-Philipsburg has a new laundry. -Did March come in like a lion ?

Local Department.

-Go to S. & A. Loeb for bargains in anything.

-Reynolds & Co. will soon have their new engine at work.

-His Honor, Judge Orvis, paid Lock Haven friends a flying visit last week. -The front of Bush's arcade is nearly painted. When done it will look well. -The Presbyterian pulpit at Tyrone was filled by Rev. Crittenden of this place, on Sunday last. -Williams Bros., painters, are as busy as beavers. They work early and late, and are reliable business men. -The circulation of the DEMOCRAT is daily on the increase, and is taken by those who desire a good local paper.

-Our musical friend, Fred Smith, Esq. hied him away to Lock Haven last week and staved there three or four days.

-Some one has facetiously dubbed the Republican member of the board of auditors-Centre county's Riddleberger.

-Mr. Whitney, whom we mentioned some time ago as having attempted to commit suicide, at Spring Mills, has since died. -Mrs. Claude Mertz, fell down stairs last Thursday, and narrowly escaped being killed. The accident occurred at her residence on Logan street.

-That Lock Haven is not to have a own clock is a misfortune. If we were Lock Haven, we'd hang our lower lip and pout awhile.

-The order has gone out that the em ployes of the Adams' Express Company are to be uniformed. Our friend Orris Hoover will look gay in regimentals.

-The boys who bore holes into the maple trees in front of the Catholic school building in order to secure the sap, serious ly injure the trees and should be punished as they deserve.

-Mr. William Raymond was kind enough to call at the DEMOCRAT office on Saturday, and compliment the management. We shall be glad to see you frequently.

-Mr. Solomon Goldsmith, of the firm of Goldsmith Bros., is lying sick at his home in New York city. He was taken requiring his presence there.

-There no longer exists a reasonable doubt that the glass works are, before long, to be put in motion. The work of erecting the new turnsce has commenced, and an active revival of operations is promised by April 1st.

money he has saved during some four years of hard work.

-We understand the work of the county report must be submitted to the Court of creditable business, and joined the church. Quarter Sessions for confirmation, the pub- in company with several of his former lic will have to wait until next week for patrons. any intelligence in the matter.

-All those who have any manner of musical instruments to dispose of will find it to their advantage to negotiate with "Danny" of the Bush house pool room. He is organizing a select band of his own. and has occasion to use one or two more

-Mr. Howard I. Barnes, the celebrated "cheap John" merchant, is at home. He sold his entire stock, in a lump, at Tyrone not long ago, and is now recuperating to go in stronger than ever. Mr. Barnes withal a most popular person.

-Rev. G. D. Pennepacker, of this place, will be one of the guests of Mr. W. H. Brown, while in attendance upon the annual conference of the M. E. church, at Lock Haven, next week, Rev. E. W. Wonner will be entertained by Mr. Jacob

FOR SAIC. K. Tate, of this place, for the sum of $11,-

-On Tuesday, Mr. Charles W. Flinn left for Snow Shoe, where he expects to locate and engage in business for himself. He will make a speciality of watch repairing, and that he will become a useful member of that busy little town's commercial circle we do not doubt. Mr Flinn will be appreciated, and the spirit and vim, he means to throw into his work, will secure him an extensive trade. We hand him over to the tender mercies of the good people of Snow Shoe and vicinity as one upon whom they can depend, with the request that they use him well.

-They say that a large number of miners and lumbermen, one day last week, behaved so badly on the train running from this place to Snow Shoe, that the only lady passenger had to be taken to the engine to save her the annoyance of being compelled to listen to their obscene and ungentlemanly conversation. We suggest a good sized piece of ordinance, loaded with whole pepper and rock salt, be placed at one end of the car, hereafter, and its contents poured into any crowd that may behave similarly in the future.

-The Agricultural Epitomist, "a semimonthly journal, devoted to the interest of American farmers," is the title and object of a new publication, issued at Watsontown, Penna., by J. A. Everitt, with John A. Woodward, of Howard, as editor. The first number looks well, and if the proprietors succeed in keeping up the general excellence of their first effort we are confident that the journal will exert a marked influence upon the votaries of Ceres, among whom it may circulate.

-The number and attractiveness o stores in Bellefonte of all kinds is a matter of pride and congratulation. It is this and the cheapness and excellence of the goods sold that attracts the crowd of customers. Among these stands pre-eminent the grocery store of Sechler & Co., in the Bush House building, as the favorite place to obtain pure and wholesome groceries People patronize that store because it pays to do so, "and don't you forget it."

-The Lock Haven Evening Express, the initial number of which appeared on the 1st inst., has reached us. Kinslee Broth ers are editors, proprietors and publishers, and the paper reflects much credit upon them, as well as the citizens of Lock Haven. The paper is newsy, brilliant, and elegantly gotten up, evidencing artistic skill and refined taste. It trains in the Republican ranks.

-Miss Laura Keller, elocutionist, and the Bellefonte orchestra at Humes' Hall to-night. The entertainment will be good, and all should avail themselves of the op portunity to spend an hour most pleasantly Admission 25 and 35 cents. Chart of reserved seats at Miller & Co.'s Book Store. Miss Keller is accorded much praise where ever she goes and we are satisfied none will have any occasion to regret having been present.

-Rumor is our authority, in making the statement, that one of our most prominent young legal gentlemen expects to soon take Paul's advice, and wed one of Bellefonte's fairest ladies. Our idea is to have him purchase a neat little house in some pleasant dale, with its sides covered with clematis, and no doubt the effort will be very efficacious in securing him much happiness in the future.

-One of those unfortunate blunders, for which no one seems willing to assume the responsibility, caused us to omit the name of A. O. Furst, Esq., in speaking last week of the counsel for the defense in the Proceeding in Equity, of Milliken vs. Milliken. This able barrister, took an imporsuddenly ill while attending to business tant part in the prosecution of his case, and made the closing appeal on Tuesday morning.

-We are pleased to learn that our Methodist friends at Howard are having a very interesting and successful revival Florida for a two month's residence in tor, Rev. John Stine. On last Monday -Mr. Charles Smith has severed his evening fourteen candidates were admitted and a joyous return to their numerous can steal sufficient time to send in all the connection with the firm-Valentines & to membership in the church and the Co. He now spends most of his time clip- meetings are still continued, with nightly ping coupons from bonds secured with the additions to the number of seekers. All classes are represented among the converts, among them being one of the proprietors of a pool table, lately established, who is auditors to be nearly finished, and as their said to have promptly abandoned his dis-us to note that the trouble between employers and employed at the Mill Hall axe factory, has been amicably arranged. The proprietors announce that they mean to close their stores, and hereafter pay all employees in cash on Wednesday of each

-Clean up. Remove from your buildings, yards, gardens and streets all manner of pestilence breeding material. An hour's work now may prevent months of sickness and save hundreds of dollars of doctor evidently understands his business and is bills after the season has advanced. Ours is a cleanly town, and the usual vigilance in this direction cannot be exercised too

> -Call and examine the stock of ranges and cook stoves at Wilson, McFarlane & Co's; also their line of single and double heaters. They have for sale the Welcome Home double heater, which has been thoroughly and satisfactorily tested in this mmunity.

-Mr. James Antes, of Howard town ship, was called to Sullivan county last

-Quite a large number of persons attended the sociable, held in the lecture nected with that church, on Tuesday evenning, which was a truly enjoyable occasion That these gatherings are productive of nuch good, all who were there will cheerfully testify to. As opening exercises the program called for the singing of "The rock that is higher than I," prayer by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Pennepacker, and then "We shall rest in that fair and happy land' was sung. Miss Ella Williams recited 'Sending a Valentine," in such a way as to cause more than one manly bosom to swell with tender feetings, as the thought suffering from an acute attack of scrofula inspired by the recitation sank deep in their hearts, recollections of valentines selected with care and hastily despatched to the idols of their dreams. S. D. Ray, Esq., read the contents, entire, of the Methodist Monthly, vol 1, no. 1. Mr. Ray as an editor, would be able, in a short time, to attain both fortune and fame among those already engaged in the furtherance of the interests of the art preservative. Among other good things, he editorially attacked Col. Ingersoll, advising him to endeavor to make an honest living by practicing law-who ever heard of the like, this was about the only bit of sarcasm indulged in. He also announced his intention to ask to be retired on half pay but we cannot supplement his request by asking the same. The paper is "high toned." Perhaps the neatest and best received effort of the evening, was the violin olo, by sweet little Aurora Moore, daugh ter of Mr. Moore, the photographer, she is Misses Sallie McGinley and Mary Lyons, was announced, during which every one Co. strove to render every one else happy, and by social converse endeavored to entirely banish care. Upon order again being se cured four young gentleman-Masters Morris Swartz, Harry Jenkins, Harry Williams and Frank Van Ormer, acted the "Yankee traveller," causing all to laugh heartily. John G. Love Esq., being called upon responded by reading what he called an old fashioned school composition upon "Social life in church membership. He did not adhere to the iron hand and velvet glove theory, but handled his subject without any attempt to palliate or excuse the almost utter lack of this most important element in church economy. If our legal friend could be any more of a success, anywhere, than he is in the practice of law, we think it would be in preaching the gospel. The selection "Little Will," was next read by Miss Beckie McGinley. The many eyes moistened with tears shed in sympathy with the sufferings, and heroism of the subject, attested the marked influence this lady exerted upon the andience, her manner of delivery is peculialry pathetic, while the clear, distinct tone of voice she ever was able to command was highly appreciated by her listeners. With singing "Let the hills and vales rejoice," the audience was dismissed, to meet again on the first Tuesday evening of April.

-Mrs. Wm. P. Wilson left here on Monday afternoon, with heradopted daughter, for Philadelphia, where she will be oined by Mrs. Bright, of Pottsville, a daughter of our friend Judge John Irwin, of this place, and together will proceed to hope they will have a pleasant journey, and relatives with invigorated

-We learn that there will be a congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church, on Wednesday evening mext, to take into consideration and make arrangements for erecting a session or Sunday. school building on the vacant lot adjoin ing the church. This is a movement in the right direction. It is much needed and the congregation is entirely able to place along side of their noble church edifice, a neat and substantial building.

-Our medical friend, Dr. H. K. Hoy, has operated, surgically, upon quite a num ber of complicated cases of late, and met with marked success in each one of them The last operation took place in his office March 7th, and he was assisted by Dr. M. A. Kirk. Considerable skill was required and the indications are that a most favorable result will follow.

-When you see a man of true worthimitate him; a man that fills this bill buys his clothing from Lewin, and that is pre cisely the part we desire all of our friends to imitate. No danger of your getting any less than the mony you invest, pays

Mr. John Musser, of Michigan, a brother of Mrs. George Miller, has been visiting Spring Mills friends for some time.

We have a fair one, fair enough to attract Mr. C. C. Cummings, of Philadelphia. He calls often and never fails to nake many new friends.

Dr. J. B. Leitzell has sold his home, and expects to build a new residence soon. Mr. George Krumrine, son of Mr. Sydney Krumrine, late of Brushvalley, is the he Date's addition to Spring Mills is imsurprised by the appearance of a new ouse in this new quarter of town.

THE DOLLAR MARK, S .- Authorities do ot agree as to the origin of this sign to represent dollars. Some say that it comes from the letters U. S., which, after the adoption of the Federal constitution, were prefixed to the Federal currency, and which but seven years old. The selection was afterwards in the hurry of writing, were "Sweet bye and bye," and the manner of run into one another, the U being made its execution would be a credit to any per- first and the S over it. Miss Jennie Weaver was kind silver from paper money. The more plauenough to favor the audience with an sible explanation is, that it is a modificaeloquent and touching rendition of "The tion of the figure 8, and denotes a piece of raising of Jairus' daughter," and after eight reals, or, as the dollar was first called, a piece of eight. > -An exchange says that under the Act of 1794, any person is liable to arrest for profane swearing. The fine is 67 cents for every profane oath. Now, there are great efforts being made to suppress the liquor traffic and vice generally, but we do not hear of any arrests for voilations of this law. There is scarcely an evening but prefane swearing is indulged in by half grown boys standing on the corners and squirting tobacco juice on the pavements. No one seems to molest them, and yet the practice is one of the most senseless, and at the same time degrading, that we know said about the merits of Hop Bitters, and

I like such for themselves and morality. If every young man especially, in Bellefonte, was Press fined for using profane language it would amount to a good round sum in the course of a year, for we must confess the practice is not exceptional; it is entirely too gene ral. The infidel does not profane God's Holy Name, because he does not believe in God, and because it is shameful for one who professes to believe in Him to do so. The practice should be broken up and the only way we know of to do so, is to enforce the law.

-During the coming sesson, Bellefonte means to trot out a crack base ball nine, cent. on a good dress, from 100 to 300 per composed of young men, who have proven themselves professionals on many a hotly contested field. The balance of the nine will be chosen shortly, and application made at once to the National League for admission.

Lumberman's Friend.

Snow, snow is the lumberman's friend: My fellow creaturer, upon that do depend, My fellow creature, upon that do depend, For I am quite post ive and know very secil, That I saw them rejoice, when a deep snow fell. Do you doubt my words in the least? I say. Soow is the lumberman's friend and pay.

Oh yes dear friends, I would you all could see, When they see snow fail, where a great jubilse. They give one hursh, sho no loud ring! And say, "good lock, we'll be done before spring!" Now do not doubt my words, and on this do depen Snow, is their hope, and the imberman's friend.

Fixed their faces you could see, how very sad, When snow, they do expect, and it can not be had. They look upon the however and it can not be had. They look upon the however and it can not be had. For snow they do expect, and show they do steer I or snow have do expect, and the lumberman's friend I or snow is their hope, and the lumberman's friend.

They all say, "it is drawing very close t. spring! And not near all my logs have I yet in." And not much more sleading do they expect. For now the rays of the sun, fall too direct. Now these are their words, and on this d. denend. Now these are their words, and on this discepend, Snow is their hope, and the lumberman's friend.

When spring will come, and warm weather bring. The successful will do nothing but repote and any flut the unsuccessful, will be very, we add any and sometimes will seem, to be quite and and sometimes will seem, to be quite and, but such will be the case, and on it do depend, snow, is their hope, and the lumourman a mend.

But they still on their wise Creator do depend. For snow, is their hope, and the lumberman's f
