

STATE NEWS.

James Armstrong, of Carlisle, has a bureau that was built in 1777 from wood cut in Cumberland county.

Joseph H. Chase, a pioneer and well known citizen of Scranton, died on last Sunday after a lingering illness.

Five men were captured near Bethlehem a few nights ago who had taken 60 firkins of butter from a Lehigh Valley car.

The paper works of Cox & Dager, at Bridgeport, Montgomery county, are turning out a ton of manilla paper daily.

The Washington Reporter states that Joseph Chain, of Philadelphia, has purchased 3500 acres of coal land at Fredericktown, Washington county.

The Phoenix Coal Company of Pittston is sinking a shaft, and at a depth of 180 feet has struck three veins of coal, none of which are less than 4 feet in thickness.

Hiram Bleim, of Hickorytown, Montgomery county, has twenty-two daughters and two sons. He has married off all the girls, but the boys are single. Mr. Bleim is 79 years old and is a widower.

In an interview Rev. Father Grace, of Pittsburgh, stated that at the late conference of the Catholic clergy of the diocese it was decided that absolution hereafter should be refused to members of the Knights of Labor.

The Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company are erecting works for the preparation of the small sizes of coal. It is contended that at least 20 per cent. now lost in the preparation of these sizes will be saved by the new works.

James Graham, a farmer of large means mysteriously disappeared from Cranberry township, Butler county, early last month. His dead body was recently discovered in a river near Richmond, Va. He is supposed to have drowned himself while temporarily insane.

The Pittsburgh papers state that the financial troubles of the Siemens-Anderson Iron Company have been satisfactorily adjusted. The employees of the works (750 in number) have asked to be allowed to do a month's work free to assist the company in getting on its feet.

George Cartwright, a puddler, of Sharon, Penn., was badly maimed a few days ago by the explosion of a shell among some scrap-iron which he and others were breaking up. Another man who was standing almost immediately over the shell, watching Cartwright, escaped unhurt.

The state temperance convention, in session at Harrisburg, adjourned on last Friday, after adopting resolutions, one of which declares that their "first effort shall be the election of members of the legislature in 1882 favorable to the submission of the constitutional amendments" against liquor.

A general strike is threatened by the bituminous coal miners of Westmoreland county. They have been demanding increase of wages and complaining against existing rules in the management of the pits for some time. Work is largely interfered with and a general suspension is not improbable.

The Edgar Thompson Steel Works at Braddock's has just finished remodeling its furnaces, so as to use the basic process of making steel from cinder. The exclusive right to this process was purchased for $250,000 cash some time ago by the American Bessemer Steel Association through Andrew Carnegie, and is now put to practical use for the first time in this country.

The statement of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad and coal and iron companies for December, which begins the fiscal year, shows that the total receipts of the railroad company for the month were $1,850,888.73; expenses, including rentals and interest, $990,277.42. The gross receipts of the coal and iron company were $1,380,788.55, and the expenses, including interest, $1,313,557.22. The profit of both companies for the month was $937,542.54 against $937,085.89 as compared with December, 1880.

A shocking affair occurred at the Hampton mines, on the outskirts of Scranton, last Friday morning. William Cook, who was stricken by small pox a few days ago, was dying. His wife and babe were in the same room on the ground floor. Mrs. Cook placed a lighted candle in the hand of her husband and then knelt by his bedside to pray. No one had visited the house for days. Overcome by fatigue she fell asleep and when the candle had spent itself it burned through the rigid fingers of the dying man, setting the bed clothes on fire. Mrs. Cook started up, but fainting on the floor at the sight. A crowd of neighbors gathered at the window outside and looked in, but wouldn't venture across the threshold of the plague-stricken house. At last two men more courageous than the rest arrived at the house, burst open the door and carried out the suffocating mother and child. Then the body of Cook was removed and presented a frightful spectacle, the flesh dropping from the bones. The fire was extinguished with difficulty. Mrs. Cook has so far recovered as to tell the particulars of the unhappy affair. She says she had not slept for several days before the occurrence and was completely worn out for lack of rest when she knelt to pray beside her husband. They were German Catholics and the lighted candle was placed in the hand of the husband as a symbol of the immortal light toward which the soul was going.

From the Crawford Journal, Rep.

The "306" bid fair to all become famous—especially Pennsylvania's contribution to that noble band. General Rally, one of them, has been elected Treasurer of Pennsylvania. General Beaver, another of them, is the boss' choice for Governor. Mr. Mount, one of our Don's most faithful adherents at Chicago, in Philadelphia last week pleaded guilty to the charge of fraud at election and was sent to the penitentiary.

SWEDISH BITTERS.

THE GREAT Swedish Dyspepsia Remedy! The chief ingredient and life giving element of this great remedy is an herb commonly known as bitter-melons although but very rarely found in this country, excepting in the extreme Northwest. It is gathered in profuse abundance by the Laplanders in the bleak and snow-clad mountains of Norway and Sweden, and in connection with other ingredients, been used among themselves exclusively for years as one of the greatest remedies for Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Complaint that has ever been known. In placing this preparation before the American public we candidly believe that we have filled a long felt want, by giving a medicine that will not only temporarily relieve, but will positively cure Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Complaint, and all their various effects, such as Sour Stomach, Sick Headach, Pains in the side and Back, Palpitation of the Heart, Constipation, Indigestion, Yellow Skin, Swelling of the Head, Fulness at Pit of Stomach, Low Spirits, &c. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Ask your druggist for a Bottle and be convinced. Price, 75 cents. 27
