BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES .- We coninue this week a few selections from Prof. Meyer's biographical sketches of the first settlers of Brush valley. Everything that relates to the pioneers of the county is interesting, and as we glance through the sketches of our friend the recollection of more than one old patriarch, of whose personal traits and characters we had learned years ago, was revived in our minds.

As a rule they were energetic, persevering, prudent, honest and God-fearing men, and they left a strong impression upon the settlements that grew from the beginning which they made :

CHRISTOPHER SPANGLER came origi nally from More township, Northampton county. He owned a farm east of New Berlin, Union county, and lived on it three years ; thence he removed to Brush valley in 1794 or 1795, and located on the place now owned by his son Jonathan Spangler. He bought a Mr. George Hoermer's interest in a lease for his tract and received his deed from Miles for it in 1708. which showed that it was leased in 1791 Other parcels were purchased subsequently His father-in-law, John Kryder, lived on the adjoining farm-now John Kreamer's and had come into the the valley several years before, probably in 1792. Mr Spangler built the stone house on the place which to-day is still a substantial building The subject of this sketch, Mr. Spanger, was a man of strong convictions moral, religious and political, and fearless ly carried them out, caring little for popular opinion. The Sabbath-breaker and the tippler slunk away at his approach ; the swearer and brawling bully subsided into silence as he passed ; all evil-doers dreaded his reproof. He was an intelligent man and a friend of education, taking a very decided stand in favor of the comnon school system when that question was submitted to a vote of the people. Mr Spangler belonged to the Lutheran church until about the year 1806, when he became a member of the Evangelical association (See churches.) There are a number of descendants in Miles and Potter townships, Centre county, and many in the west.

Children there were nine; Samuel and Jacob, who resided in Potter township, both deceased ; Jonathan, who lives at the old homestead,-to him the writer is indebted for much information on various subjects in this sketch ; Anna Maria, who was married to Conrad Hare ; Susan, who was married to Solomon Gerheart ; Magdalena, who was married to Jacob Weise Christina, who was the wife of Mr. -Evans; Esther, who was married to John Betts, and Rebecca, who was married to Jacob Kreamer. Mr. Spangler was born May 17, 1766, died Feb. 21, 1855, and is buried in the Lutheran and Reformed graveyard at Rebersburg.

Sometime after Christopher Spangles moved into the valley, his father George Christopher Spangler, originally from Prussia, came also and occupied the place now owned by Jacob Shultz. Here he died in 1802. Three of his other sons came about the same time, probably with him. They were Henry, who become a pioneer settler of Sugar valley near where Tylersville is now situated ; George, who went to Ohio ; Peter, who removed to Bald Eagle valley somewhere about Eagleville, thence to Ohio; another son, John, settled along the Sinnamahoning

PAUL WOLF purchased in 1811 from Tobias Pickle the mill property and large tract of land lying north across the valley known later as the John Forster property, containing nearly four hundred acres and now divided up into several separate farms. The amount paid for the whole was ten thousand three hundred (10,300) pounds. (Pennsylvania currency.) In the following year Mr. Pickle brough back a small plot for a burial ground. Mr. Wolf was a native of Bethel township, Berks county, his father and Colonel Henry Royer's father lived on adjoining farms there. But after his marriage Paul Wolf moved to his father-in-laws in Bethel township, Lebanon county, thence to Brush valle in 1812. He soon was extensively engaged in business in his new home, keeping store, and operating a grist mill, saw mill, fulling mill, oil mill and distillery. The last

JACOB WOLF, son of Paul noticed in the preceding sketch, was born Jan. 26, 1801, died Oct. 6, 1853. Children : William. President of the Pennsvalley Banking ompany, Centre Hall; Catharine, married to Daniel Bartges ; Henry G., merchant at Mifflinburg, Union county ; John, living on the old J. Nicholas Gast farm, ne of the county commissioners; elect Ge rge,'dec'd; Franklin B. was chaplain of the 94th Ill. Regt. during the late war died while in service ; Edward J., Professor in Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg; Sarah A., wife of Daniel Zeigler; Simon P , formerly merchant.

JOHN ADAM SCHAEFFER (Captain) migrated into Centre county in 1801, and urchased Valentine Ertle's interests in a ase for the tract on which his son John A. Schaeffer now lives-east of Madison burg half a mile. Part of a barn which he erected in 1804 is still standing and used. Mr. Schaeffer was a soldier in the Revolutionary war with the rank of Captain. What battles his company was in could not be ascertained. Philip Meyer. also an early settler, had belonged to his ompany. Captain Schaeffer was a man of Herculean frame and strength, but ever abusive. It is said he was the strongest man in his company and Philip Meyer the best wrestler. He and Nicho las Schaeffer were brothers ; was born in Barks county, Oct. 31, 1752, died Jan. 14, 1840, lies buried in the Lutheran and Reormed graveyard at Madisonburg. Children : George; Michael, ex-Sheriff Schaeffer's father ; John A., born Nov. 22, 1796 ; Jacob ; Samuel. Some of the older boys vere grown to maturity when the family ame to the valley. Samuel and John A. are still living; the latter is eighty-five, and gave a number of these items. The daughters are all dead. They were Catha rine, Barbara, Lizzie, Eva and Magdalens.

The Schaeffers of Madisonburg and vicinity are descendants of Captain John A. Schaeffer. There are some living in Nittany valley, and some in the western

ROADS AND BRIDGES .- At the last term court the following road and bridge ases were considered and disposed of by the judges on the bench :

Petition of citizens of Penn township etting forth that the public road between Greninger's store and Benjamin Kerstet. ter's saw mill in said township is badly located and burdensome by reason of its crossing Penns creek, which requires expensive bridging. THE GLASS WORKS .-- The trouble be ween the employes and the management of the Bellefonte Glass Works, which caused a suspension of work for some days, we are glad to say has been arranged in s satisfactory manner, and the works will resume operations to-day. After remaining long in idleness these works were started up a few weeks ago, as supposed, under favorable auspices and with a fair prospect of suc-cess. It was rather a discouraging sign that operations should be suspended so soon. It appears that last week there was no money to pay the employes and the conse quence was a strike and a closing up of the concern. We understand from Mr Davis, who has been the active manager here, that this unfortunate state of affairs was in no way attributable to him. He has fulfilled every obligation and promise which he made when he under-

THE RETIRING ASSOCIATE JUDGES .-The Hon. Samuel Franck, of Reber-burg, and the Hon. John Diven, of Walker township, occupied their places upon the judicial bench of Centre county last week for the last time at a regular term of court. Their commissions will expire with the present year, and as they give way to others it is a matter of justice to say of them that they deserve high commendation for the able and dignified manner in which they have performed every duty that devolved upon them during the five years they filled the honorable office of Associate Judge. All their official acts have been marked by impartiality, prudence and sound judgment, and in their retirement they will bear with them the respect, esteem and good will of the President and Associate Law Judges of the court, of the members of the bar, and of every citizen of the county who has had an opportunity to note their course upor the bench. Judge Franch is an active successful business man and we presume will now give his entire attention to his mercantile interests. Judge Diven is a farmer, and will devote himself to that pursuit. To both we wish many years of good health and prosperity. -Gunners often make misjakes in trespassing on the premises of farmers and others in quest of game. Many gunners seem to forget the law relative to this matter. For the benefit of this class of people and as instructions for farmers we make use of a charge of Judge Ross, of Montgomery county, to a jury on this subject No man has the right to go upon the premises of another, whether for gunning or for other purposes, without the consen of the owner, and every person so doing i. a tre-passer. Although it is customary for persons to enter upon the grounds of others for the purpose of fishing, nutting and gunning, yet they have no right to do it without the consent of the owner. Being a trespasser he must get off the premises, if directed, and must not stand upon their going. He must move off as fast as he can, but need not run. If he refuses to go the owner can use as much force as is necessary to put him off even if t result in the death of the offender, but lutely "necessary," -We understand that the Bellefoten orchestra assisted by quite a number of thers, intend giving a concert in the Presbyterian church in Milesburg, in sid of the parsonage fund, on Thursday, Dec. 23. As this is for a worthy object, we hope it will be well patronized by our ou dare not use more force than is abso.

-Christmas is coming and persons who have purchases to make for the little ones should not fail to call at the store of Mr. J. H. Sands, on Allegheny street. Mr. Sands now has on exhibition the most complete and extensive stock of holiday goods, toys, etc., ever seen in Bellefonte. His store is a veritable curiosity shop and is well worth a visit if only to see and admire the extent and variety of his display. He has also a full stock of the finest con fectione: i s, and can supp'y every demands that are made upon him

-A clergyman was once sent for in the middle of the night by a lady of his congregation. "Well, my good woman, so yes are very ill and require the con tion of religion." "No," said the old lady. "I'm nervous and can't sleep, and you always put me to sleep so nicely when I go to church that I want you to preach to me." The good lady was no doubt suffering from indigestion or some billous de-rangement, which could have been easily corrected by a dose of Green's Liver Pills.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. Jan. 21, 1879. GENTLEMAN :- Having been afflicted for a number of years with indigestion and general debility, by the advice of my marked in plain figures, which is the doctor I used Hop Bitters, and must say absolute price. If we are crowded you

-We have been requested to announce that a festival for the benefit of the Lutheran congregation of Centre Hall, will be held in that place, commencing on Friday evening, December 30, and to continue on Saturday and Monday after the opening. The affair will be under the direction of the younger members of the congregation and as the proceeds are for a worthy object, it should receive a liberal patronage.

-The best circumstance that can occur a citizen of Centre county is for him to visit the store of Sechler & Co., this place. When once in the store he becomes lost in admiration of the beautiful stock of groceries, and always afterwards buys his s groceries at that establishment, greatly to the advantage of his purse and health.

-The Philadelphia Branch store is always stocked with such goods as are most in demand among Centre county people.

CIRCULAR.

All who have kindly visited my store in the last few days say that the display exceeds any of my former efforts in this direction. This is certainly very satisfactory, for I know that my stock for the last few holiday seasons has not been excelled in this or any of our neighboring towns. It requires little effort to select goods for a trade which regards prices as a secondary conside. ration, but when you cater to customers who are very exact and critical in their tastes (as mine are), but who don't feel like submitting to exorbitant and outrageous prices merely to confirm an idea that because an article costs a large sum it must necessarily be fine. It is a somewhat difficult matter. I have sought, and I think I have succeeded in being able to place before my customers a line of holiday goods which will satisfy the most exacting, and still be within the reach of all as far as the prices are concerned. Don't you think that Twenty-fice Dollars for a Lady's Gold Watch is a popular price ? (No 10 or 12 karat watch, with plated cap either.) These are very few people outside of the trade who can tell a 10 from a 14 karat watch, a plated cap from a solid gold one. But wait till they are worn a while then it takes a good judge to tell whether they are gold of any kind or not. You likely never saw as complete an assortment of Bracelets as I can show you, ranging from two to fifty dollars a pair. In Chains I have more than the combined stock in the county. In Rings I can supply Gentlemen, Ladies, Misses. Boys, Children and Infants. In silver-plated Spoons, Forks, &c., I keep none but the highest grades. I sell no single-plated goods. Every thing engraved in the best manner free of charge. I have some elegant Glove, Handkerchief and Jewel Boxes, Bread, Fruit and Cracker Trays for twenty five cents. If you think of presenting a pair of nice gloves would it not be worth a quarter to have a fine box for them? If sent by mail enclose one 3-cent stamp extra ; if a handkerchief box two 3-cent stamps extra. I have Mustache and Plain Cups from 25 cents to $2.50; some splendid ones for 50 to 75 cents, and every thing else in the same proportion. Call and see me, or rather my goods, which are all my goods, which are all did much to build up the large demand of this very superior grade of clothing.

-We don't bait you on one thing-give you one article less than cost and charge you double for the next. You can buy with confidence of us. All goods marked in plain figures. Lyon & Co.

-That perfect baking and cooking stove, the "Pioneer," is for sale only by Wilson, McFariane & Co. All superfluous ornamentation has been dispensed with to se cure a first-class kitchen stove. For weight, strength and durability it cannot be surpassed. In purchasing this stove you are not paying for nickle trimmings and beautiful finish, but you are getting what is far better and what you need in a good cook stove-a good, reliable baker and cook.

-The largest stores, that do the largest business in the city, and that have the confidence of everybody ; mark their goods in plain figures and sek only the lowest price from the start, and that is just the way we do. Lyon & Co.

-The anniversary of the Y. M. C. A. will be held next Sunday evening, Dec. 18th, in the M. E. Church. Reports of the work will be rendered by the officers. Addresses will be delivered by Gen. Beaver, Rov. S. A. Taggart, State Secretary, and the new general secretary of nte. The pastors of the town will take part in the devotional exercises rs of the choirs of the different churches will lead the singing. The com-bined Gospel Hymns will be used. Come three named were situated on his land near Shroyer's gap at the foot of Nittany moun tain. These have long since disappeared. His store was kept in his dwelling house the old stone house at Centre Mills. Mr. Wolf was for a number of years a Justice of the Peace, and his name is frequently met with in old deeds and documents of other kinds. He was an enterprising citizen and as a man universally esteemed.

He had brought a large amount of money into the valley, but becoming involved in debt to some extent through his various business enterprises, and dying at a time of financial depression, his large estate had to be sold at a great sacrifice and very little remained after the liabilities were

Mr. Wolf was born July 30, 1772; died June 6, 1822. The funeral rites on the oc casion of his burial were the first religious exercises in the Brick church at Rebersburg The church was then not finished but was dedicated soon after. Mr. Wolf leaves a numerous train of descendants, most of whom reside in Centre and Union counties. He had seven children : Jacob (see b-low); Paul died Dec. 22, 1866, aged sixty-two. George died about the year 1835, aged twenty-eight; Catharine, married to J. A. Gast; Sarah, married to George Malhey; Margaret, married to Henry Freese, and Mary died single. Hon. S. S. Wolf (son of Paul, Jr.,) was a ndson of Paul Wolf.

Howard township, beginning at a small bridge near the residence of Solomon Tice and thence to vacate said road as far as the sand bank of J. B. and R. C. Leathers David Pletcher, Joseph Royer and John A. Woodward appointed viewers.

Petition of citizens of Gregg township for a county bridge over Penn's creek near the residence of Henry Krumrine, on the road leading from Spring Mills to Georges valley, and asking the court to appoint viewers to view the site proposed for said bridge, and to inquire whether it is necessary and would be too expensive for the township to build. S. D. Ray, D. Z. Kline and D. W. Woodring appointed viewers.

The following reports of viewers were also presented for the action of the court : Public road in Benner township, near the residence of Michael Meyers. Viewers report that said road is not necessary and report was confirmed nisi.

Public road in Howard township, from Perry Long's to Solomon Tice. Viewers report that they deemed it improper at the present time to lay out the road either for public or private use, and the report was confirmed nise. Bridge across Moshannon creek on the public highway to Clearfield county, near the property of Captain Grove, between the township of Rush in Centre county, and the township of Morris in Clearfield county. Viewers report that the bridge at said point had been carried away by high water within the past year, and that it should be replaced, but would be too expensive for the townships of Rush and Morris to bear, and they reccommend that | ment which the members of that congre it be rebuilt and maintained at the joint gation have made to their elegant church expense of Centre and Clearfield counties.

ook to start up the works. The fault seems to have been with those who were to furnish the working capital. They failed to come to time with the funds and the employes did not feel like working on empty promises. Now that the difficulty in regard to money has been overcome, we trust the works will continue for a long time in successful operation. The quality of glass made cannot be excelled anywhere and should command a ready sale in the markets of the country.

P. S. Just as we go to press we learn that new difficulties have arisen at the glass works, and that all is again at sea.

-We are requested by Col. James Gilliland to announce that he will remain in Centre county for a number of weeks for the purpose of giving personal attention to important business in which he is interest ed. During his stay in the county his post office address will be Bellefonte. Per sons who desire to communicate with him can address him secondingly.

-A handsome iron fence in front of the Episcopal church is the latest improvedoctor I used Hop Bitters, and must say they afforded me almost instant relief. 1 can wait on yourself. am glad to be able to testify in their behalf. THOS. G. KNOX.

-The largest stock of dolmans from $5.50 up to $25; the largest stock of la dies' coats from $2.25 to $15; the largest stock of children's coats, light and dark and all marked in plain figures at only the lowest price we can afford to take, at Lyon & Co.'s.

-Men who have smoked cigars in every part of the world, and know all there is to know about the grand art of smoking, pronounce Harry Green's cigars equal to the best.

-We have given the exclusive agency to Lyon & Co. for the sale of Elkin's cele brated fine shoes, every pair of which we guarantee. They are of the finest stock and workmanship, and we will make our guarantee good if any pair does not give M. ELKIN & Co. satisfaction.

WINTON, FORSYTH Co., N. C. WINTON, FORSYTH Co., N. C.
