

The Centre Democrat.

Thursday Morning, April 20, 1882.

CORRESPONDENCE, containing important news, is solicited from any part of the county. No communication inserted unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Centre County Democratic Committee—1882.

DISTRICTS.	NAME.	P. O. ADDRESS.
Bellefonte, N. W.	W. F. Reber	Bellefonte.
" "	S. W. Charles Smith	" "
" "	W. W. James Schofield	" "
Howard	C. K. Emington	Milesburg.
Millheim	A. Walters	Millheim.
Philipsburg	D. W. Holt	Philipsburg.
Unionville	J. C. Smith	Fleming.
Benner	Uriah Stover	Bellefonte.
Boggs	C. A. McLaughlin	Milesburg.
Burdick	David Taylor	Pine Grove Mills.
College	Frank Taylor	Lemont.
Curtin	Fredk. Bobb	Howard.
Ferguson, O. P.	A. J. Orendorf	Pine Grove Mills.
" "	N. P. J. H. Heberling	Rock Springs.
Groge, S. P.	M. L. Risher	Spring Mills.
" "	N. P. J. H. Heberling	Rock Springs.
Haines	Geo. M. Keister	Aaronsburg.
Halfmoon	A. T. Gray	Half Moon.
Harris	James Kimport	Healsburg.
Howard	David Taylor	Howard.
Huston	John Q. Miller	Julian.
Liberty	W. H. Gardner	Blanchard.
Marion	J. J. Hoy	Walker.
Miles	Geo. W. Spangler	Wolf's Store.
Patton	D. L. Meek	Buffalo Run.
Penn	H. E. Duck	Millheim.
Potter, W. P.	J. W. Winters	Tusseyville.
" "	S. P. J. H. Heberling	Rock Springs.
Rush	William Cullen	Sandy Ridge.
Snow Shoe	William Laites	Snow Shoe.
Spring	E. M. Barnhart	Bellefonte.
Taylor	Vinton Beckwith	Fowler.
Union	Christian Hoover	Port Matilda.
Walker	Andrew Krasner	Blanchard.
Worth	W. G. Morrison	Port Matilda.
	R. H. FOISTER, Chairman.
	H. A. McKee, Secretary.

Local Department.

—Browns have erected a new awning in front of their place of business.

—R. M. McGee, Esq., visited Montrose, Susquehanna county, last week.

—Ed. Powers is a trifle more vivacious than usual. That something is up, is evident.

—We learn that Dr. Glenn, of Snow Shoe, who had been unwell for some time, is improving rapidly.

—Mrs. Kane, an aged resident of Hecla Furnace was buried in the Catholic burying ground in Bellefonte on Tuesday.

—Smith, the baker, makes good ice cream, he is as careful as can be as to what he puts in it, and as a natural result it is always just right.

—Mr. John A. Gibe and Mr. Michael Cornman of Zion, while in town on Saturday, did not forget to inspect our little den. Gentlemen, call again.

—Centre Hall Y. M. C. A. has organized a boys' branch. That the movement will result in much good to the boys of that pleasant town, there can be no doubt.

—Mayor Powers has ordered all law abiding citizens to quit loafing on street corners, and by posted notices asserts his determination to prevent all others from doing so.

—"What are the wild waves saying, Mary?" "That you can buy clothing and gent's furnishing goods cheaper from Lewin at the Philadelphia Branch than any where else."

—Sorrowful were the circumstances connected with the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, which occurred at her residence on Logan street on Sunday night. Six children survived her.

—Messrs. J. Proudfoot & Co. are making a specialty of undertaking, and are giving this grave subject no little attention. They are prepared to attend funerals and respectfully solicit a trial.

—Mr. John W. Stam, of Millheim, this county, has been fortunate enough to secure a lucrative position as a clerk in Charles City, Iowa. Now be a good boy, John, and success is yours.

—George W. Eaton now has one of the prettiest little stores we ever saw. Particularly noticeable is his display of fine cigars and tobacco; equally fine, however, is his stock of confectionery.

—Dr. G. W. Hosterman, of Centre Hall, was in town on Monday and could not go home without first calling at our office. Of course he was warmly welcomed, good fellows always are.

—Editor Tuten some time ago bought a safe. And now, to be still tonier, he must employ a fighting editor. If you have any crows to pick with him of the auburn beard do not go to his office.

—Our good old friend, Mr. J. B. Newcomer, of Pine Glen, one of the most successful, capable and venerable teachers of our county was in town on Monday, and attended the meeting of the Boys' branch in the evening.

—The White Sewing Machine Company is really fortunate in having secured Mr. H. J. Boyer, of Boalsburg, as general agent. He is shrewd and enterprising, and we know he will be able to increase that concern's business wherever he may operate.

—The following elective officers were installed at the regular meeting of the Odd Fellows Lodge held on Thursday evening, the 6th instant: W. B. Rankin, N. G.; W. I. Fleming, V. G.; H. B. Pontius, Secretary; A. V. Smith, Assistant Secretary; H. H. Benner, Treasurer.

—Mr. John Beezer has bought out Mr. Wm. Taylor, and intends to continue the business of butchering at the same stand, one door below the Centre County bank. On the first of May he will be ready to furnish hotels and families with good fresh meat at moderate prices.

—There may be nothing in a name. But so many of our people are so warmly attached to the Philadelphia Branch that Mr. Lewin, after becoming proprietor, did not see fit to change the concern's name. Honest clothing, honest prices and honest dealing. This house ever has done what is right and we can with a clear conscience send our friends there.

—The C. L. S. C.—Chataqua Literary and Scientific Circle—well known in the eastern half of Nittany valley, is an organization composed of about thirty of the finest young ladies of that locality. The society meets twice each month at the homes of members, or if invited, at the houses of others of the good people of that section. The object is mutual improvement. On the evening of Good Friday they gave an entertainment and supper at the residence of Mr. Solomon Peck, of Walker township, this county. This gentleman with his usual hospitality threw wide his doors and welcomed the ladies cordially, setting apart to their use four large rooms. The entertainment consisted of a comic pantomime fan drill, vocal and instrumental music, an art gallery—containing some of the rarest specimens of ancient and modern art, and a postoffice as complete in all the details of its arrangement, as any in the land. Letters were manufactured to order, and delivered to happy recipients by fair hands of fairer ladies, whose secondary object might have been lost but primary one was lucra. The supper consisted of oysters, cold chicken, sandwiches, cake, coffee, etc., well served and plentiful. The cheery waiters in their white caps and aprons anticipating every want of their guests. The society desires to found a library for the use of the people of the valley, and the proceeds of their entertainments will be devoted to that object. That the young ladies may prosper in their good work is our ardent wish, and we cheerfully request all to emulate their endeavors by rendering any assistance in their power. Vive le C. L. S. C.

—In speaking of J. H. Haverly, concerning whom there have been some nasty reports circulated by parties who might be more profitably engaged in attending to their own business, The Musical Trade, good authority, says: The remarks in which some newspapers have indulged respecting Mr. Haverly pass the widest bounds of journalistic license. It has long been patent to every one that Haverly has had too many irons in the fire, has grasped at too much, and in some enterprises failed. On leaving the States he placed his affairs temporarily in the hands of Mr. C. H. McConnell to whom, to facilitate business operations he gave power of attorney. We can readily see how this wonderful man stands, the sale of the Fifth Avenue Theatre, a most prudent step, netted him $18,000, for this theatre is a decided white Jumbo. The Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, more than pays its way. The receipts of the Chicago theatre will aggregate $325,000, and clear $30,000. The one in Brooklyn will clear $16,000 this year; the Fourteenth Street Theatre $20,000; the California Theatre is good for $30,000 during the season, and the Mastadons will bring in $40,000 more clear gain. So that we see our friend Jack, even though he may have gotten into water a little too deep for him, is far from being a drowned man, and they who are so busily engaged in heralding his financial interment will soon find him the liveliest monetary corpse ever prepared for burial.

—The Butts' house, under the management of Mr. F. X. Lehman, is rapidly regaining all of its old popularity. The proprietor desires us to state that each of its departments—the hotel proper, the bar and the restaurant—has undergone a complete renovating and improving process, and now desires a fair share of public patronage, assured of his ability to render entire satisfaction. Mr. Lehman, evidently, understands his business and we ask a trial of him at the hands of any who stand in need of the services of a real jolly landlord who runs a first class house.

—Mr. John Blanchard, son of Evan Blanchard, Esq., of Bellefonte, in the annual exercise of the Junior class of Haverford College, of which he is a member, according to the Philadelphia Press distinguished himself in an oration on "A Modern Superstition," in which he attacked very vigorously the Mormon theory, and vindicated the wisdom of the Edmunds' bill.

—The ladies, who ascended the golden stairs leading to our literary palace, on Friday, conferred upon us a favor not soon to be forgotten. We endeavored to present a blaze front, but that meager success, only, may have attended our efforts is possible. Come often, please, for none are more fully aware than we, of the beneficent influence of ladies' society.

—Letters held at the Post Office for postage: D. P. Houser, Pine Grove Mills; D. M. Wolf, Spring Mills; M. S. Spotts, Port Matilda. Held on account of improper directions: Rachel Martin, Centre county, Pa.; Mary E. Davis, Liberty Mills, Jackson county, Patrick Brialin, Cleveland, Centre county, Pa., and I. N. From, Pole Cat City, Centre county, Pa.

—High Constable Garis has his dander up and the other day notified owners of cattle and hogs that certain restrictions would in the future be placed upon their movements. (Whose movements, the animals' or the owners'?)

—Mr. J. V. Strebig, agent for Batchelder and Doris' great Inter-Ocean Show called at the DEMOCRAT office on Monday. He is a most pleasant gentleman and is thoroughly devoted to the interests of the firm he represents.

—The work-train on the B. E. V. R. R. now lays over at this place on Sunday.

McMILLEN'S NEW BROCKERHOFF HOUSE.—Strangers visiting Bellefonte are surprised to find in our midst one of the most elegant hotels in Pennsylvania. The proprietor, Mr. C. G. McMillen, prior to ten years ago had been engaged in no other business. For over seven years he was with the famous Olmerts, at their depot eating houses in Columbus and Dayton, Ohio; with the celebrated Louis Reibold when he was proprietor of the City Hotel and Philips House, Dayton, Ohio. For five years past he traveled for Messrs. Felton, Rau & Sibley, varnish and paint manufacturers, Philadelphia. Immediately after arriving here he began to remodel and improve the house, and did not stop until everything was put in first class order. The office was repaired, all wood work painted white, furnished with walnut office settees, a splendid chandelier, the original cost of which was $125, a marble floor was laid and a marble counter placed in position; telephonic communication with all parts of the city, an annunciator for use of guests and speaking tubes to various parts of the house greatly facilitate business. This part of the house is most genteelly presided over by Mr. J. A. McOmber; this gentleman considers the comfort and happiness of guests matters of primary importance and is ever ready and on the alert to render any assistance or service in his power. To the rear of the office are the sample rooms, pool room, managed by Mr. J. Linn Mullen, the cafe with two regular attendants, Mr. W. P. Murphy and Mr. Frank Schrock, elegant water closets, and porter quarters. On the second floor is the dining room supplied with most comfortable walnut furniture, expensive china and solid silverware, brilliant chandeliers and quite a little army of waiters under the direction of Mr. John D. Emery. Of vital interest to all patrons of the house is the culinary department. We found this branch remarkably neat and clean, supplied with a range capable of cooking at one time meals for four hundred persons; here Mr. Alexander Pullen is monarch of all he surveys, and the manner in which guests stow away the victuals is evidence sufficient that he knows how to prepare a good meal. The grand ladies' parlor, luxurious gentlemen's reading and waiting room, private parlor for special parties and companies, ladies bath rooms and water closets, some twenty or more bed chambers most elegantly equipped and the proprietor's private apartments take up all of this floor. The next story is occupied almost entirely by dainty, elegant sleeping rooms, but enough space was reserved for a laundry and gentlemen's bath rooms. Other accommodations, free bus to and from all trains, commercial men's baggage sent to any part of town, the new street lamps and the change of front. This hotel is prospering under the control of Mr. McMillen and is daily receiving the patronage of many who up to the advent of Mac had been accustomed to put up elsewhere. McMillen has come to stay, having leased the house for 5 years; he can be depended upon and we heartily wish him and his hostelry God speed.

THE GREAT INTER-OCEAN SHOW AT BELLEFONTE, MONDAY, MAY 1.—Batchelder and Doris' Great Show has met with the most flattering success this year, success however, which is well merited, as their show is in every respect the best now on the road. The managers determined to be at the head of their profession and have spared neither time nor money achieving this result. During the past winter their agents scoured Europe, Asia and Africa in search of novelties, and bagged the best attractions extant, in many cases, to gain their aims, paying almost fabulous sums. The result of their labors is seen in the colossal aggregation of which they are at the head. Their every performance is superior, excelling anything of its kind ever seen in this country. Its menagerie represents many fortunes expended in rare animals, birds, reptiles and wonders of the sea and air. In its museum is Millie Christine, the "Two Headed Nightingale," a young woman with but one body, with two heads, four arms and four legs. For this natural curiosity a salary of 25,000 is paid for the season. The street pageant is made a feature of this season and is the most gorgeous ever seen, introducing the famous $10,000 beauty.

—The McGibeny family, father, mother and eight children, gave one of their wonderful exhibitions at Reynolds' Hall on Friday night. The character of the entertainment, had it been known in advance, would have secured a crowded house. There was nothing grand about it, in fact the home like spirit was the most noticeable. No gorgeous external show, but what is far more attractive, genuine culture. The idea of a brass band composed entirely of children, if not new, is at least a happy one. In their line, the McGibeny stand unequalled and alone, and as a troupe is one of the few conscientious journalists can heartily recommend to the public as meriting general support and encouragement. Mr. W. B. Bailey, of Lewistown, conducts the business affairs, and is a successful manager.

—Mr. Chas. F. Cook, realizing that positions of honor and trust, now filled to overflowing, will be vacant sometime, saw fit to introduce a week or two ago, a young gentleman who has our best wishes.

—Sixteen adult persons were baptized by Rev. Pennepacker at the Sunday evening service in the Methodist church.

SPAWLS FROM HOWARD TOWNSHIP.—Mr. Samuel B. Leathers is erecting a very fine house on his farm which his son intends to occupy. Messrs. David and George Noll are putting on the plaster, in the neat and substantial manner for which they are justly highly praised.

Mr. Samuel Stein has bought Mr. Leathers' interest in the grist and saw mill. He deserves to be sole proprietor as he has worked hard here for years and by attention to business has prospered, all of which he merits, his work always placing him head and shoulders above others in the same business. He has lately added a new smut and brush machine and claims he can now make better flour than ever, but I do not see how he can improve it; any work that does not give satisfaction can be returned. If he and Van Ormer can not make good flour I would like to know who can. I was in the mill some time ago and found it neat and clean, running 2 pairs of burrs and 1st and 2d floors both full of bags. Mr. Van Gordon runs the saw mill and is a first class mechanic. To neighbor Stein, I say—success; a better citizen, neighbor, miller and gentleman never lived.

Friend Jos. Neff says he will not cry much more this spring, i. e. he will not cry many more sales, no wonder he is so near through the way he goes on with his work, he deserves the name of the best sale caller in the county. He can debate some, too, and there he is a whole team with a little dog under the wagon, to spare.

We would like to know what the road master calls that pile of huge stones on the north end of the new iron bridge; were they put there at night or did he not wish to put them where the mud is so deep that it is almost impossible? They are up high and dry where the rise was the greatest, so that one can hardly pass with a load. Since they are there, break them or you may have some business at court.

Is there no law to prevent geese being wantonly shot? Or can unprincipled men shoot down a neighbor's geese where there are no fences to keep them out? If my geese were killed the slayer (or backer) would pay more for the geese than the damage done amounted to. Be careful men; keep your fences fixed.

I hear they had quite a spirited debate at our (Canada) school house on Thursday evening. Subject, Resolved, That it would be wrong to close the doors of America against the Chinese. Did not learn what decision was reached. HAWK EYE.

MILESBERG.—The cold snap has made things look a little blue, especially the gardens.

It does us good to see the beaming face of our former townsman, Henry Harman, Esq., again. We understand the soap and glue factory, under his supervision, is doing well. Welcome, back.

We can only conjecture as to the contents of the bag, E. D. Noll carries over his shoulder. Guess it must contain his mud tools.

Butter and eggs are scarce. A pound of butter is worth almost as much as a man's life.

Our friend Aleck met with quite a serious loss the other day. We heard it as follows: His horse had been allowed to run at large when not at work, and during one of these frolics by some means managed to get into the old canal. Here he stuck so tight that to get him out was impossible. As a last resort, Aleck, to relieve the brute had him shot. The loss does not seem to effect our friend very much as his cheerful laugh is heard the same as it used to be. JINX.

AN ENJOYABLE OCCASION.—Mrs. Julia Hess, a lady eighty-six years of age, remarkably well preserved and possessing more spirit and vim than a good many of her younger sisters, who resides with her son-in-law, H. Y. Stitzer, Esq., was greatly surprised on Monday to have all of her immediate relatives assemble at her home, and with her celebrate her eighty-sixth birthday. Rev. W. H. Groh and family, Mr. Adam Hess and family, of Boalsburg, Mr. John Hess and family, of Pine Grove Mills, Rev. W. F. Roeder and family, of Centre Hall, and H. A. McKee, Esq., and family, were all there. The last two gentlemen took especial pride in exhibiting their dear little babies, which is not only natural but very proper. We heartily join in the wish of the venerable lady's friends that she may continue long among us, and trust each subsequent anniversary of her natal day may be an occasion of as much true happiness as the last.

FISH AND GAME LAWS.—It is illegal to catch and retain trout under five inches in length, and it is illegal to catch fish in any other way than with rod, hook and line. Penalty for each fish illegally caught or retained $10, or offered for sale $25. Bass and pike fishing commences on the 1st of June, and it is illegal to catch them in any other way than with rod, hook and line, under a penalty of $10 for each fish illegally caught. Sunday hunting and fishing is prohibited under a penalty of $25. One-half of all fines goes to the informer. At this time of the year there is no game of any kind that can be legally hunted or killed. Constables having personal knowledge of violations of law, or if furnished with good evidence that the law has been violated, are bound to make return thereof.

—D. H. Hastings, Esq., has ordered his professional card changed; the new firm, Hastings and Reeder, will be a strong one. We compliment Col. Hastings and congratulate Mr. Reeder.

SUB ROSA.—The origin of the phrase under the rose implies secrecy; it was first used during the year B. C. 477, at which time Pausanias, the commander of the confederate fleet of the Spartans and Athenians, was engaged in an intrigue with Xerxes for the subjugation of Greece to the Persian rule, as well as to secure the hand of the monarch's daughter in marriage. They negotiated in a building attached to the temple of Minerva, called the Brazen House, the roof of which was a garden forming a bower of roses; so that the plot, which was conducted with the utmost secrecy, was literally matured under the rose. The Athenians were accustomed to wear a rose in their hair when about to communicate a secret to another, which they wished kept inviolate. Hence the saying sub rosa among them. Another—at the feasts, in honor of Bacchus, a large artificial rose was suspended over the main table signifying the compact entered into by all participants to the effect that whatever transpired while the god of wine had full control was not to be spoken of elsewhere, but was to be considered sub rosa. There is nothing in anything bought at Sechler's that needs any covering up—groceries, meats, fruits, etc., are all just what they should be.

—Glancing over a sketch of Johnson county, Iowa, issued by the Iowa City Board of Trade, we notice mention of the Standard, now the Republican, established there in 1840 by Wm. Crum, and W. D. Bailey. Mr. Bailey is now foreman of the DEMOCRAT office, a printer of over fifty years experience and in all probability good for many years more of active service in the profession. This gentleman relates some pleasing reminiscences of printer's life, and in half an hour's chat can tell all about the progress made in the art preservative during half a century. He is acknowledged to be the best and neatest job printer in Central Pennsylvania.

—That there is less truancy among our school children, than at any other time in the history of our schools, is daily becoming more and more evident. The cares of habitual truancy have been disposed of entirely. The school board, in connection with the teachers, kept a strict look out for this class of offenders, and to-day in every respect our public schools are as efficient as any in the State. There has been no unnecessary absenteeism since the first month, worthy of mention, and as the end of the term approaches, little of that usual dilatoriness, so common, is noticeable.

—A colored child named Cleaver living on jail hill was burned to death on Tuesday evening. The poor little soul had been left alone in a high chair, at a table upon which a burning lamp was standing. In trying to amuse himself he caught the lamp, pulled it over into his lap and set fire to his clothing. The lower part of his person was frightfully burned, but he lingered in his agony until two o'clock in the morning when death came to his relief.

—Mr. W. E. Burchfield has returned from the east and his new store will be opened as soon as arrangements, now being perfected, will permit. He has leased the room in the Centre County Bank building, and expects to have a model store in every respect. The opening will be properly announced, and his stock will consist of fine groceries and everything else usually kept for sale in an establishment of this kind.

—Look for the advertisement of the Bee Hive Stores in our next issue. Mr. A. Goldsmith has just returned from New York where he purchased the neatest, largest, most comprehensive, and best selected stock of dry and fancy goods, and Gent's furnishing goods for the Spring and Summer trade ever shown in Bellefonte.

—Our brass band was resurrected on Friday. Now, boys, keep it up. The only necessary condition, to insure having a first class organization is harmony among yourselves. The music was well chosen and skillfully rendered. Did you notice how cold chills, playfully chase each other up and down one's back when a lively, soul stirring tune is played?

—Centre county now has four more, brand new physicians. The gentlemen who have been authorized by the University of Pennsylvania to attempt to cure all ills to which human flesh is heir, are Jos. Brockerhoff, Bellefonte; J. R. Blackburn, Philipsburg; G. W. Kline, Pleasant Gap, and S. U. Harshberger, Zion.

—A new duty has been imposed upon the mercantile appraiser, that of assessing butchers who have stands for the sale of meat separate from their slaughter houses. Vendors using wagons are also taxable.

—On Tuesday afternoon the public schools were dismissed earlier than usual, and teachers, pupils and a few friends went to the woods to gather arbutus. They had a pleasant time and the recreation did them all good.

—The first annual ball of the Bellefonte Fencibles is said to have been a success. The members of the company know how to do up any thing of the kind in royal style. The net proceeds amounted to quite a sum.

WANTED.—Two girls for general house work. Good pay to the right ones. Address, P. O. Box 215, Bellefonte, Pa.

—$30,000 worth of dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, dress goods, &c., for cost at LYON & Co.

THE CHINESE QUESTION SETTLED.—A correspondent, who signs his name "Pig Tail," sends us the following:

According to announcement, the citizens of a large portion of Bald Eagle Valley assembled at the Canada school house to discuss Chinese immigration.

After the appointment of proper officers, the question was, with no little sparring, agreed upon. Resolved—That the doors of the United States shall not be closed to keep out the Chinese. Mr. Samuel Stein taking the affirmative and Mr. J. N. Van Ormer the negative. As assistants the former secured Messrs. J. L. Neff, T. B. Leathers and G. W. Johnston; the latter, Messrs. James Scofield and Turner.

Mr. Stein in his opening speech fixed things up, to suit himself. He said the pig tail man was just the thing for our country; in his second effort the same gentleman was rather calm—thinking it our duty to help the poor Celestials; that the cost of our labor is too high and that laboring men would learn to be more frugal if Chinese came over here in great numbers.

Mr. Van Ormer rather upset his competitor's reasoning, asserting that this class had been a curse to the land and that they could be very easily spared. The matter of cheap labor he declared antagonistic to our principles and hoped the time was not far distant when it would have no advocates. In glowing terms he thanked our Representatives in Congress, Hon. A. G. Curtin, for his vote on the bill lately vetoed by President Arthur.

Mr. Neff undertook to show that it was next to impossible for America to prosper without the honest, virtuous and industrious Chinaman. His speech reminded us of the story of a certain eleven-footed fellow who undertook to shew a hog and remarked "Lots of squeal and little wool." (We trust the comparison is not to be literally construed.—Ed.) His speech throughout was strongly in favor of the cause he had espoused and was attentively listened to.

Mr. Scofield, in his eloquent and fascinating way held his listeners spell bound, dealt only in facts and made a very convincing speech. The comparison, as made by him, between the relative support of Chinese laborers and those of any other nationality, was a barb thrown into his enemies' works that played safe havoc.

Mr. Leathers thought brief, spoke right to the point, and it is surmised that his opposition to the coming of the Mongolians had something to do with the curt manner in which he disposed of his part of the discussion.

Mr. Turner thought John a very objectionable social acquisition on account of his opium smoking proclivities, and read some opinions, of others, decidedly detrimental to the almond-eyed Oriental's prospects.

Mr. Johnston argued the question as viewed from a spiritual standpoint, and could give no reason why the adherents to the tenets of Confucius should be excluded in preference to negroes.

The decision was rendered by the proper tribunal in favor of the negative speakers.

A GRAND SUCCESS.—The grand opening of the great Boston Clothing House in Major Reynolds' Block, opposite the Brockerhoff House, Bellefonte, Pa., took place as stated in our columns before, on Saturday morning last. The opening of that concern was a great success in every respect. Crowds of people were thronging to that establishment from early in the morning till late in the evening, and everyone seemed happy except those who could not be waited upon on account of the rush. We can honestly say that never before has such a fine stock of clothing, boots and shoes, everything in the line of men's and boys' wear, been offered at such extremely low prices, in this section, as that concern is selling them. We never have tried that House, but are satisfied that Bellefonte is in need of such a concern, and it won't be long that people from fifty miles around will find that it will pay them well to come to Bellefonte and buy their clothing, boots and shoes, at the great Boston Clothing House, just opened in Reynolds' Block, opposite the Brockerhoff House, Bellefonte, Pa.

—That perfect baking and cooking stove, the "Pioneer," is for sale only by Wilson, McFarlane & Co. All superfluous ornamentation has been dispensed with to secure a first-class kitchen stove. For weight, strength and durability it cannot be surpassed. In purchasing this stove you are not paying for nickle trimmings and beautiful finish, but you are getting what is far better and what you need in a good cook-tove—a good, reliable baker and cooker.

—You can save from 100 to 200 per cent. on a good dress, from 100 to 300 per cent. on a suit, from $5 to 100 per cent. on a pair of shoes, and in everything that you need you will find it to your interest to buy your goods where you get them at first cost. LYON & Co.

—Call and examine the stock of ranges and cook stoves at Wilson, McFarlane & Co.'s; also their line of single and double heaters. They have for sale the Welcome Home double heater, which has been thoroughly and satisfactorily tested in this community.

—It seems impossible that a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., should make so many and such great cures as Hop Bitters do; but when old and young, rich and poor, pastor and doctor, lawyer and editor, all testify to having been cured by them, you must believe them yourself, and doubt no longer.

—Mothers, before giving your little babe cough or croup medicines, remember that Sines' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horshound is the only cough preparation that contains no opium, morphine, nor any other narcotic.

—The first law of nature is self-preservation; but to do it she needs PERRINA.

—Lyon & Co., are closing out their entire stock of dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes at cost, in order to quit the business.

—If you want to save money in your purchases, go to Lyon & Co., as they are selling everything at cost. LYON & Co.

—My children had sore throat. PERRINA cured them. M. P. LENHART, Irwin Station, Pa.

—Much better do without sugar and coffee than to be out of PERRINA.

—Spring and Summer season, 1882. Woolen stock now complete. Early orders solicited. 44-4f MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors.

—Ladies coats, jackets, dolmans, circulars and ultracets, in endless variety, styles and colors, and prices lower than elsewhere at S. & A. Loeb's.