-One voice all over the land goes up from mothers, that says, "My daughters are so feeble and sad, with no strength, all out of breath and life at the least exertion. What can we do for them?" The answer is simple and full of hope. One to four weeks use of Hop Bitters will make them healthy, rosy, sprightly, and

DEATH OF MRS. AMANDA SCHREYER .-Mrs. Amanda Schreyer, wife of Mr. Charles Schreyer, of Jeffersonville, Indiana, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bartrim Galbraith, of Bellefonte, died at the residence of her parents on Howard street, on last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Schreyer had many warm and devoted friends in her native town and was always esteemed as a most amiable and excellent lady Some time after her marriage to Mr. Schreyer, seven years ago, they went to Indiana for the purpose of making that State their future home. Mrs. Schrever. after a few years, began to fail in health, and last summer returned to Bellefonte in the fond hope of regaining in some meas ure her waning bodily strength. This hope, however, was edlusive. Consumption had seized upon her with a remorse less grip, and after a lingering illness she passed beyond the dark river. The deeased law leaves a sorrow stricken husband and two little daughters to mourn over the sad loss of a fond and loving wife and mother. The funeral took place from the residence of her parents on last Saturday afternoon, and was largely attended by the many sympathizing friends of the family. She was about thirty-three years old, and her early death is sincerely lamented.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS .- This little railroad city is booming just now. Henry Krumrine is getting the stone and lumber ready for his new palace which he intends never does things by the half, we may expect a house that will be an ornament to the place. Will Krape is also getting together the material for his new house near the railroad station. Rumor says he intends keeping a store of some kind. Mr Dale, the proprietor of the steam sawmill is putting up a number of houses. He has two of them up already.

Whitmer and Speiglemer are having big run of custom, as is evident from the number of vehicles that may be seen hitched in front of their establishments every day. They have their two stores connected by telephone. Since my last letter, Old Father time has garnered a great many sheaves from our valley, and at the present time quite a number of persons are ailing. Billy Brown, teacher of the Yearick school, in Brushvalley, has been laid up for some time. Edward Jordan is filling his place. Mr. J. Royer, of Potter township, has been confined to his bed since last August.

The missionary society of the Presbyterian church is raising money to educate a minister for heathen lands. The society is composed of members of the Centre Hill, Centre Hall and Spring Mills charges. Mrs. Whitmer, of Centre Hall, is presi dent of the society, and Mrs. Carrie E.

Wolf, is the secretary. At the January meeting of Old Fort Lodge, No. 539 F. & A. M. Past Masters F. P. Green and L. T. Munson, installed the following officers : W. B. Mingle, W. N.; J. T. Lee, S. W., and W. P. Shoup, J. W.

THE STATE COLLEGE .- There has been a disposition in many parts of the State to criticise the action of the joint committee of the Legislature appointed last winter to investigate the condition of the State College. Many of these criticisms have been ill-timed and captious, and unjust not only to the committee but to the management of the College. Many of them have been inspired more by a disposition to throw mud at the institution than by any desire to be intelligently informed in regard to its affairs. In regard to the work of the committee we copy the following explanatory letter of our able and efficient Senator, Hon. C. T. Alexander, a member of the committee, to the Philadelphia Times and published in that journal of Monday last, which should silence the clamors of all fault finders until the committee has, at least, completed its

My attention has been called to an ar ticle in the Times of February 8, headed "Some Information Wanted," to which justice to the members of the committee of thirteen appointed, is pursuance of a reso-lution, to investigate the affairs of the State College, demands a reply. As this resolution was passed late in the session and as the investigation asked for covered a large field, requiring much time and labor on the part of the committee, it pro-vided that the committee should report to the next session of the Legislature. fail to notice anything in the resolution requiring the committee to report the pro-gress of its work to the newspapers, or, in advance of its final report to the Legisla ture, to give any information to the public respecting the facts proven before it. "The committee will not know what it can report until it has heard all the evidence that can be brought before it, both by the friends of the college and by its enemies The committee would indeed be censurable were it to form and give to the public its opinions before it has heard all the evi-dence, deliberated upon it and arrived at dence, deliberated upon it and arrived at a conclusion. Then the report must be to the Legislature and not to the public. You certainly know that this is the plain duty of the committee.

This much, however, I think I can afely say, with the approbation of my fellow members of the committee: that the committee intends to make a thorough and exhaustive examination into the affairs of the college, giving an opportunity to all who have specific charges to make against it to present them in writing to the com-mittee, and, if neessary, they will be called upon to justify them under oath. The resolution providing for the appointment of the committee by an oversight did not give the committee power to send for persons and papers; neither did it provide sons and papers; neither did it provide for the employment of a clerk or sten-ographer, nor for the payment of witness fees, mileage, nor expenses; but, so far as the committee has gone in its examination of the affairs of the college, it has had no difficulty in getting before it every person who has been asked to come. Mr. John Hamilton, tressurer and bookkeeper of the college, has apeared twice before the naminton, treasurer and bookkeeper of the college, has appeared twice before the committee, with all the books and vouchers, to wit, on the 4th and 5th of October last, at the college before the general committee, and again on the 17th and 18th of January last before the sub-committee, of which Senator Mylin, of Lancaster, is chairman. So far no impediment has been thrown in the way of the committee's work and we do not anticipate any. The next meeting of the sub-committee will be at Harrisburg on the 21st of March next at which time on the 21st of March next, at which time the sub-committee expects to sit until it has concluded the work assigned it. What the then future action of the committee may be I am unable to say, but it will be nvened to take action upon the report of e sub-committee, and will likely visit e eastern and western experimenta western experimenta farms, concerning the management of which there is much complaint and whose

sefulness is much questioned. *
Beyond this it is not for me to say whe Beyond this it is not for me to say wheu or where the committee will meet or what it will do; but knowing the members of the committee to be honorable, upright gentlemen, I can safely say they will leave nothing undone that ought to be done, and when they shall have deliberated well upon the facts before them they will make a report that will be exhaustive and complete.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT .- At a regular neeting of Centre Lodge No. 153 I. O. O. F. of this place, held January 26th, 1882, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted as a fitting tribute of respect to the memory of one of its late members, William A. Schreyer, a Past Grand, whose death occurred on the 14th ult., in the city of Williamsport :

WHEREAS, It has pleased an allwise Providence to remove from us by death, our worthy brother P. G., W. A. Schreyer, Resolved. That in the death of Brother Schreyer, Centre Lodge has been deprived of one of its most valuable members, whose life, as an Odd Fellow and a citi-

en, is worthy of imitation. Resolved, That while we sincerely sympathize with the family of the deceased in being so suddenly bereft of its most honpred head, we bow with most humble subon to the will of Almighty God.

Resolved, That a transcribed copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and that the same be printed in one of the newspapers published in Bellefonte riends of the Osceola Reveille are in good humor over the action of the joint meeting of the commissioners of Centre and Clearfield counties at Osceola, on the 8th instant, at which time it was decided by the boards of the two counties that the Moshanon creek should be spanned at that place with an iron bridge. By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the commissioners of Centre county have already taken action and ask for proposals for the mason work to support the is sad to think that a man of his past structure. In regard to the meeting of standing in the community in which he the commissioners we take the following lived should have thus thrown himself article from the Reveille of last week :

The commissioners or the two counties -Clearfield and Centre-met in Osceola as previously arranged, on the 8th inst., at the Mountain House, to see for them-selves, the condition of the bridge across selves, the condition of the bridge across speak of any interaction the Moshannon creek, at this place, and afforded the general public as much real to its renewal. The full board of both counties were present, and were met by shall, Esq., on Monday and Tuesday eventhe leading citizens of the place, who repings of this week. If we ever had any resented to them the reason why a new bridge was wanted, and how impossible it would be to do without it longer. It was not a hard matter to convince them of this fact when they were once upon the ground and could take in the situation.

Centre's board consisted of A. J. Griest. John Wolfe, and Henry C. Campbell; Clearfield's Board, of John T. Straw, Jno. Picard and C. K. McDonald.

Picard and C. K. McDonald.

They organized by electing Mr. McDonald, chairman, and Mr. Campbell, secretary. This was a little out of the common way of doing things, as the united boards stood four Democrats to two Republicans, the only two offices being filled by the only two Republicans. How generous it would be if all deliberate bodies were so magnanimous to the minority. We mention this fact simply because it is wonderful.

The Centre county commissioners were accompanied by Anton Brugger, the sur-veyor of the county. After mature deliberation it was determined that we were entitled to an iron bridge, and that it should span the creek at one span of 96 feet, width 20 feet in the clear, with side walk 7 feet wide; that it should be 10 feet above low water mark, ly entertainments with which a Bellefonte or two feet higher than the present struc-

A STEAL IN SCALP PREMIUMS .- One of the items in the report of the Commissioners of the county for the past year was the large amount paid for premiums on fox and pole cat scalps. The Commissioners were not satisfied that "all was right." An investigation was instituted, and it soon appeared that a fraud had been perpetrated upon the county, and at least one individual has been called upon to answer at the bar of justice. This person is D. G. Gange. This man is a prominent citizen of Taylor township; is a Justice of the Peace, and last fall was a candidate before the Republican county convention for the office of Commissioner. It is charged THE OSCROLA BRIDGE.-Our excellent that during the year 1881, he drew nearly three hundred dollars from the county treasury upon forged and fraudulent probates purporting to have sworn to before him as a Justice of the Peace. > -It has seldom been our priviledge to pleasure as the two lectures of W. J. Marideas of immensity, grandeur and sublimnumerous and well selected views. The vivid descriptions of scenes, which thanks to a marvelous scientific ingenuity it was possible to transfer from the Yellowstone National Park and the Yosemite valley to the canvass of the lecture room, commanded an undisguised outburst of appreciation of the beautiful works of God, and riveted the undivided attention of the entire audience for an hour and a half each evening, and when the time arrived for the gentle man to say good night, each of his captivated listeners arose as though they sud denly had been awakened from an entrancing dream. Without any desire to reflect upon any previous entertainment, we unhesitatingly pronounce these the most beneficially instructive and brilliantaudience has ever been favored.

PINE GROVE MILLS .- Editors of the Centre Democrat :- Will you allow me a little space in your excellent paper to exvice in the Presbyterian Church in this towards improvement which has been taken in the past two months is perfectly astounding. Now all this is the more surprising when we consider the way they have been groping along in their service of song for the last thirty years, till latterly the good and brethren and sisters seemed to have settled down to endure the peculiar melody for another generation. But a few enterprising spirits thought there must be some thing done. And although we missed the old, the new was so much better that we were more than ever before impressed with the thought of what can be done even in so short a time, merely by a little pluck and determination on the part of those who are bound to succeed.

And now since they have gotten out of the old ruts and started "onward and upward" in the march of improvement, that they may survive the great loss which they are thought by a very few to have sustained, and continue to prosper is the sincere
