—The frisky little squib is beginning to be a source of no little uneasiness to many of us.

—Gents, call at the Bee Hive for nobby silk, manilla, and straw hats. Best selection in Bellefonte.

—Doll & Mingle's stock of ladies fine shoes is especially tasty, anything from $1.25 up to $5.50.

—Mrs. M. Watcher, Springdale, Pa. My Chronic Catarrh is much better, from the use of PERUNA.

—Why do housecleaners always put the best furniture on the front porch, during the time of cleaning up?

—The Centre County Banking company is still beautifying its building. The last ornamentation is a new iron fence.

—The Bush House is doing an excellent business. Mr. Teller is fully conversant with the needs and wishes of his guests.

—All the brains of the Juniata valley will be congregated here about September 1st. We are to have the Printer's Picnic.

—Men's good straw hats—5 cents a piece, at the Boston Clothing House, just opened in Reynolds' block, Bellefonte, Pa. 23-41.

—Remember all boys' and men's boots and shoes at the Bee Hive will be disposed of at cost to close out the stock. Call soon.

—More Democratic gains in Bellefonte, Peter McMahon is the man, to be known as high constable. Talk about Beaver's influence.

—Mr. McMillen, of the Brockerhoff House, is to provide dinner and supper for the graduating class at State College, next Wednesday.

—Mrs. Sophia McEwin has been appointed postmistress at Hüllersburg. The Farmers' Mills office is now in charge of Mr. J. S. Auman.

—The Bellefonte News and Altoona Tribune, and the Lock Haven Express and Harrisburg Patriot have been feeding each other "tasty."

—Men's fine low shoes and slippers in great variety, also a fine line of button shoes, either hand or machine made, at Doll & Mingle's.

—Aaronsburg is to have a musical convention on the 24th instant. Prof. W. T. Meyer has charge of the affair and will render it successful.

—Mr. John W. Conley, of Centre Hall, than whom no more sincere Democrat is to be found anywhere favored us with his presence on Tuesday.

—The first of the entertainments given in the interest of the Y. M. C. A. piano fund was a success. Number two will be held on or about June 29.

—Miss Freese, of Snow Shoe, a niece of Mr. John Cole, is lying very ill with rheumatism at the residence of the latter in this place. Dr. Hoy is attending her.

—The June number of the Oriental Casket is better than any of its predecessors. Try it one year, terms $2. Published by L. Lum Smith, Philadelphia.

—The Ladies' Mite Society connected with the Presbyterian church met at Hon. J. B. Linn's residence on Friday. It was an occasion of especial pleasure and profit to all.

—Fort Dunkle entertains a guest who sometimes prescribes for the indisposition of his fellows in durance vile. Sheriff Dunkle does not have very much confidence in his medical skill and has ordered him to stop. The doctor came a little late to prevent two or three cases of unpleasant sickness, none of which were at all serious.

PLEASANT GAP.—Shin Bone has disappeared and even if we have no correspondence we are still alive and doing well.

Our band is improving, getting ready for the campaign.

Mr. A. V. Miller is speculating in horses and making some money.

The new saddler is doing a good business.

Haag's steam mill is running night and day, turning out an excellent quality of flour.

Mr. John From is one of the lucky ones—it is a girl, and Mr. Thomas Weaver is luckier—it is a boy.

Mr. Zeigler has rented part of his house to a couple of young ladies who mean to work at dressmaking.

AN OLD FRIEND GONE.—Mrs. Joanna S. Kurtz relict of Ludwig Kurtz, died at the residence of her son in Milton on June 3, aged 86. The remains were brought to Aaronsburg, this county, and buried in the Lutheran cemetery there on Tuesday following.

Two sons, George Kurtz of Milton and Hon. Fred Kurtz, proprietor of the Centre Hall Reporter, together with a host of other relatives and friends mourn her decease. She was the widow of Ludwig Kurtz, founder, and for many years editor and proprietor of the Centre Berichter, now the Milheim Journal.

Mrs. Kurtz was a lady esteemed, respected, and as a friend valued by all who were fortunate enough to know her. The Lutheran church of which she was for many years an active member will miss her, and there is much consolation in the fact that she learned early in life to put her trust in Him, whom to know aright is life everlasting.

MILBURG ITEMS.—The wheat fields in the vicinity of town look very much better than we expected them to be in the spring, and there is a prospect of a reasonable crop yet. The very wet weather delayed our cornplanters very much, but we believe the work is pretty generally finished now.

The free lectures delivered in front of W. B. Miles' store by the Indian Root and Herb Doctor were exceedingly well attended. His medicine was not free, however, and consequently will have no trouble disposing of the receipts from this place.

The very first candidate of the season passed through town, one day last week looking very amiable and happy. Hope the smile will not be on the other side of his face after the election.

The removal of the old log building upon the corner of Miles Green's property adds about five hundred per cent. to the "corner."

Messrs. C. H. Else & Bro., have had their drug store repaired and repainted, also Mr. C. H. Else's dwelling house.

The members of the Methodist Sunday-school held a very agreeable entertainment in the M. E. church, last Sunday evening. There was plenty of fine music, recitations and readings. The parts performed by the juvenile or infant class being extremely successful and reflecting very creditably upon their training in Sunday-school.

Rev. Woodcock and Prof. Else addressed the congregation. The church was very beautifully and tastefully decorated with flowers. At the conclusion of the exercises Mr. Eddy made a pleasant address, thanking the Sunday-school and the persons who assisted in the decoration.

DOINGS IN EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA.—No season of the year is better calculated to aid one in forming a fair opinion of the fertility of this section than the months of May and June. Nothing yields a more satisfying scene than the broad, well-tilled acres that fall within the range of vision as you stand on the summit of Nittany Mountain. The whole valley a sward of livid green tells silently and yet so truthfully how many days of anxious toil were spent upon those fields, how many weary hands and feet turned from their autumn's work, with no assurance but the records of the past that their faithful acres would again respond right royally to their arduous efforts. When nature lavishes her blessings so impartially it would be unreasonable to look for anything but happy contentment and minds disposed to move along evenly with the current, regardless of the dimensions of the outside world.

And yet here in this sequestered valley, safely guarded by stately mountains, the ominous rumbling of internal warfare that threatens disaster in November next, is already audible. Within the Republican camp dissatisfaction is fast coming to view, and the standard bearer from Franklin county can justly feel proud of the following he will have among these honest "lords of creation."

The citizens of Aaronsburg and vicinity are busily occupied in preparations for an entertainment to be given in the Reformed church of that place on the evening of June 24th, the proceeds to be for the replenishing of the Reformed Sunday-school library. The entertainment will consist of selections and recitations interspersed with music under the efficient direction of Prof. W. T. Meyer. This gentleman is leaving nothing undone that will render the occasion both interesting and profitable. He also has been fortunate in securing the services of Dr. J. F. Harter, an accomplished performer on the cornet, and Mr. B. F. Kister, a piccoloist of no mean reputation. With the acknowledged ability of the above gentlemen the public have abundant assurance that there is a rare treat in store for them.

—Children's Day at the Methodist church, on Sunday, was observed with more than ordinarily impressive ceremonies. The decoration was complete, tasty and attractive, consisting of graceful festooning, wreaths, anchors, crosses, hearts and elegant bouquets. A large arch was placed in front of the pulpit, under which stood a handsome Maltese cross. The upper part of this cross supported a scroll endorsed "Welcome," and on another scroll under the cross was the word "Good-bye," both words were kept covered until occasion demanded that they be seen. The attendance was all that could have been desired, and the collection, we are told, was fair. The day was set apart in 1866 as one suitable for permitting children and their friends to contribute to a fund designed to assist those to prepare for the ministry who are too poor to take the proper course usually.

—That class of young men, who devote what little time they may be out of bed during the day, to gazing intently upon the images reflected from plate-glass windows, in front of which they are often to be seen, and their evenings to the furtherance of very questionable enterprises, is well represented in Bellefonte. The last agony that has attacked them is throwing apples, and then retreating so as not to be seen. The practice will get some of them into trouble unless they discontinue it. There is an ordinance upon the borough statute books prohibiting throwing missiles of any kind.

—An old sportsman gives the following advice to a new beginner: "When you take a gun in your hand, for any purpose whatever, never take it by the muzzle, never look into its muzzle or allow a gun's muzzle to point towards you. The numerous shot gun accidents indicate that a shot gun is as certain to go off as a person is to get before its muzzle. Use a breech loader and keep behind your gun. If the gun must do something rash, hold her tight to your shoulder and let her kick. You can get more gun sense from being kicked than you can from being shot."

—Do not forget that the Y. M. C. A. festival to-night will merit your support. All delicacies of the season will be provided. It is the intention to continue it during this week. Young men, ask that parcel of sweetness of yours to accompany you, and as the delicious strawberries, ice cream and cake disappear you may be able to propound the one question that will have a marked effect upon her and your future well being. The entertainment will be all that any can desire.

—Business circles here were shaken to the very foundation on Thursday last by the announcement that I. Guggenheimer had failed, liabilities about $25,000. The excellent standing of the house for many years naturally led people to place in its stability the greatest confidence. It is thought that in the onslaught of merciless creditors, Mr. Guggenheimer will be left penniless.

—H. Y. Stitzer, Esq., over a week ago, fell from a step ladder, and so severely hurt his ankle as to be unable to walk for several days and now has to depend upon his crutches for support. One of the effects of the accident, was to render our genial friend a trifle morose, and he reprimands news venders for the delay in noting the casualty.

—Brother W. T. Bair, of the Phillipsburg Journal, took Bellefonte in on Tuesday. He thinks Bellefonte may possibly attain Phillipsburg's size and importance, before long, if the people do not travel too fast. Mr. Bair is causing his publication to flourish, and we wish it no small portion of Earth's good things.

—A Watchman correspondent favors the nomination of B. F. Hunter, Esq., of Benner township, for the Legislature. Democracy in its search for men of the right kind to fill the office referred to might go a good bit farther and do a great deal worse than to nominate Mr. Hunter.

—Last Saturday night was rendered notorious for the number of cases of drunkenness. One inebriated individual appearing upon the scene with a loaded shot gun. There is a little mansion, built for the accommodation of these persons, that unfortunately missed a good thorough filling.

—The Seranton Evening News, a new publication, has reached us. It is full of news, tasty in appearance, and gives expression to political opinions of a decided, independent nature. A hearty welcome is extended you.

—Rev. W. K. Forster, the popular young divine now in charge of the Centre Hall Presbyterian church, was married to Miss Aggie Grey, of Loveville, on the 8th instant. That they may be happy is the wish of many friends.

—We noticed, on our streets, this week, the venerable ex-Sheriff Ellis Irwin, of Clearfield. He was attending the Friends Quarterly meeting. He is a brother of Hon. John Irwin, Jr., and father of "Jimmy" Irwin, of east Lamb street.

—Among the different callers at our sanctum since our last issue, we recall Messrs. H. D. Vonada, A. L. Shaffer, G. M. Hertlein, and John Q. Miles, as pleasant visitors.

—Mr. H. Holtz, a member of the firm of Messrs. Joseph Bros., called upon the DEMOCRAT, on Friday, for the first time. He will be a welcome guest in the future, as he was at this time.

—To-night the Y. M. C. A. festival. Come early and stay late.

—Grand free lunch at the Opera House Restaurant, Saturday evening.

—Messrs. S. & A. Loeb sell Arbuckles coffee at 17 cents per pound.

—Milwaukee beer, in bottles, for use of families and dealers at the Butts' House.

—For 13 years I had Chronic Catarrh. The Catarrh is well. PERUNA. Mrs. J. Manks, Pittsburg, Pa.

—The different offices in the court house are being fitted up in a style becoming the dignity of the officials.

—Only one more issue of the DEMOCRAT before the nomination of the next Governor of Pennsylvania.

—Another accident at the car works, Charlie Boss lost two fingers of his left hand. Cut off by a circular saw.

—Next to dark green and royal blue, the favorite color for street wear is the new shade of golden brown—the color of Harry Green's cigars.

—The following letters are held at the P. O. for postage: Rev. W. A. Carver, Snow Shoe, Mr. A. Lyon, Altoona, R. H. Thomas, Mechanicsburg.

—Dr. Glenn, of Snow Shoe, who has been sick for nine weeks, is not improving, an operation performed a day or two ago left him in a weak condition.

—In purchasing confectionery, fruits, tobacco and cigars, do not miss Geo. W. Eaton's new store. Everything in his line always on hand at lowest figures.

—Mr. A. W. W. Bayard, is the only representative Bellefonte has in the convention of the Pharmaceutical Society of Pennsylvania, now in session at Altoona.

—Chief Burgess Powers has ordered that the use of noisy fireworks be discontinued until July 4, at which time it can be indulged in to suit the taste of the public.

—Do not throw away this issue of the DEMOCRAT until you have carefully studied every word of what Messrs. S. & A. Loeb have to say in their advertisement to be found in another column.

—The residence of J. H. Reifnyder, Milheim, narrowly escaped entire destruction by fire, on the 6th instant. Milheim will sometime realize the need of an adequate fire department. Sometime.

—Mrs. Louis Housel, died at Lock Haven on Sunday, and was buried in the Union cemetery, here, on Tuesday. The family is well known here and her death will be regretted. The corpse was followed to the place of interment by a large concourse of friends.

—Clement Dale, Esq., in company with his father, started on a tour of observation through the west on Tuesday. His many lady friends will deplore his absence, and anxiously await his return. During his absence his brother, A. A. Dale, Esq., will attend to the office duties.

—It does not matter, but yet we think it strange that while Lock Haven, Tyrone, Altoona and other small affairs in the neighborhood, can celebrate the glorious fourth in first class style, that Bellefonte, the queen of inland towns, intends to sit down and do absolutely nothing. Has your patriotism oozed out at your finger tips?

—The drive from Snow Shoe to Beaver must be a pleasant one, said to be so narrow that it is necessary to drive ten miles to reach a place to turn round. We heard of the novel expedient of a lady, who rather than drive the distance spoken of backed the horse clear over the mountain; the most remarkable part of the story is that she escaped unhurt.

—Among other tombstones, intended to mark the graves of soldiers, shipped by the Government to Mr. W. H. Fry at Pine Grove Mills, is one marked "Private Watkins, 201 Regt. P. V." As no such person is known to have been buried in the neighborhood, Mr. F. is at a loss what to do with it. Any friends of the deceased can secure it by addressing Mr. Fry.

—The Republican suggests that June 30, the day upon which Guitaut is to bid farewell to every care, be observed as a national holiday. We pity any one who can sink all humanitarian impulses, and thus glory in the tragical death of a fellow mortal, even though he be guilty of the most heinous crime in the whole calendar of sin. The American people are not ready for propositions of this kind and we hope never will be.

—By reference to our advertising columns it will be noticed that Messrs. Spangler & Co., succeed John Proudfoot & Co., furniture dealers. The new firm is prepared to meet all demands. In addition to an elegant line of new furniture, they have unexcelled facilities for filling all orders in the undertaking line. A hearse furnished free of charge. Special attention to repairing, competent workmen constantly employed.

—Wilson, McFarlane & Co., call attention to the only reliable Ready Mixed Paint in the market. The Pioneer Prepared Paint is not only superior to any Ready Mixed Paint sold but rivals pure white lead in its smoothness in working and durability. This paint is guaranteed by the manufacturers not to crack or peel within three years. The guarantee is not only good for replacing the paint but it will be put on if it should crack or peel within the time specified. It will be to your interest to call and see Wilson, McFarlane & Co., before purchasing either white lead or any other Ready Mixed Paint.

—An enthusiastic reception was tendered the State College B. B. C., upon their return from Williamsport, Saturday evening. Word of their success reached the college several hours before the players arrived and all were anxious to hear the details of the game. As soon as the rumbling of the wagon and the notes of "Hoe de Corn" were heard echoing through the valley, there was a general gathering of the boys who cheered and yelled until they seized the hands of the victors and expressed their congratulation. After which Prof. Jackson invited the boys to his parlor and gave them an unexpected but generous and hearty reception. The game was a good one though the score was tame, owing to a number of errors due to the bad condition of the ground. Following is the result: State College, 15; Lewisburg, 12.

—The new school board organized on Monday by reelecting the old officers. D. M. Butts, president, H. B. Pontius, secretary and John P. Harris, treasurer. The members that now are arrayed in scholastic ermine, for the first time, are Messrs. D. F. Fortney, Olie Meek and A. V. Smith. Jos. Belford was given permission to conduct a session of subscription school during the summer vacation. A resolution was passed to the effect that no applications would be entertained until after the superintendent's annual examination, except in cases of those holding higher grade certificates. The board starts out well.

—The M. E. Sociable last week was even more interesting than usual. The different exercises of a literary character were well received. Upon concluding the entertainment, announcement was made that ice cream and cake would be served to those who might desire it. Lawyer Ray became so excited at the prospect of getting some that he actually tore around with his hat on. The receipts amply fulfilled the most earnest hopes of the ladies in charge.

—While ex-Governor Moses is making shoes at Sing Sing, Barnum taking a trip around the world, Proctor Knott expects to be the next Governor of Kansas, Judge Cummin may be indulging some supreme judicial hopes, Gen. Hancock's name is being mentioned in connection with the Governorship of Pennsylvania—Sechler keeps on attending to his own business, selling more goods, and cheaper than ever. His groceries are always in demand.

—You can save from 100 to 200 per cent. on a good dress, from 100 to 300 per cent. on a suit, from 35 to 100 per cent. on a pair of shoes, and in everything that you need you will find it to your interest to buy your goods where you get them at first cost. LYON & CO.

—Yesterday a gentleman called at the Philadelphia branch, priced the goods he wanted to purchase, and then said he wanted to look around. After while he returned and bought extensively saying that he could not buy as cheap anywhere else in town. So they all say.

—Clothing, gents' furnishing goods hats and caps, and a complete line of all goods kept in a first class clothing store at the Philadelphia Branch. All goods sold as cheap as can be to be consistent and only one price asked. Mr. Lewin is always glad to show goods.

NOTICE.—All persons owing State or County tax for the year 1880, in Spring township, must either pay it to me at my home during the week or at Fortney's office in Bellefonte, on Saturday afternoons until July 1, after which I will collect it by law. JOS. TRAMER, Collector.

—If you want a good cool glass of Philip Best's Milwaukee beer, and a free lunch every morning, and Saturday evening, from 9 to 11, call at the Butts' House. F. X. LEHMAN, Prop'r.

—The Bee Hive is the place to buy men's and boy's boots and shoes, as they intend to give up that line, and are selling off the stock at and below cost to make room for other goods.

—Sechler & Co. still sell groceries and everything in their line at the same reasonable prices. They never had a finer stock or took more pains to please; give them a call.

—Men's whole stock brogans, $1.00; women's button shoes, $1.25; women's carpet slippers, 25c.; men's fine button shoe, London toe, $2.00; men's carpet slippers, 50c.

—Gentlemen's fine socks—5 pairs for twenty-five cents, at the Boston Clothing House, just opened in Reynolds' block, Bellefonte, Pa. 23-41

—Doll & Mingle justly claim to have the largest and cheapest stock of boots and shoes in Centre county. A trial will remove all doubts.

—Felicitous flights of fancy, or ethereal idylizing can only be indulged in and enjoyed to perfection behind one of Mr. Harry Green's cigars.

—Spring and Summer season, 1882, Woolen stock now complete. Early orders solicited. 44-47 MONTEGOMERY & CO., Tailors.

—Call at the Bee Hive and see their large and elegant line of sun umbrellas and lace trimmed parasols, the largest and cheapest assortment in town.

The above, as taken from our issue of May 25th is a little indistinct. We referred to Doll & Mingle.

—A remarkable fact attending all the great railroads of the United States is the immense wealth of their leading officials. It is confined to no State and is exceptional to all other employments. The grandest talent and greatest learning, in law, physics and other learned avocations, accumulate a few thousands in a lifetime; but railroad officials, often rising from mere clerkships, roundmen, ticket and other agents, with salaries running from hundreds to a few thousands, eventually as possessors of many millions. It is no uncommon thing to see a railroad president, rising from the humblest station in the course of fifteen or twenty years, become the owner of $5,000,000, $10,000,000 or even $20,000,000 at a salary which would not average for the whole time over $12,000. These are mysteries that the common people cannot understand.

—A case calling for medical inquiry is perplexing the good people of Tyrone. Mr. John M. Smith died there on Sunday and arrangements were made for his burial on Tuesday. Upon opening the coffin to view the remains the friends were surprised to discover signs of life. The funeral was postponed and Mr. Smith may be restored to his friends.

—The Bee Hive has the finest and largest assortment of white dress goods in town. Ladies will do well to note this.

—Lyon & Co., are closing out their entire stock of dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes at cost, in order to quit the business.

—If you want to save money in your purchases, go to Lyon & Co., as they are selling everything at cost. LYON & CO.

—$30,000 worth of dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, dress goods, &c., for cost at LYON & CO.

Doctors Muhlenberg and Smith, of Reading, are about to make a series of experiments with the view of ascertaining the nature of the poison which causes hydrophobia. That the examinations may include as wide a scope as possible they request that saliva of recently killed rabid dogs may be sent to them either enclosed in a vial or taken up by a sponge and the sponge enclosed in a vial. If the saliva cannot be obtained they desire a portion of the blood or a piece of the flesh of the animal. These gentlemen stand high in their profession and the results of their inquiries will be awaited with great interest by physicians as well as the general public.

The miners and other employees of the Clearfield and Centre county bituminous coal field have addressed a manifesto to their employers, the operators and shippers. This paper is the work of a committee appointed at the recent mass meeting held at Houtzdale and is signed by John Stantoch, Cornelius Cotter, George Maxwell, Richard Lloyd and John Lewis. The object is to induce the Coal Exchange to submit to arbitration the question of advancing the price of labor in the region in accordance with the recently preferred demand. The committee, who are the arbiters on the part of the workmen, say that if a full and frank exposition of the state of the trade demonstrates inability to make the increase without prejudice to the legitimate profits of enterprise, then the demand will be withdrawn or the refusal to grant it stand justified, which is to the same purpose. The time set for the answer to the manifesto is the 10th of the present month, though license is given for deliberation for a week longer. In conclusion, the committee adds that its aim is "to secure on one hand and admit on the other the right and privilege of both employers and employees to try to harmonize in a friendly manner the interests of both parties concerned." In so simple and obviously just an aim there will doubtless be little difficulty in coming to an understanding, and it is to be hoped that the threatened strike in the region in question will thus be averted. —Harrisburg Patriot.

A NEW Telegraph company has been organized with a capital of $21,000,000. It is to be known as the "Postal Telegraph Company," and material reduction in telegraph tolls are promised.
