LETTER FROM WASHINGTON．
rem our Regular Corrapopadent． Wasuivarox，D．C．，April 18， 1881. To this point come with great regu parity，especially in times of some ex citement，reports from all sections or the country as to their political affairs In one way or another almost every village in the Union is represented here，besides that general represents ion supposed to be found in Congress Every Government clerk has his home correspondents．Every other citizen is nearly or remotely connected with some community in Maine，Virginia，Texas， Wisconsin，or elsewhere．When the right man and the proper time arrives， there may be political reports sent out throe Washington as correct as the weather reports now for signal bureau．This is merely by way of introduction．I began with the in tension of envying I was surprised at the small interest which seems to be felt throughout the country in the existing as more important than any other for the last three years－since the Demo－ cratio fight to prevent the interference of United States soldiers at State elec． tions．Democratic Senators were never so thoroughly in accord on any other subject．Their belief is that the rights of intelligent people in the South are in danger，and that negro and carpet． bag government are sought to be revive． ed in that section，through a corrupt bargain between an unworthy South erner and a faction of the Republican party．Believing this，every Democrat－ ic Senator feels the occasion to be a most important one． In speaking of a faction of the Re publican party I do not allude particu－ larly to the Conkling，the Blaine，or any other recognized faction，but to a few able men who have some influence in the party and who think they can extend it by the Malone coalition．If hey shall succeed，the present Congress， Republican in both branches，will mark Republican in both branches，will mask， out a course for the Republican party good condition as when the carpet bag． gers and negroes had full sway from Texas to South Carolina． President Garfield is a man of excel． lent impulses as has often been shown in his speeches in Congress，and as was in his speeches in Congress，and as was conspicuously shown in his inaugural address，but it is yet an open question

Except this senatorial squabble，there is nothing talked of here but the new loan negotiated by Secretary Windom He has assurances that the owners of nearly all the government six per cent． bonds will allow them to run on at 3 ． per cent．rather than have them paid－ There is no doubt but the fives will be extended on the same terms．The of course the whole transaction is sub－ jot to review by Congress．Opinion in very much divided as to the effect the Secretary＇s success will have on the question of passing or not passing a 3 per cent．funding bill，but mont money
