The Centre Democrat.

Thursday Morning, January 26, 1882.

CORRESPONDENCE, containing important news, solicited from any part of the county. No communication neerted unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Local Department.

-Is your arm sore? -For Chronic Catarrh, take PERUNA. I have tried it. J. HEBBLING, Allegheny

-If you are deaf, cars run, and have catarrh, take PERUNA. I have tried it.

C. D. WILEY, Houghton, Pa. -Graybill & Co., 420 Market street, Philadelphia, have secured the services of Mr. C. U. Hoffer as salesman.

-Subscribe for the CENTRE DEMOCRAT, the largest, best, most genteel and cheapest paper published in Centre county.

-Eighty-three new members have been added to the membership list of the M. E. Church. The revival still continues with unabated interest.

-The young men's meeting and service of song, held on Sunday in the room of the Y. M. C. A., was well attended, and agreeably led by Mr. W. I. Fleming.

- The Howard musical association under the leadership of Prof. Weirick, gave a concert at that place on Saturday evening, which we hear spoken of as a very creditable affair.

-Cheap milk in Bellefonte is a reality at last, and they, who have any occasion to use lactiferous spoils drawn from vaccine dugs, had better negotiate with Mr. Brooks for its purchase.

-The neat little hat worn by Mr. J. H. Kreamer, of Millheim, was most gracefully tipped in deference to the sanctity of the DEMOCRAT sanctum on Saturday last. John, you are always welcome. Come again.

-We are all more or less subject to coughs and colds at this season-if you should be afflicted with either remember that Sines' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound is the quickest and most effectual cure.

-Mr. A. A. Dale is singularly unfortunate, scarcely had his disabled foot recovered its wonted spryness until his nose became unruly. On Sunday he carried that useful, classical member in a sling, and recommended the same cure for bad beadaches.

-Prof. J. Willard Miller occupied the Methodist pulpit on Thursday evening last. Our young friend bids fair to make his mark in the world, for his sermon on that occasion was not only a scholarly effort, but had in it much of the soul-stirring enthusiasm of our Methodistic brethren.

-Mr. G. Haag's new mill at Pleasant Gap is now running and almost ready for the manufacture of flour. The millwright, Mr. T. J. Decker, can justly feel proud of the superior manner in which he succeeded in getting things in order. He was ably assisted by a Mr. Jobson and one or two others.

-Rev. John Stine, the pastor in charge of Howard circut, is holding a very successful protracted meeting at Curtin's, and at its close will begin one at Howard. Mr. Stine is one of the old standbys in the conference, and we are glad to learn that he is well liked and is meeting with success in his new field.

-An exceedingly unfortunate occurrence was the falling of the high steeple of the Lutheran church at Centre Hall, on Sunday last, during the prevalence of the high wind blowing at that time. It struck the rear of Mr. Wm. Wolf's ware house, doing much damage. Several ladies had just passed the place of disaster and now think they had a narrow escape.

-Blind Charley, a musical prodegy, is to appear at the M. E. Church at Pleasant Gap, on Friday and Saturday evening next, in an entertainment to be given for the benefit of the church. This will doubtless be an enjoyable occasion, and the presence of Charley who performs three different pieces of music in different keys at one time, should of itself draw a good audience. All are invited. The admission will be 25 cents for adults, and children 15 cents.

-Why don't the borough authorities by a pronunciamento put a stop to the reckless coasting on our streets? A poor unprotected biped has little or no show when suddenly confronted by a red streak of greased lightning bearing upon its varnished back a mischievous urchin, and the consequence, a chaotic mass of pedestrian, aled and wrathful boy, is sufficient to arouse the ire of the most evenly tempered among us. Such collisions always result in the discomfiture of the lone traveller. and sometimes in the descending gamin being most effectually chastised.

-A special agent of the N. Y. L. E. & W. R. R. has been here to inspect the specimen car built by the company doing business in this place, and officially declared the car, which is of the gondola style, to be the most perfect and in every respect the most satisfactory he ever examined. The works opened up on Monday morning with a full force-three hundred men-and if any reliance is to be placed in the favorable appearance now worn, we predict a prosperous future for our friends. It affords us no little pleasure to record this undoubted evidence of good times coming, and trust no more idle seasons such as the late one may trouble them, the best remedy for coughs and colds I The men seem contented and speak well of have ever used. I found it especially nice the manner in which they are treated by for children. J. D. SOURBECK, their employers.

-A neat little circular, a copy of which we append, has been issued by the Y. M. C. A. of this place: Directory of the churches in Bellefonte, compiled by the Young Men's Christian Association, for the information of persons who are spending the Sabbath in Bellefonte, at any one of which they will receive a cordial wel-

This card accompanies the directory :-To the Usher: The bearer is a stranger in Bellefonte. Your usual courtesies will be appreciated by the Young Men's Chris-

-Miss Fushay, a member of the Society of Friends, who is an evangelistic laborer in the vineyard of Him who doeth all things well, exhorted at the evening service in the M. E. Church on Sunday. is totally blind, ever has been, and has no assurance that she will ever be permitted to look upon the faces of those she loves As a speaker she is fluent, and the manner of her delivery is touching. Her dissertation was addressed chiefly to those not connected with any church, and so pathetic was the story she told that many in the audience were moved to tears. We feel better for having listened to her and hope she may continue long in the service of her Master.

-No town of which we have any knowledge is the fortunate possessor of more beautiful ladies than our own. We are can censure us for not only mentioning the fact, but appealing to the fair daughters of as a bearded Benedict. Eve to see to it that the lovely faces be but the outward indexes of beautiful hearts, pure thoughts and true nobility of characthe question, what shall be the condition of society in which we move? You can by a proper regard for ordinary conventionalities of refined society, establish for yourselves a code of regulations that will have a tendency to purify the social atmosphere all around you, and transmit to you a supremacy you can attain in no other way. Consider no one an intimate friend whom you would blush to present to your mother as one worthy her confidence and love. Treat those who fail to come up to the standard of morals contained in the Bible, with the same genteel consideration you would a partial stranger; and they, whom you see fit to shower the wealth of your regard upon, will appreciate all the more the favor you have conferred. Let your daily walk and conversation be such as to warrant the respect of all, and believe us it will be cheerfully and promptly ac corded.

-I have used Green's Comp. Syrup of Tar, Honey and Bloodroot in my family for several years, and can reommend it as Bellefonte, Feb. 22, '81.

PERSONAL .- Our dædal friend, Prof. W. F. Smith, of Penn township, looked in upon us on Tuesday evening. Webster's dictionary afforded him some amusement Utopia in his estimation.

-Seldom is the gloom hanging over our devoted heads dispelled by the presence of fair ladies, as it was on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Win Wagner, accompanied by her friend Miss Mollie Powers, looked all over the office, and seemed disappointed because there are no closets to be looked into.

-Constable Jackson Gorton, of Philips burg, swelled our emaciated wallet to the tune of a year's subscription yesterday, and will be properly and promptly informed of all that may occur during the coming year.

-Wm. J. Marshall, Fitchburg, Mass., has been secured to deliver his lecture 'An Evening in Wonderland, and the Yellowstone National Park." before the members of the Y. M. C. A. and its friends. The date has not been announced. Mr. Marshall is in possession of flattering recommendations from Dr. J. G. Holland, Dr. O. W. Holmes, Wm. Cullen Bryant, the Emperor of Brazil, Rev. H. W. Beecher and many others.

-Prof. D. M. Wolf, county superintendent, held a special examination of teachers at his office on Saturday.

-Dr. J. F. Harter, of Millheim, paid his respects to the DEMOCRAT office on Tuesday morning.

-Mr. James Sample of Pine Grove Mills, has been a traverse juryman this week. We have not been able to ascertain that his services in that capacity were needed any more than those of the junior editor of the DEMOCRAT.

-A large number of commercial gentlemen have given friends in Bellefonte the pleasure of gazing upon their beaming ountenances during the past week. Among those whom we have noticed upon our streets we can recall J. W. Pennington. generally called the governor, Maj. Geo. D. Pifer, Jas. H. Young, C. D. Kellee, J. H. Hahn, and Harry Van Horn. We do not doubt that their many business friends were glad to meet them.

-Dr. Kirk has been busy for some time vaccinating his friends and says he can scarcely secure points with which to do it fast enough. Doc uses only the most poisonous virus, and generally succeeds in doing a good job.

-Mr. Wilbur Harris, the accommodating assistant postmaster, had his face wreathed and festooned with happy smiles yesterday. Did some one invite you out?

-If Mrs. Anna Bushman, --- Centre county, Pa., will send her postoffice address to the postmaster of Bellefonte, he will forward to her a letter for which she may have been looking for some time. The letter is post marked Reedsville, Mifflin county, Pa., and must be sent to the dead letter office, if not called for or claimed within a certain time.

-We have been shown a commission granted to John Harter, Esq., an aged citizen of Millheim in his 89th year, declaring him to be a second lieutenant of Company A, First Brigade, Tenth Division of the militis of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to be valid for seven years if the said John Harter so long behaved himself well. The document bears date Aug. 4th, 1814, signed by Simon Snyder, Governor, and countersigned by James Trimble, Dep'y. Sec'y.

-That cunning, wily little foe to man's happiness, Cupid, has been doing some active work in our midst of late. He aimed a shaft at the tender spot in the heart of our neighbor, Mr. I. H. Spitzer so deftly, that it struck and stuck just where it would do the most good. In obedience to its imperative dictation he hied himself away to Sunbury, and with more nonchaliance than we can credit Chesterfield, deliberately laid his heart, hand, fortune and name at the feet of Miss Bertha Loeb. The nuptials, to occur some time soon, not troubled with egotism either, and who have been properly announced and we are sure our friend will be a complete success

-Should you in church, or at the opera, suddenly lose sight of everything in the house ahead of you, you need not think ter. Upon you devolves the solution of the gas has been extinguished or that a huge curtain has been lowered in front of you, but what has happened after a few moments soaks through your bewildered brain and the matter at once assumes a tangible shape when you discover that it is some fair one's hat that obstructs your vision, for she has just entered and will do all she can to make you miserable. If you musingly mutter "shoot the hat," no one will censure you.

-Small nox has not appeared anywhere in Centre county except in the borough of Unionville. At that place there have been six cases of the disease. Fortunately these cases were confined to one family -the parents and four children. The authorities of the borough deserve commendation for the energetic manner in which they dealt with the pest in their midst, and are to be congratulated upon the fact that their efforts have been successful in preventing its spread beyond the one Patterson by name- are now & convalescent, but two of the small children were stricken by the disease we under. stand are in a very dangerous condition and not expected to live.

COURT PROCEEDINGS .- January term of court began on Monday morning last at 10 dents of this place, died at Coleville on a. m., with his Honor Judge Orvis presiding, who had for the first time the assistwhile our exchange table was a veritable ance of the newly elected associates, Hon. J. G. Larimer and Hon. John K. Runkle After hearing a number of petitions and motions, court adjourned to two o'clock p.

In the afternoon session the court announced the reappointment of S. F. Fos ter, Christian Derr and Martin Morrison as tip staves to wait upon the court for the ensuing year. Christian Derr was designated to wait upon the Grand Jury when in session. The Grand Jury was then sworn in with Robert Lloyd, of Philipsburg, as foreman. The usual routine business of receiving the constable's returns for the January Quarter Sessions, and the pannel of Traverse Jurors called over. The petitions for licenses were then taken up and the following disposition made of them:

nomas Pearson, atrick McCann, obert Taylor, mrs I. Delong, Tavern, Philipsburg, Refuse Liberty twp. Philipsburg.

On Tuesday the case of Frederick Kurtz against W. K. Alexander was called and tried. Verdict for plaintiff for $39.39.

THE LYCOMING INSURANCE COMPANY -We have been requested to publish the following decree of the Court of Common Pleas, of the county of Lycoming, in relation to the manner in which assessments upon the premium notes held by the reseiver of the company should be made Knowing that there are many policy holders of the company in Centre county, we make room for the decree as a matter of public interest and information. The following is the decree of the court :

The Commonwealth) of Penna. ex relations Henry W. Palmer, Attorney-General Lycoming Fire Insur- | Term, 1882.

In the Court of Common Pleas of Lycoming county No. 37 of Jan.

ance Company. And now, to wit: Nov. 12, 1881, the petition of John A. Beeber, Esq., Receiver &c. praying that by decree of this Court, be may be directed as Receiver of said. "The Lycoming Fire Insurance Company the costs and expen es attendant upon th the costs and expenses attendant upon the winding up of said Corporation and mak-ing distribution to and amongst those legally entitled." Read in open Court and filed. Whereupon, the Court after full examination of the petition, schedules, full examination of the petition, schedules, papers and other evidence submitted, and upon due consideration, after hearing had, do find that the facts set forth in the said petition and schedule, are true and that the prayer of the petitioner should be granted, do order and decree that the said John A. Beeber, Esq., Receiver of the Lizcoming Fire Insurance Company, do levy and assess upon the makers of the several premium notes given to and lately held by premium notes given to and lately held by the said Corporation and upon the said notes themselves as follows:

Upon all notes expiring during July '80, 1 Upon all notes expiring during August '80

And the Court do further order and de cree, that the said John A. Beeber, Receiver as aforesaid, institute such ceedings at law, or in Equity as may ceedings at law, or in Equity as may from time to time become necessary to inforce the collection of the assessments so levied, and this order, and decree is made without prejudice to the rights of the Receiver to levy an additional assessment or assessments, upon the said Premium notes, if for any cause, such assessment becomes necessary, and it is further ordered, that the said Receiver give notice of the said assessment by publication as required by the Chatter and By Laws of the said Corporation. It will consist largely of Anthems, Quartetts, Choruses, Tabeaus, Essays and Recitations. The Zion Giee Club and the Cornet Band will be present and render some of their excellent pieces. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the church. Admittance 25c.

-The Centre Hall Reporter informs its readers that Hon. Samuel Gilliland is feeding a thorough bred heifer. Her weight is fifteen bundred and fifty pounds. We understand that Mr. Gilliland is preparing her for a show beef to take to the eastern market. It would be a treat to Bellefonte if one of our enterprising butchers would bring her this way and have her exhibited and slaughtered. They would find a ready market amongst the lovers of good beef here as they are numerous.

-Pennsylvania ranks first in the production of coal, petroleum, iron and steel, and vegetable oils; second in milch cows, number of miles of railway, printing and publishing, rye, buck wheat and potatoes; third in hay; fifth in malt and distilled liquors, silk goods, oats and tobacco; sixth in sheep; eighth in corn; ninth in wheat; tenth in oxen and other cattle; eleventh in barley, and sixteenth in hogs. Its population exceeds that of Kansas, Texas, Nevada, California, Utah, Montana, New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado, Wyoming and Oregon combined, while the sum of the areas of states named is twenty-six times as large as that of Pennsylvania. Facts and figures are stubborn things, and to citizens of the Keystone State, in this instance, peculiarly satisfactory.

OUR LITTLE ONES AND THE NURSERY. This beautiful little illustrated magazine is for the little people, those too young to read St. Nicholas or The Wide Awale, but quite as elegant and handsome for its aders as either of them are for theirs. Indeed it makes a specialty of its rich and artistic illustrations, which are made ex-pressly for it, and illustrate the reading matter which it contains. When we say that "Oliver Optic" is its editor, it follows, without saying, that the reading matter is just such as every careful and judicious parent wishes to place in the hands of "our little ones"—simple, pure, high-tone Children's papers abound, and most them are good, but we de odds the best.
