thanks for public documents. -Al. Haupt, as clerk at the Brocker.

hoff house, is becoming popular. -Houtzdale is still troubled with small pox. The disease is said to be spreading. -Be sure to call at the Bee Hive and see their elegant line of zephyr ginghams.

-Greene, our most southwestern county, has not a licensed house within its borders. -Read the new advertisement of the Philadelphia Branch and then take your boys there. -The cigars offered for sale by Harry Green always fill the bill. He has none but good ones on hand.

-Lawyer Hastings is painting his house green, with red trimming ; we are all be coming mathetic gradually.

-Ladies, don't fail to see the new and elegant Spring and Summer dress goods in all styles and prices at the Bee Hive.

-The dollar brogans at Doll & Mingle's go like hot cakes. No wonder, they are equal to any heretofore sold for $1.50.

-Esquire Kerlin, of Rebersburg, was sworn into office during this term, and while in town did not forget the DEMO-CRAT.

-The Bee Hive has the finest assortment of lace caps for children. Don't fail to call and see them before purchasing elsewhere

-Mr. J. S. Housman, of Tusseyville, an ardent advocate of Sabbath school interests, paid us a business visit on Wednesday.

-Mr. Fred Smith, the popular Bishop street saloonist is recovering from his late sick spell, much to the gratification of his many friends. --Messrs. E. Graham & Son now occupy the room vacated by the Centre County Banking Company. They are better prepared than ever to suit all customers.

-Mr. J. T. McDivitt is running the Curtin flouring mills and doing good work. Mr. M. in addition to being a good miller is a tiptop person in every respect.

-C. U. Hoffer & Co., is the name of a new firm. We wish "Siney" piles of success, and are pretty sure of his soon becoming a merchant prince. Our hat is off.

-If you have not been in to see Geo. Eaton yet, why, do so at once. He has an elegant line of confectionery, tobacco. cigars, fresh and canned fruit, Brockerhoff

-It is the practice in some of our public schools to read selections from the daily newspapers, not only as a reading lesson, pure and simple, but also as a means of in structing the pupil, in contemporary history. It must be a fearful wrench to the boys' veneration for the brilliant names of history to read that one great man takes a bribe whenever he can get half a chance, that another gets intoxicated with unfailing regularity as often as once a week that a third sells his country for a pile of guano, that a fourth is a liar of gigantic proportions, and that generally they are one and all the meanest specimens of humanity that ever crawled beneath earth and Heaven. It must be fearfully trying to a school teacher to reconcile the history of the books with newspaper history. At the last session of the Centre County Teacher's Institute the members were pre sented with neat little calenders, the reading matter on them is wholly unobjectionable; it tells among other things that Sechler & Co., Bellefonte, are continuing to sell only first class groceries, etc. Allow your pupils and their parents to read selections from these calendars occasionally.

-The marriage of Miss Clara V. Milliken, the one hundred thousand dollar heiress, of this place, to Mr. Cortland De-Lacy Evans, of Plainfield, N. J., at the residence of her uncle, Mr. George Valentine, on Allegheny street, on Wednesday evening of last week, was the consumma tion of a courtship that has attracted the attention of the people of this and adjoining counties for some time. The lady is talented, agreeable and handsome, and devoted to her husband, who is spoken of as "hail fellow well met." They are now enjoying their honeymoon, visiting places of interest, and when done "billing and ooing," in all probability will return to Bellefonte and reside here. Our heartiest congratulations are extended to the happy pair, and we earnestly invoke for them the protection of Him without whose notice not even a sparrow may fall. The floral decorations, of which mention should be made, were singularly beautiful and tasty the most attractive-an elegantly arranged bell, composed entirely of flowers of rare and costly kinds, suspended from the ceiling, under which the couple stood, being the most noteworthy. -The residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCallion, at Howard, was enlivened by a festive scene on Tuesday evening of last week. The occasion was the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Mattie Snodgrass, a beautiful young widow, to Mr. B. T. Bryant, of Odessa, N. Y. The ceremony was performed in a brief, but very chaste and impressive manner, by Rev. Father McIlheney, of Snow Shoe, and the contracting parties were doubly supported by Miss Lena Reber as bridesmaid, and Mr. T. A. McCallion, the bride's brother, as grooms man. A large number of invited guests were present and the company was of the most pleasant description. Immediately after the ceremony a very elegant supper was served, and after duly discussing this, the entire party escorted the happy couple to the station from which they took the evening train for their future home in New York, amid the hearty congratulations and good wishes of all present.

-Batcheller & Doris showed here on Monday and fulfilled all promises. An immense crowd thronged the canvass both afternoon and evening. Their men are perhaps the most genteel and well behaved of any who accompanied any show that ever visited this place. On the way here from Milton they met with an unusual misfortune-they had progressed as far as Flemington, when a burned bridge prevented their coming on through. Their only expedient was to retrace their steps and get here vis. Sunbury, Lewistown and Tyrone.

-The sweet singer of the Daily News

-The dug road, leading from Cuttin's to the residence of 'Squire Barnhart, in of April Term of court convened at 10 A. Boggs township, is in such a horrible condition that we are surprised some one has not moved to compel the supervisors to repair it. It is too narrow at best, and when, as now, full of deep cuts and holes is barely passable. Any accident happening to travelers will render the township J. Williams. Court then adjourned to authorities responsible.

-Our friend Mr. Mesh. Williams, of Martha Furnace, is making some needed repairs at Mann's Axe Factory. He is one of the best millwrights in the world, and a job overseen by Meshac is sure to be well done. He never is idle, since talent of his kind is always in demand, and mill owners requiring the services of a boss mechanic had better secure Mr. Williams.

-Yesterday Dr. E. W. Hale, D. D. G. M., accompanied by Messrs. S. D. Gray, F. P. Green, J. M. Green, John P. Harris. Harry S. Hale, Wm. McClellen, and Edwin Tyson, left town to go to Du Bois, Clearfield county, there to constitute a new masonic lodge to-day. These gentlemen we suspect, are billed for a good time and hope they may not return disappointed.

-Our friends in Millheim and vicinity have complained that the DEMOCRAT does not reach them until Monday. Upon examination we find the packages of papers are carried on to Lock Haven, past Howard, and sent by way of Sugar Valley. We have perfected arrangements whereby the subscribers mentioned will receive their opies on Friday of each week.

-The jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Myton, decided that the gray neaded progenitor should pay three fourths of the costs, even though innocent, and the prosecutors the other onefourth. The amount of ugly licentiousness developed in this trial is a disgrace to the society of our sister county, Huntingdon.

-Beef having soared away up renders probable the story of the cow jumping over the moon. In this matter the butchars are not to blame, as cattle, even at the exorbitant prices demanded for them, are scarce. Bellefonte meat venders deserve great praise for the excellent quality of meat they procure for their purchasers.

-Mr. Wm. Wolf, of Centre Hall, gave the DEMOCRAT a call on Tuesday, and had the pleasure while here to take the venerable Hon. J. S. Proudfoot, of Milesburg, by the hand. These gentlemen are repr tative Democrats-an honor to the party. and as immovable in their fixedness of purpose as an adamantine rock.

-Miss Clara Keiser, on Wednesday last. became Mrs. E. H. Hannam. The groom is one of the most trusty and capable engineers on the Cattawissa railroad, and will be able and willing to support her in first class style. That they may be happy is our ardent wish.

-Mr. Samuel K. Faust, of Centre Mills, and J. H. Reifsnyder, Esq., of Millheim, have been in town several days during this term of court. These gentlemen are powers for good in the Democratic ranks in their districts and always do their utmost to roll up big majorities.

-Marriages have increased 40 per cent. young men have learned of the soothing effect of Sines' Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound, upon babies. Young man if you keep a bottle on hand for an emergency, you are safe in bringing things to a climax.

-We learn that Mr. Newton S. Bailey of the Republican, is unwell. We trust our friend may soon recover. His absence from his post is noticeable. The ailmentneuralgia in his head, is an unpleasant one.

-- Young men, whether you are specially invited or not, come to the reception tonight. The entertainment will be of an

COURT PROCEEDINGS .- The second week M. on Monday with Judge Orvis presiding. The trial list was called over and a number of cases marked for trial. A number of road cases were disposed of by the court. In the afternoon a jury was sworn in the case of W. S. Williams vs. Mark 8.30 A. M., Tuesday morning.

A NARROW ESCAPE .- Yesterday afteron a horse belonging to Mr. Samuel Leitzell, of Spring Mills, was standing' in front of Hick's hardware store, tied to a post by a rope. Becoming frightened, he started, pulled out the hitching post, and with it flying in all directions, ran on the pavement, at full speed, down Allegheny street to Bunnell and Aikens corner, turned down Bishop street, still on the pavement, and continued as far as Smith's saloon, where slipping he was thrown violently to the ground, here he was caught Fortunately very few people happened in the way of the runaway, one little boy. a son of Mr. W. A. Lyon, about two years old was pushed or knocked over, sustaining some wounds about the head. Had the streets been as thickly peopled, as they mostly are, is impossible to estimate the damage he might have done. The horse, apparently, was not seriously injured.

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT .- "E. J. Swavely, the Singer Sewing machine man of Bellefonte, was in the city a short time yesterday. Mr. Swavely by strict attention to business has won the confidence of the company he represents, and they have given him the entire control of Centre county for the sale of the Singer. He has a large number of men working for him.-Lock Haven Journal.

They mean to go west for awhile and if suited will remain there permanently. Their many friends join in wishing them a pleasant sojourn in this vale of tears and all the happiness to be derived from conugal association.

-Our ministerial friend, Rev. J. F. DeLong, pastor of the German Reformed Church in this place, deliberately fitted up an elegant residence, furnished it throughout in luxurious and comfortable style, and then left town. Since leaving, we understand, he has been united in marriage with Miss Amanda E. Lauback, of Stemton, Pa. The groom occupies an enviable place in the hearts of all Bellefonte church goers, and the lady of his choice is very highly spoken of. May theirs be a pleasant married experience with very few of life's ills.

-Bellefonte will witness a wedding in high circles about the middle of May. The young lady concerned is an estimable daughter of one of Bellefonte's most enterprising merchants and the young man is a member of an extensive mercantile establishment in Reynoldsville .- Philipsburg Journal.

The Dark Messenger

MRS. ARDELL .- As twilight slowly and ilently let her curtain down, on Thursday of last week, the residence of our esteemed neighbor and friend, Mr. John Ardell, Jr., was shrouded in gloom. Death was present with the heartbroken relatives and friends who surrounded the couch upon which his dying wife lay. She, whom a long companionship had endeared to him by every tie that joins kindred hearts and congenial souls, was about to be torn ruthlessly from him-her place left an aching void, never in this world to be filled. In the midst of the awful silence that always accompanies scenes of this kind, about five o'clock, her sainted spirit winged its flight to that bourn whence no traveler ever was known to return. For some time subsequent to her departure. Mr. Ardell, could not fully comprehend his irreparable loss, and when at last its awful truth burst upon him, he wept. She, who had ministered unto him day after day, had walked hand in hand with him down life's tortuous highway, had been a source of constant and unfailing support to him, had gone. A cold, contracted on the Saturday preious, rapidly induced an attack of pneumonia, and her nervous system, too weak to withstand the sudden strain, left her at the mercy of this so frequently fatal disease. All that medical skill could do was done without avail, for the call she received could not be disobeved. Deceased was greatly beloved, highly steemed and almost idolized by all who knew her, and before Death has slain another fair and good as she, time will have thrown a dart at the sable conqueror. The lasting praise, due her, on account of her many charitable, noble and benevolent acions will cause her name to adorn the stone, when carved upon the marble slab that is to mark her last resting place.

Mrs. Ardell's maiden name was Elizabeth E. Seelye, and at the time of her death was n her 63d year. Three sisters-Mrs. Sayres of Bellefonte, Mrs. Waite, of Chicago, and Mrs. Herrick, of Grinnel, Iows, survive her.

MRS. ALEXANDER. - The mother of Hon. C. T. Alexander, Mrs. Elizabeth Alexander, of Beech Creek, died on Thursday 26th ultimo, having reached the ripe age of 84 years. Her remains were brought to Bellefonte on the evening train for interment, and were followed by a large oncourse of friends to the Union cemetry where she now calmly sleeps upon the osom of mother earth. Her life was one f unusual activity and usefulness. Three children, Hon. C. T. Alexander, and Jas Alexander, Esq., of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Daniel Leyden, of Beech Creek, survive her. A consistent Christian she did not fear death and having lived lar beyond the limits of life she was ready to go Surely the end of the righteous is peaceful MRS. YOUNG .- We are called upon to chronicle the death of Mrs. Catherine Young, of Ferguson nownship, this county, whose departure from earth took place on Saturday last, the 22d instant. Mrs. Young was a devout member of the Lutheran church. Her age was 83 years .-Watchman.

MRS. KRUMRINE -It is our province to record the death of Mrs. Krumrine, ro lict of the late Frederick Krumrine, of Fergason township, and sister of Mr. Jno

Wagner, of this place. Mrs. K. died on Sunday morning last, the 23d instant aged 73. - Watchman. MRS. FULMER .- The last of this sad recital is to record the death of Mrs. Fulmer, relict of Jared Fulmer, at her home, near Wolfe's Store, last week. Mrs. F. had grown old and did not long survive the decease of her husband. Peace to her ashes.

MILESBURG PERSONALITIES .- Mr. Will Morris paid our town, his former home, a flying visit a few days since.

Miss Emma Kinne has come home to ay, after a lengthy visit to Hollidays.

MEETING OF THE AGRICULTURAL SO-

MEETING OF THE AGRICULTURAL SO-CLETY.—A meeting of the Agricultural Society was held in the Court House on Tuesday evening, April 25. In the ab-sence of the president of the society, Dr. E. W. Hale, Captain Austin Curtin was called to the chair. S. D. Ray, Eq., the secretary, being also absent, Mr. John A. Daley was calied to keep a record of pass-ing events for the evening. On motion, Dr. E. W. Hale, Georgo W. Campbell, Esq., and John A. Hunter were elected delegates to meet the trustees of the State College at their annual meet-ing in June. Clement Dale, Esq., gave an interesting history of the society and a statement as to its present standing and financial condition. He also, in the course of his remarks, referred to the financial embarnased during and which the society embarassments through which the society have passed during and since the panic, and said that all the premiums of last year were paid in full and those of the year asid that all the premiums of last year were paid in full and those of the year previous provata. A. A. Dale, Judge Larimer, George Dale (a leading Granger as well as a prosperous farmer), all spoke for the good of the order. H. Harshber-ger, Esq., told how in early life he had cleared up the forest and caused it to blos-som as the rose, and that on more than one occasion he caused two blades of grass to grow where formerly there was but one. On motion of Joseph Baker, Esq., Clem-ent Dale, Esq., of Bellefonte, and John A. Daley, of Curtin, were elected to per-form agricultural missionary work in the county, and at an early day will enter upon the discharge of that daty. -The reception given by the Boys' branch of the Y. M. C. A. to the boys of the town on Monday evening was an occasion of much interest to all. Mrs. J. G.
