"It was late last night when you retired!" "Yes, papa," I said with a yawn Behind my fan, "for the horrid man He just talked on and on. The more I hinted the more he stayed; I knew you were wakeful, too, And I told him so; but he would not go— And what could a poor girl do?"

"It was very late when you retired !" "Yes, papa!" I frankly said, "For the man, you see, just talked to me, Though I yawned till my yess were red And I went so far, when the clock struck As to count the strekes all through ; But—the stupid !—he just wouldn't see— And what could a poor girl do ?"

And what could a poor girl do? "It was worse than late when you retired!" "Why I tell you pa!" I cried, "If I hinted once to the tiresome dunce, "Texas a hundred times beside? Why, I even said you'd been in bed For at least five hours, I knew; But he tipped bis chair, and still sat there-So what could a poor girl do?"

"Well, the jeemses-gosh! was you up all night?" "Why, papa!" Lnumbly plead, "Don't thunder so! there's a man below; And he's sent you his card, and said That the reason why he stayed all night Was, that he wanted to see you, too, That he might ask for the hand I gave— For what could a poor girl do?" —New York Evening Post.

-It is a boy, and our amiable friend,

William E. Reber, Esq., is exceedingly happy.

-Read the advertisement of Mr. D. M. Cowher in our advertising columns this week. He offers great bargains in the Family Singer Sewing machine, and is worthy of patronage.

-Mr. Thomas Burnside can now claim to be the boss fisherman of Bellefonte. On Friday and Saturday last he caught a number of fine bass in Spring Creek, and was greatly elated over his good luck.

-The work upon the new Reformed church is now being pushed forward with considerable energy. When completed it will be a very handsome improvement to our town, especially to Linn street.

-There is nothing that a smoker enjoys so much as a fine cigar after dinner. The place to find what you want is at Green's drug store in the Bush House block, where Harry will be found ready and willing to sell you an extra cigar for five cents.

-While at work on the new Evangelical church at Aaronsburg, Mr. Thomas Hull, of that place, was so unfortunate one day last week as to fall from the scaffolding a distance of fifteen or twenty feet to the ground, receiving severe injuries.

-A congressman told a friend that he was filled with amazement; and the friend went down to the bar and called for "amazement." If he had been troubled with a cough, the proper thing to call for would have been "Green's Comp. Syrup of Tar, Honey and Bloodroot."

-The other evening we noticed Mr. William Lyon, of Bishop street, driving a

-The Philadelphia Branch never permits its stock of elegant clothing to run down. Full assortments may always be found, and customers are never disappointed. Lewin knows how to provide for the wants of all.

-A very enjoyable hop was given on last Thursday evening by Mr. Teller, the popular proprietor of the Bush House. It was quite largely attended by the young ladies and gentlemen of town, and parties from Altoons, Tyrone and Lock Haven also graced the affair with their presence The music was furnished by Fred Smith's orchestra.

-The Centre Hall Reporter tells of a cat belonging to Mr. John T. Lee, of that place, that recently gave birth to "three kittens grown together at the under hind part of the body." This is certainly a strange freak of nature, and the Reporter adds that "the triplets have perfect bodies and members and seem more lively than another and remaining one of the same litter."

-Vennor predicted that June would be warm to the eleventh and cold from that date to the twentieth. He was slightly mistaken. The cold snap came a week previous to the time stated by the great prophet. His predictions for the balance of the month are as follows : Frosts on the twenty-second and twenty-third, and from the twenty-fourth to the twenty-sixth very hot weather

-Chester Munson, treasurer of the Philipsburg Water company, has issued a call for the payment of an instalment of ten per cent. upon the amount of stock subscribed by stockholders. Prompt payment is desired in order to avoid delay in securing the charter of the company and the prosecution of the works. It is expected to have the works completed by the first of September next.

-The sermon delivered by Rev. John Hewitt, of the Protestant Episcopal church, of Bellefonte, before Gregg Post, G. A. R., on Sunday the 29th of May, will be found on the second page of this week's issue of the DEMOCRAT, under the caption of "Mahanaim." Our readers will find it an able, eloquent and instructive discourse. It was exceedingly appropriate to the occasion that called it forth, and can be read with ready under roof and when completed will profit by every one.

-Mrs. Barbara Weight, an aged lady, died in Miles township on Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Weight had passed her 80th year, and we are informed that insurance policies on her life to the amount of $40,-000 had been taken out in various speculative insurance companies in the State. It is not probable, however, that near that amount will be realized upon the policies. Possibly some of the expectant beneficiaries will be glad to get back from the companies the amounts they paid in.

-The Centre Hall Reporter gives the following account of the memorial services in Potter township on Decoration day

"At Sprucetown the day was fittingly observed in the afternoon, and an address delivered by Col. D. H. Hastings. In the evening the ceremonies took place at Cen-tre Hall. The cemetery had been set in order and the graves of soldiers freshened with new earth, and evergreens, and a floral monument erected in honor of the fallen ones whose bodies rest in chocere fallen ones whose bodies rest in other The four Sabbath schools formed in line at the lower end of town, and followed by citizens marched to the cemetery, headed by the veterari club of Potter, preceded by the brass band, with Col. A. Gregg, as chief marshal. After the flowers were strewn upon the graves, Col. Hastings deby the veteran club of Potter livered an address. He spoke about half an hour, but his utterances were rich in fine thought and sentiment."

-A week ago, on last Monday morning, a man named Montgomery Brewer was found dead in the mow of the Lloyd House stable at Philipsburg. The Journal of that place says: "A coroner's jury was summoned, composed of J. W. Jones, A. J. Dress, John B. Howe, G. W. Davis, Isaac Shimmel and Thos. Holt, whe deferred their verdict until a post morten examination was made by Drs. Allport and Lytle, which revealed the fact that the decased came to his death from a pathological condition known as heart clot. Mr. Brewer has been a well known resident of Philipsburg for a number of years but unfortunately was addicted to the intemperate use of strong drink. We suppose him to have been about fifty or fifty five years of age. He leaves behind him four children to mourn his sudden demise. his wife having died several years ago."

"ECHOES FROM ROUND TOP."-The Rev. Jesse B. Brown. A. M., of Altoona. will deliver his famous lecture, entitled Echoes from Round Top, or the History of a Great Battle," in the M. E. church, at Milesburg, on Tuesday evening, the 14th of June. He has delivered this thrilling lecture more than one hundred times in the principal cities of the United States tinguished guest, and on every hand he and Canada, to the delight of large and enthusiastic audiences. Having once heard this lecture, we take great pleasure in saying to the good people of Milesburg and vicinity, that, if they would enjoy a rich treat, they should not fail to be present. Mr. Brown presents a graphic and in- Governor began by saying that "he was structive picture of the great battle at Gettysburg.

MARRIAGE BELLS .- On last Thursday evening the marriage of Mr. Theodore Gordon and Miss Esther Graham was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents, on Allegheny street. The wedding was a very quiet one, no invited guests being present except members of the respective families most interested in the affair. The Rev. John Hewitt was the officiating clergyman, and soon after the ceremony the happy couple took the train for the usual wedding tour. We extend our hearty congratulations to our young friends, with a sincere hope that their joy and happiness may be perennial

-Mr. Samuel F. Reynolds, of Lancaster, so well known to our people as the brother of our townsmen, William F., and Thomas R. Reynolds, will sail in the steamship Pennsylvania, on Saturday next, for Europe. Mr. Reynolds will be accompanied by his wife and daughter. They expect to be absent about three months and will make as complete a tour Europe as the time will allow them. Their many friends in Bellefonte will wish them a propitious voyage across the ocean, unreturn to their home.

-Snow Shoe was the scene of a destructive fire on last Sunday morning. The property burned was the large and valuable steam saw mill belonging to the Snow Shoe coal company and operated by P. B. Crider & Son. The fire occurred at about o'clock in the morning and is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary The mill was completely destroyed. We do not know the extent of the loss, but there was an insurance of $2,500 upon it.

GOV. CURTIN AT MONONGAHELA CITY. -Gov. A. G. Curtin was the orator at Monongahela City, Washington county, Pa., on Decoration Day, and delivered an address to an immense audience which was received with great favor. The Daily Republican, of that place, says their city was honored by the presence of its dismet the most enthusiastic welcome." Of the address delivered on the occasion, the same journal remarks that it "was eloquent, forcible and scholarly-every senence complete, each thought a study, each sentiment a patriotic utterance.' He reviewed the history of the war ; it had to come Washington, Jefferson, both the Adams had seen it coming in prophetic vision ; Henry Clay wished to die before it should ome. He then paid a tribute to all who had contributed to the success of the war, but, said he, 'your sincerest homage is due the private soldier, the man who carried the musket and the sabre.' The speaker then made a plea for peace; forget the war, remember the crime; forgive the rebel soldier ; hate the crime of the arch conspiracy; build monuments to brave men, but none to mark the place where Greek met Greek ; let this be the Delos of SPRING MILLS ITEMS .- I suppose you think I have forgotten you, friend editors, but this letter will convince you to the contrary, notwithstanding.

Our little railroad city is all astir. The bark men are bringing in the products of their last month's labor, and shipping it to to the city. Bark peeling has get to be quite an industry in this part of the valley, and also at Coburn, the first station east of this. Bark is selling here at $7 per ton (a cord if not too much dried out will weigh alloyed pleasure while absent, and a happy a ton). This is an advance of one dollar over last year's price. In some future letter I will try to give you some statistics of the amount shipped from this place. The grain in the eastern part of this valley, say from about two or three miles east of Centre Hall down to the narrows, at Woodward, looks very well, and gives promise of a good crop. I wish I could say as much for the grain of the middle section of this valley; and also for many grain fields in parts of Nittany valley.

I see by last week's paper you had quite an interesting occasion on Memorial Day, in Bellefonte. Well, Spring Mills was not lows, and a goodly number of citizens proceeded to the George's Valley burying ground, where they were joined by the trade, create a greater demand, and thus ULion Sabbath-school of that place, and there paid a memorial tribute to the graves of those of our Nation's defenders whose remains lie within its enclosure. After their return they were met at Grenoble's Hall by the Spring Mills Sabbath-school, and a large concourse of citizens, when they proceeded to the burying ground at the Presbyterian church and decorated the graves of the soldiers lying there. After the decorating part had been performed, the decorating part had been performed, and they were ready for the addresses, the threatening aspect of the black clouds that hung overhead warned the people that it was time to leave, and Revs. Tomlinson and Wolf were lett with their speeches un-said. Rev. J. Benson Akers spoke at the Georges Valley grave yard. The Farmers' Mills Cornet Band furnished the music for the occasion. James Kennelley acted as marshal and performed his part of the work well. work well.

THE LICENSE QUESTION .- At the last erm of the Clinton county court, Judge Mayer delivered an opinion upon the question of granting licenses to hotels to sell liquor, which we copy from the Clinton Democrats as a matter of information to those who feel an interest in the subject. The discretion of courts, under the license laws, is not generally understood and it is clearly presented in Judge Mayer's opin-ion, which reads as follows:

R. V. Shaffer presented his petition to the Court of Quarter Sessions, in compli-ance with the requirements of the Act of Assembly regulating the granting of li-censes, and asks the Court to grant him a license to keep a hotel in the Borough of the Court of Quarter Sessi Mill Hall.

Objections were made to the granting of Objections were made to the granting of the license, and a remonstrance signed by a number of respectable citizens residing in Mill Hall and vicinity was presented, in which they protest against a license be-ing granted to the petitioner, for the fol-lowing principal reasons, viz: "They be-lieve the sale of intoxicating liquors to be wrong in principal and vicious in prac-tice." "That there is no necessity for the house." "And they have seen the evil effects resulting heretofore from the sale of intoxicating liquors."

ntoxicating liquors." Evidence was taken by depositions on he part of the objectors and the petitioner, which was read and submitted to the court. We give full consideration and weight to the case, as it was presented, in the remonstrance and depositions, and have concluded to put on record our reaons for the conclusion to which the Court has come

To follow the former and grant indis-riminately all licenses, would be to dis-egard that provision of the act of assemly which imposes upon the Court the duty of exercising their discretion upon the ircumstances of each application as it is presented, and grant or refuse the license, resented, and grant of refuse the hoener, "whenever in the opinion of the Court such hotel is or is not necessary for the ac-comodation of the public, and entertain-ment of strangers and travelers." In the case of Schlaudecker vs. Marshall, 72, Pa., St. Reports, page 206, the Supreme Court has laid down the rule to be observed in the granting of licenses, which it is our duty to follow. C. J. Agnew, in delivering the opinion of the Content or the content of the content

C. J. Agnew, in delivering the opinion of the Court says: "Whether any or all licenses sheuld be granted is a Legislative, not a judicial question. Court sits to administer the law fairly, as it is given to them, and not Isw fairly, as it is given to them, and not to make or repeal it. The law of the land has determined that licenses shall exist, and has imposed upon the Court the duty of ascertaining the proper instances in which the license shall be granted, and therefore has given it to the Court to de-cide upon each case as it arises in due course of law. The act of deciding is judicial and not arbitrary or wilful. The our railroads? Car after car rolls into our station with their precious contents. To say that I will grant no license to anyone, or that I will grant it to everyone is not to decide judicially on the merits of the case, but to determine beforehand without a hearing or else to disregard what has been heard. It is the duty of the Court, there-fore, to hear and disturmine each case ach fore, to hear and determine each case or its evidence and facts; to accortain the fit-ness of the applicant, the necessity of his house for the public accommodation as a hotel (and this involves the number of each in the particular locality.) and to see that the applicant has fully complied with the law, before his license can be granted. This is a large discretion, and is to be exercised primarily for the public good, and secondarily for the private interest, and this being the power and authority of the Court of Quarter Sessions, is the measure Court of Quarter Sessions, is the measure also of their duty." In the present case, the petitioner has fully complied with the act of assembly in regard to the terms of his application. There is nothing in the remonstrance or depositions to impeach the correctness of the statements contained in his petition, except as to the necessity of the house for the accommodation of the public. The determination of this question must de-pend upon the weight and preponderance of the evidence, which, the Court are unanimous in their opinion, is on the side of the petitioner. Whether the evil effects which are set forth in the remonstrance of the petitioner. Whether the evil effects which are set forth in the remonstrance will result from the granting of this li-cense cannot be anticipated by the Court. If such consequences should happen, they will be considered, when the applicant presents his petition for a renewal of his license. We cannot assume that such will be the case, and on that ground refuse the license. It would be to condemn without a hearing or evidence. The prayer of the petition is granted—all the judges con-curring. By the Court: C. A. MATER, P. J.

MESSRS. EDITORS :--- I have read James Gilliland's "Historical Sketch of the Snow Shoe Region." It is an interesting section of our county, and I am pleased that we have two townships in Centre county whose history can be traced from the time the first settler felled the first tree to the present day. If a similar history could be produced of the county east of the mountains it would be an acceptable book to the present generation and gratify a desire long felt and often expressed.

I have often heard of Samuel Askey, the great hunter, and therefore read his adventures with much interest, especially the "Rattlesnake Den" anecdote. I have fre-quently heard of rattlesnake dens, but have durity near of rational data who saw one, and persons who have been a great deal in the mountains are not disposed to believe that ratiesnakes congregate in dens. I make this reference to them with a view to call out further testimony on the sub-ject. ENQUIRER.

Before I close, I would add that from your candidate column, I learn that Spring Mills has a candidate for the nomination for the office of Register, viz : T. B. Jamison. Well, I have known Tom for more than 20 years, and the worst I can say about him is, that I have always found him a straight forward, honest, upright man, and an uncompromising Democrat. I can recommend him to the voters of our county as a man well worthy of the nomination.
