Local Department.

—Who will get the Cyclopaedia offered by the publishers of the Educational Review?

—Rats infest the public school building and run around the teachers' tables during school hours.

—Laces, fringes, gimps, buttons, &c., in all the latest designs and at unrivaled prices, at the Bee Hive.

—Centre county Pomona Grange will meet at Centre Hall, Tuesday, 18th instant. A full attendance is requested.

—Lewin is just as square as ever. He is able to warrant all he sells, and purchases that do not render satisfaction can be returned.

—The indications for a good wheat crop in Penna valley are promising, in the district east of Spring Mills; west from that point, up through the plains, cold weather has seriously damaged the wheat.

—The Republican says grasshoppers are bothering neighboring counties. They must have been introduced by trout fishers, for no sensible grasshopper would venture out much this kind of weather.

—The April number of the Orientas Casket, published by L. Lum Smith, Philadelphia, has reached our table. Its editor is Emerson Bennett. The magazine is all its name implies—a treasury of literary gems. Subscription $2 per annum.

—The constant dripping of water will wear the hardest stone; so the constant hacking cough will undermine the hardest constitution. Avoid this fatal result by using Sines' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound.

—The Presbyterian wigwag was torn down on Tuesday. Many pleasing recollections of Sunday school and prayer meeting experiences still hover over the spot. The new Sunday school building is not to be erected immediately.

—Rev. D. M. Wolf, County Superintendent of public instruction, has been tendered by the managers of the Allentown Female College, the principalship of that institution. Fortunately the learned gentleman did not accept.

—Dr. R. H. Van Valsah, who most carefully and successfully looks after the physical well-being of Spring Mills people, popped into our sanctum yesterday. The gentle smile that always irradiates this gentleman's face, carries with it so much pleasantness that we always feel sorry when he leaves.

—On Saturday of this week, Mr. Lewin, of the Philadelphia Branch, means to open his spring stock of clothing. We can only add to this announcement that the reputation gained by Mr. Lewin will be fully maintained in his future dealings with the public.

—Mr. George W. Eaton is the proprietor of the new confectionery, fruit and cigar store in the Brockerhoff House row. He has come to stay, and is so well known and generally liked that he will command a good trade. George possesses some valuable business qualities, and we are confident he will merit all the patronage he may receive.

—The Hazel Kirke troupe were fattered with a full house on Tuesday evening. The company is able to give a first-class entertainment, but owing to the execrable condition of our Opera House (?) it was impossible for them to do themselves justice. Why cannot Bellefonte amusement seekers induce some liberal minded capitalist to build a house, the very appearance of which need not make an audience blush?

—Miss S. Ohnmacht's concert on Saturday evening was a success. Each part of the program, except a song by Mr. John Lyon, was performed. The musical talent of Bellefonte has been much improved during the time Miss Ohnmacht has been with us. The many excellent musicians, the Bellefonte orchestra and the general diffusion of musical taste and skill among us is due, mainly, to this lady's efforts. The exercises, though consuming a great deal of time, were interesting throughout. The violin solo by Mr. Lemuel Bierly being equal to any thing of the kind we ever heard. The duet by the Bierly brothers, too, was received with rounds of merited applause.

CHOICE CHUNKS CAREFULLY COLLECTED.—Spring fever is troubling a great many of us.

Daniel Garman, Esq., is building a nice tenement house on High street, near the jail.

E. M. Sturdevant, Esq., is remodeling the Wolfe homestead, on Curtin street, and rapidly converting it into the neatest and most luxurious of dwellings.

A handsome residence is being put up on Allegheny street, opposite the reservoir, under the supervision of J. L. Spangler, Esq., who reports it almost finished, when any one desiring a pleasant home had better see Mr. Spangler.

Among the arrivals at the Girard House, Philadelphia, on Friday, we noticed Hon. J. H. Orvis, of Bellefonte.

Samuel J. Herring, Esq., one of Gregg township's justices of the peace was in town on Monday.

The old commissioners—Messrs. Dunkle, Swab, and Gregg, on Monday appealed from the finding of the Auditors as stated in their report submitted to court some time ago.

Mr. W. A. Tobias thinking to add a little more tone to his general appearance now occasionally wears a stove pipe hat.

Recorder Bible is proud of his manner of record keeping, and well he may be, for his books look as though a master had charge of them.

Mr. Alexander Shannon, of Lena, Illinois, who had been summoned east to attend the funeral of his brother, the late John Shannon, Esq., called on us on Monday escorted by Daniel C. Keller, Esq.

Mr. Samuel Stein is now the proprietor of the flouring mill at Roland, lately operated by Stein and Leathers. Mr. Stein commands a large patronage and is withal a real tip top gentleman.

Harry Teats & Co., expect to soon commence selling groceries at their new store to be opened opposite the Bush House.

We were favored for a short time on Monday by having with us Mr. W. R. Camp, Centre Hall's popular young furniture dealer. Such genteel fellows never find our door locked.

The street commissioner with a picked force is attacking the dirt that has covered our streets all winter.

Mr. Bartram Gailbraith has at last taken to farming. He expects soon to have the court house yard teeming with clover blossoms.

Lyon's meat market sports a neat new wagon.

The examination in arithmetic, announced some time ago, was completed on Thursday of last week when the following pupils secured the prizes: High School—Prof. D. M. Lieb, Katie Shultz; 21 grade—Mr. J. C. Meyer, Maggie Conney; 3d grade—Mr. C. P. Howes, Maggie Smith; 4th grade—Miss Beckie McGinley, Mary Kain; Principal's prize, Harry Keller.

The most pleasing feature was the hearty applause by the pupils when the names of the fortunate ones were announced.

The hand organ man has come—the saddest of his race. Next the scizzors grinder.

The mayor of Lock Haven was arrested and taken to jail, on Saturday morning, for drunkenness. S. D. Ball, Esq., succeeds him.

Batchelor & Doris will be here May 1st. Promenaders were scarce the early part of the week. So long as this fit of old probs continues front gates and back porches are safe.

The Hazel Kirk troupe that showed here on Tuesday night observed Good Friday by laying over at Renovo. One redeeming act to be credited to the average theater manager.

We have engaged the services of a stenographer, and any person or persons having gratuitous advice to offer will please call.

A WORD TO STOCK RAISERS.—Just what can be accomplished when good stock is taken to operate on, and judgment exercised in feeding, has been fully demonstrated by our good friend, Hon. Samuel Gilliland, of Boalsburg. On last Friday he brought to Bellefonte a heifer that he had fattened with a view of testing his theory. The animal was a thoroughbred short horn Durham and weighed before butchering sixteen hundred and sixty pounds, after having drunk fifty pounds of water; both the heifer and the water were weighed before she was allowed to drink it, and the weights corresponded exactly. This proves that water given to cattle before they are weighed does increase the weight of the animal just as much as the water weighs. Butchers should remember this statement. When dressed the result was sixty-six per cent of marketable meat. The hide tipped the balances at seventy-five pounds and the rough tallow one hundred and ten pounds, this latter is an item of clear gain to the butchers. The only fault found with this meat was that it was too fat—this Mr. Gilliland asserts can be remedied by feeding less, for to secure the results above enumerated no more food was fed than is given to ordinary, common stock. Sechler & Co., bought and sold the meat. We think Mr. Gilliland has benefited the public in no measured degree by his careful analysis of the subject he studied, and hope both producers and consumers may profit by his researches.

—The Howe Sewing Machine Company has opened a pretty office in the room lately occupied by Mrs. Dare. Mr. A. C. Moore has charge, and we hazard the assertion that some fur will now fly in the prosecution of the sale of sewing machines.

MILESBURG.—There is more stir here this spring than there has been for a great many years and things in general look bright. There is, and has been for some time past quite a lot of building going on. Mr. Carr has put up a very fine building in the lower story of which is an elegant store room. It is just completed and Mr. L. Fryberger intends moving his store into it this week. He, Mr. F., is a very fine young man and justly deserves a liberal share of the patronage of the people here. The upper room of this building is to be fitted up for the lodge room of the I. O. O. F. Mr. Wilkie did the carpentering and E. D. Noll the plastering. The lodge room will not be ready for occupancy for a week or two yet but will be the best room in town of its kind.

Mr. C. K. Essington has quit making axes at his old stand, and the firm of Essington & Coover are putting up an extensive factory near the depot, where they will hold forth in the future. We predict great success for them for "Kep" is a good fellow and makes a capital axe.

The planing mill owned and operated by the Campbell boys so long, but which has been idle for a long while past, is again in active operation under the management of McClain and Hamilton, who are prepared to do any kind of work in their line.

The latest and most interesting as well as important enterprise in Milesburg, however, is the street lamps. Whereas we used formerly to have to go by in the dark, now we walk abroad at night in absolute safety and a vast degree of pleasure. There are as yet only about six or seven, but think there will be more by and by. Hope so at least. We saw a party on the street a few days since soliciting names to a paper setting forth reasons why he should be assigned the task of lighting the lamps. Quite a number of persons affixed their names.

Mr. Poorman is building himself a fine residence in Central City, also Mr. Joseph Shirk, Jr., in Milesburg. Besides this, Mr. R. L. Shirk has converted the old school house into a dwelling and several families have moved into that. Along with the new work we understand that Dr. Grove is doing quite a lot of repairing in his house, also Mr. Grassmeyer is having some improvements made to his dwelling.

The Granger store across the creek is, we believe, doing a good business. They have a nice room and fine stock of goods and with Mr. Frank Adams, as clerk, the enterprise must prosper.

Cheap John is coming to town this week. The gentleman is quite well known and no doubt will drive an immense business here in the shape of novelty goods of all kinds and description, which he will dispose of at auction to the highest bidder.

It may be well to add (by way of conclusion) that every available dwelling house is tenanted. Had there been many more, they too, would have been filled, such was the rush to be in Milesburg, thus proving beyond any doubt that it is a good place to be.

Some time I may write you again giving you a description of some of the old as well as the new features of our burg. I subscribe myself very respectfully,

J. N. J.

PLEASANT GAP JOTTINGS.—Moving over and our new neighbors safely housed and fixed up, we are now ready for anything that may happen. Our worthy postmaster has been unwell having had a severe attack of cramp, effects of over work in the garden. Be careful Bob, you know you cannot stand manual labor. Better get some person to do your digging.

Haag's mill is doing a good business. Makes good flour as well as good whiskey; go on in your good work, we all wish you well. By the way Mr. George Deats is doing well after the surgical operation only he is minus one finger of his right hand.

Our new overseer, Mr. Ross, is getting along all right with his new charge. He and the judge took a trip to the Bald Eagle ridges on Saturday. Don't know if they were on official business or hunting scalps; none of Spring township's poor out there that we know of. Be careful Joe for you will be held accountable for nothing but itemized accounts will pass nowadays.

SHINBONE.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.—Mr. Philip Dale has commenced work on the fourth house. He is selling lots at from $50 to $100 apiece. The railroad company are extending the track up to his saw mill.

I. J. Grenoble's big hotel is now open for boarders. In some future number I will give your readers a complete description of this new summer resort.

Whitmer and Spigelmeyer have added a fresh fish and vegetable department to their business. The Centre Hall Reporter correspondent informs us that they intend receiving these articles fresh from the Baltimore markets three times a week.

Spring Mills will soon have a guardian of the peace. Rube Kline the permanent constable of Gregg township, has purchased a lot from Mr. I. J. Grenoble and will erect a dwelling upon it sometime this summer. James H. McClintic, farmer, and Henry Whitmer, of the firm of Whitmer & Spigelmeyer, have each purchased building lots from Peter Wilson. John Horner has also bought a lot from Mr. Wilson and is now having a house put upon it. Henry Kreamer has commenced digging out the foundation for his new house.

—For weakness of any kind take PERUNA.

ONE EXPERIENCE FROM MANY.—I had been sick and miserable so long and had caused my husband so much trouble and expense, no one seemed to know what ailed me, that I was completely disheartened and discouraged. In this frame of mind I got a bottle of Hop Bitters and used them unknown to my family. I soon began to improve and gained so fast that my husband and family thought it strange and unnatural, but when I told them what had helped me, they said, "Hurrah for Hop Bitters! long may they prosper, for they have made mother well and us happy!"—The Mother
