REELS.—Messrs. Heinle, Harper, Wolf, Keller and McClain went for oels last Friday night, well prepared to secure a good large catch. After paddling around in the water for a considerable time, they succeeded in catching two brainless fellows, separated by unkind fate from the mother oel, but fortunately for them, they were consigned to a bag which had not been examined very carefully, and the hole in one corner afforded them an excellent place of egress. Thus endeth the first chapter on oels.

REMARKABLE CURE.—The case of Miss Sue Campbell, of Pine Grove Mills, this county, who for twenty years has been an invalid, is attracting no little attention in our midst. In all that time she had not eaten a single meal at the table, had not been out of the house, had not walked a step unaided. Her prostration was caused by an affection of the spine, upon which the skill of many physicians had been exerted in vain.

Miss Campbell always has been a devout Christian, and among her friends numbered many of the most prominent evangelical workers in the State. She some time ago came to the conclusion that the prayer of the righteous will be answered and appointed a day upon which she was to arise from her bed—cured. Communicating with her friends she desired them to join with her in prayer for her recovery. The day arrived and as the specified hour approached she had the brace, that supported her through twenty years affliction, removed, and at the exact time previously set she arose from her bed walking naturally and without any inconvenience whatever. Her relatives fearful that she might overdo herself attempted to induce her to return to her couch, and to show them how thorough was her cure she started and ran rapidly up stairs. These are the facts, and whether or not Miss Campbell is indebted to Providence for her restoration we shall not discuss. This much however cannot be questioned that whereas she once was afflicted, she is now well.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITION.—The public meetings in the interest of Constitutional Prohibition (as previously announced) are now being held, and will be continued as follows: Stormstown, Thursday evening, July 20; Pine Grove Mills, Friday evening, July 21; Boalsburg, Saturday evening, July 22; Centre Hall, Sunday evening, July 23; Millheim, Monday evening, July 24; Aaronsburg, Tuesday evening, July 25; Milesburg, Wednesday evening, July 26; Bellefonte, on Thursday and Friday evenings, July 27 and 28. The county convention will be held at Bellefonte, in the court house, on Friday, July 28, commencing at 10.30 A. M., and continuing during the day.

At each meeting an address will be delivered by a representative of the State Constitutional Amendment Association. This movement is entirely non-partisan, and the public, without distinction of sex, race, party or denomination, is cordially invited to favor these meetings, with their presence and influence. The pastors and at least two laymen from each church in the county are requested to attend the convention as delegates. Will the ministers of all denominations, and others in the county who are interested, please make thorough announcement of all the above meetings, and see that delegates attend, and lend your aid and influence to make both meetings and convention a success? By order of STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The various offices in the court house have been beautifully repaired and partly refurbished. In the office of Mr. Keller, county treasurer, a new safe takes the place of the one which has been used for the last ten years or more; it is of the Barnes' manufacture and was traded for the old one, the county paying $200 difference. The counter has been moved and the walls newly painted. The only alteration in the office across the way, that of W. C. Heinle, Esq., district attorney, is fresh, white paint on the wood work, the little room adjoining has been left as it was, the four divans (?) will be as comfortable however as ever. Their next door neighbor, Mr. W. A. Tobias, appears to have been missed, since nothing has been changed in his office. The commissioners, Messrs. Greist, Campbell and Wolf, did not forget their own quarters; everything looks neat and sweet—their clerk Mr. Walker not excepted, and if any advantage is to be derived from cleanliness there is no reason why they should not enjoy the very best of good health.

One door farther, on the same side the hall, we find Recorder Bible and Register McClain, here the magic wand of judicious improvement has apparently been allowed to swing its full length, and both gentlemen are a trifle more affable than ever before. Finally we step in to see J. C. Harper, prothonotary, and find him busy at work behind a lattice work screen, punctured by three ominous looking openings, through which it is designed to have the plebeians transact business, and if the gate is kept closed, as it should be, will put a quietus on the exuberant hilarity of visitors who were wont to crack unnumbered jokes, while killing time that did not appear very valuable.

The offices of Centre county officials are now inferior to none and as the cost of improvements must have been considerable, the public will naturally expect them to be well taken care of in the future.

At a meeting of the Democratic County Committee, on Friday last, after the transaction of regular business, the following resolution was offered by W. F. Reber, Esq., and adopted:

Resolved, That we most heartily endorse the ticket placed in nomination by the Democratic State Convention and pledge to it our united and untiring support. We recognize in our candidates ability, integrity and eminent qualifications for the discharge of all public duties that will develop upon them, and we confidently believe that their success at the polls will result in the redress of the many and grievous wrongs under which the citizens of our Commonwealth have long suffered through the mal-administration of the radical party.

Half an hour spent in the grocery store of Sechler & Co., will give one an idea of the immense proportions of the provision trade in Bellefonte. The stock is so arranged as not only to be at all times accessible to clerks, and thus facilitate purchasing, but in such a tasty manner as to cause beholders to compliment the skill displayed. The consumers of groceries will find this the most reliable house in town. Remember they sell anything edible at rock bottom prices.

At a meeting of the school board, last evening, the following teachers were selected for Bellefonte schools for the ensuing term: 1. D. M. Leib, 2. J. C. Meyer, 3. Miss Beckie McGinley, 4. Miss F. Kate Hewes, 5. Miss Lizzie Swartz, 6. Miss Lizzie Shortridge, 7. Miss Bella Rankin, 8. Miss Anna M. Caffrey, 9. Miss Clara Strickland, 10. Miss Carrie Humes. Colored school—Mr. Hoffman was chosen janitor.

The following letter explains itself. It is bona fide, and matters not how we secured it:

DEAR DR.—Not feeling at all well I take this opportunity of consulting you. I have been suffering for a few months with some tender disease which seems to affect the tender and susceptible organ, called the heart. If you can afford any relief please do so, but don't make the prescription too difficult to understand or the dose too strong or hard to take. Ever most sincerely,

A new coal oil stove has been added to the furniture of the Y. M. C. A. room. It was tested last Thursday evening, in the preparation of coffee, intended to form a part of a social luncheon. The members who surrounded the festive board were unanimous in pronouncing the stove a creditable acquisition. The coffee was excellent and no one censured Mr. Chas F. Cook for emptying three cups.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has issued an order to baggage agents as follows: All baggage, consisting of trunks, chests, valises, packages, etc., unclaimed for more than forty-eight hours will be charged at the rate of ten cents per day until the charge reaches one dollar. The latter sum will be charged for all baggage unclaimed for from ten to thirty days.

The Lewisburgh Daily News has been enlarged and is now a twenty-eight column paper. The News was launched upon the journalistic sea, as an experiment, six months ago, and such was the favor it met with that it became necessary to enlarge in order to be able to meet the demands of its patrons. We heartily wish it continued success.

The wedding day appointed was, But ere the day did come, alas! He sickened, and he died. All because he failed to purchase clothing from Lewin. Calamities of this kind never bother any whose clothing bears the imprint "from the Philadelphia Branch, Bellefonte."

Mr. W. A. Kinsloe, the genial, debonair editor of the Lock Haven Express, was married to Miss Marsh, of the same place, on last Thursday evening. Mrs. Kinsloe was one of the most successful teachers in the public schools of that city. Vivat.

Our quiet friend Mr. Wm. Bright, who resides at Aaronsburg, scared us almost to death, on Tuesday, by dropping one whole, unbroken twenty dollar bill on our table. Mr. Bright fully understands the need of a printer, and better still is desirous of "keeping square." Call often.

Miss Mollie Snyder returned home from Philipsburg, last week, bringing with her a lady friend, Miss Sallie Bollinger, who expects to remain a few weeks.

Mr. Lewis Fabian, the expert operator upon the scroll saw, is in Philadelphia, visiting old friends.

If "Tuba" sends us his other name we will insert his communication.

IN MEMORIAM.—Death has again crossed the threshold of Odd Fellowship, and the golden chain which binds her sons together as a fraternal band has again been broken.

In the strength of manhood, cheered by the confidence and friendship of those who knew and valued his worth, and blessed with all the endearing ties of home and kindred, our friend and brother has been cut down in the midst of his usefulness.

No more will the gavel summon him here on earth, no more will his presence cheer and gladden the home or the fraternal circle of Odd Fellowship. His work is done, and he has been called to pass that bourne, whence no traveler returns. Let us who survive him lay to heart this solemn admonition, and in the midst of life prepare for death.

WHEREAS, In the providence of God, Past Grand Henry Thiel, a member of Lick Run Lodge, No. 311 I. O. O. F., departed this life July 12, 1882. Resolved, That while we mourn his loss, we will cherish his memory, and strive to imitate the patient industry, the inflexible integrity, and quiet and unobtrusive deportment, which so marked his character and life.

Resolved, That we tender to the stricken family our unfeigned sympathy in their bereavement, and commend them to the care and protection of Him who has promised to be the judge of the widow and the father of the fatherless.

Resolved, That a page of our records be suitably inscribed to his memory, and that for thirty days the usual badge of mourning be observed.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing be forwarded to the family, and that additional copies be furnished the county papers for publication. GEO. H. WISTAR, P. G., JNO. McCLOSKEY, P. G., HOWARD A. MOORE, P. G., Com.

FESTIVAL AT MILESBURG.—All the gay lassies and laddies of Milesburg and vicinity were out in their very best bib and tucker last Saturday evening, July 14, to attend the Odd Fellow's festival in their hall at this place. The evening was fair, a trifle warm in the hall but as there was any amount of ice cream and other good things, no one seemed to mind the heat very much except Prof. Girod, who entertained the company with excellent music. The ice cream churners had a pretty hard time of it, for there was such a demand for it that they were kept extremely busy in its manufacture and transportation across the street from Mr. Carr's. Peanuts, too, were good sale judging from the pleased countenances of Messrs. Jones and Smith, who had charge of this department. Altogether it was a grand affair and an immense success. Many thanks are due the ladies who did the soliciting and the members of the order sincerely thank them for their assistance. The receipts foot up very nicely, reaching very closely, if not altogether, one hundred dollars. JINXS.

The Deering Twine Binder, for wheat and other grain, manufactured at Chicago, Ill., is becoming deservedly popular among Centre County farmers. Mr. W. L. Deering, one of the most competent salesmen in the employ of the company, called at our office on Tuesday.

The Butts House is having a large measure of well earned success. Mr. Lehman is popular. Special inducements extended the traveling public.

Special inducements for Fall and Winter clothing during the Summer months. MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors. 27-1f

If you want a good cool glass of Philip Best's Milwaukee beer, and a free lunch every morning, and Saturday evening, from 9 to 11, call at the Butts' House. F. X. LEHMAN, Prop'r.

Goldsmith Brothers have bought for cash "on the nail" the entire stock of carpets formerly owned by I. Guggenheimer & Co.

Now is your time to save 30 or 40 per cent. on carpets, oil cloths and matings, the Guggenheimer stock, at a great sacrifice at the Bee Hive.

Mr. Israel Sternberg is at home.

strictly in accordance with the following rules: 1. The Democratic County Convention of Centre county shall be composed of one delegate for every fifty Democratic votes polled at the Presidential or Governorial election next preceding the convention.

The allotment of delegates to the several election districts in the county shall be made by the Standing Committee of the county at its first meeting in every alternate year succeeding the Presidential and Governorial elections and shall be in proportion to the Democratic votes cast in each district at such elections.

2. The election for delegates to represent the different districts in the annual Democratic County Convention shall be held at the usual place of holding the general elections for each district, on the Saturday preceding the second Tuesday of August, in each and every year, beginning at two o'clock, p. m., on said day and continuing until six o'clock, p. m. The delegates so elected shall meet in County Convention in the Court House, at Bellefonte, on the Tuesday following at two o'clock, p. m.

3. The said delegate elections shall be held by an election board, to consist of the members of county committee for each district and two other Democratic voters thereof, who shall be appointed or designated by the County Committee. In case any of the persons so constituting the board shall be absent from the place of holding the election for a quarter of an hour after the time appointed by Rule First for the opening of the same, his or their place or places shall be filled by an election, to be conducted viva voce, by the Democratic voters present at the time.

4. Every qualified voter of the district, who at the late general election voted the Democratic ticket, shall be entitled to a vote at the delegate election; and any qualified elector of the district who will pledge his word of honor to support the Democratic ticket at the next general election shall be permitted to vote at the delegate elections.

5. The voting at all delegate elections shall be by ballot; upon which ballot shall be written or printed the name or names of the delegate or delegates voted for, together with any instructions which the voter may desire to give the delegate or delegates. Each ballot shall be received from the person voting the same by a member of the election board, and by him deposited in a box or other receptacle provided for that purpose, to which box or other receptacle no person but members of the board shall have access.

6. No instructions shall be received or recognized unless the same be voted upon the ballot as provided in Rule Fifth, nor shall such instructions be voted upon the ballot, by binding upon the delegates, unless one-half or more of the ballots shall contain instructions concerning the same office. Whenever half or more of the ballots shall contain instructions concerning any office, the delegates elected at such elections shall be held to be instructed to support the candidate having the highest number of votes for such office.

7. Each election board shall keep an accurate list of the names of all persons voting at such elections, when the list of voters together with a full and complete report of such election, containing an accurate statement of the persons elected delegates and all instructions voted, shall be certified by said board to the county convention, upon printed blanks to be furnished by the county convention.

8. Whenever from any district qualified Democratic voters, in numbers equal to five times the delegates which such district has in the county convention, shall complain in writing of an undue election or false return of delegates or of instructions, in which complaints the alleged facts shall be specifically set forth and verified by the affidavit of one or more persons, such complainants shall have the right to contest the seat of such delegates or the validity of such instructions. Such complaint shall be heard by a committee of five delegates to be appointed by the president of the convention; which said committee shall proceed to hear the parties, their proofs and allegations, and as soon as may be reported to the convention what delegates are entitled to seats therein, and what instructions are binding upon such delegates. Whereupon the convention shall proceed immediately upon the call of the years and days to adopt or reject the report of the contesting parties; in which call of the years and days the names of the delegates whose seats are contested or whose instructions are disputed shall be omitted.

9. All delegates must reside in the district they represent. In case of absence or inability to attend, substitutions may be made from citizens of the district.

10. Delegates must obey the instructions given them by their respective districts, and, if violated, it shall be the duty of the president of the convention to cast the vote of such delegate or delegates in accordance with the instructions, and the delegate or delegates so offending shall be forthwith expelled from the convention, and shall not be eligible to any office or place of trust in the party for a period of two years.

11. In the convention, a majority of all voters shall be necessary to a nomination and no person's name shall be excluded from the list of candidates until after the third ballot or vote, when the person receiving the least number of votes shall be omitted and struck from the roll, and so on at each successive vote until a nomination be made.

12. If any person who is a candidate for any nomination before a county convention shall be proven to have offered any money, or other valuable thing, or made any promise of a consideration or reward to any delegate for his vote, or to any person with a view of inducing or securing the votes of delegates, or if the same shall be done by any other person with the knowledge and consent of such candidate, the name of such candidate shall be immediately stricken from the list of candidates; or if such fact be ascertained after his nomination, shall be struck from the ticket and the vacancy supplied by a new nomination, and in either case, such person shall be ineligible to any nomination by the convention, or to an election as a delegate thereafter. And in case it shall be alleged that any candidate put in nomination has been guilty of such acts or of any other fraudulent practices to obtain such nomination, the charges shall be investigated by the county committee, and such steps taken as the good of the party may require.

13. If any delegate shall receive any money or other valuable thing, or accept the promise of any consideration or reward to be paid, delivered or secured to him or any person for such candidate, as an inducement for his vote, upon proof of the fact to the satisfaction of the convention, such delegate shall be forthwith expelled, and shall not be received as a delegate to any further convention, and shall be ineligible to any party nomination.

14. Cases arising under the 8th, 12th and 13th rules shall have precedence over all other business in convention until determined. 15. That the term of the chairman of the county committee shall begin on the first day of January of each and every year. 16. That the delegates from the several boroughs and townships be authorized, in conjunction with the chairman of the county committee, to appoint the members of the committee for the various boroughs and townships.
