-Strong men, weak ladies, persons of all classes, grades and conditions gracefully succumbed to the wonderful attraction of slippy sidewalks, during the late unpleasantness. Jack Frost does crack som capital jokes, and the tall form of a certain legal gentleman flattened out perceptibly as he warmly embraced mother earth in the neighborhood of the First National Bank on Friday afternoon. Sweet was the expression of his fage, as to enable him to look around for witnesses of his rapid descent, he "Perch'd and sat and nothing more."

-Austin J. Brumgard, an esteemed and respectable citizen of Nittany Valley, died at his residence in Salona on last Friday at the age of 36 years, [1 month and 3 days. The funeral of the deceased took place on last Sunday and was attended, it is said, by the largest gathering that ever assembled in the Lutheran church of Salona. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Diven, from the words of the sacred psalmist, "Mark the perfect man and behold the upright; the end of that man is peace." Mr. Brumgard filled a prominent place in society, was a sincere and consistent Christian, devoted to the church of his choice, and was also an active and faithful member of the I. O. of O. F. He was a son of John Brumgard, formerly of Brush Valley, and leaves a wife and one child to mourn his early demise.

-The Blair county newspapers of this week announce the death of Col. John Halfpenny, which sad event occurred at his residence at Bellwood on last Sunday. Mr. Halfpenny at one time lived at Oak Hall, in this county, where he was engaged in the woolen factory at that place, and had many Centre county friends who will learn of his death with extreme sorrow. He went to Blair county many years ago and became a prominent and valuable citizen of that county. He was seventy-three years old, and served two terms as a County Commissioner, his second term of three years expiring on the Monday previ-aus to his death. We are not certain that aus to his death. We are not certain that he did not while a young man live for a short time at Millheim, where, with his brothers, he was also engaged in the factory business. SOCIABLE .- The sociable given by the adies of the Reformed church, on Tuesday evening, in the lecture room of the Y. M. C. A., consisting of charades, dialogues tableaux and music, was very largely attended. The audience went away very much pleased with the entertainment-in fact all present expressed themselves as fully satisfied with what they had seen and heard. Time and space will not allow us to give a very full account of the performance, but part of the programme deserves special mention. The most hearty applause was given to Miss Carrie Harper, a little daughter of our friend William Harper, and her attendants, who performed "Old Mother Goose," Carrie as "Old Mother" was excellent. The character could not have been represented in a better manner. Her attendants who represented 'Simple Simon," "Mary's Little Lamb," the "Man in the Moon," and other characters, all played their parts well and without making a single error. The tableau, entitled "Army and Navy," was represented by Miss Minnie Shaffer as the Goddess of Liberty. At her right was Master John Bower who represented the army. while at her left was Master Willie Magee, who represented the navy, both dressed in the full uniform of army and navy officers. A dialogue, embracing five scenes, entitled "Lost Charley, or the Gypsie's Revenge," was performed with credit. Maizy Harper, as "Old Drue" kidnapped Charley with so much ease that one is led to believe that she has had some experience in the business, or has spent some time in practicing. Ceasar, the darkey, could have passed off as the genuine article. The programme concluded with a tableau, entitled "Rock of Ages." It was represented by Miss Sallie Hoffer, who was dressed in pure white and appeared with her arms clinging to a cross the choir singing in a soft and subdued tone the beautiful hymn from which the tableau takes its name. It was a touching and beautiful picture. This was the last, but by no means the least appreciated scene of the performance. The music was excellent and greatly enjoyed. The ladies under whose direction and management this sociable was given deserve com mendation for the refined and elegant taste and good judgment with which it was carried out. The proceeds of the affair, a sum realized from a collection taken during the evening, will go to the

THE LUMBER TRADE. -The Williams. port Gazette and Bulletin lays before its readers an elaborate review of the report of Lumberman's Exchange, of that city for the year 1881, from which we take the following extract, which may be of interest to many persons in Centre county en gaged in the lumber business:

gaged in the lumber business:

"The past year has been one of the big years in the lumber operations of Williamsport. Notwithstanding the late spring, and the subsequent break of the boom by which many logs escaped, the showing of the year is a very large one, and our lumbermen have had a highly prosperous season. The open fall has permitted corrections to continue to an united corrections. mitted operations to continue to an un-usually late period, so that the logs have not only all been rafted out of the boom but, with few exceptions, the different mills have cut up all their stock. It was mills have cut up all their stock. It was stated at the beginning of the season, that the total stock intended for cutting during the year would not fall short of 400,000,000 feet. It is now seen that, counting the logs that escaped, Williamsport's stock for the year is at least 350,000,000 feet. The stock has been cut up close, it being estimated that not to exceed 5,000,000 feet remain in the basins. Not for years have the banks of the river been so nearly clear of logs. The stock of manufactured lumber on hand will be considerably in excess the banks of the stock of manufactured lumber on hand will be considerably in excess of what it was last year. The total shipments for the year, were 231,068,000 feet, an increase of 58,913,000 feet from the preceding year's showing. The stock on hand ceding year's showing. The stock on hand at the beginning of 1881 was 101,747,798 feet. The probability is that the stock now on hand is at least 200,000,000 feet.

Preparations are being made for putting in a good stock this season, and it is believed that a heavier stock will be put in than for last year, owing to the fact that there is no old stock on hand."

-The recently elected officers of Gregg Post, G. A. R., to serve during the present year, were mustered into office at a meeting of the Post held on last Saturday evening. Post Commander, Dr. T. S. Christ, of Robert M. Foster Post, College township, officiated on the occasion as mustering officer.

-All who got their holiday groceries at Sechlers, found they got the very best, whether in sugar, coffee, tea, dried or canned fruits, hams, dried beef, confectioneries, or other articles in the grocery line. We wish to say that this grade of goods is not only kept during the holidays, but all the year round at Sechlers. They do nothing on the catch principle, but are fair and square in their goods and dealings every day in the year.

-Our esteemed contemporary, the Centre Hall Reporter, last week gave its readers the following item of information in reference to the Millheim contested election case for a justice of the peace for that borough, which has for some time been pending in court :

"The Milheim justice case has at last been decided by the court. The court de-cides John H. Reifsnyder elected by nine majority over F. P. Musser. This case has been in court some two years.'

This statement of the Reporter is incorrect in two particulars. First, the court has not yet rendered a decision in the case, and it is therefore still pending. Second, the case has not been in the court two years; it will only be one year in February since the election out of which it grew was held

-The communication that appeared in our sprightly little contemporary, the Daily News on Monday, deserves a passing notice, as it touches upon a matter in which all have an interest, the Institute. Whether or not the complainant is sincere in the exposition of his convictions we of course do not know, but a casual analysis of his piece would indicate & desire on his part to retaliate on account of some imag inary grievance and the manner in which he pours out upon the devoted heads of the supporters of the Institute his vial of wrath betrays a weakness that we are sorry any one of our teachers should be troubled with. Permit us, Mr. X., to prescribe : attendance at Institute-10 sessions, attention during the sessions-3 hours, of candid desire to improve yourself-all you can find, (omit fault-finding, caviling and bullheadedness, as these elements detract from the efficacy of the restorative.) Shake well and take once a year. We have it from persons well versed in educational matters of our county that the last Institute totally eclipsed all previous ones, inasmuch as all teachers were paid for coming and the attendance 86 per cent., was never excelled. The good results are attributable to the untiring efforts of the teachers as a body. We doubt that one really in earnest and having the good of the cause in view would prate as does this penny wise and pound

SPRING MILLS ITEMS .- Installation .-On last Saturday, M. Leonard Rhone, Worthy Grand Master of the State Grange of Pa., P. of H. assisted by Sister Rhone, installed the following officers of Spring Mills Grange No. 158:

Several Gregg township teachers did not attend Institute. They should show more zeal in the great work in which they are engaged. However, they have the satisfaction of knowing that no one can accuse them of belonging to either the "book pilferers" or "stimulus imbibers" so flerce ly anathamatized by our worthy Superintendent. In your extract from the Teacher's Journal, no mention is made of the fact that a copy of Webster's Counting stolen from the table of Mr. Scott, the gentlemanly agent of Iveson, Blakeman & Co. Mr. Scott said he considered it a compliment to his books, that teachers were so anxious to have them and being too poor to purchase they would steal them. But Oh, what a burning disgrace to the teachers profession, is the fact that within its ranks are men whose crimes would send them to prison. Is he agreater criminal who steals $3 in money from his employer's till than the sneak thief who pilfers a $3 book?

Since my last Centre Hall has had a fire, but I suppose the Reporter has given you full particulars of the occurrence.
