

Thursday Morning, March 30, 1882.

CORRESPONDENCE, containing important news, is inserted unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Local Department.

—Dig garden. —Parasols are becoming numerous. —"What kind of monkeys grow on grape vines? Gray apes." (Grapes.) —PERUNA is not an experiment, but a fixed fact; a single bottle will convince you.

—Whenever you are sick and the doctor tries this and then that, stop fooling and take PERUNA. —The Methodist pulpit was filled Sunday evening by Rev. Charles Figles, in an agreeable manner.

—Loeb's is the place to buy dry goods. Large assortment, low prices and good goods at all times.

—Mr. Al. Haupt was home for a few days last week. He is clerking in Lancaster, we believe.

—Prof. Frank Musser, A. B., principal of the Aaronsburg public schools was in town on Monday.

—The delay in issuing the DEMOCRAT this week was occasioned by an unusual press in the job department.

—Mr. S. S. Blair, of Hollidaysburg, is mentioned as a candidate for the nomination of Congressman at large.

—A new post office has been established at Longville, Centre county, Pa., with Samuel B. Lucas as postmaster.

—Mr. Washington Reese went to Pottsville, his home, on Monday. We trust our friend may enjoy himself.

—Mr. S. D. Tobias, of Millheim, one of the best pharmacists in the State, paid Bellefonte friends a visit on Saturday.

—What was one of the most important acts recorded in the life of Washington? His little hatchet, of cherry tree fame.

—Rev. Pennepacker was taken seriously ill in the pulpit on Sunday morning, but we are glad to know he is now better.

—Mr. Lewis Fabian, a German gentleman staying with Mr. Samuel Lewin, does some real artistic work with a scroll saw.

—Lyon & Co., are closing out their entire stock of dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes at cost, in order to quit the business.

—Miss Emma Ray, of Tyrone, and Miss Piper, of Hollidaysburg, are enjoying the hospitality for which our friends Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McGee are noted.

—If you have a dime to spare, and who among you has not, step into the post office and contribute that much to the fund for the support of "Betty and the baby."

—Mrs. Bond Valentine, who at present is in very poor health, is being visited by her sisters, Mrs. Bates of New York, and Miss Lizzie Kenney, of Philadelphia.

—The assistant principal of our public schools, thinking he may add to his patriotic appearance, has, after due deliberation, concluded to cultivate a chin beard.

—Dr. H. K. Hoy has been secured to attend the poor of Spring township during the ensuing year, by the newly elected overseers. A most excellent selection.

—Mr. E. M. Sturdevant moved on Tuesday from his late residence on Linn street to the Wolf property. One of the Messrs. Loeb will occupy the house thus vacated.

—An Osceola literary society last week discussed "Resolved, That foreign emigration should be encouraged by the U. S. Well, the matter now is settled no doubt, and the Chinese must not come.

—A celebrated lecturer, upon being complimented for the clearness of his voice, remarked: "Why, nothing is easier! All you've got to do is to use Sines' Syrup of Tar, wild Cherry and Hoarhound.

—Rev. J. F. De Long was called away down to Hublersburg to marry a couple on Sunday. The reverend gentleman is said to be a very pleasant, as well as capable, person to have about on occasions of this kind.

—The other day as Mr. A. Lyon, Sr., was walking out Allegheny street, several boys noticed volumes of smoke issuing from one of his pockets and upon examination found nearly all of the pocket with its contents burned to cinder.

—A young man named James Workman, of Eagleville, this county, fell into the forebay of the saw mill of Hopkins & Irwins at Reynoldsville on Wednesday last week, and was either drowned or killed by the fall. He was about twenty years of age.

—Mr. O. A. Drury, of Elmira, N. Y., who represents a large Binghamton boot and shoe house made one of his regular calls on the business men of our town on Friday last. He is an accomplished successful salesman and makes new friends wherever he goes.

—The Conrad house billiard parlors are now open, and our friend Mr. Geo. Downing is the proprietor. This gentleman is quite a player and any one desiring a little sport can cross cues with him. Mr. J. F. Graff, Mr. Downing's predecessor, leaves town with the good wishes of all for during his stay among us he was uniformly kind and gentlemanly.

ONE EXPERIENCE FROM MANY.—I had been sick and miserable so long and had caused my husband so much trouble and expense, no one seemed to know what ailed me, that I was completely disheartened and discouraged. In this frame of mind I got a bottle of Hop Bitters and used them unknown to my family. I soon began to improve and gained so fast that my husband and family thought it strange and unnatural, but when I told them what had helped me, they said, "Hurray for Hop Bitters! long may they prosper, for they have made mother well and us happy."—The Mother.

NUPTIAL KNOT TIED.—For some time we noticed that Mr. A. C. Mingle acted sort of queerly, had a far away absent look, you know, but yet the reason was not apparent until the intelligence reached us that on the 16th inst. Miss Maggie E. Hoffer of State College had ceased to be Miss Hoffer and would henceforth be known as Mrs. A. C. Mingle. It required just one week's time after the interesting ceremony had been performed to get "Cap" back from the land of blissful imagination, to the more realistic one of every day life, and even yet he can occasionally be detected sweetly smiling as though he were enjoying the society of visitants from a better world. Of course we extend our hand for congratulations.

RATIFICATION MEETING.—THANKS TO WHOM THANKS ARE DUE.—A meeting to endorse and thank the members of the present congress who voted in favor of restricting Chinese importation will be held in the Court House in Bellefonte on Saturday evening, April 8th 1882, to which every workman and all other citizens who believe in indorsing our public servants when they are right and condemning them when they are wrong, are cordially invited.

We meet not as politicians or for political effect, but simply to show by our actions and words that we approve and endorse the work of the representatives who voted to pass the Anti-Chinese bill and to publicly thank them for their efforts in the interest of the workmen of America.

Persons at a distance feeling as we do and sympathizing with this movement are requested to call similar meetings in their different localities. MANY CITIZENS.

DEATH OF REV. THOMAS M. REESE.—The startling intelligence has reached us of the death of Rev. T. M. Reese of Altoona, on the morning of the 27th inst. This news will cause many of our readers real sorrow for he was intimately known to not a few of them. A complication of malarial and neuralgic troubles had partially incapacitated him for active service, but up to the convening of the Methodist conference at Lock Haven, two weeks ago, he continued to fill his pulpit, that of the Chestnut Avenue M. E. Church Altoona. Mr. Reese was for three years Presiding Elder of the district to which Bellefonte belonged and during that time lived in this place. For forty years this man of God did faithfully all of the work falling to his lot as an itinerant minister, and no one was more identically connected with the rise and progress of Methodism in Pennsylvania. The remains of the deceased were taken to Baltimore, Md., and interred there yesterday (Wednesday) at 10 o'clock.

Thus one by one the stewards who did the pioneer work are called away and vacancies are caused that never perhaps are to be completely filled.

ITEMS FROM SPRING MILLS.—In my last communication I told your readers that Mr. Philip Dale had put up three new houses at Spring Mills. This week he began work on the fourth building. This last is for his own residence, so you see we gain a good citizen and your side of the country lose a good resident.

The directors had a second letting of the building of the new school house, and Mr. Coldren was again the successful bidder, Mr. Coldren is more successful in getting contracts for building school houses in Gregg township than he was in his efforts, last summer, to secure the nomination for sheriff.

There will be more fittings next April in and about this place than there has been for several years past. The big hotel is nearly ready for visitors. Mr. Kerlin moves to Iowa, to engage in farming. In his departure we lose a good miller, a kind neighbor and an unfettered democrat. As he was for a number of years a resident of Bellefonte, it will, no doubt, be a source of pleasure to many of our readers to hear that he leaves regretted by all. He has not an enemy in the entire neighborhood, while his friends can be counted by scores.

On last sabbath Rev. J. B. Akers preached his farewell sermon. His new field of labor is in Clearfield county, near Glenn Hope, P. O. During his stay of two years in our midst he endeared himself to us all by his earnest efforts to promote the interests of the Great Master's Kingdom, and his self sacrificing and untiring zeal to promote peace and harmony among the brethren.

—The Watchman correspondent, who last week dealt out some merited praise to the Benner Township School Board, erred in speaking of the president when he called him Noah Stover; the person referred to is Mr. Uriah Stover, and a more deeply interested school officer never lived.

—On Wednesday and Thursday of next week a public written arithmetical examination of pupils belonging to the four higher grades of our public schools will be conducted by the principal, Prof. Leeb. A prize will be awarded the person who prepares the neatest and best paper.

—Our accomplished medical friend, Dr. Roland G. Curtin, of Philadelphia, we perceive, has surrendered at last. After resisting the charms of beauty for a score of years, he has been captured by an accomplished New England lady. Our congratulations will no doubt be sincerely supplemented by his host of friends here.

—You can save from 100 to 200 per cent. on a good dress, from 35 to 200 per cent. on a suit, from 35 to 100 per cent. on a pair of shoes, and in everything that you need you will find it to your interest to buy your goods where you get them at first cost.

—If possible attend the social at the Methodist church on next Tuesday evening. The preparations being made to insure a pleasant time are ample. The exercises will consist of an eulogical character, with at least half an hour devoted to social chat. Strangers are cordially invited.

—Through the gentleness of Rev. A. J. Bright, we had the pleasure of forming the acquaintance of Mr. J. W. Grier, of Locoming county, a brother of W. H. Grier, editor of the Columbia Herald, Lancaster. Mr. Grier is a rising young democrat, possessed of sound political judgment, and maintains a deep interest in the welfare of his party.

—The joking way in which the Republican speaks of the marriage of Mr. Daniel Snyder is hardly in keeping with the good taste usually displayed by our esteemed contemporary. That Mr. Snyder could not afford an expensive wedding is a matter of his own. He did the best he could, and to carp at the misfortunes of others always evidences ill breeding.

—It seems that they who fail to attend to small business affairs with that promptness necessary to insure thoroughness are not all dead yet. These letters will be held at the post office until they are supplied with traveling money: Gordon Printing Co., Westport, Conn., D. W. Jones, Milesburg, Pa., and J. W. Marsk, 513 North 6th street, St. Louis.

—Mr. I. Guggenheimer, our enterprising down town merchant, intends to open a branch store at Centre Hall on or about the first of next month. It will be in charge of Mr. John Mullen who is known pretty much all over Centre county. We wish our friends abundant success, and if they practice the same honorable manner of dealing that characterizes their business transactions here, they will succeed.

TAXPAYERS MEETING.—The call for a tax payers meeting brought about fifty or sixty persons to the court house on Tuesday afternoon of last week. The meeting was organized by calling Col. D. G. Bush, of Bellefonte, to the chair, and electing Christian Dale and S. D. Ray, secretaries.

The object of the meeting was stated by Mr. Bush, after which Mr. William Dale, of Spring township, suggested that a committee be appointed to examine and consider the different branches of the late report of the County Auditors. The President thought it would be impossible to go over the report at this meeting, and that it would be better to appoint committees to make the necessary investigations and report at a future meeting.

Mr. Stevens, of Half Moon, as the representative of the tax payers of that township, asked for a committee of investigation to look into the charges against the county officers.

After considerable discussion it was agreed to fix a time for a general county meeting at which delegates could be present from each borough and township of the county.

Mr. Dale moved that the county meeting be held on Friday, the 21st day of April, and the motion was unanimously adopted. It was then further moved by Mr. Dale that a committee of three persons be appointed to correspond with citizens of each borough and township of the county with a view of procuring a full representation at the meeting to be held at the time fixed. This motion was also adopted, and William Dale, of Spring township, Henry Stevens, of Half Moon township, and William Iddings, of Union township, were named as the committee. On motion the meeting then adjourned to meet on Friday, April 21st.

EFFECTS OF THE GREAT NEWS.—We should not wonder that the news of the opening of the great Boston Clothing, Boot and Shoe House, at Bellefonte, Pa., will create an excitement all through this and adjoining counties. The cry of almost everybody will be, we will wait to make our purchases and convince ourselves as soon as that concern is opened, how much we will save on clothing, boots and shoes.

We should not blame anybody and everybody for it. Times are hard and money not very plenty. Not only the poor, but the rich, would like to save all they can in purchasing clothing, boots, shoes, &c., and as the day of the opening is close by, why should not everybody have a little patience and not be in a hurry with their Spring purchases. The stock promises to be the largest and most elegant ever brought into this market. Remember Saturday, morning, April the 8th, is the opening day, in Major Reynolds' block opposite the Brockerhoff House, Bellefonte.

—John D. Foote, an influential citizen of Millheim died on Tuesday of this week, Mr. Foote will be sorely missed in social, business and church circles. He located at Millheim about 1853 and has ever since been a factor of much importance in that community. None knew him but to love him, and the poor of the neighborhood in which he lived will ever remember him as one to whom they could at all times look for assistance. He leaves a large family and a prosperous business. Blessed be his memory.

—Social circles here were shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. Emma Thomas, wife of our townsman Mr. Richard Thomas, at the home of her childhood near Mill Hill, early on Wednesday morning. This lady was a daughter of Wm. C. Sanderson, Esq., and was universally esteemed wherever known. Consumption was the cause of her death and owing to the lingering nature of the disease she was aware of the approach of her final dissolution. Calmly she awaited the call and when it came she was prepared.

—Ladies coats, jackets, dolmans, circulars and ulsteres, in endless variety, styles and colors, and prices lower than elsewhere at S. & A. Loeb's.

—$30,000 worth of dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, dress goods, &c., for cost at LYON & CO.

—Dress goods, silks, velvets, plushes and tinsel plaids and stripes in all shades and effects at the Bee Hive.

—If you want to save money in your purchases, go to Lyon & Co., as they are selling everything at cost. LYON & CO.

—Laces, fringes, gimps, buttons, &c., in all the latest designs and at unrivaled prices, at the Bee Hive.

—Ladies' misses' and children's dolmans and coats in endless variety and very cheap at the Bee Hive.

—Call and examine the stock of ranges and cook stoves at Wilson, McFarlane & Co's; also their line of single and double heaters. They have for sale the Welcome Home double heater, which has been thoroughly and satisfactorily tested in this community.

—That perfect baking and cooking stove, the "Pioneer," is for sale only by Wilson, McFarlane & Co. All superfluous ornamentation has been dispensed with to secure a first-class kitchen stove. For weight, strength and durability it cannot be surpassed. In purchasing this stove you are not paying for nuckle trimmings and beautiful finish, but you are getting what is far better and what you need in a good cook stove—a good, reliable baker and cook.

MARRIAGES. CURTIN—ROBINSON.—In Hartford, Conn., March 21, 1882, by the Rev. Joseph Taylor, Roland G. Curtin, M. D., of Philadelphia, and Mrs. M. Robinson, only daughter of Edward Taylor, Esq., of Hartford.
