-There she lies upon her bed, With her arms above her head-Snowy arms above her thrown, Gleaming white as polished stone While her silken lashes seek The soft velvet of her cheek, And her sweet breath comes and goes Lo, behold her wildly start, And her lips in terror part ! Now she madly clasps the sheet As it clings about her feet, Slaps her hand upon her knee; Oh, she has it—'tis a flea! Once again her eyelids meet, And her dreams are pure and sweet

-"Hazel Kirke" like Christmas, comes to us but "once a year." Next Tuesday evening she is our guest.

-Mr. John H. Miller, of Centre Hall, has gone to Lock Haven, and intends to become a fixture there. We wish him well.

-Mr. C. W. S. Jones of the Tyrone Herald, lost an only daughter on Thursday last. Age-7 years. We sympathize with our friend.

--A traveling workman, connected with the Collender Billiard Table Works, is overhauling the Conrad House billiard furniture.

-We were pleased to see Mr. I. S. Frain, of Marion township, on Tuesday. The call of Mr. Frain afforded us much real pleasure.

-Col. R. H. Duncan and Dr. J. B. Leitzel smiled sweetly upon their many friends and acquaintances here, on Saturday. They are popular citizens of Spring Mills.

-Mr. Wm. Miils is now comfortably settled in his new quarters in the Centre County bank building and has everything handy and nice. He is a good workman.

-La Escepcion-as far as defining the word is concerned you can suit yourself, but it is the name by which Harry Green designates the best five cent cigar to be had in town.

-The Methodist sociable was largely attended on Tuesday evening. We had expected to report the proceedings in full, but have not room. Every one seemed to enjoy being present.

-Mr. W. E. Burchfield leaves on Saturday for the east to lay in his stock of groceries for his new store which he expects to open in the new bank building immediately upon his return.

-Last Sabbath was Palm Sunday. Very few, perhaps, of the many who participated in the observances commemorating the entry of Christ into Jerusalem allowed their thoughts to revert to this triumphal reception tendered the Savior of the world.

-George W. Eaton has opened a store

-The street sorinkling fiend is on hand. Look out for disturbances

-Did you ever see a cigar half a foot long? Mike Dolan sells three that size for five cents.

-No one thinks of traveling without taking along a bottle of Sines' Syrup of Tar. Price 25 cents.

-Mrs. M. Dolan has taken charge of the Cummings house on Bishop street. We commend her to the public.

-"Hazel Kirke" is certain to attract an immense house next Tuesday evening. Get your seats without delay. Chart at Brew's Store.

-Brother Deininger, of the Millheim Journal, came to Bellefonte from Lock Haven on Tuesday. Just how some editors can afford to travel so much is a mystery.

-A western personal item : Miss Lizzie Barton, of Clinton, Ill., a highly accomplished and beautiful young belle of eighteen, has just returned home after a short visit to the Joliet Penitentiary. She has stolen sixteen horses in her short but eventful career. (This is not a society item.)

-The Y. M. C. A. reports as follows for March: Visitors to the mens' reading room, 402; to the boys' reading room, 544; books taken from the library, 109; at the Sunday afternoon meetings were 132 persons, at the Friday evening 55. Four services were held at the jail. Average attendance of boys at Monday evening meetings for the quarter 77, during March, 86

-The Clearfield Citizen has this to say in speaking about some Bellefonte gentlemen who attended the execution of John A. Neveling : Harper was taken to be a retired oil prince, Tobias was picked out as a patent medicine advertising agent, and Leathers was pointed out as one of Pinkerton's detectives. Before they went home they were known as the spirital advisers of the condemned man.

-The members of the Lemont Cornel Band came to town, Saturday, on a little pleasure excursion, and while here did some excellent playing. Much of the success with which this new organization has met is due to Mr. John Jacobs. This enterprising gentleman terms the band referred to "my infant class," but we suspect very little better music is furnished by older bands. Come again boys, you lighten up the gloom as it were.

-A slight fire in the house of Mr. Frank Campbell, who lives on Lamb street, one evening last week might have resulted seriously. While their mother was out of the house the children set fire to the curtain of one of the windows. Master Paxton Cowdrick seeing the blaze rushed in, extinguished the flames and rescued the little ones. Nearly all of the facing around the window was burned away. The young man deserves great credit for his presence of mind.

was in charge of the culinary department of the Bush House during the administration of Mr. McCollum, and afterwards served Mr. Teller at the Brockerhoff. In the two years, or more, that Mr. V. has been gone from Bellefonte, he has seen nearly all of Uncle Sam's extensive back yard, having been out to San Francisco. He speaks French, Italian and English fluently and is so completely in love with our mountain city that he may possibly stay with us.

-Without any doubt the concert to b given by Miss Ohnmacht, in Humes' Hall, on Saturday evening, will be a grand success. No effort is being spared to have even the minutest detail properly attended to, and as the proceeds are to be used in purchasing an organ for the Presbyterian in the Brockerhoff house building, where church-a most worthy object-many should attend. None who may be p sent however, will for a moment think they George is well known and popular, and have been contributing to a charitable enterprise as the real entertainment provided will not be fully paid for by the low price of admission. The Bellefonte orchestra will take part with a new program. Chart of reserved seats at Miller's Bookstore.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE LUTHERAN CON-FERINCE .- The Northern Conference of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Central Pennsylvania met on Tuesday evening March 25, 1882, in the Lutheran church of Bellefonte. The President, Rev. J. A. Koser, of Pine Grove Mills, preached a strong, edifying, practical sermon.

Wednesday morning, March 29, half an hour was spent in devotional exercises conducted by Rev. M. L. Furst, of Hartleton, after which Conference was formally opened and continued one hour in business session. At 10 o'clock Rev. John Tomlinson, of Aaronsburg, read a scholarly, instructive and comprehensive paper on the "1st Article of the Augsburg Confession" and the discussion of this subject was continued by the members of conference until adjournment. Conference reassembled at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and occupied an hour and a half in transacting important business after which, the Secretary, Rev. P. A. Heilman, of Lock Haven, read a judicious and discriminative paper on "The Distinctive Features of Lutheranism." which was followed by an interesting and profitable discussion of this topic until the hour for adjournment. In the evening the Treasurer of Synod, Rev. W. H. Diven, of Salona, delivered a striking and characteristic address on "General Benevolence" after which a very liberal collection was lifted.

On Thursday morning devotional exerises of half an hour were conducted by Rev. A. R. Glaze, of New Berlin, and at 9 o'clock conference opened and continued in business session until half past 10 o'clock. Rev. S. Henry, of Mifflinburg, then read a stirring, carefully-prepared and well-timed paper on "Forms of Worship" which was thoroughly discussed with interest until the time for adjournment. From 2 to 3 o'clock unfinished business received attention and was disposed of with satisfaction and alacrity. The Children's Meeting commenced with singing and prayer. Humerous, pointed, illustra tive and impressive addresses were made by Revs. Diven, Glaze, Heilman and Fischer, interspersed with such singing by the children as is rarely heard. It was truly an enthusiastic and profitable meeting. In the evening Rev. S. Henry delivered a peculiarly original and beautifully written discourse which was followed by the closing exercises of conference including a short address by the President who, in compliance with a resolution unanimously passed during the day, expressed the heartfelt thanks of all the visitors for the very cordial reception, Christian hospitality and marked consideration they had received, and made special reference to the very efficient and gratifying service rendered by the choir. One of the older members, who has attended many Conferences in other Synods, pronounced this in all respects decidedly the most delightful convention of the kind he had ever known. Others were no

He was very much admired by the most sesthetic of the visitors and was declared to be in the best of taste and beyond the possibility of any additions or improvements that the most critical could suggest. The instroductories each evening by the choir were recognized as strikingly appropriate and were freely commented upon as most delightfully rendered. The opening services of the church every evening were regarded as so touchingly and profoundly impressive as to produce effects entirely beyond the power of language to express. The singing of the hymns was such as is seldom equalled and the Scripture lessons and prayers were singularly fitting and were more than gratified with this condevotional. The visitors went home more than pleased and the citizens of Bellefonte ference. The next meeting will be held in the pastorate of Rev. M. L. Furst commencing on Tuesday evening, August 22 1882, in the Lutheran church at Hartleton, Union county, Pa.

Mr. Fortney friends and acquaintances will be profoundly grieved to hear of his death. In This meeting has been called for the the course of his active and useful life, he purpose of expressing our approbation of the men who in Congress voted for this bill. It has been called more particularly for the purpose of giving expression to our approval of the course pursued and the vote cast by the Representative of this dis-trict. I know when this guestion areas filled many positions of trust and confidence in the religious, social and political circles of the community in which his days were passed. He was a man of kindly voie cast by the hepresentative of the dis-trict. I knew when this question arose in the halls of our national legislature we would not be disappointed. I knew full well without asking questions, that Andrew G. he will dispose of confectionery, cigars, fruits-fresh and canned, tobacco, etc. will doubtless draw a deserved patronage.

-While out driving on Saturday Mrs. C. G. McMillen and daughter, and Miss Sallie Burnside, met with quite an exciting mishap. The horse stumbled and fell, in the neighborhood of the Episcopal church, but did no damage save breaking the thills. The ladies were terribly frightened.

-Mr. T. B. Jamison, of Spring Mills, who will be remembered as a prominent candidate for the office of Register last fall, while in town on Wednesday, called to see us. Mr. Jamison thinks he could not get along without the DEMOCRAT, the Agricultural department alone being worth more than the amount paid for the paper.

Mr. F. K. Lehman, the proprietor of the Butts house, comes to us very highly recommended. He was lately in charge of the Farmers and Mechanics hotel, Williamsport. The restaurant will be under the management of Mr. J. C. Dougherty, who at one time served in the same capacity at the Central, Pittsburg, and the Brockerhoff, Bellefonte.

-A pretty little story is going the rounds of the press that J. H. Haverly has failed. Jack has failed before and always snanaged to rise again and in all probability this statement is merely a sly advertising dodge. He has succeeded in getting square on top of all other theatrical managers and if the report be true we venture the assertion that his pockets are well Alled.

-Henry Kreamer and family, John Zarger and family, Jacob Harter, Miss Mollie Stoner and John W. Stam, of Millheim, J. L. Shaffer, of Zion, W. A. Kerlin and family, of Spring Mills, T. J. Stiver, of Potters Mills, Willis Rishel, of Centre Hill, and many others whose names we could not learn, all former residents of this county, have gone west to locate. These persons are representative members of that class of Pennsylvanians who have done so much to assist in settling the western part of our ouuntry. They will be valuable additions to any commu nity in which they may conclude to cast their future lot, and their many friends here will be delighted to hear of their success in their new homes.

-That perfect baking and cooking stove, the "Pioneer," is for sale only by Wilson, McFarlane & Co. All superfluous ornamentation has been dispensed with to se cure a first-class kitchen stove. For weight, strength and durability it cannot be surpassed. In purchasing this stove you are not paying for nickle trimmings and beautiful finish, but you are getting what is far better and what you need in a good cook stove-a good, reliable baker and cook.

THE DAY IS CLOSE BY .- All of you, and everybody, should bear in mind that the opening of the Boston clothing boot and shoe house takes place on Saturday morning, April 8th, without fail, in Rev. nold's block opposite the Brockerhoff House, Bellefonte, Pa. The stock of clothing, boots, shoes, hats, caps, gents' furnishing goods, and everything in the line of mens' and boys' wear, will be the largest and most elegant ever seen in Centre county. All we can say now is that the greatest wonder in the clothing trade ever known of in this section will be witnessed as soon as the great Boston Clothing House is opened in our town. The benefit of that opening will not be for the poor only, even the rich can profit by it. The firm will be glad to see everybody-old and young, rich and poor, and everyone in need of clothing, boots and shoes, will find it to their advantage to visit this establishment which will be opened on Saturday, April 8th, and will not feel aggrieved if there be more exhibition than sale. Remember the time, place and business.

-Avoid the rush for seats for "Hazel Kirke" by securing seats at once. The celebrated play is announced for next Tuesday evening, one night only and the only representation here this season.
