness in the throat, and a tickling sensation in the larynx, giving rise to a troublesome, hacking cough? Be warned in time. Do not put off for a single hour, but procure at once a bottle of Green's Syrup of Tar, Honey and Bloodroot.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.—J. W. Gephart, Esq., with his interesting family, has moved into the residence on Spring street recently vacated by Mr. Frank P. Blair. —Mr. John Linn, who was so ill a few days ago that his life was despaired of, has rapidly recovered, and on Tuesday was able to ride from the residence of his father-in-law, Mr. Alexander, of this place, to his home in Stormstown.

—Mr. Allen Schreyer, of this place, is confined to his home by illness. His brother, Jesse Schreyer, Esq., of Lewisburg, arrived on Monday evening to watch at his bedside. We hope to hear of his speedy recovery.

—One of the most frequent visitors to Bellefonte is Mr. J. Gibson Larimer, of Pleasant Gap. Mr. Larimer has frequently been mentioned as a candidate for Associate Judge, and he would fill the position with great credit to himself and to the bench.

—So many attractive young gentlemen appeared in town last Saturday to spend the Sabbath that we can only mention them collectively. Among them were Mr. George Boal, Mr. William Laurie and Mr. Clifford Thomas. Such a flood of youth and beauty at one time created a great sensation among the ladies.

—"Newkirk, the hatter," has established himself in the room in Humes' block occupied by W. I. Fleming as a tailoring establishment, and is prepared to renew old hats in the most modern style. Silk hats, stiff hats and soft hats which have been discarded can be made as good as new. He will remain about two months and expects to do a large business.

—An elegant new carriage—the property of Mr. James Miliken—appeared on the streets of this place last Sunday. It is low, luxurious and easy, and is designed for the especial use of Mr. Miliken's mother, Mrs. Reed.

—Mr. F. P. Blair and family have removed from their late residence on Spring street into the dwelling house owned by Col. W. H. Blair, in the vicinity of the Planing Mill Dam.

—Major R. H. Forster visited his friends in Millburg, Union county, last week.

—We are pleased to note that Mr. Thomas Reynolds is converting his stable on Spring street into a dwelling house and will soon erect another stable at a greater distance from the public street. The change will be a decided improvement.

—Mr. Al. Haupt is in town. He has disposed of his cigar establishment at Houtzdale, and expects soon to engage in the grocery business at Phillipsburg.

—Dr. E. W. Hale is putting some much needed repairs upon the stone residence on Allegheny street owned by him and formerly occupied by Mr. William Webb.

—Mr. John Sourbeck is clerking at S. A. Brew & Son's grocery store. The proprietors are fortunate in having the assistance of such a valuable and popular clerk.

—Mr. James Williams is clerking at the Bee Hive dry goods store.

—John T. Johnston, Esq., has been re-appointed by President Garfield postmaster in this place. The appointment will no doubt be confirmed by the Senate as soon as Mahone's Republican party will permit an executive session of that body. Mr. Johnston has filled the office for the past twelve years satisfactorily to the people and the Post-office Department.

—We were pleased to receive a call, last Saturday, from Mr. J. M. Duncan, one of the prominent candidates for the county superintendency of public schools.

—Rev. S. E. Furst, the pastor of the Lutheran church, frequently preaches sermons of great power and eloquence. That of last Sunday evening was unusually excellent, and was listened to with eager attention.

—We regret to learn that our friend Judge Samuel Linn, of Williamsport, recently received a severe fall, breaking one of his arms at the elbow. We hope to hear of his speedy recovery.

—Miss Laura Hemphill, daughter of Col. James Hemphill, of Erie, who has been visiting among her friends in this place during the past year, will start home this morning. Her mother, who is also in town, will accompany her. Both ladies are followed by the sincere regrets of their numerous friends.

—Mr. Daniel Brumgard, one of the pleasant citizens of Rebersburg, called at the DEMOCRAT office last evening. We hope he will repeat his call frequently in the future.

—Mrs. Anna McBride, mother of Miss Mary McBride and Mrs. John Bartruff, of this place, attained her seventy-ninth birthday on Sunday of last week. The occasion was celebrated by an elegant dinner, at which Mrs. Bolton, of Oil City, a daughter of the aged lady, joined the family circle in this place. The occasion was quite delightful.

—The Daily Journal, of Lock Haven has the following good words to say of our popular townsman, Mr. W. R. Teller, in connection with his recent business change: "Mr. W. R. Teller, late of the Brockerhoff House, Bellefonte, is now proprietor of the Bush House, the most elaborately furnished hotel in Central Pennsylvania. Mr. Teller is a genial fellow, and will build up an immense trade for the Bush."

—William A. Peebles, proprietor of the St. Charles Hotel, of Pittsburg, and brother-in-law of Mr. H. C. Yeager, of this place, died quite suddenly on Tuesday morning. Mr. Yeager will depart for Pittsburg this morning to attend the funeral.

—W. H. Noll, Jr., of Pleasant Gap, will leave that place for Painesville, Ohio, today, where he intends taking a commercial course at college.

THE OLD AND THE NEW.—There were three meetings of the borough council on Monday. The old council met at nine o'clock A. M., and settled up business for the municipal year. At ten o'clock the new members—Ardell, Gerbrich and Walkey—were sworn in. The clerk called the council to order and Mr. John Ardell was chosen president by acclamation. Isaac Mitchell was re-elected clerk. The chief burgess, assistant burgess and borough treasurer were sworn in. At 7 o'clock P. M. the first regular meeting of the new council was held, at which the following persons were chosen to fill the various positions at the disposal of council: Solicitor, John G. Love, Esq.; Engineer, Samuel Ryan; Lamp Lighter, Henry Hoffman; Street Commissioner, Thomas Shaughency; Superintendent of Water Pipes, Samuel Ryan, (for an addition of 25 cents per day to his salary as engineer); Janitor, left to the consideration of the Fire and Police Committee after consulting with the Logan Hose Company. The regular standing committees of council were also appointed, but we did not obtain their names.

TWO DEATHS AT PLEASANT GAP.—The ravage of scarlet fever at Pleasant Gap resulted in two more deaths—one on Saturday afternoon and the other on Sunday evening. Mr. James Harrison, who had been lying in a critical condition for several days, passed away from earth on Saturday afternoon. He was a son of John and Matilda Harrison, a prominent member of the Pleasant Gap band and about twenty years of age. He was interred in the Lutheran cemetery at Pleasant Gap on Monday at one o'clock P. M.

The death on Sunday night from the same disease was that of Mrs. John Painter, a lady of great worth whose death will be sincerely lamented. We deeply sympathize with the afflicted families and with all the people at the Gap in the unusually severe dispensation of Providence under which they are now suffering. About forty cases of the dread scourge have thus far occurred, six of which have proved fatal.

THE NEW METHODIST MINISTER.—Rev. G. D. Penepacker, the new pastor of the M. E. church, of this place, preached his introductory discourse last Sunday morning. In the course of his remarks he stated that he arrived in this place on the previous Saturday night an entire stranger, being acquainted with only one member of his congregation. When before Conference he had made no application for any particular pastorate, and was not aware where his future destiny would be cast until he had been assigned to this place. The discourse was long, eloquent and able, and was well received. His family have not yet arrived. Rev. John Donahue, the retiring pastor was also present. He carries with him the best wishes of the congregation in this place for success in his new field of labor at Bloomsburg.

YOUNG FOLKS' ENTERTAINMENT.—The young people conducted with the Presbyterian church, of Millsburg, have made arrangements to give an entertainment in the school house at that place to-morrow night, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the church. It will consist of vocal and instrumental music, charades, dialogues, etc. Those who attend will witness an admirable entertainment, full of fun and instruction. The young folks have shown considerable zeal in this effort to contribute their portion toward the prosperity of the congregation, and should be repaid by a large audience. If the evening is pleasant, there should be a large delegation from this place and from all the surrounding country.

DEATH OF MR. THOMAS LANDREGAN.—This aged gentleman died at Houtzdale, Clearfield county, early on Sunday morning. He lived for many years in this place, and went to Houtzdale about six years ago. At the time of his death he was about 89 years of age. He was the father-in-law of our townsman, Mr. John Bradley. The remains were brought to this place yesterday morning and were interred in the Catholic cemetery. Many friends from Houtzdale and from Bellefonte followed the body to its last resting place.

PROFITS, $1,200.—"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness, costing $200 per year, total, $1,200—all of this expense was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters, taken by my wife. She has done her own housework for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it, for their benefit."—N. F. Farmer.

—Brown Bros. are making a specialty of new whiskeys never before offered in Bellefonte, such as "Golden Rule of the People," "Hanniville" and "Dougherty."

—What is the difference between the man who buys his clothes at the Philadelphia Branch and a chicken? Why, the one is dressed to kill and the other is killed to dress.

—The smiling spring comes in rejoicing, And early winter grimly flies; Now crystal clear are the falling waters, And bonnie blue are the sunny skies; Fresh o'er the mountains breaks forth the morning, The evening glides the ocean's swell, All creatures joy in the sun's returning, And I rejoice in my bonnie Belle. —BESSA.

—The Philadelphia Branch now has an unequalled assortment of gentlemen's furnishing goods.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.—Only one week has elapsed since my last communication and death has again come into our midst, and claimed another victim. On Friday night, April 1st, Mrs. Clara Grenoble, wife of John A. Grenoble, and daughter of Henry Krumrine, Esq., bade adieu to friends and husband, and passed to that "bourne from which no traveler ever returns." Mrs. Grenoble had been suffering for several months with that fell destroyer consumption, and for several weeks past has lived with her life hanging as it were "by a thread." But now her sufferings are at an end, and the bride of a year has gone to dwell with the Bridegroom above. In her death the Spring Mills Sabbath-school has lost a most esteemed member.

—One of the effects of having so many stores at Spring Mills is a reduction of prices. This is "water for the poor man's mill," but is hard on the merchants. Mr. Grenoble having bought a car load of coal oil, has brought the price down to 12 cents per gallon for common, and 22 cents per gallon for headlight oil. He is getting a half car load of sugar with the same object in view. Major Fisher has also departed from the usual even tenor of his way and is cutting down prices.

—We only want a couple of clothing stores, and then we will reduce traveling across Nittany Mountain so much that the toll gates won't pay expenses. —Robert Duncan has his old clerk, Billy Jones, back again. James Crawford has taken David McCool's place in Grenoble's store, while Davy is counter hopping at Whitmore & Co's.

—Prof. Wolf's select school will open Monday, April 11. We understand the Professor is a candidate for County Superintendent, but, as there are so many aspirants, it may be possible that a dark horse may have to be brought out. The Professor is very popular in this part of the county and has a host of friends, who would be glad to see him successful in the race. As I am saying this without either his permission or even knowledge, not having spoken to him since last institute, I must stop or he may take offense and prosecute me for libel.

PROSPECTS OF SPRING.—The following are said to be the most recent of Vannor's prophecies. From them we conclude that he has at last consented to let the winter pass away and give us spring:

There will be a sharp frost in the beginning of April, with a snow fall on the 4th and 5th, but the spring will open favorably, and everything will be pretty well advanced by the 15th of the month. Floods may be expected in Chicago about the first week in April, with high winds also prevailing in the early part of the month. Navigations is likely to open on Lake Ontario about April 7th. The St. Lawrence will open about the 9th or 11th, and the first steamship will probably arrive about the 18th. The weather will be stormy in the lower provinces about the 20th, with very high water prevailing, but in the west April will be a dry month. There will be warm weather just following the 20th, ending in thunder storms on the 23rd and 24th. Snow storms are probable in the far west on the 25th and 26th, and snow falls are not unlikely to occur in England at the close of the month. The month will end wet and cold, but on the whole will be like a May month.

MUSIC AT MADISONBURG.—A friend at Madisonburg sends us the following pleasant account of recent musical events at Madisonburg. He says: The musical convention at Madisonburg, under the direction of Prof. Ezra Smith, of Penn Hall, as director, and Miss Anna E. Sidler and Miss Clara E. Faust, of Madisonburg, as organists, closed with a grand concert on Saturday evening, April 2, in a manner pleasing to all. At least seventy-five singers participated in the regular class drill and the conductor certainly merits the highest compliments for the devotion of his time and talents. The audience on Saturday evening was not large on account of the inclemency of the weather and the bad condition of the roads, but the programme, which consisted of anthems, glee and songs, was carried out in a faithful and spirited manner. An attractive part of the exercises was an earnest address from our warm-hearted Democratic friend, S. K. Faust, who very ably exhorted the parents to take an active part in such enterprises as they would be a great help to all the churches and Sunday-schools. Thus ended the most successful musical convention of the season.

A BURSTED BOILER.—On Friday last while Engine No. 148, of the Tyrone division, was standing on the railroad track near the Ward House the boiler suddenly burst, causing a tremendous explosion and slightly injuring several persons, among whom were J. M. Test, Esq., of Phillipsburg, and an elderly gentleman named Williams, of Martha Furnace. The latter had just stepped off the Ward House porch when his hat was struck by one of the guard rails of the engine. We believe his injuries were quite serious. The smoke stack of the engine was blown about a rod. The top sheet of the boiler was hurled upward two hundred feet, passing over the Ward House, and descending on the roof of the Ray tannery in which it tore a hole about twenty feet square. The glass in the depot and in the Ward House was badly shattered. Three or four other persons were slightly injured in addition to those mentioned above.

—Bavarian and Bohemian beers surpass any malt liquors ever before offered to the public. These sparkling drinks can be had on draft at Brown Bros., Butts House.

—Boy's suits as low as $2.25, at the Philadelphia Branch.

DEATH OF COL. W. W. BROWN.—A BRILLIANT JOURNALIST GOES TO THE "BOURN FROM WHICH NO TRAVELER RETURNS."—The subject of this notice returned from his new home in Kansas, about two weeks ago, to regain health in this, his native county. Before reaching here he visited Washington to interview the new administration in regard to an appointment which he expected to secure. We learn that he was successful and that his appointment arrived a few days before his death. But in his mission after health his hopes were disappointed and he is now numbered with the dead. The sad event occurred at the residence of Mr. Joshua Mitchell, of Millsburg, at 10 o'clock on Friday evening of last week. His disease was cancer of the stomach. He was about 56 years of age. On Monday he was interred in the Union cemetery at this place. His wife arrived on Saturday and was present at the funeral.

Col. W. W. Brown was born near Leont, then in Harris township, this county. He gained an excellent education in a college located at Meadville. He then became a boot and shoe merchant at Lewis-town, studying law at the same place. In 1852 he returned to Bellefonte to practice his chosen profession. But his career as an editor was more prominent than any other business in which he engaged. It began (according to the recently published History of Centre County), in the Centre Democrat in 1855, of which he was editor and M. P. Crothwaite proprietor. Under his regime that paper espoused the cause of the Know-Nothing party. After filling a term as county treasurer in 1859, and a brief war experience at the breaking out of the Rebellion, he became editor of the Bellefonte Republican in 1869. That paper is still in existence under a different management. After a short experience as editor of Brown's Bellefonte Republican, which was launched on the sea of journalism in 1870, and an equally brief time as editor of the Industrial Register, which appeared in 1875, he removed with his family to Kansas. There he engaged in the publication of the Jewell City Republican, which had quite a successful existence. Since going to Kansas, Mr. Brown has passed through several distressing experiences, but was in the main well pleased with his life there.

It is related that in early life Mr. Brown had serious thoughts of entering the ministry of the M. E. church, and was quite devoted to the cause of religion. A short experience in politics apparently dissipated those youthful aspirations. He developed into a rapid and voluminous writer and a strong and eloquent political speaker, and was a host in himself in whatever cause he advocated. As a man he possessed in an eminent degree those qualities which rendered him popular. He had seven sisters, the oldest of whom—Mrs. Livingstone—is dead, but the rest all survive. The living are Mrs. Joshua Mitchell, at whose house in Millsburg, he died; Mrs. Boalick, who resides in the vicinity of Humes' Mill; Mrs. John M. Furey, of Pleasant Gap; Mrs. Halderman, of Oak Hill; Mrs. Boileau, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. W. T. Brisbin, of Canton, Ohio. Mr. Brown was married to Miss Bathsheba Brisbin, sister to General James S. Brisbin. She is an excellent woman, and has been in the strongest meaning of that term, a helpmeet to Mr. Brown in all of the many misfortunes of which he has been the victim. To his fond wife and large family of children the news of his death will be a sorrow almost to grievous to be borne.

—Miss Anna Fox, an aged resident of this place, died on Thursday morning of last week, of paralysis. She was an aunt of Mr. Joe Fox, and a much esteemed lady. Her age was about 70 years.

—Working suits, only $2.25, at the Philadelphia Branch.

—Spring woollens now ready. Early orders solicited. Money saved. 19-47 MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors.

MARRIAGES.

NIGHTSINGER—ALLEN.—At Altoona, on the 30th of March by Rev. Henry Baker, Mr. S. F. Nightsinger, of Lewisburg, Pa., to Miss Mary J. Allen, of Centre county, Pa.

FOUST—RICKARD.—On the 24th of March, at the Lutheran parsonage, in Aaronsburg, by Rev. John Tomlinson, Mr. Simon Foust and Miss Eva Rickard, both of Columbia, Centre county.

KNOX—GOHREN.—On Tuesday, March 31st, by the Rev. Dr. Robert Hamill, Mr. Alexander Boyd Knox of Cherokee, Iowa, and Miss Lizze B. Gorman, of Bostonsburg, Pa.

COXEY—SHOPE.—On the 22d of March, 1881, at the Evangelical parsonage, in Millsburg, by the Rev. J. Lohr, Mr. John T. Coxe, of Bostonsburg, Centre county, Pa., and Miss Rebecca J. Shope, of Millsburg, Centre county, Pa.

DEATHS.

METZLER.—On the 22nd of March, in Potter township, Mrs. Christian Metzler, aged 65 years, 5 months and 20 days.

HARRISON.—On Saturday, the 24 instant, of scarlet fever, James, son of John and Matilda Harrison, of Pleasant Gap.

POOHMAN.—On the 23d of March, in Boggs township, Elizabeth, relict of the late John Poohman, aged 57 years, 3 months and 26 days.

BLAND.—In this place, on Sunday morning, the 27th of March, at six o'clock, Yvonne, little daughter of John and Mary Bland, aged 4 years, 4 months and 1 day.

KNABE.—In Sugar Valley, March 28, Mr. Solomon Knab, aged 74 years, 9 months and 4 days.

BROWN.—At the residence of Mr. Joshua Mitchell, of Millsburg, on Friday evening, April 1, William W. Brown, aged 56 years and 10 months.

MANN.—In Curtin township, on Monday, March 29, 1881, Mrs. Catherine Mann, aged 62 years, 5 months and 10 days.

Mrs. Mann was born in Berks county, July 5, 1818, and removed to this county while quite young. Here she was married to the late Robert Mann, by whom she became the mother of nine children, eight of whom grew to the estate of men and women, and are now useful and respected citizens of this county. She removed with her husband to "Marsh Creek" some fifty or more years ago, and there spent the remainder of her quiet and uneventful, but useful life. She was the grandmother of seventy-eight and the great-grandmother of sixty-seven children.
