HAINES-SHROM .- Mr. Martin Haines of Tyrone, was married to Miss Mary Shrom, at the residence of the bride's parents on Penn street, on last Thursday vening. Rev. G. D. Pennepacker, of the M. E. church, conducted the ceremony. Many handsome and valuable presents attested the strength of the love and friendship of the many invited guests.

The contracting parties are well known in Bellefonte social circles, and the assumption that the union is a happy one will be contradicted by none.

Mr. Haines is a young man of excellent repute and unquestioned business ability. His lady, for several terms, has most satisfactorily and successfully taught grade number 7, of our public schools, and has everywhere been accounted a person of rare intellectual attainments, modest and unassuming demeanor, and what is far better, one possossed of practical, sound, common sense.

In their home, wherever it may be, hosts of admiring friends wish them perfect happiness, and trust that naught may disturb the congeniality and harmony they both are so eminently fitted to maintain in their married relations.

A REMARKABLE FATALITY-DEATH OF MR. THEODORE KELLY .- A sad and fatal accident occurred at the ore mines of the Messrs. Valentines, near this place, on last Friday morning. Mr. Theodore Kelly, engineer and superintendent of the works, while oiling the machinery when in motion, one of the shafts broke, a piece striking him on the forehead, mashing his skull and killing him instantly.

Mr. Kelly was a most estimable man, a valuable citizen, one most highly esteemed and all who knew him, will sympathize, sincerely, with his family in their sad and sudden bereavement. The deceased had only been home a few days from Butler county, where he had attended the funeral of his father and aunt, who we are informed, died and were buried the same day. Immediately after the accident, while the poor man lay weltering in blood, that was slowly oozing from his severely hurt and her clothing badly torn. death wounds, a telegram was received announcing the demise of his brother.

The funeral on Sunday afternoon w attended by a throng of sorrowing friends; having had Miss. Carrie Nash, of Spring over one hundred carriages accompanied the remains to the Catholic church where Father McArdle conducted the impressive and solemn burial service of that church declaring during his remarks that Mr-Kelly "had been a good, kind, consistent, practical, willing and ready supporter of the church cause.'

> CARD OF THANKS .- At a regular meeting of Gregg Post, held on the 3d inst., a resolution thanking all who took part in the exercises on Decoration day was unanmously concurred in by that body.

It may be well in us to mention to each ne of you, who generously extended us substantial aid, to the ladies who came and designed the floral decorations as well as those who subscribed money, that our order is sincerely thankful.

The two councils of the U. O. A. M. -the one from Altoons, the other of this place; the hose companies, Logan and Undine, ever ready to extend the hand of sympathy and fraternity; the Boys' Branch of the Y. M. C. A., under Lieut. Geo. L. Potter, and the gallant National Guard of this place, with whom we share a commander, will each and all exult with us in our mite of success. Neither let us forget to thank if we did not forget to pay the band and the drum corps, without which we could not have kept the united step "on the march."

"What will you do for flowers on Decoration day?"-an ever-occurring question which is as certainly answered each year by the children of Bellefonte when they go and get them.

"The Silver Cornet Band of Pleasant Gap will need supper," said C. G. McMillen, proprietor of the Brockerhoff house and I'll give it to them"-and so he did.

Comrade William Jones, who raised the money, does not deserve any public thanks, for he has already had them in private, but he acknowledges his indebtedness to those who supplied the money.

The kindness of Mr. William Temple. engineer of the Snow Shoq train, deserves special mention, he having supplied wild honeysuckles from the mountains.

The Rev. J. F. Delong, if we can trust to selection or chance, was designed to deliver the prayer of the ritual, and with the other ministers of the Gospel who could not be present, must enjoy our gratitude for the representation of children from their several Sabath-schools. To the Rev. J. M. Palmer, of the African M. E. church, the ceremonial of decoration is in-debted for the benediction.

Jno. B. Linn, Esq., surprised and pleased his comrades, coming to their aid in time of need, and they have set upon him the seal of a lasting gratitude, nor can we, in our deliberations of thanks, refrain from placing the editors of Bellefonte foremost in our grateful acknowledgment of support. Mr. Furey, Mr. Tuten and

Mr. Van Ormer have refused us nothing. The following were the members of the Ladies! Aid Committee on Decoration: Mrs. E. T. Tuten, Miss Beckie McGinley, Miss Sallie Burnsides, Miss Kate Jackson, Mrs. D. Hastings, Mrs. E. A. Smith,

-Major R. H. Forster of Bellefonte. Pa. recently one of the editors and proprietors of the CENTRE DEMOCRAT of that city, and during the war, Major of the 148th Regt. P. V., of which James A. Beaver was Colonel, Dr. U. Q. Davis, Surgeon, and John G. Kurtz, Quartermaster, and also a gentleman of the press, gave our office the compliment of a call on Thursday. The Major has been through two wars, helping Uncle Sam to collect a snap judgment against Mexico, and also helping him to save his own domain from being destroyed, receiving for this duty well performed, several wounds. We are informed he has never lifted his 160 acres of land due him lying some where near the setting sun and how he will ever be able to walk out there and gather it up is what mistifles us. We wish the Major would rise and explain this point. Perhaps he will in the next shoes in Centre county. A trial will repeaceful revolution that is coming on apace, by helping to elect his ticket .- Milton Argus.

-A meeting of the Bellefonte school board was held last Friday evening, at which a resolution was adopted complimenting the work accomplished by the teachers during the past school term. David Lieb, Esq., the Principal, rendered a report for the year to the school board from which we learn that the number of male scholars attending was 261; females 243; total 504. The average daily attendance was 376; per centage of attendance .83. The average daily attendance was much reduced by the prevalence of sickness among the scholars during the winter. The conduct of the schools during the year seems to have been quite satisfactory to all concerned. Remublican.

-About a week ago, a little girl, eight ears old, daughter of Mr. C. H. Else, of Milesburg, was furiously attacked and seriously bitten by a large dog belonging to Mr. W. B. Miles; she was just about to enter the yard at her home when the assault was made. Fortunately Mrs. Else was near and by stoning the dog she drovhim away, not until the child had been This dog has been known to be unsafe for some time and why he should be allowed to run at large, jeopardizing the lives of suggest that he either be kept tied, or taken out somewhere and shot.

-Messrs. W. I. Richardson and W. H. Poulson, representatives of a large Produce Commission house, in Philadelphia, were in this neighborhood during the early part of the week, completing negotiations with many of our merchants for the sale of butter and eggs. It may seem a little strange but is nevertheless true that Mr. Frank Montgomery and J. L. Spangler, Esq., for the time being, forgot their own hard work, and escorted the visitors to different parts of the county. We commend W. I. others having produce to sell.

-Mr. Wm. Dale, of Pleasant Gap, was omewhat surprised on Friday evening, when told that his horse, which had been left standing somewhere on Allegheny street, had left town without a driver. It ran up Allegheny to Logan, where in turning the corner, the top was detached from the buggy. Thence at full speed the horse ran out the Lewistown pike and was not caught until getting as far as Mann's works, there it was stopped by Mr. Daniel Keller, who was returning to town.

-The marriage of Mr. Robert Butler and Miss Clara Jackson, (colored), of Lock Haven, at the A. M. E. church, in this place, on Thursday evening, was largely attended, a large portion of the audience being white people. Rev. J. M. Palmer officiated.

-No one has purchased the car works. A circular was issued sometime ago by the management calling attention to the advantages Bellefonte will be favored with in case the works are continued in operation. We trust the necessary capital may soon be forthcoming.

-Dr. J. C. McIntyre, a prominent citizen of Lock Haven, and a dentist who introduces unsound masticators to the open air, with scarcely any pain to the proprietor of the molars, was in town on Tuesday. Dr. is suffering some from rheumatism but looks as well as ever.

DEMOCRAT until you have carefully studied | bers the association. every word of what Messrs, S. & A. Loeb have to say in their advertisement, to be found in another column.

-Judge Orvis, not to be outdone by Col. Hastings, is painting his residence. The colors are a little less decided, and though sesthetic they will add to the beauty of the building.

-Miss Emma Ray, of Tyrone, last aged about 35 years. week visited Mrs. R. M. MaGee. Miss Ray is a pleasant and agreeable young lady, and enjoys her visits to our city very

-The Butts' House, under the careful supervision of Mr. F. X. Lehman, is rapidly winning its way to popular favor. Best accommodations for the traveling publie. -Some one who dees not fear the consequences that may result from such conduct, has been stealing hams from the cashier of the Millheim bank-Mr. A. Walters.

-Try Geo. H. Wolf's tinware.

-Doll & Mingle's stock of ladies fine shoes is especially tasty, anything from $1.25 up to $5.50.

-Gents, call at the Bee Hive for nobby silk, manilla, and straw hats. Best selection in Bellefonte.

-Had an almost invisible skin disease itching intolerable. PERUNA cured it. H. AMBIL, Pittsburg.

-Men's good straw hats-5 cents a piece, at the Boston Clothing House, just opened in Reynolds' block, Bellefonte, Pa

-Felicitious flights of fancy, or ethereai idlizing can only be indulged in and enjoyed to perfection behind one of Mr. Harry Green's cigars. -Doll & Mingle justly claim to have the largest and cheapest stock of boots and move all doubts. -Call at the Bee Hive and see their large and elegant line of sun umbrellas and lace trimmed parasols, the largest and cheapest assortment in town. -Ladies gloves with pockets in the part overing the palm is the latest in Altoons. Bellefonte ladies' gloves are so small that pockets in any part of them would be of -The Williamsport Sun & Bauner, with its usual "git up and dust" spirit in full sway, reduced its price to a one cent paper on the 1st inst. We heartily wish it mer-

-If you want a good cool glass of Philip Best's Milwaukee beer, and a free lunch every morning, and Saturday evening, from 9 to 11, call at the Butts' House. F. X. LEHMAN, Prop'r.

-Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bell have taken up their abode in the Milliken mansion on Allegheny street, and have the property in charge during the absence of -Mr. Geo. W. Rhoe, late clerk at the 1rvin House, is now connected with the Bush House, Bellefonte, Mr. Rhoe is a genial fellow and will make friends in his new position .- Lock Haven Journal.

-Mr. George P. Rishel is home for hi ummer vacation. He is a student of many, we cannot understand and would Pennsylvania University, Philadelphia, and will graduate next year. George has been a close student and as a disciple of Esculapius will be a success.

-Mr. Wm. H. Frick, representing Al- He len Paine & Son, dealers in Carriage goods, iron and steel, Baltimore, called Mr. Frick commands a large trade in our ommunity and seems to be a favorite with dealers in his line of goods.

-Yesterday a gentleman called at the Philadelphia branch, priced the goods he wanted to purchase, and then said he wanted to look around. After awhile he Richardson & Co., 142 North Delaware returned and bought extensively saying Avenue, Philadelphia, to merchants and that he could not buy as cheap anywhere else in town. So they all say.

-Main's circus that exhibited here on Saturday was favored with a good attendance, and the performance is spoken of as having been the most laughable ever witnessed here. The men belonging to the show were well behaved and orderly, and nothing occurred to lower any of them in the estimation of our people.

-Mr. W. H. B. Eisenbuth, of Millseim, called at our office on Tuesday. Willis, although a young man, is a m ber of the Pharmaceutical Society of Pennsylvania, and close attention to work and study has so impaired his health that in accordance with his physician's advice he started on an extended tour through the west. May success attend him.

-Our friend, George Downing, has refitted his commodious billiard parlors, in the Conrad house, in a very handsome style, reflecting credit upon his good taste. It is the purpose of Mr. Downing to make this place of amusement attractive to the At Centre Hall the Veteran Club of Potpatrons and lovers of the game, in the discarding all dissipation and objectionable association. A full line of tobacco and cigars always on hand.

-The Y. M. C. A. intends holding a festival in the rooms it occupies, sometime oon. A competent committee has been appointed, and on behalf of the cause w request the assistance and patronage of all. The young men have a most commendable object in view, and are exerting themselves kindly assisted the decorative ceremonics -Do not throw away this issue of the to wipe out the indebtedness that encum- by furnishing boquets and arches.

> -The estimable wife of Mr. Claud Cook, of Snow Shoe, died at her residence on Saturday at 11 o'clock, A. M.
