

The Centre Democrat.

Thursday Morning, May 18, 1882.

CORRESPONDENCE, containing important news, solicited from any part of the county. No communication inserted unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Centre County Democratic Committee--1882.

Table listing names and addresses of members of the Centre County Democratic Committee for 1882, including districts like Bellefonte, Philipsburg, and Lewisburg.

Local Department.

Well, Spring, you cum at last, hev you? The post sez you bin a-stittin' in old Winter's Lap--now aint you ashamed of yourself?

But now you cum! We feel your cheerin' p'romis to cum. Git round onto the south side of the barn!

That Death is no respecter of persons, but singles out the young, beautiful and useful, is once more made painfully evident in the death of Miss Mary E. Bollinger.

The association never was in as healthy condition as it is today, and the members never made more of an effort than is now being made to reach the young men of Bellefonte and vicinity.

The attention of postmasters is called to an order issued by the department requiring them to notify publishers of newspapers of the refusal of subscribers to lift papers, and state why they refuse.

The residence of Mr. A. Lyon, on Lynn street, was the scene of a festive occasion last evening; it was nothing less than the marriage of Miss Paulina Lyon.

The pleasant Gap band when in full uniform looks well. The playing of this band is fast raising it to an enviable position in the estimation of all lovers of first class music.

A peddler named Patrick Meilus, died at the boarding house of Mrs. Howard, on Bishop street, on Tuesday morning.

Of the two hundred or more persons who attended the Y. M. C. A. meeting, on Tuesday evening, Messrs. F. P. Green and Wm. Zellars had the most ravenous appetite.

Read the advertisement of Messrs. S. & A. Loeb in to-day's DEMOCRAT; they mean all they say and are abundantly able to fulfill all promises.

Mr. William Cox, an employee at the Bellefonte Box factory, on Monday, unfortunately allowed his right hand to come in too close contact with a circular saw.

GEN. BEAVER AT HOME.—Early on Saturday morning, posted notices announced that a reception would be tendered Gen. James A. Beaver upon his return home, on the late train that night.

A REVEL AMONG OUR EXCHANGES.—Henry Powell, a brutal step father at Altoona, on Saturday last knocked a five year old child down with a chair because it refused to cease crying.

A GLORIOUS OCCASION.—The idea of a social luncheon to the board of trustees of the Y. M. C. A. originated, some time ago, in the mind of the general secretary, Mr. Miller.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Jake—Yes, ignorance is bliss and therefore the world is so full of happy people. G—Kissing is naughty.

THE CROWN OF ENGLAND.—The crown of England is a costly "bauble," bedazzled with jewels enough to found three or four public charities.

A VOICE FROM THE PRESS.—I take this opportunity to bear testimony to the efficacy of your "Hop Bitters."

MARRIAGES.—WEAVER—FILE—On May 26, at the residence of Daniel Ripka, by Rev. Weidmeyer, Mr. Jeremiah Weaver, of Gregg township, to Miss Sarah File, of Centre county, Pa.

DEATHS.—BOLLINGER—In Philipsburg, May 10th, 1882, after a long and trying affliction, Miss Mary E. Bollinger, in the 25th year of her age.

Bellefonte Grain Market. Corrected weekly by T. R. Reynolds & Co. Wheat—white, per bushel, 1 20
