CORRESPONDENCE, containing important news, solicited from any part of the county. No communication inserted unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Local Department.

—If you want a pleasant surprise, go to the Philadelphia Branch store and inquire the price of their men's and boys' clothing.

—The extraordinary demand for Harry Green's five cent Florida cigar still continues. They are the finest cigars for the money to be found in Bellefonte. Try one and be convinced.

—Dr. J. M. Stewart, of Burnside township, passed through Bellefonte, on Tuesday on a business trip to West Virginia. Hope he will experience not only profit but pleasure from the journey.

—Thanks to Mr. Isaac Sharer, of Port Matilda, for his call on last Saturday afternoon. Subscribers like Mr. Sharer are a joy to the printer's heart. We wish that many others would come and do likewise.

—Among the callers at the DEMOCRAT office, on the fourth was Mr. A. A. Spangler, of Potter township. Mr. Spangler is one of the active Democratic workers of the township, and is an excellent and pleasant young gentleman. We hope to have the pleasure of frequent calls from him.

—Dr. D. H. Mingle, of Millheim, is at present on a visit to Stephenson county, Illinois, with a view of looking up a new location for the practice of his profession. The Doctor is a successful young physician, and should he conclude to "go West" will be greatly missed in the community in which he has lived. We shall be sorry to part with him.

—"Don't put off until to-morrow what can be done to-day." Don't even wait until to-morrow to buy your groceries, but go to-day to Sechler & Co., for them. It is the best place for all to buy, but especially for young people who are just learning the science of housekeeping. The members of the firm are reliable men who keep none but the best goods and never impose upon those who are young and inexperienced.

—We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Thomas Wolf, of Miles township, and Mr. Michael Harper, of Aaronburg, on Monday evening. They passed the night at the Bush House, and took the early train on Tuesday morning for a journey to the West. Mr. Wolf will visit his children who reside in Iowa, and Mr. Harper his brother, John Harper, who lives at Monroe, Wisconsin. We hope the journey may be very pleasant to both.

—The members of the Methodist Episcopal congregation of Unionville, had a very pleasant and successful festival on last Saturday and Monday evenings for the benefit of the Sabbath school of their church. It was held in the new hall over Leathers' store, and was throughout an exceedingly enjoyable affair. Quite a handsome sum of money was realized. It will be applied to enlarging the library of the school.

—A party of burglars made an attempt on Tuesday night to rob the store of Mr. Henry Hoover, at Eagleville. They had already effected an entrance to the store, but in doing so made noise enough to arouse Mr. Hoover who was prompt to protect his property. There were five men in the party, and they beat a hasty retreat without any booty, after firing a shot at Mr. Hoover, which fortunately did no damage.

—By the retirement of General James B. Fry, Assistant Adjutant General, U. S. A., Col. William G. Mitchell, so long an aide-de-camp to Gen. Hancock, will receive promotion. It is said this promotion will come to him from the President in compliance with a personal request made by General Hancock. There are scores of soldiers in Centre county who remember Col. Mitchell in the late war, and without exception they will be gratified to hear of his merited advancement. He was one of the most efficient staff officers in the army, and his meritorious and gallant services to the country well deserve recognition.

—Mr. Wm. Hile, of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, has lately been very unfortunate with his horses. He has had two or three very disastrous runaways and recently was so unfortunate as to lose a horse. He drove out with a double team and when near Mann's Axe Factory, one of the horses dropped down. A gentleman happened to be passing and asked Mr. Hile what was the matter. He replied he was afraid his horse was going to die. The gentleman alighted and looking at the horse told him it was already dead. There is much sympathy expressed for Mr. Hile in his misfortunes.

—An organization called "The Reynolds' Memorial Association," for the purpose of erecting a monument to the memory of the gallant Gen. Reynolds, who fell at Gettysburg, was formed last week in Philadelphia. Ex-Gov. Andrew G. Curtin, who was an intimate friend of the distinguished soldier, was very appropriately made the president of the association. The intention, we believe, is to erect a statue of Gen. Reynolds in Fairmount Park. The generous contribution of $25,000, made by Joseph E. Temple, of Philadelphia, for this purpose, gives the association a handsome sum to start with.

—Snow Shoe was the scene of slight disturbance on last Saturday evening, and one of the results of the affair was that a number of strangers, who undertook to run John Uzzle's hotel in their own way, became so well acquainted with John that they will be careful how they invade his premises in the future. It appears that four persons, all new-comers to Snow Shoe, went to Uzzle's hotel with the avowed purpose of "cleaning out the house." John demurred to this, and after considerable trouble succeeded in getting them out of the house and barring the doors against them. They then made an assault upon the house with stones; this assault was met with three discharges from a Winchester rifle, and ended the riot. One of the four, whose name we have not learned, received a wound in the foot and was slightly grazed on the side of the head by the shots. We understand that public opinion in Snow Shoe is almost unanimous in sustaining Mr. Uzzle in the means he used to protect himself and his property from the intrusion and violence of these rowdies. On Monday the parties were arrested, and, in default of bail, were lodged in jail to await trial for their disturbance of the peace and quiet of Snow Shoe.

—A most remarkable circumstance occurred one day last week in Governor Curtin's stable. It appears his ice house is directly under the stable, and a trap door, about 3 feet square leads to the steps that go to the ice house. The Governor's carriage was about being brought out, when the horses stepping on the trap door forced its fastenings and the door giving way they both landed without injury in the ice house beneath. The carriage was not broken; the horses fell about ten feet through an aperture not more than 3 feet square, breaking the harness, but causing no damage either to the carriage or themselves. The large crowd which quickly collected were astounded at the almost miraculous manner in which the horses landed in their perilous position. They were rescued with infinite difficulty. The entire front of the barn had to be removed, but there was plenty of assistance and the two horses were soon on terra firma. It was a most wonderful occurrence and the most learned among our savans could not explain how the horses ever accomplished the feat of going through so small an opening without injury.

—The Lock Haven Daily Journal, of last Friday gives the following account of the aerial flight of a toy balloon, which was sent forth from Renovo on Thursday, June 23d, and landed the same day in Haines township, in this county:

"A toy balloon was sent up from the Renovo House, last Thursday at 12:45 p. m., by Miss M. E. Sloan, a summer guest from Philadelphia. Last Monday the young Miss received a postal card from Mr. H. A. Mingle of Aaronburg, Centre county, bearing tidings of the landing of the balloon on the farm of J. W. Hoosterman, in Haines township, in the southeastern part of Centre county, at 5:30 p. m., same day. The distance traveled in four hours and forty-five minutes is estimated to be about forty-five miles."

—At the regular meeting of the Undine Fire Company, on Tuesday evening, John N. Lane offered the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the heartfelt thanks of the Undine Fire Company, be and are hereby extended to the ladies who did so much to make their picnic on the 4th of July a success. Their untiring efforts and their noble work is gratefully appreciated by every member of this company.

Resolved, That the Undine Fire Company return their sincere thanks to the Logan Hose Company for their active cooperation, and hope that the time will come when they can reciprocate in kind. Also, that all the citizens of Bellefonte and vicinity, who so liberally assisted the Company will be gratefully remembered.

—Rush G. Larimer, of Pleasant Gap, has recently been accorded the contract for carrying the mail from Bellefonte to Millroy. He has sub-let the route from Centre Hall to Millroy. Notwithstanding the Star Route frauds, he is running an excellent coach from Bellefonte to Centre Hall, and hopes that the people who travel across the mountains will take notice of the improvement. Any person wishing to take passage in Rush's line can go to Zeller's drug store and put their names upon the slate, which is kept by Mr. Larimer for the convenience of his patrons.

—At a meeting of the Bellefonte school board, on last Thursday evening, the following teachers for the schools of the borough were elected for the ensuing year:

Principal, D. M. Lieb.
2nd Grade, J. C. Meyer.
3d do. Charles Hughes.
4th do. Rebecca McGinley.
5th do. Lizzie Swartz.
6th do. Lizzie Campbell.
7th do. Bella Rankin.
8th do. Annie McCaffery.
9th do. Mary Schrom.
10th do. Emma Graham.

—"Be you the potecary man?" said a brawny Irishman a few days ago to our druggist friend. "That is my profession," politely replied that gentleman. "Well, its meself that's out o' sorts intirely, and I hear so much of the grane pills that's curin' everybody that I want some." "Oh, its Green's Liver Pills you mean," said —. "Be the powers, ye're right now; what it is to have 'em in' and being supplied with a box each of Green's No. 1. and 2 pills he went away happy.

—On our second page will be found a very able and interesting sermon, delivered in the Lutheran church of Bellefonte, by the pastor, Rev. Samuel E. Furst, on the late meeting of the Lutheran Synod at Altoona.

THE FOURTH OF JULY—THE PICNIC OF THE UNDINE FIRE COMPANY—A FINE PARADE.—The Fourth of July passed off in Bellefonte without any general celebration of the anniversary of the Natal day of the Nation, owing to the sad news from Washington. The small boy was very numerous, and unawed by the thunders of the press against fire crackers and other explosives, amused himself to his heart's content. Mayor Powers, unlike his colleague, Mayor King, of Philadelphia, did not interdict the sale or use of pyrotechnics and therefore the future presidents of the United States, were happy. The Undine Fire Company, however, rescued the 4th from being an ordinary day. They gave a picnic in Valentines Grove and in conjunction with their guests, the Logan Hose Company, made a parade in the morning about 10 o'clock. Elaborate preparations had been made for this affair and the hopes of its projectors were fully realized. The Pleasant Gap brass band and the Zion cornet band furnished the music in the parade, which was an exceedingly fine one. The neat blue shirts of the Undine boys, and the bright red shirts of the Logan's, with the two bands discoursing patriotic airs, made our streets for a short time look as if the 4th of July had not wholly passed from the memory of our people. The procession filed through the principal streets with their hose carriages handsomely decorated with wreaths and flowers, and then repaired to Valentines Grove where the festivities of the day were to culminate. A platform for dancing; a music stand; lemonade and cigar stands; eating stands; and in fact everything that could conduce to the comfort, convenience and pleasure of the large crowd of people in attendance, were erected. Numerous lines of hacks running between town and the grove brought a constantly increasing stream of people to the grounds until the crowd became immense. The tables were laden with everything that hungry men and women could eat. This part of the management deserves special mention. The edibles were all gratuitously contributed by the citizens of the town, and were collected by committees who canvassed each ward. Our people were certainly profuse in their generous gifts, for the supply was very large. A slight shower about 2 o'clock had a somewhat demoralizing effect upon the crowd, but it held its ground with commendable good nature. The only accident that occurred was the collapse of the music stand which was crowded with ladies. Happily none were seriously injured. There was no quarreling or disturbance, for the members of the Undine company had determined that this should be an exception among ordinary picnics. Much of the success of the whole affair, and in fact the principle part of it, rested with the lady friends of the Fire boys. They worked with a patience and zeal that won the admiration and gratitude of every member of the company. In decorating the hose carriage, Mrs. John N. Lane, with an able corps of assistants, deserves especial mention. The work was done in the good taste that marks all that Mrs. Lane undertakes and was much admired. Mrs. Amos Mullen, Miss Bella Bell, Mrs. W. A. Lyon, Miss Mary Yeager, with a score of ladies whose names we cannot recall, worked like Trojans, and much of the success of the picnic is attributable to their indefatigable energy. The whole affair was a success in every particular and the Undine Fire Company is to be congratulated upon the manner in which they conducted it. On the whole the 4th was passed in a most pleasant manner for our people. Fred Smith's excellent orchestra furnished the music for dancing, which was kept up until a late hour. If information of President Garfield's death had been received, the hose carriages would have been draped in mourning.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The startling announcement of the sudden death from heart disease, of Mrs. Eliza D. Humes, wife of Mr. William P. Humes, of this place, created a profound sensation on Friday evening last. Being a lady endeared to the community by the strongest ties of affectionate regard, earned by kindness in the social amenities of a beautiful life, and which so adorn the character of an intelligent Christian woman, the sorrow for the sudden demise of this excellent lady, can better be imagined than described. Mrs. Humes, was, up to the moment of her death, in her usual apparent good health, and having been out making calls upon friends, stepped into the residence of her brother-in-law, Adam Hoy, Esq., to see her sister. While in pleasant conversation with Mrs. Hoy, and without any premonition that the dread monster was then in waiting to invade the sanctuary and claim a victim, she suddenly placed her hand to her heart and fell over, expiring instantly. The occasion was a sad one to those who loved her so well; but they may be comforted in the reflection that death found one who had already made ample preparation for the pale messenger. Mrs. Humes was the fourth of five daughters of the late James D. Harris, who for many years was one of our most prominent and cherished citizens, but who died when they were yet young. Three of these daughters, Mrs. James Orbison, Mrs. Jas. Sommerville, and Mrs. Adam Hoy, still survive and reside in Bellefonte. To these sorrowing sisters and to the bereaved husband we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

—The Washington Cornet Band, of Pine Hall, paid a visit to Bellefonte on the Fourth. This band is an excellent musical organization, and we heard many good judges speak in a very commendatory way of their music.

A WARNING TO MINORS.—At the late session of the legislature an act was passed and approved by the Governor making it a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment for a minor to represent himself to be of age for the purpose of procuring intoxicating liquors. This act became a law on the 10th of May, and we publish it for the information of the public. The following is the act:

AN ACT making it a misdemeanor for any minor to knowingly and falsely represent himself to be of full age for the purpose of obtaining intoxicating liquors.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That any person under the age of twenty-one years, who shall knowingly and falsely represent himself to be twenty-one years of age to any licensed inn-keeper, restaurant keeper, or other person, for the purpose of procuring or having furnished to him by sale, gift or otherwise, any intoxicating liquors, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of quarter session shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than twenty dollars, or undergo an imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding thirty days.

SECTION 2. That any person who shall knowingly, wilfully and falsely represent to any licensed inn-keeper, restaurant keeper, or other person, to sell or furnish any intoxicating liquors to said minor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than twenty dollars, or undergo an imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding thirty days, both or either at the discretion of the court.

IMPORTANT LEGISLATION.—The following bill, which is of interest to farmers and owners of gardens, has received the signature of the Governor, and is now a law:

SECTION 1. That any person or persons who shall wilfully enter or break down, through or over any field, orchard, garden or yard, fence holed or greenhouse, or who shall wrongfully club, stone, cut, break, bark or otherwise mutilate or damage any field crop, nut, fruit or ornamental tree, shrub, bush, plant or vine, trellis, arbor, holed or greenhouse, or who shall trample or in anywise injure any grain, grass, vines, vegetables or carry away any grain, corn, rye, wheat or other field crop, fruit, vegetables, plants, fruit or ornamental trees, vines or shrubs, whether the same be attached to the soil or not, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars for each and every offence.

SECTION 2. Any justice of the peace or alderman, upon information or complaint made before him by the affidavit of one or more persons of the violation of said act by any person or persons, shall issue his warrant, directed to any constable or police officer, to cause such person or persons to be arrested and brought before said justice or alderman, who shall hear and determine the guilt or innocence of such person or persons so charged, and if convicted of such offence or offences, shall be sentenced to pay the said penalty aforesaid, to said violation, with costs, one-half to go to the parties injured to pay for damages sustained, and the remaining one-half to the school fund of the district in which said offence was committed. Provided, that the defendant or defendants, on refusing to pay at once said penalties, shall be committed to the common jail of the said county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of penalty imposed, unless the defendant or defendants enter into recognizance, with good security, to answer said complaint on a charge of misdemeanor before the quarter sessions of the peace of the county in which the offence is charged and failure to pay the penalty imposed by this act, with costs, shall commit said defendant or defendants to the common jail of the county for a period of not less than one day for each dollar of penalty imposed.

—For the information of members of our local military organization we append some of the most important features of the bill that recently passed the legislature reorganizing the National Guard:

SECTION 7. That any soldier failing to appear upon any occasion of duty to which he shall be ordered by his proper commanding officer shall be subject to trial by such court-martial as the brigade commander may direct, and upon conviction, failing to render good and sufficient cause therefor, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars, or upon his failure to pay such fine within twenty days, to a term of imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, as such court-martial may direct.

SECTION 8. That all military offences, cognizable and triable by the statutes of the United States army regulations and articles of war, before general or regimental courts-martial, or field officer's courts, as is provided for in the ninety-seventh section of the act approved May fourth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, entitled "An act for the organization, discipline and regulation of the militia of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania," shall be cognizable and triable before the like courts in this Commonwealth; but the said courts except in times of war, insurrection, invasion, rebellion or riot, and except in cases where the penalties as provided in the army of the United States, shall be dismissing or cashiering of a commissioned officer, may upon conviction, sentence to fines not exceeding one hundred dollars, and on a failure to pay the same within twenty days, to an imprisonment not exceeding three months as the said court-martial may direct.

"Every arm, uniform and equipment issued by the State, shall be used only in the discharge of military duty, and any non-commissioned officer or private, who shall wilfully or wantonly injure or destroy any uniform, arm, equipment, or other military property belonging to the State, or to the regiment, battalion or company, and refuse to make good such injury or loss, or who shall sell, dispose of, secrete, or remove the same with intent to sell or dispose thereof, or who shall fail within six days after being notified to return the same to the State, or his commanding officer, shall be tried by court-martial and sentenced to pay a fine of not more than fifty dollars, or undergo an imprisonment in the county jail of not more than sixty days, and all clothing, camp and garrison equipage, ordnance, ordnance stores and quartermaster stores, issued by the State, or fabricated from material issued by the State and charged against the company allowance, or for which commutation has been paid, shall be the property of the State of Pennsylvania."

SEC. 13. That military duty shall require the attendance of commissioned officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates, on all occasions of drills, parades, encampments and active service, ordered by the commanding officer of the company, regiment, battalion, brigade, division or the Commander-in-chief, or provided for by the company by-laws, unless excused therefrom by the officers having authority to grant such excuses; and that while on such duty or going to and returning from the same obedience shall be rendered to all rules, regulations, usages, customs and requirements of the army of the United States, and of the code and regulations of the State of Pennsylvania.

"Twelfth.—The president of such court-martial, or the officer of a regiment or battalion court-martial shall issue his warrant for the collection of all fines imposed by said court-martial to the sheriff of the county, in which the court was held, or in which the delinquent resides, whose duty it shall be to collect all fines provided for in this supplement, in the same manner as he is authorized to collect debts on civil process, and make his return to the president of the said court, or to the officer of the said regiment or battalion court-martial, or within twenty days certify to said president or officer that there is no property of the defendant out of which said moneys can be made."

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.—Business about our little railroad city is unusually brisk this summer. The Penns Valley Mining Company composed of such solid men as Gen. Gregg, Col. Silfer, Andrew Dill, Jas. P. Coburn, and others of equal energy and ability, who are operating the Centre Hill mines, ship from two to three car loads of ore from this point each week.

Robert Duncan is getting stone hauled preparatory to erecting the new store room, I spoke of in one of my former letters. Robert has cut down prices wonderfully since the new store opened out. Just think of coal oil at 12 cents per gallon, tolerably good coffee at 12 cents per lb., good overalls at 75 cents per pair, and other articles in the same proportion. We'll soon beat Bellefonte for cheap goods. The many buildings going up this summer make a harvest for I. J. Grenoble, as he is the only one who keeps a general assortment of hardware.

What Spring Mills wants is a good clothing store. Can't some one of the clothing men of overcrowded Bellefonte locate in our place. We need such a store badly. There is also a fine opening for a drug store—none nearer than Millheim and Centre Hall.

This is the glorious old Fourth. The only excitement here is about the tub-race. Not a single picnic in the whole valley. The tub-race came off at 1 o'clock p. m., in the mill dam, at Runk's Mill. The contestants were three boys about sixteen or seventeen years old—John Ream, Ira Bartley and Bob Renninger. The race began at the hotel stable, and ended at a line stretched across the dam a few rods above the pike bridge. From the line was suspended an apple. The boy who first reached the apple and took it from the line was to be the victor. There were two races, or heats as the turf men call them. The first was won by Renninger, and the second by Bartley. The prizes were 75 cents for each contest. I hear there is to be another race to-night. If it comes off I will give you the particulars next letter.

A Card.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF CENTRE COUNTY: I am informed that reports have been extensively circulated throughout the county that in becoming a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, I am simply acting as the agent of one of the banking institutions of Bellefonte. I desire to disabuse the minds of my fellow citizens from all belief in these untruthful and unfounded stories. They are false in every particular and are used only for the purpose of injuring my chances for a nomination. In my candidacy I desire to stand upon my own merits. I am not under obligations, promises or pledges to any person or to any bank, and should I be fortunate enough, through the favor of my friends, to receive the nomination and be elected to the office for which I am a candidate, I shall enter upon and discharge its duties free and untrammelled and to the best interests of the people of the county.

—From R. A. Saalfeld, 839 Broadway, N. Y., we have received his June-music, consisting of four pieces, all under one cover, and costing ten cents. The pieces in this number are "As I'd Nothing Else to Do," and "The Deep, Deep Sea," words with the notes. The other two are instrumental entirely, entitled "Pleasures of Summer," (Waltz), and "Crimson Blushes," (Mazurka). Saalfeld issues this music every month at ten cents a number, or yearly subscription (12 numbers) one dollar.

A GREAT ENTERPRISE.—The Hop Bitters Manufacturing Company is one of Rochester's greatest business enterprises. Their Hop Bitters have reached a sale beyond all precedent, having from their intrinsic value found their way into almost every household in the land.—Graphic.
