The largest stores, that do the largest business in the city, and that have the confidence of everybody; mark their goods in plain figures and ask only the lowest price from the start, and that is just the way we do. Lyon & Co.

Squire Daniel Grove, of Spring township, has lately passed through a very serious and protracted spell of sickness of an inflammatory character and we are glad to say is now in a fair way to recovery. One day this week he made his first appearance in town since his illness.

The room into which every day fresh air and sunshine find their way, from all its noxious vapors freed, seldom contains an invalid. Now this advice we know is good: Use air and sunshine and pure food, and if you would be free from ills, be sure to use Green's Liver Pills.

Read the advertisement of Valentines & Co.'s store in another part of this issue of the DEMOCRAT. They have anything in the way of dry goods, hats, caps, boots and shoes, mens' and boys clothing, groceries, &c., to be found in a general store. After reading visit the establishment and see how well you can be accommodated.

An exchange says that "considerable of the old coin which is now in circulation is not what it appears to be. Sharpers are buying up silver dollars, halves and quarters that have holes in them, procuring the dollar for seventy cents, and the others at about half their original value. They fill up the holes so ingeniously with prepared wire that no one but an expert can discover it, and then pass them off at full value."

Mr. George L. Smith, an employe of Mr. Ardella Phenix Planing Mill of this place met with a severe accident by which he lost half of his left hand. He was attending a circular saw and extending his hand to adjust the piece of timber he was operating on, when it came in contact with the saw; and in an instant was served across the palm just above the knuckles. Dr. George Harris was called in and rendered such relief as the circumstances would admit.

Sechler & Co., still lead in the grocery trade. They have the finest goods to be found in the market, and with their well established reputation as careful and honorable dealers trade always flourishes at their establishment. Their store is fully stocked with fresh and seasonable goods, and persons who desire to lay in holiday supplies in time should not fail to call upon them. There is nothing in the grocery line that they cannot furnish at fair prices with a guarantee as to quality.

A surprise party made a successful raid upon the residence of Postmaster Johnson, on Linn street, on Tuesday evening, and the occasion was one of pleasant interest. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were out in full numbers and the social pleasures afforded to the participants were of a character so pleasing and enjoyable that they will remain a bright recollection in the memory of all who were present. Between music, dancing, elegant refreshments, and kindly interchanges of thought a most delightful evening was spent. About midnight the party dispersed to their homes, happy and joyous over the pleasures that all had enjoyed.

AN INTERESTING CONTROVERSY IN COURT.—A case in equity which involves a number of important and interesting questions of law and fact will be argued before the Court of Common Pleas on next Monday. The controversy arises from the supply of water through what is known in Harris township as "Roaring Branch" or "Shingletown Run" which flows through Hassan's gap in Tussey mountain a short distance south of Shingletown. Samuel H. Stover and William H. Stover, the plaintiffs in the case, are owners of a farm adjoining the town of Boalsburg on which there is a valuable spring of fresh water commonly known in the locality as "Blue Spring," which was used for household purposes and for watering stock, etc. It is claimed by the plaintiffs that the fountain head of this spring is "Roaring Branch," the waters of which they allege sink about a mile and a half south west of the Spring and by subterranean passages flow into it, and they complain that the defendants, Michael Hess, Newton Hess, Samuel Reel and Abraham Wirts have so diverted the waters of the run from their natural course that the Blue Spring has lost its supply of water to their serious damage. They say in their paper book that the defendants have at sundry times "within the past six years, obstructed and filled up the passages by which the said waters of said stream have been accustomed to sink, and of right should sink, into the earth as aforesaid, and have diverted the said waters from their natural subterranean passages and have conducted or attempted to conduct the same through artificial channels out of their natural course." The court is asked to restrain by injunction the defendants from thus diverting the waters of Roaring Branch from their natural course and also that an account be directed to be taken to ascertain the damages which the plaintiffs have sustained.

On the part of the defendants it is contended that Roaring Branch is not the source of Blue Spring and is not supplied directly or indirectly by the said stream. They assert that they have not in any way interfered with the natural channel in which the waters of the run have been accustomed to flow from time immemorial and say that the only persons who have done so are the plaintiffs themselves. They claim that the natural flow of the run from the mountain is in a northerly direction across the valley to Slab Cabin branch. They also deny that the sink into which the waters of the run has been turned has existed for any length of time.

There are direct and positive issues of fact between the parties and a number of witnesses will probably be called by both sides. Both plaintiffs and defendants are represented by able and experienced counsel and the argument in the case will no doubt attract considerable attention. A. O. Furst, D. S. Keller and D. H. Hastings, appear for the plaintiffs and D. F. Fortney and J. L. Spangler for the defendants. We understand that in the neighborhood of Boalsburg and Shingletown great interest is felt in the result of the controversy.

THE RE-USE OF POSTAGE STAMPS.—The Postoffice Department at Washington has for many years been endeavoring to find out some means of preventing the re-use of postage stamps that have once passed through the mails and served the purpose for which they were invented and for which they are furnished by the government. This desirable end is likely to be found in an invention lately made by a resident of this county. The Phillipsburg Journal says that Mr. Thomas A. Mays, a resident of that place has lately filed a caveat at Washington for an improvement in postage stamps which will effectually prevent persons from using old stamps to pay postage on their mail matter. It is said to be a common practice to take old stamps that have not been much injured by cancellation and, after cleaning them, to use them a second time, and it is estimated that the annual loss to the government by this practice is not less than two millions of dollars. The Journal says that "Mr. Mays' improvement guards against this practice of using a stamp more than once. The improvement is the simple addition of a coupon. The stamp remains unchanged, but Mr. Mays' idea is to have the coupon attached and when the stamp is to be placed on the envelope, the postmaster detaches the coupon. Therefore, when a man buys a stamp the coupon is attached and if presented at the post office without the coupon it is of no account. The invention of Mr. Mays is said by prominent officials to be a good thing and there is a possibility of his improvement being adopted."

THE LAST OF THE FAMILY.—The Lock Haven Democrat says: "The last member of the old family of Flemings, of which the late Judge Fleming, of this county, was the eldest, and Gen. Robert Fleming, late of Williamsport, and ex-Sheriff A. S. Fleming, late of this county, were members, died at Rumsey, Kentucky, on the 8th inst. He was born on the 31st of January, 1799, and removed from this locality to Kentucky in 1835, and has resided there ever since. He leaves a wife and two children. He retained his mind to the last, and was healthy until within the past two years."

The new advertisement of the Bee Hive one-price store in this week's paper will repay a careful perusal. Go to S. & A. Loeb for bargains in anything.

WAS IT MURDER?—At Lock Haven, on Saturday afternoon last, the dead body of a woman named Mrs. Maggie Sullivan was found at the foot of the stairs of the house in which she resided. At first it was supposed she had fallen down the stairs and received injuries which caused her death. Subsequent developments, however, gave rise to suspicion that she had been murdered by her husband—the post mortem examination showing that she had died from a fracture of the skull and that the wound appeared to have been inflicted by a blunt instrument of some kind. The Republican, of that city, says in relation to the matter that "her husband, Eugene Sullivan, who had been working in the woods, at Dougherty's camp, reached home on Friday night, and on Saturday morning went down town to get some money on an order he had; called at a number of places before returning, and about noon was seen by parties in the vicinity of his house. Both Sullivan and his wife had been drinking. Dr. J. F. Larimer, Robt. Peck, J. N. Sloan, C. F. Mann, A. F. Ryan and John Candor were empaneled as a jury, and testimony heard from a number of witnesses on Saturday afternoon, Sunday and Monday night. The inquest rendered a verdict of guilty, and Eugene Sullivan is now in our county jail. A post mortem examination was held by Drs. Larimer and Hayes. There is a long fracture of the skull on the left side of the head. A hammer was found with hair on the side of it. Sullivan was a quiet, peaceable man except when in liquor."

MARRIAGE BELLS.—The marriage of Mr. William Grauer and Miss Ida Newman, took place on Wednesday afternoon, and made the residence of the bride's mother, on Bishop street, the scene of a delightful gathering of relatives to witness the happy event. Mr. Grauer is a member of the well known mercantile firm of S. & A. Loeb, of Bellefonte, and of Wm. Grauer & Co., of Snow Shoe, and is an affable and popular young gentleman. The bride he has been fortunate enough to win is an accomplished and beautiful young lady, who has many admirers, and they start together in the bonds of matrimony with everything propitious for a happy future. The marriage ceremony was performed at five o'clock in the afternoon by Dr. Wurtzel, the Rabbi of the Hebrew congregation of Williamsport, after which the newly married couple took the evening train to make a somewhat extended wedding tour. The wedding was a very quiet affair, no one being present except the immediate relations of the bride and groom. Their many friends will sincerely wish that they may ever live under bright skies, and that they will go down the journey of life together in the full enjoyment of happiness and prosperity.

Two men, named Joseph Anderson alias Alonza Van Dyke, and John Cain, were brought from Phillipsburg on Tuesday and placed in jail. Anderson, alias Van Dyke, is charged with flourishing a revolver and threatening to kill a number of persons on the streets of Phillipsburg on last Monday. He was promptly arrested and confined to the borough lock up. During the night Cain was found making an effort to release Anderson by breaking the lock off the door. He was also arrested. Information was entered against both before a justice of the peace and in default of bail they were sent to the county prison.

Mr. Harry Devine, who learned the trade of a printer in the office of the old Centre Democrat, under S. T. Shugart, one of the proprietors of the present Democrat, died recently in Cambria county. He came from Lewistown to Bellefonte when a boy to enter the employ of Mr. Shugart, and went to Cambria county many years ago, where he continued to reside until his death. While living in Bellefonte he was a very steady and industrious young man.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heister of High street, have been called upon to mourn the death of their youngest son, George W., who died on Wednesday afternoon from scarlet fever. His age was two years and eleven months. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Heister will have the sympathy of many friends in this sorrowful affliction.

It is said that the Mill Hill furnace, under the skillful management of Captain Austin Curtin, is turning out a very superior quality of coke iron for which there is a ready market. We are glad to notice the success of this enterprise, and hope that it will always be remunerative to the parties interested in it.

The Penn's Valley hunters, who recently visited the Black Moshannon region for a ten days' hunt, returned home on last Saturday. We saw Squire Emerick, of Penn township, who was one of the party, and was informed that they were not very successful in killing deer. They succeeded in getting two.

When you buy anything of us you need not be afraid that you are paying more than your neighbor. We treat all alike. Lowest price for all. Lyon & Co.

ARE BEES A NUISANCE?—An unusual case is being tried in the Cumberland county court, that of testing by a jury whether the keeping of a large number of bees in a town or borough is a public nuisance or not. The case is from West Fairview, a small town on the opposite side of the river from Harrisburg. Two citizens had about one hundred and thirty skeps of bees, and as the summer was scarce of material such as the bees feed upon, they came in large numbers into the houses, stores, grape arbors, and wherever there was anything for them to feed upon. In one instance they swarmed into a neighbor's kitchen and were there for days, not being able to hive them, the queen being killed. They were especially bad about canning and preserving time, compelling the housewife to do her preserving in the evening, and in one instance the wife had to climb in and out of the window for days, not daring to open the doors, for the bees would go in by hundreds; persons were stung passing along the streets and highways; entire houses became infested with bees, so much so that the inmates could not retire to rest at night without being stung by the bees; trays of fruit put out for drying were entirely consumed. Indeed a reign of terror was experienced for several months, until a committee of citizens agreed to abate the nuisance, and after several efforts appealed to the court.

The defense claimed that the raising and keeping of bees was an industry and as such could not come under the head of a public nuisance, and that suit could not be brought nor damages recovered by the keeping of honey bees.

The attorneys on both sides presented the opinions of several judges and the law points in the case, after which the court decided the case should be tried and the testimony was received.

But one case seems to be on record in the State, and that was tried before Judge Pearson in Dauphin county some years ago, in which the defendant was adjudged guilty, had to pay a fine and abate the nuisance.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

LYCOMING INSURANCE COMPANY.—The report of J. A. Beeber, Esq., Receiver of the Locoming Fire Insurance Company of Muncy, was filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Lycoming county the other week. It showed the gross liabilities of the company to be $352,042.81; the assets $185,560.76. The premium notes amount to $875,019.78; cash in hands of Treasurer at time of appointment of Receiver, $12,382.69; cash since received by Receiver, $1,643.22. The deficit is $176,472.05—making an assessment of from 21 to 22 per cent. necessary. The court directed the Receiver to file a bond of $50,000 to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; also to report to court as soon as sufficient should be realized to pay 10 per centum of the liabilities, and to print his report as Receiver, already filed, together with the order of the court and the fact of the filing and approval of the bond, for the information of all concerned.

A detachment of Company B., of the Fifth Regiment National Guards of Pennsylvania, went to Johnstown this morning to participate in a shooting contest with members of Company H., of the same Regiment. The Bellefonte party consisted of Capt. Amos Mullen, Lieut. Harry Hale, Sergeant Geissinger, and Corporals Van Pelt and Gross. We hope the boys will bring home a good report of their skill as marksmen. They have already won laurels as expert "shooters" and they should endeavor to keep them green upon their noble bosoms.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, in the case of Dean & Sons, appeal, not yet published, has decided that when an incorporated fire insurance company is dissolved by a decree of a Court having jurisdiction, the policies outstanding, whether perpetual or limited policies, are cancelled, and any loss occurring after the date of dissolution is not protected by the policy. Parties insured in the Lycoming fire insurance company will do well to take notice of the law as decided in the above case.

We are deeply pained to announce that the dark shadow of death has again entered the house of our friend H. A. McPike, of the Cambria Freeman. Two weeks ago we announced the death of the eldest daughter of his family from that dreadful scourge, diphtheria; and now a young son, Willie, has passed to the unknown world from the same disease. We extend to our friend and his family our heartfelt sympathy and condolence in these grievous afflictions.

From the Millifinburg Telegraph we learn that "a jolly delegation of students from the Agricultural College of Centre county played the University students a game of foot ball on Saturday last, in which the latter were beaten. They were highly pleased with their kind treatment received and departed the town in the afternoon with pleasant memories of their Lewisburg friends."

ASHBURNHAM, Mass., Jan. 14, 1880.—I have been very sick over two years. They all gave me up as past cure. I tried the most skillful physicians, but they did not reach the worst part. The lungs and my heart would fill up every night and distress me and my throat was very bad. I told my children I never should die in peace until I had tried Hop Bitters. I have taken two bottles. They have helped me very much indeed. I am now well. There was a lot of sick folks here who have seen how they helped me, and they used them and are cured, and feel as thankful as I do that there is so valuable a medicine made. Mrs. JULIA G. CUSHING.

GREENWICH, February 1, 1880.—Hop Bitters Company—Sirs: I was given up by the doctors to die of scrofulous consumption. Two bottles of your bitters cured me. LEROY BREWER.
