Local Department.

ATTENTION.—The members of the HANCOCK LEGION, and all others who are interested in the success of ROBERT E. PATTERSON, are requested to meet at the Bush House on Saturday evening, Aug. 5th, 1882. L. T. MUNSON, President.

—Miss Mary Strohm is teaching a session of select school at Millheim.

—Much better do without sugar and coffee than to be out of PERUNA.

—Try Geo. H. Wolfe's "charcoal tin" cans for fruit. This make will last longer than any other.

—Millers in the neighborhood of Millheim carry flour to the editor of the Journal by the sack. No wonder he is so corpulent.

—Mr. A. J. Immel now carries the mail from Coburn to Woodward, having purchased from the former contractor his equipments.

—The Butts House is having a large measure of well earned success. Mr. Lehman is popular. Special inducements extended the traveling public.

—Jack Haverly is planning to establish a theatre in London—"A first-class, broad-gauge, Yankee theatre, to present American plays, played by American players, in an American way."

—The members of St. Mary's Catholic Church, at Snow Shoe, held a picnic on Monday of this week, that is spoken of as having been an enjoyable affair. A large crowd was in attendance.

—We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. R. F. Foulk, representing W. L. Foulk's Son & Co., Pittsburgh, on Monday, who is soliciting business in the advertising line for his firm.

—Mr. A. B. Dunning, Jr., of Scranton, an educator and journalist of considerable experience, and a pleasant gentleman personally, in company of Mr. J. Willard Miller, called at our office on Monday.

—Dr. Fisher, of Zion, is now fairly in the field for the Legislature. He pronounces his success not only possible but probable. Well, the long pole knocks the persimmons, and we bid you God speed.

—Misses Lida McGinley, Mary Galbraith and Alice Van Ormer are "away down in Clinton county." The ladies will be kind enough to endeavor to have a pleasant time, and not be gone too long.

—Sixteen couples participated in an exceedingly enjoyable hop at the Bush House on last Friday evening. Refreshments were served in the dining room under the direct supervision of Mr. Teller in person.

—We learn from the Millheim Journal that Mr. F. P. Musser has launched a beautiful little yacht, on the turbulent bosom of the extensive dam there, which he has christened Maud, in honor of his little daughter.

—For genuine veracity in disposing of merchandise, we commend Mr. Foster Williams, now with Lyon & Co. What Mr. Williams does not know about the staying qualities of fanciful colors in cotton goods is scarcely worth knowing.

—A New York actress who plays "Olivette" kicks one of her dainty slippers into the audience every night, and a Chicago actress hearing of it was so tickled with the idea that she tried it. Three men were mashed. Try Harry Green's cigars.

—Miss Gertrude McKinney, one of Port Matilda's handsomest daughters, has for a week or two been visiting friends in Bellefonte. She considered her sojourn here incomplete without a friendly call upon the DEMOCRAT, for which we return thanks.

—Wilson, McFarlane & Co., call attention to the only reliable Ready Mixed Paint in the market. The Pioneer Prepared Paint is not only superior to any Ready Mixed Paint sold but rivals pure white lead in its smoothness in working and durability. This paint is guaranteed by the manufacturers not to crack or peel within three years. The guarantee is not only good for replacing the paint but it will be put on if it should crack or peel within the time specified. It will be to your interest to call and see Wilson, McFarlane & Co., before purchasing either white lead or any other Ready Mixed Paint.

PUBLIC MEETINGS IN BELLEFONTE.—It is earnestly desired by those who have in charge the Constitutional Prohibition meetings to be held in Bellefonte, on Thursday and Friday evenings of next week, that the friends of the movement give it their earnest support, and help make these meetings a great success. It is entirely a non-partisan movement and commends itself to the favor and support of all good citizens. The ministers and the various churches of our town, are especially interested in its success.

TEMPERANCE.—The cause of Prohibition is receiving no little attention in our county. Mr. W. D. Blackburn is actively engaged organizing temperance societies in every township, and reports his success thus far very encouraging. The work he and his friends have undertaken is one worthy the mettle of those agitating the movement, and if they succeed in banishing from our midst the curse of drunkenness, they will merit the thanks of all. We have received a number of communications from various points, but our friends ignored the fact that space is valuable, and will pardon us for reducing their communications to a suitable length. At Pleasant Gap a meeting was held, and the following officers elected, Pres., Christian Dale, Jr., Vice Presidents, Prof. John Bell, A. J. Swartz and James Hamilton; Sec'y., J. Finley Bell; Treasurer, J. M. Furey. At Pine Grove Mills, Dr. G. W. Woods, Pres., A. E. Clemson, D. W. Young and Fletcher Meek, Vice Presidents; George Dannelly, Secretary and W. H. Bailey, Treasurer, are the officers of a similar organization. Our correspondent at the latter place, in commenting upon the subject, says: "This meeting, together with the rapid and alarming increase of intemperance in our midst, since a licensed house has been so shamefully thrust upon us by disinterested parties, has awakened some feeling on the subject in this community, which we trust, in the name of God, will not abate until not only the uncalled for fountain of death in our village, but every one of a like character in the entire county and State will be dried up." Hon. W. A. Murray, Pres.; Henry Keller, Dr. J. F. Woods, D. F. Weiland, Vice Presidents; H. J. Boyer, Secretary and R. O. Goheen, Treas., were elected officers at a meeting which organized an association at Boalsburg. At Centre Hall, on Sunday evening a branch association was installed and offered as follows: Pres., W. E. Fisher; Vice Presidents, Geo. L. Goodhart, M. Derstine, W. W. Royer; Secretary, J. Wimer Wolf; Treasurer, F. M. Burkholder.

MILESBERG NEWS.—Our town was visited a few days since by Mr. Walters, a colporteur from Clearfield. We had no idea we were such a degenerated set as to make it necessary for a person of his cloth to come among us, but since such is the case we hope he will come again. We really think Milesberg takes the cake for its number of dogs. The average is from two to five dogs in each family, and the canine concert kept up nightly is without an equal. Ross Coover has the "boss" corn. It has been in tassel for about two weeks. One night last week a cow broke into Mr. W. Grassmyer's garden and was making way with his cabbage at a terrible rate. Fortunately the cow was discovered before a very great deal of damage was done and sauerkraut will not go up. Our friends, Eli Williams and Will Moore, expect to start for Montana Territory in a short time. Mr. Williams has been engaged for a number of years at conchbuilding in this place. He will be very much missed for he is a general favorite with the boys. Mr. Moore is a son of Agnew Moore, who went to that far country about four years ago, and is going for a change of air as his health is not very good. They have our best wishes.

—Miss Nettie Pifer, of Howard township, an accomplished and attractive lady, rendered herself of some practical use to her brother, one of the most enterprising farmers of that section, by assisting in harvesting this year's grain crop, which was spread over 75 acres. She did the driving from first to last, and in the manner in which she controlled the fiery steeds entitles her to the proud distinction of being Centre county's most successful lady driver.

—Mr. D. F. Taylor, of College township, a prominent candidate for the Legislature, called upon us yesterday and authorized the announcement of his name. He has been a life-long Democrat, never asked anything at the hands of the party, and if chosen to represent Centre county in the next Legislature in all probability his work will merit the approbation of his constituents.

—Thirty arrivals at the Bush House on Tuesday, these with the fifty permanent boarders gave the house the appearance of being full to overflowing, yet Mr. Teller and his second in command, the genial, jovial, gentlemanly Ham, both declare there is room for many more. The laundry and livery are both complete and superior to any in the county, they having been recently newly refitted and improved in every respect.

—Loeb's are hooping 'er up, and the many customers constantly at their counters confirms the belief that they are being tendered the support of purchasers who look to their own interests in buying. This firm deals in everything and in securing small profits on each item sold, the aggregate is sufficient to satisfy them.

—The first law of nature is self-preservation; but to do it she needs PERUNA.

—As it may interest civilians, we publish the rules, etc. that will be enforced at Camp John Fulton Reynolds Lewistown. The boys, as will be seen, cannot expect to have much time allowed them for flirting, bucking the tiger or kindred pastimes, nevertheless if Corporal "Spowers" is called for he will be ready to receive visitors. The National Guard of Pennsylvania is making great preparations for the annual encampment at Lewistown on the 5th of August, to continue one week. Major-General John F. Hartranft has issued general orders for the encampment, appointing the hours for drill and inspection. Camping parties will be detailed for each organization to erect tents, etc., who will carry with them prepared rations, and the quartermaster's stores, camp and garrison equipment will be ready for issue early on the morning of Thursday, and the subsistence supplies on the same day, when the issue will also be made to camping parties. No bands, except the regular enlisted bands, will be tolerated in the camp and no flag-poles, conspicuous flag, lettered devices or banners, except those authorized, will be allowed. No sutlers, peddlers, or hawkers will be allowed entrance to or be permitted to ply their vocations within the limits of the camp, with the exception of the division sutler and those provided with the proper authority. The utmost attention will be paid by commanders of companies to the cleanliness of their men, as to their persons, clothing, and tents, and no deviation from the prescribed uniform, either to officers or enlisted men, will be allowed at any duty or parade. The marking, defacing or in any way destroying or injuring the canvas is prohibited. It is thought that about 8,000 men will participate in the encampment.

There will be no drills on Sunday. The regular Sunday morning inspection will be held in all the commands, beginning at 9.30 A. M. Revolve (one gun).....6 o'clock A. M. Police call.....6.30 A. M. Breakfast.....7 A. M. Surgeon's call.....7.30 A. M. Guard mounting.....8.30 A. M. Drill.....9 A. M. Drill, recall.....9.15 A. M. Dinner.....12 M. Drill.....4 P. M. Drill, recall.....4.15 P. M. Dress parade begins at.....6.30 P. M. Supper.....7 P. M. Retreat (one gun).....Sunset. Tattoo.....9 P. M. Taps.....10 P. M. Roll calls at reveille, retreat, and tattoo.

—Col. D. G. Bush has kindly agreed to furnish the necessary land, gratis, for the erection of a boat house. The club as organized some time ago has not yet been named, but is composed of many of the most popular gentlemen in town. They are: Isaac Mitchell, J. M. Brockerhoff, S. K. McFarlane, H. C. Valentine, J. N. Lane, F. P. Blair, C. E. Schroeder, R. Thomas, D. H. Hastings, C. U. Hoffer, I. N. Gordon, W. F. Reber, H. Brockerhoff, W. L. Malin, J. H. Lingle, P. Gray Meek, J. A. McClain, John P. Harris, C. G. McMillen, Amos Mullen, E. L. Orvis, W. R. Brackbill, A. Brockerhoff, L. T. Munson, J. C. Harper, Frank E. Bible, J. Pierpoint, Wilbur F. Reeder. The list is still open and persons wishing to connect themselves with the organization can apply to Dr. J. M. Brockerhoff. The boat house is to be an elegant affair fitted up in suitable style for the reception of ladies, for whose benefit a special boat will be secured.

—Half an hour spent in the grocery store of Sechler & Co., will give one an idea of the immense proportions of the provision trade in Bellefonte. The stock is so arranged as not only to be at all times accessible to clerks, and thus facilitate purchasing, but in such a tasty manner as to cause beholders to compliment the skill displayed. The consumers of groceries will find this the most reliable house in town. Remember they sell anything edible at rock bottom prices.

She did the driving from first to last, and in the manner in which she controlled the fiery steeds entitles her to the proud distinction of being Centre county's most successful lady driver.

ENTERPRISE.—Among the many busy industries with which Bellefonte is favored we know of none of more general interest than the furniture establishment of R. B. Spangler & Co. These gentlemen have by degrees won the entire confidence of the general public, and to-day are as anxious as they ever were to please all, and give perfect satisfaction. Among the numerous articles handled by them we noticed: Parlor suits, bed room suits, lounges, marble top tables, odd pieces, side boards, spring beds, mattresses, bolsters, pillows, their own make extension tables, etc., etc. In the undertaking line they are especially prepared to attend to all business entrusted to their care. Their latest addition to this department is a patent "cooling board," which it would be well for all to see even though they may have no immediate personal use for it. Mr. Henry Swartz, one of the most skillful and best cabinet makers in Centre county has the mechanical department in charge. Parties going to housekeeping can fit themselves out cheaply, comfortably and speedily. Office and salesroom opposite Bush House.

THE CENTRE COUNTY SABBATH-SCHOOL Association belongs to the Sunday-school workers of all denominations in Centre county. Its records for the last twelve years show that every denomination without exception has been actively represented in the offices and duties of the association. It is the only organization in the county that offers to all, without distinction, an opportunity for mutual conference in reference to the one work of Bible study and teaching. Many witnesses will cheerfully testify that the Conventions and Institutes held by the Association have been very delightful occasions. The thirteenth annual convention will be held August 17th, in the Centre Hill Presbyterian church. It is intended to make this meeting in point of interest, if possible, a little in advance of any similar meeting yet held in the county. All preachers are delegates ex-officio without appointment or special invitation. Further particulars will be given next week.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.—Since my last the farmers have here housed their hay, and are now busy denuding the grain fields. The hay crop in this part of Penn's Valley was unusually good. Some farmers report having stored away one hundred loads. Others left fields uncut, their barns being full. Rev. James Wilson, D. D., of New York, son of the venerable Peter Wilson, of this place, is at home spending his summer vacation. Two of his sons are with him, and Mrs. Wilson is expected in a few days. On last Sabbath evening he treated the people of this vicinity to one of his characteristic sermons. The church was crowded with attentive listeners. Quite a number of summer visitors are rusticated at this place. Prof. Reiter reopened his Academy last Monday; hope he may have a full school. Mr. I. J. Grenoble has issued notices that on and after Monday, July 17, he will bring prices down to the lowest basis, and sell exclusively on the cash system. Mr. Al. Miller and wife, of Tyrone, are visiting their parents. The serious illness of Mr. James McCormick, of near Centre Hall, was the cause of their present visit, Mrs. Miller being a daughter of Mr. McCormick.

PLEASANT GAP JOTTINGS.—Haymaking and harvesting are about over in our vicinity, and a general good feeling pervades the farming community, both as to the good crops, hay especially, and the splendid weather which we had. Last Sunday evening Mr. Josiah Zeigler and Miss Elmira Stone, two of our gay young people, were united in matrimony, by Rev. Laurie, of Bellefonte. Henceforth they will be two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one. We sincerely congratulate them. The festival was very much of a success, being conducted entirely by a few of the honest ladies of the place, none of the gentlemen had anything to do with the executive or financing department. Miss Alpha Corman has gone on an extended visit to the southern and eastern part of this State and Maryland. Well! John, the tombstone man, has really left us for good, having gone to Iowa to join his wife who has been visiting there for nearly a year. They had their furniture sent to them one day last week. Three of our former neighbor ladies were with us part of last week, Mrs. Henry Harman, Mrs. E. D. Noll and Miss Cora Noll, visiting and gathering raspberries. Call again. Our stalwarts are decidedly quiet on the gubernatorial issue judging from the look of quiet determination upon their usually sunny faces they evidently think that their candidate's goose is cooked. It is just barely probable that some of the beneficiaries might have some of their affairs unpleasantly examined should victory perch upon the banners of the Democrats. We are glad to say that R. P. Barnes, our P. M., is once more able to attend to the duties of his grocery and postoffice after his illness. The Judge says hooping cabbage is hard work but it makes money. Last Wednesday evening Mr. Blackburn delivered a temperance lecture here in the M. E. church. Mr. James Noll is soon going away to Lancaster to attend school. Success to you, SHINSONS.
