Local Department.

-The harvest moon will soon be shining.

-Thursday, 8th instant, is the last day for registration.

-The Centre County Fair will be held October 4th, 5th and 6th.

-Five changes of the moon will occur during the month of September.

-Never go "down town" without suppoing to buy a cigar of Harry Green. -Call at the Philadelphia Branch store and see how cheap a new suit can be bought.

-We have just opened a new line of ladies' hats and millinery for fall wear. Lyon & Co.'s one price store.

-The poor directors of the State will hold their seventh annual convention in Erie, commencing on Tuesday, September 20.

-Daniel Rhodes, Esq., and William J. Thompson, will represent Centre county Republicans in the coming State Convention.

-When Frank Blair, Charley Heisler and 'Squire Smith bid each other good night, each one can be heard to softly say, "When shall we three meet again."

-Why shouldn't all babies be given the right to choose their names? Girl babies have the privilege after a time; but give a boy a name and it hangs to him till death.

-The registry lists can now be found posted up at election places in the county, and all desiring to vote in November must be assessed at least 60 days before the election, or by September 8.

-To have good health you must have pure blood, to make pure blood requires a healthy liver, and no medicine so successfully regulates the liver and bowels a Green's No. 1 and 2 Liver Pills.

-For want of dwellings, says the Jour nal, many persons are prevented from locating in Philipsburg. Although new houses are going up in all parts of town, the supply is far from being equal to the demand.

-Millheim is to have a Lutheran church. Ground was broken for the new structure a short time ago, and when completed it will be quite a handsome improvement to the town. It is expected to put the building under roof this fall.

-Mr. Henry Bollinger and family, of Millheim, have removed to Montana territory with the intention of making their in that far distant region In Mr. Bollinger. Montana will receive a peaceful and useful citizen.

risburg Patriot, recently spoke of Charley Brelsford's Circus and Menagerie, which it said was then exhibiting in the capital city. Mr. Brelsford is well known in this vicinity and his ordinary occupation was understood to be that of a commercial tourist. Several of our merchants could testify that he had sold them hams on several occasions; therefore there was some surprise expressed on the announcement that the genial Mr. Brelsford had changed his occupation. A little inquiry develops the fact that Brelsford's circus came from Centre county. An innocent individual from the Bald Eagle ridges came down here one day and sold Mr. Teller of the Bush House, a cub bear, representing it to be three months old. Mr. Teller soon discovered that instead of it being a cub it was really about six years old. He looked over his list of acquaintances and concluded that Mr. Brelsford was of just about the size to take care of it. He accordingly shipped this old bear to him and wrote him a letter setting forth the comical parts of this "cub" and ended by presenting it to him. It appears Brelsford was as badly taken in as Mr. Teller and had his "cub" on exhibition for a long time in Harrisburg until the sell was discovered. Brelsford had once met a bear at English Centre, in Lycoming county, but the elevation in the tree he immediately assumed precluded his taking very correct observations of the animal, hence his mistake. He has sold out the show and is still inflicting hams on his customers.

-Our esteemed contemporary, the Har-

FIRE .- The dwelling house of Mr. Thos Shearer, situated on the Lewistown pike near Humes' mill, about two miles from Bellefonte, was totally destroyed by fire at an early hour on last Tuesday morning. Mr. Shearer cannot account for the origin of the fire, but thinks it must have been aused by a defective flue into which the pipe of the cooking stove passed. When first discovered the flames were so far under headway that it was seen to be impossible to save the building. In fact the fire burned so rapidly that there was no time after the family had been aroused and the children removed to a place of safety to secure any of the furniture and household goods that the burning structure contained. Mr. Shearer had an insurance of one thousand dollars upon the building, but still his loss is considerable and he can illy afford to bear it. We are sorry this misfortune should have befallen him.

-We learn that the Union Sundaychool picnic near Pine creek school house in Haines township, on last Saturday, was grand success. All the Sunday-schools of the township-six in number, namely, two from Aaronsburg, one from Woodward, one from St. Paul's church, one from Wolf's school house and one from Pine creek-were present in full force, and the day was passed in the most agreeable manner. The arrangements for the occasion were perfect and the committee charged with the duty of making them deserve great credit and commendation for the successful manner in which they were carried out. It is estimated that there were two thousand persons-men, women und children-upon the ground, and there was a bountiful supply of good things to eat. It was throughout a day of pleasure, and all who participated in the enjoyments of the occasion will retain pleasant memories of it for a long time to come.

-The extensive improvements inaugurated at the Brockerhoff House are rapidly nearing completion. The sample room proper and the small room, to be used as a private apartment for the patrons of the hotel already have assumed shape. The private room is handsomely wainscoted in ellow pine whilst its more pretentious rival is wainscoted in the very finest ash. A magnificent refrigerator, one of the most elegant ever seen in Bellefonte,

OF CENTRE COUNTY .- As announced in the DEMOCRAT, of last week, the annual re-union and picnic of the Veteran Club of Centre county will this year be held at not know what the effect of this law may Spring Mills, on Saturday, September 10. The Executive Committee of the Club met for persons interested in its requirements on last Saturday afternoon, in Beilefonte, to understand just what they are in order at the office of Col. D. S. Keller, and the that all may govern themselves accordingfeeling among all present was that this ly. From an article published last week annual meeting should be made one of the most successful that has yet been held by the veterans of the county. These annual meetings have been growing in interest Wednesday next the act passed at the last ever since the formation of the Club, eight years ago, and as each succeeding year omes around we have a gathering of old oldiers and comrades-in-arms that seems to surpass in numbers and in the general enjoyment experienced by all present than any that have preceded it. The meeting last year at Unionville was a remarkable success, in every respect. It was, indeed, a day long to be remembered by every one who was upon the ground, and the Executive Committee at the meeting of last Saturday determined that nothing should be left undone to make Saturday, the 10th day of September, 1881, at Spring Mills, a day that will be fraught with nothing but pleasant recollections for every veteran of the county to carry into the future. The main objects of our annual firm issuing it. Any person or firm, or meetings, in the language of the card of agent of any person or firm engaged in invitation issued by Gen. Beaver, on behalf of the Executive Committee, are to of labor any other paper or order shall be ing tract lying south of that portion of revive and renew the ties of friendship guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a formed by soldiers with their comradesn-arms, and to enroll the veterans who have not heretofore joined the Club, with which the crime shall have been commit. at commissioner's sale. a view of securing, if possible, the mili- ted. tary history of every man who entered the service from Centre county." military history of our soldiers will make goods for a greater per cent. prefit than an invaluable record, and for that reason we should strive to make it as complete is possible, and we hope to see at Spring Mills this year the names of a large number of comrades enrolled upon the books of the Club who have never heretofore had a convenient opportunity to meet with it.

PLEASANT GAP JOTTINGS. - The festival s over. Financially and socially it was a grand success. An unusually large crowd of people were in attendance on Saturday evening. The refreshments were of the choicest kind and the people of the place have great reason to be proud of the patronage they received. The church membership is small; but in time of festival the sinners and laymen all join hands and for the time forget that there is any difference between saint and sinner, and strange as it may appear, the good saints do most cordially welcome them. After the closing cene on the grounds the committee had quite a job in returning the things they had borrowed, after which they all returned to their respective homes. On the 28th ultimo, they reassembled at the house of the treasurer. We do not know what they were doing, but we heard a jingling noise as we passed the house while returning home from our devotions at church. Dear Brothers, could you not have found some other time to fix up your accounts than Sunday afternoon. Just think, while the ice cream churner was out performing his pastoral duties, you fellows at home settling up your accounts. Just think of hereafter.

It is amusing to hear our stalwarts talk about how they will carry the county this fall. All right, boys ; though you have the offered services of a certain number of disappointed Democrats, did it ever occur to you that persons who cannot do anything for themselves politically will not be of much use to any other parties ? The fight in the county will end just as it usual-

THE STORE ORDER ACT .- The law, passed by the Legislature at its last session, commonly known as the store order act, went into operation yesterday. We do be in Centre county, but it is well enough Post we take the following plain explanasuit tion of the provisions of this law: "On session of the Legislature known as the 'Store Order Act" goes into effect in this State. The act was passed under the assumption that many workmen employed ed in favor of plaintiff. in large manufacturing establishments are liable to be defrauded of a portion of their earnings by means of the "store order' system. The new law provides that all persons, firms, companies, corporations or other minerals, or manufacturing iron, steel or any other product, shall settle with their employes at least once in each month, and pay them in lawful money, or by a cash order redeemable for its face value in lawful money, with interest, made payable to employe or bearer, and redeemable within a period of thirty days, by the person or such business, who shall issue for payment fine not exceeding $100, which shall go to

It is also declared that it shall be unaforesaid, and who shall likewise be intersupplies of like character and quality are sold to customers buying for cash and not employed by them. A violation of this clause works a forfeiture of the right to collect the debt for goods so sold. Refusal paid by plaintiff and defendant to settle and pay once a month, in cash or after the period of twenty days, to a penalty of one per cent, a month, which shall plaintiff. The same penalty is exacted where a party issuing a cash order refuses to redeem it within the time specified.

Young MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION ONVENTION .- A circular has been issu ed by S. A. Taggart, State Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, in relation to the convention of the association to be held in Bellefonte, on Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, September 224, 234, 24th and 25th next. From the circular we learn that the first session will be held on Thursday afternoon, at half past S o'clock, when addresses of welcome on behalf of the citizens, churches and associations of the place will be made, and organization effected.

The following is an outline of the genal programme :

I. How to promote the stability of asso ciations in small places. First, by work for boys-C. H. Zehnder, of Berwick; second, by an executive secretary-W. A. Magee, of Philipsburg; third, by the co-operation of women-G. B. Reimensnyder, of Sunbury. Sunbury.

II. Suggestions for arranging for social gatherings and practical talks, with list of programmes and subjects-T. T. Horney,

III. What place should meetings for all classes of persons have in our associa-tions work ?-James McCormick, Harrisburg

IV. The work of district committees and how to arrange best for district cor ventions ?-E. H. Witman, Wilkesbarre. It is expected that the foregoing will be introduced with brief papers. The follow-ing subjects will also be considered : Our

Feigned issue. Discontinued. DESTRUCTIVE LUMBER FIRE .- From the Osceola Reveille, we learn that on Tuesday night of last week, at about nine o'clock, the extensive lumber yard of Mr. D. W. Holt, at Loch Lomond, two and a half miles below Philipsburg, on the Moshanon creek was discovered to be on fire. and before the flames could be subdued twelve million feet of lumber was des. troyed. The Reveille says the fire "is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary," and further says, that "most of this lumber was sold, and would have been in market had it been possible to get cars to convey it. The loss is estimated at $175,000, partially insured. This is a great loss to Mr. Holt, who is one of the largest lumber manufacturers in this region, and in fact, in the State. He is now compelled to buy lumber wherever he can get it, to supply the place of what was sold, among the destroyed." get

COURT PROCEEDINGS .- The second week of August term opened Monday morning, at 10 A. M., with His Honor C. A. Mayer, President Judge, presiding, and Associate Judges Divin and Franck on the bench. The business of the Court was disposed of with Judge Mayer's usual dispatch, and by Tuesday afternoon all the cases for jury trial were tried and the jury was discharged before 5 P. M. DEATH OF MISS CAPHARINE F. DUNLAP. -On Saturday, August 26, Miss Catharine Findley Dunlop departed this life at the residence of her nephew, J. Dunlop Shugert, of this place. She was the only remaining daughter of the late John Dunlop, who, many years ago, occupied so conspicuous a position in the business and social life of Bellefonte, and who was also the pioneer iron master of central Pennsylvania. She had exceeded by five years the allotted "three score and ten." and was the last of her name. In early life

she was sprightly and intellectual, but ome years ago was afflicted by paralysis which partially obscured her intellectual brightness and retired her in a measure from public attention. She, however, possessed a kind heart, and ever retained a pleasant and fond recollection of her friends and early associates. With much affliction, having survived all her immediate family and most of her contemporaries. shut out by the loss of hearing from the voice of love and all the sounds of busy life about her, she still kept up, till within a few weeks back, a lively interest in her surroundings. Calmly and peacefully the summons came to her "the Master hath come and calleth for thee" so, silently and lone, she has gone to join her loved ones who "Long since had crossed the river, and had pitched Their tents upon the everlasting hills."

"Progress," North and South.

"Progress" is now in its third year, and may, therefore, point to its broad pages or evidence of its tone and doctrine. With the nomination of General Han-sck for Presidency, its editor renewed is relations with the Democratic party. o disancointment with the ideas of the disappointment with the ideas of the Republican party prompted his decision; but he saw that the managers of that party had made hostility to the South a condi-tion of continued membership, and that even the illustrious services of General en the illustrious services even the illustrious services of General Hancock to the country had made no im-pression upon men who, without those ser-vices, would have had neither country nor party. Together, with hundreds of thous-ands of others, the editor of "PROGRESS" therefore took ground for the cause of peace, patriotism, and reconciliation; and every subsequent hour has confirmed in him the wisdom of his action. General

The closeness of the popular vote in 1880, when the Republicans carried the 1889, when the Republicans carried the day only by panic and capital, and the small majority in Congress, with hundreds of thousands of office-holders, forced to vote to keep their places, proved the power of the great party founded by Jefferson and Frauklin and immersticated by Lefferson of the great party founded by Jenerson and Franklin, and immortalized by Jack-son, Douglass, Cass, Silas Wright, and Thomas H. Benton; and since that elec-tion, the South has exhibited a vitality, energy, and prosperity that increase its value to the Union and its future force in which takes to national development.

"PROGRESS" will retain all its contribu-tors that have been writing in its pages for the last two years, especially those who minister to the tastes of thoughful men and women, and more will be added on new topics, political and social. I will be particularly obliged if my old frie North and South, East and West, friends give me the benefit of their personal co-operation in this effort to strengthen a journal which is intended to spread the truth in 'favor of generous Democratic principles, and to foster and cement com-radeship between all peoples and States. -Mr. James Geddes and wife, of Philadelphia, are among the guests at present registered at the Brockerhoff House. They arrived here last week, and the Brockerhoff brothers have done much to make their sojourn pleasant to them. Mr. Geddes expresses himself as delighted with Bellefonte and its surroundings.

-The bar-room of the Brockerhoff House will be one of the finest rooms of the kind in this section of the State when the repairs now under way are completed. Joseph Fox, a skillful mechanic has charge of the work, and he is doing it in first class order.

-Notice was given in the churches of Bellefonte on last Sabbath morning that a Union prayer meeting would be held that afternoon in the Court House to offer up prayer for the recovery of the President. At the appointed hour a large assemblage met and a deeply impressive and solemn service of prayer was held. All present were profoundly impressed with a sense of the dangers which encompassed the Chief Magistrate of the nation, and fervent and sincere were the petitions that a merciful Providence might find it in His wisdom to ward off the impending calamity.

-On last Saturday afternoon the Hebrew residents of Bellefonte assembled at the hall in the dwelling of Mr. A. Sternberg for the purpose of offering their prayers to Almighty God for the restoration of President Garfield to health. Many of the merchants of the town of that religious faith closed their places of business and took part in the solemn exercises of the occasion. We have heard that the service was of an exceedingly interesting and impressive character.
